ASSOCIATION DRIVE IS SUCCESSFUL

Our New Students

Salem High School is proud to say that it has about 20 new students to brighten its walls. We hope that they will like Salem High and we want them to do all they can to make our school better in every way

There are five new graduates: Mary Margaret Burke from Roselle High, Roselle, N. J. She is a new member of the Hi-Tri club; Cecil Conser from Hanoverton High School; Carroll Mohr from East Boston High; Carrie Nichols from Fairfield Centralized High, Washingtonville, Ohio; Dan Whitehill from Clarion High, Clarion, Pa. Dan has begun helping High School by joining the band.

The Junior Class boasts of four new members: Paul Arbogast from Goshen High. Paul is interested in Forestry; Catherine Mammond from Lisbon High, Lisbon, Ohio; Marion Hatch from Chardon High, Chardon, Ohio. Marion is a member of the French Club; Anna Jones, Long Beach High, Long Island, N. York; Michael Merino after working at Indiana has returned to school; Lynn from Lincoln High, Van Dyke, Mich. Lynn has joined the Hi-Y; Hazel Charleton from Lisbon High, Lisbon, Ohio. Hazel is a member of the Latin Club.

The Sophomore Class has 4 new members. Harvey Dawson has attended several schools last year: Evanstone Public School, North Shase Country, Day School, etc.; Harold Houghton from Redford High, Detroit, Mich.; Thomas Hudson from Cannonsburg High, Cannonsburg, Pa.; Dorothy Thurow from Oswego High, New York.

The Freshman Class has 4 new members. Helen Charleton from Guilford High, Guilford, Ohio; Virginia Hilditch and Ruth Jones from Long Beach Junior High, Long Island, N. Y.; Gerald May from St. Patrick's School, Leetonia, Ohio; Charles Plues from Norwin High School, Irving, Pa.

CHANGE IN SENIOR SPEECHES

The student body will no longer have to endure the strain of listening to Senior Speeches during assembly. From now on, the Senior Speeches will be delivered in 206 in the presence of the Seniors only. They will be given during the activity period. This new change will save the much needed time of the students which was formerly taken up by assembly.

NEW FACULTY MEMBERS

Who, Why and Whence

Miss Lehman, the new librarian, hails from Manchester, Indiana. Although new to the High School, she has taught in the fourth grade in Prospect school previously. She has had four years experience in library work in Manchester College. Miss Lehman likes our library system and also our students.

Our short-hand and typing instructor, Miss Ross, comes from Canton, Ohio. She is a graduate of Bliss College, Columbus, and also the Wheeling Conservatory of Music, where she is a member of Order of Gredd Artists.

Miss Lawn, the French teacher, is from Alliance, Ohio and is a graduate of Mount Union College. She likes Salem students very much.

Miss Ritt, the new domestic science teacher, is from Circleville, Ohio, and is a graduate of Purdue University.

Mr. McCullough, our new band director, comes to us from Wooster, Ohio, and is a recent graduate of Wooster College. He had three years' experience as leader in the Wooster Band.

Our new chemistry teacher, Mr. Jones, is from Columbus, Ohio, and is a graduate of Ohio State University.

Mr. McCord, the assistant athletic instructor, is from Ashville, Ohio, and is graduated from Ohio University of Athens, University of Illinois and Ohio State.

The home of Mr. Ray, mechanical drawing teacher, is in Columbus, Ohio. He is a graduate of Ohio Northern College and is attending Ohio State.

We feel that we have a very fine group of new teachers in our school so let us, the student body, do our part in making them like Salem High.

DIRECTOR DECLARES BAND FINE

"What the band lacks in number it makes up in quality", stated Mr. McCulloch, our new band leader. We gathered from this that he is pleased with our band. Above all he appreciates the work of its members and their willingness to tackle anything. The drum-major is a fine worker and his leading in the drills adds greatly to the value and appearance of the band.

At least five new uniforms are to be purchased, but first there must be someone to fill these uniforms.

Especially needed are trombone, clarinet, and horn players.

With the money received from the entertainment given by the Elks Club, the band expects to buy two or three new instruments, new music and some special trappings for the drum-major so as to have his uniform different from that of the rest of the band.

The outlook for the future of the band is bright and each and every member deserves the backing of the entire student body.

