

Cheerleaders Chosen By McDonald

11 Cheers To Be Given Students

Ellen Monks, Robert Beck, Jim Britt, Phil Stevens, and John Webster are the new cheerleaders chosen by Mr. McDonald for the year '38-'39.

After a week of tryouts, these five were considered the best of all the entrants.

They have led the cheers at the last two games.

The major objective of the cheerleaders this year is to teach the student body eleven cheers.

"Each cheer is to be given at a certain time and place during the game, and in between the yells the student body should not attempt to give yells of their own making" stated Mr. MacDonald.

Outdoor Sportsmen To Hold Contest

All junior and senior boys who are interested in joining the Outdoor Sportsmen's club were asked to have their application for membership in by last Friday.

Last Monday, October 3, a meeting was held to elect the club officers for this year. The president, Bob Schaeffer, was elected at the final meeting of the club last year.

An interesting contest is being held with the boys divided into two teams for hunting trips. The team bagging the most game will be treated to a dinner by the losing team. The contest is to be held all through hunting seasons.

A camping trip into Canada or Pennsylvania, will probably be made in the spring.

The boys would rather go to Canada, but if arrangements cannot be made, they will have to content themselves with a trip into Pennsylvania.

A club emblem will be chosen in the near future.

Dramatics Students Present Play

"The Red Carnation," a one-act play, was presented to the Eastern Stars last Friday night in the Masonic temple.

The cast included Martha Layden, who played the part of Miss Smith; Phil Stevens, Mr. Smith; and Jack Hickling, Mr. Smith, Miss Smith's father.

The three coaches were Margaret Fronius, Bernice Balsley, and Betty Jean Gibbons.

"The Red Carnation" centers around a girl, Miss Smith, who is to meet a boy friend whom she never before dated and whose name is Mr. Smith. Complications arise when two Mr. Smiths wearing red carnations appear on the scene.

Throughout, the play is humorous and ends happily.

Senior Stand Clears $14

About fourteen dollars profit was made by the Senior stand at the Salem-Ravenna game last Friday night.

Tonight a much larger crowd is expected and due to this fact, Miss Beardmore has made the request that more Seniors volunteer to help at the stand.

Special Woodwork Class Started

There is a special class for industrial arts students this year which is in session from 2:45 to 4:00. This class is held for boys who are not able to take industrial arts in the regular period.

The students that enroll in these classes must have taken Industrial Arts I and II to be eligible. These boys are usually engaged in doing work for the school. At the present time they are refinishing the tables for the kindergarten class at the Memorial building.

There are seven boys enrolled for a half credit only. And twelve others are enrolled for a whole credit. These are all fourth year boys. They are given charge of the various jobs. Mr. Sander says that he thinks that this idea of an additional class is working out very well.

First Penny Dance Proves Success

The Hi Tri's first penny dance of the '38-'39 school season, which was held last Thursday was a real success.

Salem Hi's jittersbugs showed up and really turned in some performance which was enjoyed by students who watched from around the track.

Barbara Williams, president of the Hi-Tri, announced that the dance netted approximately nine dollars. More penny dances are being planned due to the success of the Club's first dance.

The Sultans of Swing played for dancing.

Mr. Kelley Qualified To Drill Band

Mr. Herbert Kelley, Junior High teacher and former army lieutenant, is really the man to teach the Salem High School Band how to march and drill. When Mr. Kelley was studying at Kent State University, he organized the first Kent band and was its drum major.

Mr. Kelley not only led the band, but he also made many friends, which is shown by the fact that during his senior year he was elected the most popular man on the campus.

But that is not all. He was also president of the senior class and had his picture at five different places in the annual, one of them being a full page portrait labeled, "The most popular man on the campus."

678 Students Join Association

Final reports from association officials show Salem Senior High with 673 members and Junior High with 255 members, after second and final week of membership drive.

The goal of 700 for senior high was not reached, the drive falling 28 members short.

While the goal for junior high, which was set at 200, was attained by cooperation from the student body, as has been announced by Mr. Ludwig, junior high principal.

Salem High Grad In Capital Band

Harold Hoprich, former Salem High student and a graduate of '38, is now enrolled in the freshman class at Capital University in Columbus. This class has a larger enrollment this year than it has had at any time in the entire history of the school.

Hoprich, who is pursuing a pre-medical course, recently passed auditions for the college band in which he plays bass drum. He is also a member of the Glee Club and plays a bassoon in the orchestra.

While in Salem High, Harold was editor-in-chief of the Quaker, vice-president of his class, president of the association and student director of the high school band. He was also active in social affairs and prominent in musical circles.

Monitors Receive Instructions

A monitors' meeting was held in the auditorium at 8:15 a. m. the other day under the direction of Mr. Williams who explained the duties and responsibilities of a monitor.

Mr. Williams remarked to the attentive monitors that they were picked from their study halls because they were dependable, honorable, and willing to cooperate with their teachers.

It is the monitors' duty and responsibility to keep order in the halls.

Puppy New Mascot In Office

Does Salem High have a new mascot? Anyway, there is some good material in Superintendent E. S. Kerr's office. Yes, Coach Brown brought a little black and white stranger to school in a big cardboard carton last week.

He deposited him there, and since then the juvenile visitor has inhabited this business-like abode. In fact, a fifth period monitor has been entertaining him on the high school lawn. "He" is a cute black and white Cocker Spaniel puppy standing about six inches high. His large floppy ears add to his winning personality.

