

Salem Delegation Enjoys Convention

To the Salem delegates attending the annual High School Journalism Convention in Columbus last Friday and Saturday it proved to be very beneficial and entertaining.

Harold Hoprich, John Evans, Bill Jones, Henry Pauline, and Don Beattie made up the Salem delegation. Mr. Lehman and Mr. Filgendorf also attended as faculty advisors.

The boys left early last Friday morning and returned Saturday evening after the Ohio State-Indiana football game.

While in Columbus they attended convention meetings and heard Vice President Marril of the Ohio State University speak. Also on Friday evening, at the fellowship banquet, T. M. Snyder, a noted journalist and traveler, spoke on the subject, "Keeping Ahead of the Headlines".

After a banquet there was a dance in the Grand Ball Room of the Neil House and music was furnished by Charlie Bennett and his orchestra.

Saturday morning was spent in discussions about the various phases of journalistic work among the different high school delegates. These discussions were conducted in the form of round table talks.

Saturday afternoon all the delegates to the convention were guests of the Department of Athletics of Ohio State University at the Ohio-Indiana game.

Mr. Lehman, faculty advisor was reelected to the executive committee of next year's convention.

Alumnus Broadcasts

Paul Strader, Jr., former student of Salem High school and now attending Ohio State University, was one of the speakers on the Ohio State debate team which broadcast a debate over the radio from Columbus, Nov. 3. The subject was: Resolved: That the several states should adopt a unicameral system of legislation. The purpose of the debate was to enlighten high school students on the subject.

Report Card Grades Listed

In a recent summary of Salem High school students' report cards for the first six weeks' period, it was found that 12 per cent of the grades given were A's and 27 per cent B's.

The other grades ranked as follows: C's, 40 per cent; D's, 18 per cent, and F's, three per cent.

According to this summary, conducted by Mr. Williams, principal, and other office officials, 435 A's were given, 1,035 B's, 1,503 C's, 634 D's and 132 F's.

Mr. Williams sent the results of this summary to all teachers for their use as may be necessary.

The Unbalanced Budget

Salemasquers Add 25 To Roll

Twenty-five students, eight seniors, 12 juniors, three sophomores and two freshmen, were taken into the Salemasquers as associate members last Monday.

The seniors are Steve Belan, Ruth Bowker, Gladys Whitacre, Esther Chappell, Betty Lee Lyons, Jean Scullion, and Mary Shriver.

The juniors are Avanelle Bard, Gwen Dean, Eugene Neale, Valois Finley, Stuart Wise, Jack Wright, Bill Wark, Mary J. Lora, Mary J. Britt, Ralston Smith, Mary Louise Emery, Margie Kniseley. Sophomores: Jane Tinsley, Sara Wonner, Cecelia Bradley. Freshmen: Lucia Sharp and Louis Raymond.

A short one-act play, "My Double and How He Undid Me," was presented, directed by Verna Carpenter.

It was decided to buy pins instead of emblems, as was formerly announced. The pins will have an appropriate crest which is to be chosen by a committee headed by Paul Meiers.

SHS Band to Go To Salem-Sharon Game

Mr. Brautigam, band director, announced that the Salem High Band will journey to the Salem-Sharon football clash next Saturday afternoon.

"The band's chances for attending this game depended entirely upon the team and they have played so splendidly and have drawn such fine crowds in their last few games we will be able to go to Sharon," Mr. Brautigam said.

A new formation is being worked out by the band and they have to have it well under hand by next Saturday for this game.

Although they will only need to form two "S" letters for tomorrow, the band plans to do it in a different fashion than in past games. The "S" will be double and will revolve while the band plays.

Lest We Forget

Standing for one minute in silent memory of the soldiers who lost their lives in the World war, Salem High school students paid reverence to the lost veterans on Armistice Day, Thursday, November 11.

Throughout the entire school the students stood in silence at 11 a. m. to express their reverence for the World war veterans who lost their lives in the war.

This plan is followed every year by Salem High.

Dads Honored at Salem-Dover Game

"Dads' Day" was inaugurated at the Salem-Dover game at Reilly field last Saturday afternoon.