FIRE DRILL PLEASURES OFFICIALS

The fire drill held Monday, Oct. 7, was one of the most successful in the history of the school. The pupils deserve to be congratulated on the splendid way in which they conducted themselves at that time. There was no confusion or noise.

Every student walked out of the building in a calm, quiet manner as though nothing had happened. The inspectors were very much pleased with the way it was done and we hope that every drill hereafter will be as successful.

BIG INCREASE IN NUMBER OF STUDENTS

There has been a decided increase in the number of pupils attending Salem High School this year in comparison with that of last year and of the preceding years. There are approximately fifty more students in the school at the present time. Most of these come from the Freshman class and several students from other towns have entered the other three classes. The Freshman class of last year had 205 members while this year there are about 236 members. Thus it appears that the number of students attending high school is increasing.

The Senior class does not show such an improvement since there will be four or five less to graduate than there were last year. In the present Senior class, the boys outnumber the girls while in the class of '29 the girls had the upper hand.

Results of New Plan Fine

The new association plan seems to be appreciated by the students of Salem High School. Their appreciation is made evident by their support of the plan. At the present time there are 525 members; the membership of each room is as follows:

Junior High	...51 members
Room 10730 members
Junior High	...51 members
Room 10730 members
Room 10921 members
Room 20025 members
Room 20120 members
Room 20222 members
Room 20326 members
Room 20427 members
Room 20526 members
Room 20690 members
Room 20715 members
Room 20827 members
Room 30018 members
Room 30430 members
Room 30221 members
Room 30321 members
Room 30528 members
Room 30629 members
Room 30923 members

Although the campaign is over Mr. Springer has sent a notice to the various rooms stating that subscriptions will be taken in his office.

By this association plan each student is able to attend the football games, the basketball games and the track meets for a smaller sum than that of previous years. Now that night football games are to be played we are getting a better bargain still. Non-subscribers to the association must pay seventy-five cents admittance to each night game, while subscribers pay only four and one-half cents.

The question may arise—how is the school going to make a profit by charging students only four and one-half cents. The answer is obvious when one considers the greater number of parents that will be able to attend the games.

Formerly they had to pay twenty-five or fifty cents for the children and now that they pay only four and one-half cents they can afford to attend the games themselves.

Due to the fact that Junior High has been anxious to join the Association they have been permitted to do so and already they have fifty-one members. They will not enjoy quite as many advantages as the High School but they will be sure to get their money's worth.

SETTLING DOWN

Now, that the first six weeks period is completed and the students are better acquainted with their work as well as their teachers, there is a more home-like feeling. Each pupil knows what his teachers expect; and is at last used to the ways of school life. Since it is near the first of November, almost half of the first semester, it is a necessary time to settle down to work and forget the excitement of the first few weeks.

Perhaps your grades were not so good the first six weeks. Now is the time for improvement. Since the first six weeks is past, the teachers will not be so lenient and will expect a lot more of you. Why not make up your mind to start now and show them what you can really do. It is not so hard. Put your whole heart and soul into your work and do your best. Remember that your teacher's first impression of you usually stays with her. If you did not make a good impression it is up to you to begin to better it.

A good start the first semester means interest in your year's work. Making good grades adds enjoyment to your high school course, besides entitling you to its extra-curricular activities.

The students of Salem High extend their deepest sympathy to Louis Shilling in his recent bereavement, the death of his father.

CANDY SALES

The Senior class has made good progress in its sale of candy, pop, and hot-dogs at the stand at Reilly Field. So far they have cleared $57.97. With L. M. Hovermale as chairman and K. Cox, H. Carpenter, J. Greenisen, C. Christain, G. Whinnery, D. McGaffic, T. Cane, M. F. Ressler, P. Lieder, and V. Simpson as helpers the committee has done a great deal of good work.

The class certainly appreciates the new stand which was the gift of last year's Senior Class. Since the stand is permanent it saves considerable time and labor.

Football Fans, Notice!

Recent comments were published in the Salem News relative to the football suits the Reserve team wore in the Akron West game. We feel that the public has been misinformed as to what the athletic association is doing for the team and we want them to feel that the association is backing the team.

Through the active cooperation of the team, it has been made possible to buy the best equipment. This year twenty-four new suits were purchased along with other special equipment.

