

CERAMIC ARTS COURSE BEGUN HERE FOR ALL

A course in Ceramic Arts is now offered by the Columbiana County Emergency School Council in addition to its various other courses being taught at the present time in Salem.

Ceramic Arts, which is a study of the making of decorative pottery, includes the fashioning of bowls, vases, candle-holders and decorative animal forms, and a practice in glazes.

The class meets in the Red Cross sewing rooms, South Broadway, each Tuesday afternoon and Friday evening, under the direction of Mrs. Ethel Hederick.

Anyone interested in the artistic phase of pottery making may enroll in the class.

The Salem China Company is reported to be lending full cooperation in aiding the progress of the class.

SALEM DEBATERS DOWN PALESTINE

In a close debate Salem's affirmative team won from East Palestine's negative team last Tuesday night at East Palestine.

This marked the fourth victory out of five debates for Salem's debate squad this season. This coming Monday night the Salem team will debate against Ravenna at Mount Union college. The outcome of this debate will determine the 1934 winners of this district.

This has been the most successful season in Salem High school's debating history.

FRESHMEN SELLING SLATES FOR FUNDS

A meeting was held by the officers of the freshman class. They decided to sell "Magic Slates" to raise money to help finance the Freshman-Sophomore party.

These novelties, the latest "fad", will be on sale soon and the students may purchase them for ten cents.

OPPORTUNITY HERE FOR UNDERCLASSMEN

Anyone interested in becoming next year's Quaker artist, please read the following instructions:

1. Anyone but a senior is eligible.
2. There are two divisions in the contest.
 - (a) Carving linoleum blocks.
 - (b) Making ink drawings for the annual.
3. In case a contestant is able to do both, two artists will not be selected.
4. All contestants report to

MUSIC PUPILS NOW PRESENTING VARIED PROGRAMS IN CLASS

The Salem High music classes, under the supervision of Miss Orr, are now presenting monthly programs of varied types during their regular class periods.

Students are chosen each month to prepare and sponsor the programs which are then presented before the music classes, several class members taking part on each program.

Vocal and instrumental selections, opera reviews, and biographies of famous musicians feature the programs.

THREE STUDENTS ENTER '34 CLASS

Three persons, Lezina Volio, Helen Tinsley, and Louis Wierick entered the senior class from the junior class at the beginning of the second semester.

The addition of these three students to the senior roll makes the total enrollment of this year's graduating class 151.

There are only two three-year students in this year's graduating class, Lezina Volio, and Margaret McCulloch.

BUSINESS MEETING HELD BY MONITORS

The Monitors club met Friday, Feb. 2. Katherine Taylor was in charge of the entertainment. A slogan game was played by the members.

A brief business meeting was in charge of Walter Papesch. The next meeting will be Feb. 16. Everyone should bring his dues.

STUDENT OFFICERS HELPING TEACHERS IN ACTIVITY CHECK

Association officers are now aiding teachers in their student activity check-up for the beginning of the second semester.

Each officer has three home rooms to take care of. He must check the student's grades with his activities and thus ascertain whether or not he is participating in a large number than his grades permit. A report of the investigation is then turned into the office.

Any student who is forced to drop an activity may resume it as soon as he raises his grades sufficiently.

CHURCH ENGAGES SALEM GRADUATE

Joe Marsilio, graduate of Salem High, has been engaged as soloist at the Church of the Covenant, Cleveland.

Joe had the honor of singing a number on the weekly concert of the Cleveland Symphony orchestra which is directed by Rodinski, a well known director.

Joe has been broadcasting over a Cleveland station and is now doing commercial broadcasting.

FRENCH CLUB PICKS PROGRAM STUDENTS

Members of the French club met in 201 last Tuesday after school. It was decided that program committees be appointed for the meetings for the remainder of the year. Ruth Kinney and Stella Kuniewicz have charge of the next program.

After the business meeting, Lotto was played in French. Dorothy McConnor was the winner.

SALEM TEACHER SICK 8 WEEKS; TO COME BACK

Mr. Englehart, mechanical drawing and auto mechanics teacher, who has been ill since Christmas vacation, is expected to return and continue his teaching in about two weeks.

Infection in front of the right ear was the cause of his illness. Twice when he was recovering infection set in again and caused further trouble.

Mrs. Englehart, home economics teacher, has discontinued her teaching for the present to take care of her husband in their home in Bucyrus.

Mrs. Koons, who is the sister of Mrs. Englehart and a home economics teacher also, has been acting as substitute teacher during Mrs. Englehart's absence. Mrs. Koons also lives in Bucyrus.