Twenty-seven fathers of the varsity squad sat on the side lines and watched the Quakers battle to a 13-13 tie with the powerful Dover High school. Each Dad had his son's football number on his back, so he could be identified.

The Dads were introduced at half-time to the football fans who attended the game. The father of "Ollie" Olexa, the Quakers' triple-threat man, came all the way from New York State to watch his son play.

Science Classes Attend Movie

Members of the physics, industrial arts and auto mechanics classes attended a moving picture film entitled "Precisely So" in the auditorium last Monday morning. The film consisted of a review of old-fashioned means of measuring and some of the newer scientific methods.

Also, as an added film, there was a short safety film. This had to do with the safety patrol of the schools.

The pictures were sponsored by the Chevrolet division of the General Motors Corp.

Senior Stand Big Success

According to Miss Beardmore, the seniors are doing very well this season with their stand at Reilly Field. The intake at the Dover game was $37.06. One third of this, or $12.36 is profit. Many students cooperate with Miss Beardmore by selling candy, hot dogs, and pop. Those on her committee are: George Kleon, Lionel and Winthrop Difford, Betty Neal, Marjorie Kniseley, Gladys Whitacre, Charles Trotter, Mary Shriver, Mary Bohr, Jim Holdrith, Ethel Hine, and many others.

New Instrument Purchased For SHS Orchestra

New bells have been purchased by the board of education for the S. H. S. orchestra this year. This instrument is similar to the xylophone and is played in the same manner. At present the instrument is being played by the pianists.

In which to keep the music, 15 new folios have also been purchased by the board. The folios are black with white lettering. They have proven to be great time savers and help keep the music in good condition.

In preparation for the senior play, "The Yellow Jacket," for which the orchestra will furnish the music, several Chinese selections have been chosen. Many parts are missing, so it will be necessary for the members to transpose much of the music.

Student Council Holds Meeting

At a meeting of the Student Council a week ago Wednesday morning in the office, it was decided that at different intervals during the year the different classes will have charge of an assembly in which only members of that class will take part. The seniors will probably present their assembly first, being a little more experienced along this line.

The members of the Student Council are the class officers, and also the Association officers. Mr. Williams calls and presides at the meetings.

The members are Charles Wentz, Harold Hoprich and Stella Fidoe, senior officers; John Evans, Bill Rogers and Mary Louise Emery, junior officers; Robert Clark, Allen Fehr, Margaret Stewart, sophomore officers, and George Baillie, Bob Ballantine, Mary Alice Leipper, freshman officers.

The Association officers, also in the Council, are Harold Hoprich, Mary Helen Bruderly, and Bill Brooks.

Seniors Plan For Coming Party, Nov. 19

100-125 Students Expected to Attend

With an anticipated crowd of from 100 to 125, the Senior Class Party will get under way at 8 o'clock next Friday night.

Games, such as Bingo, Ping Pong, Badminton and other card games, will be added features of the regular dancing program. Card tables and nets for the games will be set along the sides of the dance floor in the gym.

A musical program will be given in the auditorium before the dancing and games begin.

Committees who are already at work are: Executive, Charles Wentz, chairman, Harold Hoprich and Stella Fidoe; Eats, Mary Helen Bruderly, chairman, Wallace Davis, Shirley Mae Davidson, Lionel Difford, Bob Hinton, Leah Leipper, and Elsie Hunter; Decoration, Bill Brooks, chairman, Betty Neal, Dorothy Theiss, Don Beattie, Mary Bohr, and Joe Vogelhuber; Entertainment in the gym; Charles Trotter, chairman, Margaret Simon, Ruth Thomas and Joe Bush. Senior teachers will act as advisors for the various committees.

Journalism Classes Visit Printing Plants

The first period journalism class visited the Youngstown Vindicator offices and the fourth period classes visited the Canton Repository plant, to see how a newspaper is assembled and printed.

The students went to the Youngstown plant last Wednesday afternoon. All journalistic students wishing to go were excused from their classes at 1:30.

The group which visited the Canton plant went Thursday afternoon.

The students were led through the plants and were shown how the news comes in by wire, how the paper is composed, set up, printed and folded.