At the Akron West game fifteen of these suits were sent to Akron which left only seven at home. Although this game was contemplated not nearly so many were expected to turn out. Since many more players were used in the game here than were planned for, a number of last year's suits were used. These were in passably good condition although the contrast of the red and black of these suits with the blue jerseys of this year's suits was misleading. With this brief explanation, we feel that the fans will stand behind the association with confidence.

FOOTBALL BY NIGHT

Friday, Oct. 11, Salem High School plays its first football game by night. Salem is the first school in the state of Ohio to install this new method of playing football.

This method was first suggested by Mr. Alan. It has been tried out in several other places and has been found most successful. There are ten very large poles erected at various intervals around the field. On these are placed fourteen lights. These lights contain 3,000 watts each. The light is distributed evenly over the field and there is no glare whatsoever. A newspaper can easily be read in the middle of the field. The game holds the attention of fans much more closely just as the pictures at a movie hold the eyes of the audience.

Salem High is particularly proud of its new improvement and we hope that it will draw more crowds and make football much more interesting.

SENIOR CLASS MEETING

The Senior class held its first real meeting in 206 at 1:00 P. M. on Friday, October 11. Glenn Whinnery, the president presided over it. The purpose of this meeting was to elect the commencement speakers. They are: Glenn Whinnery, Lois Greenisen, Jim Pidgeon, Newell Portorf, Laura Mae Hovermale, Walter Theiss, Ralph Phillips, and Helen Walton. In case the honor graduates aren't included in the previous list the last three will act as alternates.

As an increase in attendance is looked for at our night games, we expect our candy business to be very prosperous.

Assemblies

TUESDAY ASSEMBLY

The Assembly, Tuesday, Sept. 24, was our yearly treat.

Mr. Alan, superintendent of Salem public schools, addressed the student body.

The importance of a college education was stressed by the superintendent as the main point of his address.

The development of an imagination was also stressed as an important matter, together with the maintenance of good physical condition.

Friday Assembly, Sept. 27, 1929

Mr. Springer gave several important announcements at the opening of the assembly Friday morning.

The cheer leaders lead in a number of cheers and songs. The High School Band directed by Mr. McCulloch, rendered several selections.

FRIDAY, OCT 4, 1929

The assembly Friday morning was opened by announcements from Mr. Springer.

As our special speaker we had Mrs. Cartwright, from the state board of health. She pointed out the values of getting away from the so-called blind-alley occupations. Her talk was appreciated by all, and later in the day she talked to the girls, then to the boys.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, OCT. 4

A short assembly was held Friday afternoon at which time the editorial staff of The Quaker, gave a little playlet. The Quakers were distributed by the business staff.

Teacher: Can you tell me what a waffle is, Johnny?
Johnny: Yes'm. It's a pancake with a non-skid tread.

Miss McCready: Who was that who laughed aloud?

Frosh: I did ma'am; but I didn't mean to do it.

Miss McCready: You didn't mean to do it?

Frosh: No ma'am; I laughed up my sleeve and I didn't know there was a hole in my elbow.

Bill Smith: What do you like most about my girl?

K. Coppock: Both my arms.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1929

Mr. Springer had a little surprise for us, when he stated that there would be night football.

Mr. Kessel mire from the Elks lodge, explained how they are going to help the High School Band. The quartet from "Roxy and His Gang," will be here, Oct. 18, so it is up to the students of Salem High to help make this a success.

Assembly Friday, Oct. 11, 1929

The assembly Friday morning was held in the auditorium, at which time several announcements were made by Mr. Springer.

He announced that there are now 600 members in the association. The Club winners of the contest were as follows:

Hi-Y with 145 members.

Hi-Try with 109 members.

Salemasquers with 39 members.

The Band played several selections that were appreciated by all. After a few cheers we were dismissed.

STONE MEN FIGHT FOR 19-12 VICTORY OVER AKRON WEST

Slow to get started in the first half, our boys showed their Salem High spirit with fight and determination in the second.

The West team unable to buck our line after the kickoff, punted to our twenty-yard line. We attempted to kick into a better position, but the punt was intercepted and carried across our line by one of the Akron linesmen. The extra point felled in a line buck.

Akron's scoring so early in the game took the pep out of our team for a while.