BAND TO PRESENT CONCERT SHORTLY

The high school band will give its first concert of the year February 28.

The first concert will be a free one with an offering. The pieces played will include some popular pieces, a trumpet duet, and other concert selections.

The band is striving to make some money to buy new uniforms for the coming year, '34-'35.

CHILLICOTHE GIRLS POSSESS ABILITIES

The girls in the gym classes of Chillicothe must be able to make two foul shots out of six, throw a basketball forty-five feet, make two good volleyball serves out of five, do a soccer kick and a forward roll before they will receive credit for their work, says the "Mound-Builder," the paper of Chillicothe high school.

GUARD REASONING SENSE

As is the case with both the Cubans and Mexicans, and now the French, radical ideas have influenced the minds of the people to such an extent that they no longer stop to reason matters and problems out sensibly, but permit themselves to be emotionally carried away by radical speakers whose oratory destroys peaceful, passive attitudes, and causes the people to take up arms for a cause about which they know little, against rulers who perhaps have done nothing to warrant such revolt among their subjects.

We of the United States seem to retreat behind the belief that such radical behavior could never be ours. But however vague we may be in our consideration of the subject of revolution, socialistic radicals are persevering and determined, ever on hand to start trouble.

Now at a critical time in the lives of nations, we must guard ourselves against heeding propaganda, and do all in our power to discourage revolutionistic impulses in some of our people.

Times of unrest such as these, are ideal for the breeding of revolts, but in spite of this fact, our nation has remained composed while other nations have suffered under the force of revolts, some minor, some important.

COLLEGE EDUCATION IS USEFUL

Some young people go to college because, to them, or to their parents, a college degree is a stamp of social superiority; its lack, a social stigma. If this is their main aim in securing further education, they will not benefit as they should by a college course. One gets out of college, as out of everything else, in exact proportion to what he brings into it. Others go to fit themselves for a higher position in life than he could otherwise attain.

Many industries or vocations which used to require only an apprenticeship are now highly specialized with clearly divided branches of work. Agriculture, which once involved only a more or less traditional knowledge of the management of soils, crops, and livestock, coupled with ability to do a great deal of manual labor, has now become one of the most sought and highly specialized college courses. It is divided into various branches, such as the production of field crops, fruits, vegetables, flowers and ornamentals, dairy industries, poultry raising, bee-keeping, forestry, landscaping, marketing, the control of plant diseases and insects, agricultural journalism.

Life being a business of the survival of the fittest, it becomes the duty of each one of us to fit himself for life in the best way he is able to do.

PERSONALITY OBJECT OF EDUCATION

"The Weekly Newtonian" claims in an editorial that American institutions are victims of this present age of specializations.

The last paragraph of the editorial gives a solution for this.

"The trend in education must be social rather than mechanical," it reads. "Teachers must train themselves to teach students instead of subjects. It must be the ultimate aim of education to develop personality and life rather than a knowledge of subject matter."

What Do You Think?

Of the sportsmanship being displayed by the students of the school?

Mr. Lehman—Salem High school students are at heart the best sports in the world. The trouble is that they have mental lapses once in awhile.

Miss Horwell—The definition of a sportsman is: one not afraid to risk failure; a good loser and a gracious winner. Salem High students are always gracious winners but sometimes not good losers. Let's be both.

Miss McCready—In the excitement of the game and in our natural desire to win, we sometimes forget to be good sports. If we check upon ourselves often, we can overcome the stigma of poor sportsmanship.

WHOOSER

Tall and dark-haired is this young lady. Senior is her standing; 206 is her "home." She's a Hi-Tri, Sa-lemasquer and French club member. She's seen quite a great deal with a red-headed member of her own class and sex. She was in both the junior and senior plays and can she scream! 'Tis even said that she disturbed a Board meeting at play practice!

Last week Margaret Moff was described.

WHOOSIM

This little Freshman is blonde and blue-eyed. He comes from 300. He's a very small young man but that doesn't seem to make any difference in his attraction. His favorite occupation seems to be flirting with senior girls. (Tsk, tsk).

There seems to be quite a bond between him and the teacher in 303. Last week Robert Schaeffer was discussed.

student opinion

I think the basketball team is the best team I've seen here, since I've been in high school. With their accurate passing attack and fine coaching system they can accomplish much.

A. K.

Dear Editor:

Perhaps the students do not realize what a good debate team we have this year—thus the poor support.

The question for debate this year should be of vital interest to everyone for it concerns the radio. Almost everyone has one in his home and is interested in it some way or another.