From the trip the students got a wider knowledge of newspaper work and became acquainted with terms used in news work.

Similar trips have been made in previous years.

The Youngstown Vindicator recently moved its news plant to a new building.

It houses a modern press that turns out 87,000 papers in one hour and twenty-seven minutes.

Society News

Elizabeth Hart spent the weekend in Meadville, Pa. She attended the Allegheny-Thiel football game. The score was 20-0 in favor of Allegheny she reported.

Our Bulletin Boards

"Why weren't you at the club meeting last night?"

"Club meeting? What? I didn't know there was going to be a meeting. I must have missed the announcement in home room."

"It wasn't announced in home room. A notice was put on the bulletin boards."

"Oh, gee, I never read those!"

How many times this very thing has happened. Notices which secretaries of various clubs have bothered to write have not been read by all who should have read them.

During the home room periods, there are often too many other announcements to be made besides the ones concerning clubs and the like. We have bulletin boards for a purpose—the purpose of announcing things which can not conveniently be announced in home rooms, and these announcements are important.

Let's watch the bulletin boards!

Activity Periods During School Day

Salem High School has for years had activity periods after school. This practice has made it impossible for many students to join clubs because they have jobs after school.

While this method lasts, the clubs cannot be fully enjoyed by all the students who are interested in them.

In many schools a regular period, during the school day, is set aside for club activities.

This method allows all students an equal chance to join the activities of his liking.

The students not belonging to any clubs could spend the period in the library reading or could use it as a study period.

If club activities were held during the school day, students would become more interested and this would help in their social development.

Debate Team

Under the guidance of Mr. Guiler, the Salem High debate squad has been meeting every Tuesday, Thursday and Friday nights for the past two weeks. They are preparing for their first debate which will be held within the next few weeks here at the school.

G. A. A.

The G. A. A. continue their kick-ball tournament in the gym every night after school in the gym. Miss Hanna is in charge of the contest.

ture was the announcement of Miss McCready, advisor, last week.

GOAT-GETTERS

To have your mother call to you that it is getting late and then to discover that you are up one-half hour earlier than usual.

A person trying to tell why he failed a test when you're telling it yourself.

The fellow who tags your dancing partner when you are enjoying the most wonderful dance of your life.

A person who borrows your pencil and never returns it.

Person who wants to borrow your paper only to look at and then copies it.

To see some girl trying to make a hit with some boy, and ends up making a perfect fool of herself.

What is so rare as a mellow moon on a November is with the right person.

It is also an ideal night for a hayride.

That final score, Dover 13—make any more than that. Better 13 than nothing, though.

JOKE

Teacher: "Johnny, I'm surprised! Do you know any more jokes like that?"

Johnny: "Yes, teacher."

Teacher: "Well, stay after school."

How many of youse guys and

ANATOMY STUDY

An anatomy study from the John Adams Journal:

Forehead—the forehead is used, chiefly to keep the hair out of your face.

Neck—the neck upholds the head. If the head isn't placed right on your neck, you may be mentally unbalanced.

Ear—the ear is a receptacle for stray dust and "dirt".
Eyelash—The eyelashes are shades and should be pulled down when the eyes reveal too much.

"Twilight in Turkey" is still a good swingaroo. Have you heard "Mama, I Wanna Make Rhythm?" Cute.

Jones: "Sorry, old man, that my hen got loose and scratched up your garden.

Smith: "That's all right; my dog ate your hen."

Jones: "Fine. I just ran over your dog and killed him."

These girls in the "Maids of Salem" Club are right there—if you get what I mean and I think you do.

ODDITIES:

en shrimp eggs.

BEST PIECE THIS WEEK:

"Vieni, Vieni" as played by

While we're on the subject of music I'll print the words to this.
It's my favorite. Vieni, vieni, vieni, vieni, vieni, tu se bella,
bella, bella, bella, bella, bella,
waiting for you. Veeni, vieni,

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

This is not an editorial. You might call it a reply to the letter that appeared in the last Quaker, for the abolishment of our scandal columns. The person or persons who were responsible for this letter are, shall we say, jealous. It isn't the school, the staff, or the paper's fault their name isn't in the Quaker. This one certain class who are always trying to better something are, in reality, ruining them. Shall we allow them to do this to our paper? Proof shows that the main column in the paper is the scandal column. When the students get their Quakers on Friday afternoon, the first thing they do is open it to the so-called Scandal Column. This proof speaks for itself. Our paper is very popular with the students. Shall we destroy this popularity? Allow the student body to decide for themselves.
G. R. KLEON.