At the beginning of the second quarter with the Akron team driving us back, after recovering a fumble from our backfield, possibility of our scoring seemed hopeless. After a long pass Akron pushed us back for another touch down, but again failed to make the extra point.

The ending of the second quarter showed our boys beginning to play football. Sammy returned a punt to West's 20 yard line and again made a 20 yard gain as he intercepted a pass from Whinnery. Several successful plunges and Whinnery carried the ball across. Beck made the extra point with a place kick.

With the score 12-7 we were still five points behind as the whistle blew for the second half. A 20 yard penalty against West put the ball on her 20 yard line. Salem crashed through to West's 1 yard line and Whinnery again carried the ball across. This put us 1 point ahead.

West rallied later in the third quarter pushed us back to our 2 yard line. It took real stuff to hold them there for four downs, and when we succeeded even the Akron Students applauded our boys.

Although we pushed West to the limit during the final quarter it was only in the last few minutes that we were able to score again.

Bill Smith, taking French's place in the final period, intercepted a pass from Akron and carried the ball to West's 15 yard line, Beck grabbed a pass from Whinnery and made the final scoring.

RESERVES WIN

Salem reaped a double victory from Akron West last Sat. when our reserves unexpectedly defeated the heavier Akron second team. The comers showed what your new assistant coach, McCord, is doing for them, when they out-classed West during entire game.

Salem reserves piled up 13 points. Yarwood bucked both touch downs and Jack Carpenter scored the extra point by interrupting a pass.

Reese, Yarwood, Mike Corso, Early, Charley Quinn, and Jack Carpenter were the outstanding comers although the entire team played splendidly.

SALEM NEAR DEFEAT IN CLASH WITH CLEVELAND GRIDDEES

The Salem Warriors lacked the spirit that showed up so well last week when we defeated Akron West. For the first time this season our line was successfully repelled.

Again and again we fought our way to the Collinwood goal line, but with only a few yards to victory, the Collinwood linesmen pushed us back for losses. It was an off day for us, nothing worked.

Sammie's end runs which had flared so high in the Akron game failed to break loose, the backfield fumbled time after time when we most needed to hold the ball.

Lucky breaks of the game and good punting pulled us through one point the victors.

At the beginning of the first quarter, the teams seemed to be well matched. Later in the quarter Salem forged ahead after several punting combats and drive the Clevelanders to their one yard line. We failed to make the grade and lost the ball. Cleveland punted to a safe position.

In the second quarter Cleveland pulled some fast plays, tossing the ball around behind the line of scrimmage and faking. These plays fooled our boys for a while, but we soon got wise. As the second period drew to a close the Clevelanders grew anxious and completed a couple of 20 yard passes. After they had gained another 10 yards through our line, we were in quite a poor position. The ball being on our one inch line. Just as the Collinwood boys were gathering courage to shove the ball across for one inch, the gun blew at the half.

Bill Smith broke loose in the early part of the second half and completed several long dashes through

Wouldn't you like to know some of the schools with whom we exchange? Here are a few of them:

The Mariner, Ashtabula Harbor High, Ashtabula Harbor, Ohio.

The Bell, St. Mary's High School, Sandusky, Ohio.

Beall High Chime, Beall High School, Frostburg, Maryland.

The Observer, Wooster High School, Wooster, Ohio.

The Thielensian, Thiel College, Greenville, Pa.

The Dart, Ashtabula High School, Ashtabula, Ohio.

"The Dart", Ashtabula High School paper is featuring a new column, which is called the "Whoozit" column. Every week for fourteen weeks, a descriptive paragraph will be published about some upper-classman in Ashtabula High School. A blank printed below the paragraph must be filled in with the contestant's name, home room and the name of the student described. The student, who gets the most answers correct, receives a year-book for a prize.

the line. We were near to Cleveland's goal and attempted to use some aerial work. Whinnery jerked his arm back to send a pass to the right end, heaving the left end yell, he twisted back and out of the way of the oncoming Cleveland linemen as they rushed upon him. From that twisted position he shot the ball with unbelievable accuracy.

Beck nabbed it and dashed across the line. Cleveland was off sides as we attempted to buck the extra point and it was given to us. After the kickoff, Salem recovered the ball as Sartick intercepted a pass. Whinnery broke through the Cleveland line and was overtaken after a 60 yard race. Salem failed to buck across the line with only three yards to go.