Debate should be supported equally as much as the sports of our school for it is a student activity as much as the sports.

The debaters spend hours of toil and hard work in order that they may win for our school. They can not be at their best if they do not have good support.

Dear Grandma,
I am bothered with a young man forcing his attention upon me. I have given him no encouragement and have told him several times that I do not care for his attention, but he persists. What shall I do next?

Miss Perplexed.
Dear "Miss Perplexed",
The next time he asks you for a date, go with him. But be sure that you eat plenty of onions. After that I don't think he will bother you.

WHAT IS IT?

Q— Luke had it before, Paul had it behind,
Matthew never had it at all.
All girls have it once,
Boys cannot have it.
Old Mrs. Mulligan had it twice in succession.
Doctor Lowell had it before and behind,
And he had it twice as bad behind as before.
Q— Can you guess what it is?
Answer: The letter "L."

CLASS INCIDENTS

Q— In English class: "He seems half drunk part of the time."
Miss Cherry: Richardson's Pamela was the first English novel.
Ralph H.: Who wrote it?
Q— Teacher: What is propaganda?
Teddy B.: Isn't he that fellow over in India?
Q— "What is an heir of heaven?"
Student: It's the air you go to heaven on.

JOKES

Q— A teacher instructing a class in composition said, "Don't you attempt any flights of fancy; be yourselves, and write what is in you."
The following day a bright pupil handed in the following:
"We should not attempt any flites of fancy; rite what is in us. In me there is my stomach, lungs, heart, liver, two apples, one piece of mince pie, three stocks of candy, a hull lot of peanuts, and my dinner."

Q— Teacher—You know what the word mirror means, Tommy. After you've washed, what do you look at to see if your face is clean?
Tommy—The towel, sir.

Q— Captain Snyder: Smith, can you play ball?
Paul: Sure, I used to play in the league.
Snyder (surprised): What league?
Paul: Epworth League.

Q— "Do ya keep alkerhol in your radiator during the winter, Hi?"
"No, by cracky; I keeps it in my pocket and stay in the car."

"Miss Inquisitive"

I WONDER

What was that one "wild" night in the life of Bob Hertz.
Why Anne Varinaitis would like to visit the seventh period cooking class on Tuesday and Thursday. Is it because of that handsome brunette guard on the varsity squad? Ask her.
Who is the short, brunette sophomore from 108 that rode down Second street in a tan sedan after the Warren game, and yelled, "Yay, Charlie," (McCloskey).
If Ben Cope uses the words of "Temptation" to advantage.
What Jo Adams and Ruth Bair were doing on Rose street a week ago last Sunday evening. My, what charms that McCloskey lad possesses.

THE WEEK IN SPORTS

SALEM HIGH TEAM BEATS FAST RAYEN FIVE IN TILT HERE

Last Saturday night Coach Herbert Brown's Salem Quakers won their 10th game in 13 starts. The Quakers triumphed over the strong Youngstown Rayen flippers, conquerors of Canton McKinley's Bulldogs, by a 32-30 score after a breath-taking second half.

The Brownmen started slowly and Coach Lansing's crew piled up a 12-15 lead at the first quarter and Rayen, led by Cantwell and Wheaton, showed the way at half by 16-8.

The Quakers started things moving when the second half opened Pukalski, in the first few minutes of the second half, banged two consecutive shots through the hoop and from this time on bedlam reigned in the home court of Salem's scintillating crew. The Quakers, having found themselves, took the lead 23-21 at the termination of the three-quarter mark.

The score was tied four different times in the last half but the Salem onslaught was too much for the Rayettes and the score stood 32-20 at the conclusion of the final setto.

There was no individual star on the Salem team.

SAINTS TAKE SALEM IN SLOW CONTEST

The Akron St. Vincent basketballers easily out-classed Salem tossers in a slow game there last Friday night.

The Quakers started well, leading 8-7 at the quarter, but they then faded and the Saints stepped out to take a 19-10 advantage at half-time. After that it was all Akron with Salem away off form. The Quakers just couldn't click and the St. Vincent offense piled up points and went to the victory.

QUAKERS TO MEET STRONG BASKETEERS

Salem's Quakers travel to Alliance tonight to meet the Aviators in the second contest of the season between these two teams. Salem won the first game by a 25-12 score and is expected to win over their rivals again this evening.

Tomorrow night the Quakers meet a team new to the Salem basketball schedule. This team is Scienceville who has dropped only one game all season. Scienceville has won over Rayen, East Liverpool and other strong quintets.