THOUGHTS BETWEEN CLASSES: I wonder if the people in Florida and California take advantage of the opportunity to swim the year around. I know I would, Oh, to be in their shoes!

I have noticed the havens for stayout-laters are the busiest between the hours one to three.

In my mind I'll always think of Diamond Jim Brady as looking just like Edward Arnold. Guess, it's because he suited the role perfectly to my notion.

Orrie Wright, sophomore, has quite a long walk every night after school. He walks Betty Burke home and she lives on the Benton Road. I can't blame him tho, she's cute.

BEST NOVELTY OF THE WEEK: "Let's Pitch A Little Woo" as played and sung by George Hall's orchestra with Dolly Dawn adding that certain undefinable something.

How many of you remember the songs that were most popular just a few years ago. In 1937 "Margie" was the hit. Now just ten years later "Sweet Varsity Sue" has climbed the ladder of popular renown.

It was just recently that I tracked down the year that, that ever popular song "Stardust", was first published. The result of my being a super-sleuth is that in 1922 "Stardust", was acclaimed a grand waltz.

GLANCES HERE AND THERE: Gloria Gibson "truck-in" . . . Theresa Hoff strolling down State Street with "Squirt" Wilson and "Dimples" Zimmerman. . . Virginia Gancha being so very shy about her secret love who she's only seen three times . . . Little Bobby McBane wondering if he could be Alyse MacDonald's S. P. or if it's Bob Lutz who also sits beside her in assembly . . . Ruth Martin and Virginia Nan racing to see which one had the rare privilege of sitting beside "Tuffy" Gordon. Virginia, of course, won the race. (Personal: Tuffy, please accept my humblest apology for spelling your name wrong).

BRIGHT IDEA: Our band playing popular pieces at the games. It seemed to go over big with the crowd. If you remember, a couple of weeks ago I suggested this. If the student body agree with me—why not give it a trial.

Exchange

In Canton McKinley's school paper, one corner contains a "Did you know" column. Just to give you an idea here is one in part:

There is a town called:

Smile, Kentucky.

I guess the students of Salem High aren't the only ones who consider report card time as being critical. McKinley students are with ye one and all.

National Book Week To Be Observed

Do you know what is celebrated next week? You don't? It's National Book Week!—that's what. What does that mean? Just this. People all over the United States are celebrating next week, which is set aside each fall to encourage everyone to read more books—the right kind of books, of course. 'Tis said that "It's what you read when you don't have to that will determine what you'll be when you can't help it".

Roger Mifflin is a delightful character in Christopher Morley's "Parnassus on Wheels". He says, "When you sell a man a book you don't sell him just twelve ounces of paper and ink and glue—you sell him a whole new life. Love and friendship and humor and ships at sea by night—there's all heaven and earth in a book, a real book, I mean. Jiminy! That's what this country needs—more books!"

Do you know of some book that you would like to see in our high school library? If you do, tell your English teacher or one of the librarians.

Miss Lehman has announced that book markers will be distributed to all students, the first of next week. These markers will have on them a list of "books you might want to read". Won't you try some of the suggestions?

Hall of Oblivion

The Seniors nominate their senior pictures.

Betty Lee Lyons is nominated because she has to go out of town to get a boy friend. (It is an awful temptation not to mention Don Vincent.)

We nominate "Hit 'em again, harder, harder." The cheerleaders ran it in the ground last Saturday.

Mary Emery Finds Broadcasting Fun

She is on the radio nearly every Sunday, has been secretary-treasurer of her class for three years, plays in the school orchestra, and takes five subjects, but still that doesn't keep Mary Louise Emery from being on the honor roll with practically all A's.

"Why don't you interview Busty Conja and Robert Boughton first?" modestly Mary Louise asked a Quaker reporter who wished to interview her concerning her playing over the radio. "I only accompany them."