Cleveland scored in the fourth quarter, but failed to make the extra point. Later in the quarter we were in bad position several times, but Beck helped us out with his excellent punting.

Coach Stone is giving all the boys a stab at it. Skippy Greenisen is a real fighter and showed up well even though it was only his second game in football pants. Keys substituted for Bailey in the final period.

FIRST NIGHT BATTLE VICTORY FOR STONE'S TEAM

Playing their first game with a lily-white pigskin in the Salem High Warriors put out best showing of the season. Led on by the roar of a mammoth crowd the Salem lads bucked up against the toughest line they have hit.

Warren held us to a standstill during most of the first quarter, gaining through our line and stopping our skippy end runs. tion, but Beck's fine punting pulled us out of the hole.

Several times we were in bad position. In the third period the Salem boys began to show some fight. Time and again, August Corso broke through to nob the warren backs before they could move from their tracks. Beck again intercepted a pass from Warren and tiptoed up the sideline for 20 yards. An aerial attack took the ball to Warren's 10 yard line. The Warren line held and we lost the ball.

It seemed as if the game would end with a tie score, when suddenly Bill Smith spotted a pass and ran 40 yards for a touchdown. Salem attempted to win the extra point by a line buck, but it failed.

Sammy completed a long pass from Whinnery and carried the ball across the line, but Salem was off sides and the ball was brought back. During the last quarter Salem approached to scoring line, but failed to break Warren's defense.

Warren made desperate efforts to get away with a long pass, throwing the ball twenty-five or thirty yards. Each time the ball was intercepted by our men or fell short of its goal.

We came out of our fourth consecutive victory with the line-up again changed. Coach pulled Yates over to the end position and filled his place with another of the Corso family.

With every inch of bleacher and standing room jammed full of living enthusiasm, and in spite of the great crowd of people, every one was taken care of and things went smoothly.

Salem High faculty members planned a picnic supper at Mill Creek Park, but on account of rain, the lunch was eaten in the dining room of the domestic science department. After the initiation of the new members, the group went to the Quaker Tea Room where bridge was the main diversion.

Evelyn Gamble with friends, motored to Johnson, Pa., where they spent Saturday and Sunday with some friends.

Lois Hoffman visited with her mother, Mrs. A. E. Koerth in Detroit last week.

Miss Oelschlager, Miss Ritt, and Miss Lehman spent Saturday in Cleveland a week ago.

Vivian Parks visited relatives in Ashland, Ohio last Sunday.

Wilma Hines spent Saturday, October 5th in Cleveland with other friends from Salem.

INITIATIONS HELD

SALEMASQUERS

The following people made a successful try-out, and after initiation, are being admitted to the Club.

From the Senior class we have Zelda Groves, Ralph Phillips, Fred Smith, Elizabeth Snyder, and Walter Theiss.

From the Junior class there are George Ballentine, Lewis Benedict, Joseph Hertz, Leonard Krauss, Rudolph Linder, Desmond Mullins, Louis Shilling, Dale Wilson, Leila Beck, Nellie Beck, Barbara Benzinger, Lucille Dickinson, Ruth Glass, Garnet Lodge, Susan Lutsch, Harriet McArtor, Winifred Ospeck, and Margaret Steele.

Part of the initiation was put on at the football game Friday night. The girls were garbed in sweaters and skirts worn backwards. They were allowed no makeup whatsoever and so hid their faces with a veil. The boys wore their trouser-legs inside their socks and their other clothing was likewise ridiculous. During the course of the game, they were forced to lead cheers, for both Salem High and Warren. Really it was most embarrassing for the new members at times. It is quite evident, however, that they enjoyed it all for they all took it in a good sportsmanship way.

Those who were not initiated this time will have the pleasure of entertaining the members of the club with their antics in the near future.

HI-TRI INITIATES TWELVE

The Hy Tri Initiation began Friday morning October 4. All new members had to wear gym shoes, middies and skirts, black cotton ribbed stocking and large green ties.

On October 5, twelve new members of Hy Tri were initiated. After the football game, members went out to Margaret Riech's cottage at Dheil Lake. Each one took her share of food. We had our supper there.

