THIS IS AMERICA!

FADS 'N FASHIONS
By LOIS AND NIKI

Hi Everybody,
Spring, Spring, and more Spring! Boy it really does things to you, doesn't it kids? Has your spring fever bothered you yet? Bet if it hasn't it won't be long until it comes knocking your way, and look out.
By the looks of the Association Party last Friday night it was really an affair, especially with all the boogie and dreamy music too. There were loads and loads of other couples dressed "fit to kill" and the stag lines too. Anyway, everybody had lots of fun, and all were dressed to start the Spring Season on the right foot.

HAIR DOINGS
All girls (our apologies to Caesar) may be divided into three parts. Or maybe we should say "three groups." First there are the girls who like their hair the way it is. Smallest group. Then there are the girls who do not like their hair the way it is. Next in numbers. And third there are the girls who think their hair looks all right, but are always open to suggestions as to how they can do it differently. There are quite a lot that share this opinion.
If you do not like your hairdo, or if you think you'd like a change once in a while, the thing to do is to experiment. But in order to get satisfactory results, it's a good plan to keep in mind a few basic rules, such as:
Thick Hair—or Thin?
You must consider your material in styling your hairdo. Thick, coarse textured hair with a good deal of body is more suitable for smooth tailored pobs like the page boy. If your face seems to need a gentler frame, the ends of the bob may be worn in softly brushed-out curls—provided you are willing to take the trouble to roll them up nights on curlers, and to brush well. Proper shortening and thinning are very necessary in shaping thick hair to fit the head. Thin, fine hair looks more important if it's fluffed a bit. If yours is thick and curly you are lucky, but a mild end permanent often makes a useful substitute for naturally thick hair.

Big Girl — or Little-
The size of your hairdo should be scaled not only to the size of your head and face, but also to your whole figure. It's a good plan to check with the full-length mirror. A big, bushy mane can make a large girl look larger and a small girl seem smaller. This year be particularly careful not to wear a bulky hairdo. The shorter, neater haircut is becoming popular, and you won't feel right with too much hair hanging down your back or cluttering your forehead.
The most important thing about any hairdo is that the hair itself shall be "clean as clean." Any hairdo must be trained to keep in line, and this is especially true of a new hairdo. It must learn its job before it gives you perfect service—and you're the one to teach it to hold its own.
That's all for this time, see you all around.
Bye Now,
Niki & Lois

RUTHLESS COMMENTS

BY RUTH B.

We hope that those attending the Association party appreciated the pussy-willows that Bob Roberts went out to the wilderness to pick. He returned to our metropolis with mud two inches thick (on his car). Better watch those country roads, Bob. But, after all the trouble he went through, he wasn't feeling so well when the dance was over. Maybe he was lonesome, maybe.

Saturday night was quite a night for parties and traveling.

One party was held at the Country club, with Dan, Bubbles, Duck, and the rest present. Jean Redinger and Moe and Eileen Guiler and others seemed to be having a wonderful time, as the phrase goes. We'd like to mention a couple of others, but we don't know whether Oyster and Fred got to the party or not.

Now for the traveling. A group of our fair students, including Niki, Sammac, Elaine, Parlo, Don Wright, and Scott McCorkhill set out Saturday night to pick up two Salem High musicians, namely Bill Scullion and Gene Schaffer. These two also helped to supply the music for the Association party. But, anyhow, a good time was had by all. Makes us just absolutely frustrated when we think of going riding on these lovely Spring days and having no car in which to go!

Salem High seems to have three new musketeers in Zeke, Willie and Ed. Those boys really stick together, and one is very seldom seen without the others. By the way, Bill asked to have his name put in (along with Willie and Ed) in the matter of a little private party the three of them had a week ago. So, here you are, Zeke. Good enough?

Moe Hollinger and Louie Juliano have gone deep into debt since they started betting Mr. Jones milk shakes in his first period physics class. You should know by now that Herb never bets unless he's got a sure thing!

If anyone needs any spare parts for his car, we're sure Jack Crawford would be more than happy to supply them from the heap of "car" that remains of his.

COUPLE OF THE WEEK

The couple deserving the title for this week is Tweet Culberson and Barbara Pederson. Tweet also is editing a column, so one good turn deserves another. Barb is a very attractive junior girl who moved here last year and is already quite active in school affairs and such. Good luck to you!

Just a reminder here for all of us to save those "tax stamps" for the Youth Center. They got it going for us, and it's up to each and everyone to see to it that it stays open. It's the only place there is to dance and play around, so let's take care of it. (Plug, plug!)

Here are a few of the couples that attended the dance last Friday night:

- Joe Ferreri and Billie Finley.
- Sarge Ware and Martha Flickinger.
- Rod Herron and Jackie Troll.
- Mutt and Jinny.
- Bob and Dutch.

Polly Ailes seems to have taken to horseback riding, what with her new horse and all. Maybe it's smoother riding than Chuck's truck. Everyone is supposed to laugh now!

Boys! Get dates for the Prom!

One of the nicest things about spring is the beautiful, green lawns. No one likes to see one of these lawns with a few muddy footprints here and there, and the owner of the lawn does not appreciate your walking on it, either. Of course, everyone likes to get out among the grass and flowers, but the grass just isn't ready to be trampled on. If you don't happen to have a nice lawn of your own, you can help others to have one by not making paths across theirs on your way to and from school. So remember, the next time you are inclined to cut across a lawn, just think twice before you do so.

Have Pity On Poor Books

"Oh, my," said the little school book. "My master has folded my back again. I can't stand this treatment much longer."

Maybe school books don't have feelings, but it couldn't make much difference to some people even if they have feelings. They would tear the pages, fold the back, break the binding, and do whatever else it takes to make a next text book old.

Books, in case you don't know it, are quite expensive now. It takes a good deal of money to supply 800 pupils with books, especially when they have to be bought so frequently, due to ill-use.

Books are your gateway to success. Why not use them as such?