Weekly she accompanies a violin quintet over station WKBN, Youngstown. However, she also appeared over station WJAY, Cleveland about three years ago as an accompanist.

When asked if she is at all frightened when she broadcasts, Mary Louise said, "Oh yes, I am a little just before the broadcast begins, but when I start to play I am not afraid."

Questioned concerning whether she enjoyed broadcasting she said, "I find it very interesting."

When asked what she thought most interesting about broadcasting, she paused a moment, looked thoughtful, then broke into one of her characteristic giggles, and said "Oh, the announcer!"

We nominate the Dads of our football team.

Salem To Face Undefeated Sharon 'Tiger' Tomorrow

Sharon Northwestern Penna. Champions

As the Salem High Quakers near the close of their 1937 football season, they find that the two games remaining on their schedule are two of the toughest they will have played this year.

The first of the two frays will be staged against the powerful Sharon High gridders tomorrow afternoon at the Sharon stadium. The final game of the season will be played Thursday afternoon, Thanksgiving day on the Quaker's field.

The Sharon Tigers are rated as the best grid team in their section of the state, and only last week they copped the northwestern Pennsylvania football title when they defeated Farrell, 20-0.

So far this season the Tigers have won eight games and have tied but one. They triumphed over Dormont, 6-0; Beaver Falls, 19-6; Rayen, 49-0; Oil City, 27-7; Greenville, 38-0; Sharpsville, 31-0; and Farrell, 2-0. The only team they failed to conquer was Warren, and the score was deadlocked, 0 to 0.

The Tiger's most impressive part of the game is their strong defensive. Their opponents so far this season have just tallied a mere 26 points while they themselves rolled up 237 points. The other thing they take pride in is their brilliant running offensive attack.

Coach Dave Stewart is starting a very heavy team against the Quakers. His line averages around 174 lbs. while his backfield averages 157 lbs.

Salem's chance against the coming opponents seems very good at the present. If they play the ball they did last Sat. afternoon against Dover, they stand an even chance of winning.

The probable lineups are:

Cl's	Wt.	No.	Pos.	No.	Wt.	Cl's

SPORT SHORTS

When will "Poke" Fitzsimmons last more than six plays? . . . If "Scrapiron's" hand will be well enough for him to play tomorrow? . . . Why can't Max make that second extra point? . . . Ollie's "Dad" coming all the way from New York for "Dads' Day." . . . Basketball practice starting soon. . . . "Toughy" Gordon, Junior High coach, "shure" is good-natured. . . . Salem has the number "13" and is stuck with it. . . . An oddity: Salem gets beat by Struthers, 20-13; Salem beats Wellsville, 26-0; Wellsville beats Struthers, 14-6. . . . Somebody's crazy. . . . "Dads' Day" helped the team a lot in the "Dover" game. . . . If you think this year's team is good: wait until next year. . . . These Wukatch twins, a double dose of dynamite.

Touch-Football

The touch-football teams which have been vying with one another for championship honors on the field west of Reilly stadium have been enjoying a lot of close competition.

TIMID TIGERS

At present the Timid Tigers, captained by "Ed" Zilavy, are "on top," having won six of their eight encounters. The long distance kicking of "Big Ed," combined with the pass receiving of Orrle Wright and the running ability of Bob Lutz, has figured largely in placing the Timid Tigers in the advantageous position.

ALL-STARS

Amos Dunlap's All-Stars have been giving the Tigers plenty of competition, and to date they have an average of five games won and three lost. Amos, who is a shifty ball carrier, has scored a number of his team's touchdowns, while "Nicky" Chittea, who is an expert in the art of snagging passes and a hard man to stop on defense, has also figured prominently in his team's victories.

QUAKERS

The Quakers have won 10 games and lost three, with Ed Jones and Captain Jack Hickling doing the lion's share of the booting. Hickling is also an all-time booter.

IRISH PANTHERS

At present Walt Waggoner and the Irish Panthers are in undisputed possession of the cellar, having failed to break into the win column as yet, despite the efforts of Herb Porter, who frequently breaks through for long gains on running plays, and the capable blocking of Dave Rohan.