Different committees were appointed to do the work of preparing the meals, keeping the fire going, and doing odd chores. The initiation began about 8:00 Saturday evening.

About nine-thirty more members arrived. It was then that the initiation began in earnest. This part of the initiation lasted until 11:00. We then roasted weiners and toasted marshmallows. It was almost twelve before we began our preparation for bed. Twenty-two stayed all night. Some made their beds on the floor in front of the fire place, others on cots, in beds, and three arranged their blankets on the porch.

The most important honorable royal potentate read from the Bible and then read two stories. (In the morning she told us what the stories were about.)

The three who were to sleep on the porch contented themselves with singing and finally with throwing water on their sleeping comrades inside. About 3:00 A. M. they were overcome with sleep.

On Sunday morning, after breakfast was over, the girls could do as they pleased. Some went boat riding, canoeing and some went tramping. Four or five laid the trail for the treasure hunt. Later the girls followed the trail, but were unable to find the treasure.

Some of the girls went to Church at Ellsworth. Those who remained at the cottage prepared the dinner. Miss Smith and Miss Ritt were guests for dinner.

In the afternoon we built a fire down on the rocks and toasted marshmallows. The girls then looked for the treasure, but they looked in vain. Finally the one who hid the treasure, had to find it herself.

We came home about 5:00 P. M. Sunday.

Your daughter takes after her mother, doesn't she?

Yes—that is, if there's any thing left in my pocket.

She: What have you there?

He: Some insect powder.

She: Good Heavens! You aren't going to commit suicide?

Soak: Shay, Frien! Do you know where I could get a posishun?

Ditto: What kind of posishun?

Soak: Reclining.

She: Could I try on that blue blue dress in the window?

He: Why, er, that's the lampshade.

Master of His Fate

It was springtime in New York. The night was peaceful, calm, as a smooth, unruffled pond. The world was at peace too, for there was absolute and complete silence in the little suburb of the huge city.

In deep contrast to the serenity of the scene was the dark figure of a man, pacing to and fro, back and forth across the veranda of a well-kept house. Hidden, as he was, by the darkness, he was undisturbed in his endless walking. One could not have seen the agitation on his face nor any signs of the struggle that was going on within his soul.

After awhile he gave up his useless pacing, and retired to his bed where he lay tossing until the first streaks of dawn touched the eastern sky, banishing darkness.

The man was Philip Norris, once promising young artist of New York, now a thoroughly miserable boy. He had been told that day by a world famous physician that he would never use his arm again.

"Oh, the irony of it all!" he almost sobbed. And he felt justified in his attitude.

He had fought in the World War, came through without injury and then on his way home had been in a train wreck that had seemed to paralyze the nerves in his arm.

And Another Thing—

Why not clean up the halls and lockers and keep them that way? A dirty hall and dirtier lockers will never get any school a prize. It seems that the lockers are always littered with papers which fall to the floor and which are never picked up by the owner of the locker.

Why wouldn't it be a good idea if the job of inspecting the lockers was given to the monitors? Each monitor could be responsible for his own hall during his period and then at a certain period set by the Principal the lockers could be inspected by the already-snoopy monitors. Since the students as a whole do not co-operate with the teachers in keeping the halls and lockers clean, it is now up to the monitors to do something so as to make our school cleaner and neater.

Why not follow up the suggestion with some action????

Old Lady: And how were you wounded?

Soldier: By a shell.

Old Lady: Did it explode?

Soldier: No, it crept up close and hit me.

—Q—

Alta: It's scandalous to think they are going to charge you all that money for towing three or four miles, Skippy.

Skippy: Never mind, dear, I'm getting back at them. I've got the brakes on.

—Q—

Visitor: So, that's a purebred cow you have there? And what, may I ask, is his name?

R. Hoopes: Well, I'm sorry, sir, but I have memorized only the first three paragraphs of it yet.

—Q—

Mr. Williams: What is the shape of the earth?

Shriver: Round.

Mr. Williams: How do you know it is round?

Shriver: All right, it is square, then; I don't want to start any argument.

—Q—

Miss Smith: Plenty of exercise will kill germs.

"Chuck" Metz: How are you going to get them to exercise?

The excited traveling man stopped at a filling station. He filled his wife with gasoline, kissed his road map good-bye, and tried to stick his automobile in his pocket.

—Q—

Miss Workman: (In New York) Is there any speed law here?

Cop: Naw, you motorists can't go too fast for us.

—Q—

Naragon: Was your brother home from college over the week end?

Freshman: I guess so; my toy bank is empty.

—Q—

Beck: I can't find a single pin. Where do they all go to anyway?

Coach Stone: It is hard to tell, because they are pointed in one direction and headed in another.

—Q—

Traveler: How much can you drink, Scotty?

Scotchman: Oh, any given amount.

—Q—

Freshman (at supper table): I guess our teacher does not know very much.

Mother: Why dear, you must not talk so of your teachers; what makes you think that?

Freshman: 'Cause she's all the time askin' us kids questions.

But whatever it really was, his plans for the future had been ruined.

The bitterness in Philip's heart grew and flourished. It reigned supreme. He retired to his home in the country so that he might not encounter the pitying looks and words of his friends. With no other interests to occupy his mind, he brooded over the unfortunate accident until it seemed that he had lost faith in every one and everything.

He began to lose faith in the God that he had been taught to love from earliest childhood.

"Why would an omnipotent, loving Being such as He is said to be allow such a ghastly thing to happen?" he mused.

And he seemed to forget that other people had burdens to bear equally as heavy as his own.

One day he was called to a nearby cottage by the death of the wife of a former employee of his, dead now for several years. It fell to his lot to take charge of affairs at this time.

OUR SCHOOL

I just started going to school
Boy! It is "hot."

We have the town's best looking girls
And that it is quite a lot.

Our football team? Why, they are champs;
They never do get beat.
They hold their rivals near our goal
Then, knock them off their feet

You're sure to hear some real good tones
When our band walks the town.
McCullough's our instructor, and
He knows his "ups and downs."

We have an editorial staff
And they surely know their stuff.
When you read our magazine
You just can't get enough.

We call this book the "Quaker".
You read the latest news.
You learn what's doing in our school
It chases off the blues.

We'd like to have you read this book.
So go to Caplan's "Sanctum"
Subscribe for this our magazine.
And later you will thank 'em.

Clubs

GLEE CLUB

The Girls Glee Club under the direction of Grace P. Orr that was organized last year is continuing its work. The membership has been increased to twenty and they expect to add more later in the year. At the first meeting the officers elected were Celesta Fultz, President, and Elizabeth Snyder Sec. Treasurer. Meetings will be held every Thursday at 3:30 in the Auditorium. The Glee Club expects to sing various times throughout the year and at graduation.

—Q—

LATIN CLUB

Miss Horwell reorganized a Latin Club Tuesday, October 8, in 204 for the benefit of all students who have had one year or more of Latin and who are still interested even if Latin is not part of this year's schedule. Thirty-three Latin students turned out and the officers chosen were: President, Margaret Reich; Vice President, Isabel Jones Sec. Treasurer, Alta Moores. The club expects to give Latin plays and songs in their meetings and hope to obtain slides illustrating Roman life at the time of Caesar. A Latin name will be chosen for the club at their next meeting.

The French and Science Clubs of last year and a new club for the benefit of Spanish students will be organized soon.

—Q—

HI-Y

Thursday, October 10, (11:30 A. M.)—The Hi-Y met in room 102 and the attitudes and qualities of fifty or sixty candidates for membership were discussed by the various members. Each member mentioned five or six candidates whom he had observed during the past week and their good and bad points were carefully considered.

The Hi-Y Club holds its meetings every Thursday in the Activity period to clear up business matters and to plan different activities for the school year.

Definite plans for the year have not been completed but members are considering joint meetings with the Hi-Tri and with the Hi-Y Clubs of other schools. A picnic, a wiener roast and last but not least the Hi-Y Fun Nite will be held during the year.

—Q—

TUMBLERS

On Oct. 9, the meeting of the Tumblers Club was held in the gym at noon. After the roll was called at 11:30, the members practised until 12:30. In the future, meetings will be held every Wednesday noon from 11:30 to 12:30. The officers for the year are as follows: Alfred Paxson, president; Clarence Walker, vice president; Dale Wilson, secretary-treasurer; and John Fritzman, assistant secretary-treasurer.