Noted Violinist In Assembly

Another Association assembly which will feature R. W. Young, noted violinist and naturalist, will be presented next Thursday to the student body.

Mr. Young is from Ravenna and has presented programs in many parts of the country. He will present a program for the student body consisting of classical works and also imitative music.

His ability is proved by his recent position as first violinist with the Philadelphia symphonic orchestra.

Band to Swing Out At Game Tonight

Under the guidance of C. M. Brautigam, Salem High's largest marching band will form the letters "E-L" in honor of Liverpool at the Salem-East Liverpool game tonight.

The part of the band making an "E" will be in red uniforms while the letter "L" will be in black. The band has been working all week in an effort to make this game the most colorful of the season. On the Salem side a block "S" will be formed, in which the black-uniformed members will raise their caps to outline the "S".

The band may introduce "swing music" to Salem football fans at the game tonight.

Among popular selections purchased are "Says My Heart," "Dinah," "Margie," Alexander's Rag Time Band" and others.

New batons are on the way for Salem High's twirling drum-majors. It is very doubtful that there will be a girl drum-major this year. The band will travel to Struthers next Friday to participate in the game being held there between Salem and Struthers.

Two Salem Students Attend 4-H Congress

Ten young people of Columbiana County attended Club Congress at Columbus during the week of September 18 to September 28. Among these ten were two students of Salem High, Blaine Hart a senior and Mary Shriver a post-graduate.

Blaine is a member of the Just Rite 4-H Club. His expenses were paid by the Rotary Club of Salem.

Mary Shriver is a member of the Butler Sew Merrily 4-H Club, which paid her expenses.

The Congress was held on the Ohio State University campus, with five-hundred and thirty-eight (538) youths attending. The boys' dormitories were in the Oxley Hall and Buckeye Club, while the girls dormitory was the Neil Hall.

The meals were cafeteria style. The morning schedule consisted of breakfast at 7:00, assembly 9:30, classes 10:15, and 11:45 dinner.

Tours were held in the afternoon. Blaine said that he toured the Physics Hall, Music Hall and the Ohio Penitentiary.

In the evening there were parties, folk dances and other social times.

John Evans Re-elected Class Prexy

Rogers and Emery Also Re-elected

John Evans was re-elected president of the senior class last Friday morning by the members of that class. John is active in many phases of school life. He is editor of the Quaker, an honor student, student director of the band, and he went to Buckeye Boys' State this summer.

William Rogers was again chosen vice-president. "Bill is on the varsity football squad, tennis team, and is in the Slide Rule and Hi-Y clubs, and went to Buckeye Boys' State.

Mary Louise Emery, re-elected to the office of secretary-treasurer, is a member of the high school orchestra, Hi-Tri and Salemasquers. She was a member of the junior play cast last year.

Each senior was given a list of names of the 203 students in his class and from this list the officers were chosen.

All these officers were nominated by a large majority, thus eliminating the need for an election by ballot.

These three students have served as class officers for four years. It is not uncommon for a president to serve four years, but it is very seldom that the vice-president and secretary are re-elected for four years.

Boys Needed For Glee Club

Are any of you boys singers? If you want to try out your golden voices, go to the auditorium next Wednesday at 3:30 p. m.

Volunteers for the Girls' Glee club were plentiful, but the boys are scarce.

Three or four years ago, Miss Krauss organized a "mixed chorus." There seemed to be more of an attraction for the boys then. What is wrong with them now?

Come on, boys! Mrs. Satterthwaite needs your help. She extends this invitation to all boys in Salem High, especially seniors. You have to show "school spirit" some way, so why not put some of it into singing?

Slide Rule Club Elects Officers

New officers were elected at a short meeting of the Slide Rule Club last Tuesday after school in room 304.

Miss McCready, club adviser, announced that Jim Schaeffer was elected president, Ada Shriver, vice president, and Jim Diceky, secretary-treasurer. The next meeting will be held in two weeks.

Room of Thrills

There is one room in our school building which is packed full of travel, adventure, mystery, and merriment. Here one may find many friends and learn to create for oneself many happy, useful hours.

He may find the story which inspired one of his favorite motion pictures; fiction that will carry him to the land of his dreams; hints from men who have become successful in the vocation he has chosen to pursue; records of the achievements of the greatest heroes of all times. There is something of interest for everyone.

Some night after school, drop into the library and look around. There are books written especially for athletes. There is a book about your hobby written by an authority. There are stories of all types to suit every person's needs. The more one looks about the shelves, the more he finds.

Those who have already discovered this wonderful world of books are faithful customers and couldn't be kept away now.

There is no end of useful and entertaining material in our library. There are librarians there to help you when you are in doubt about where to find the material you want. These privileges are at your disposal. Use them. It doesn't cost you a cent!

Foundation of Life

To be a leader in anything we undertake to do we must have a good education. All of us want to make good in this world and we are given a chance to succeed. But in addition to that chance we must work for success, as it will not be handed to us on a silver platter. We must constantly strive for our goal if we are to attain it—no matter what it may be. We are given our first chance towards reaching our goal by being taught the many things we need to know such as the basic fundamentals of future needs that will surely arise before us, the ways of our government, its past errors (so that we will not repeat them), how to keep our minds and bodies healthy, how to take disappointments and how to handle success in such a way as to profit by it. All these things we are given a chance to learn, not because teachers need positions, but because our parents want to prepare us for the future so that the bumps will not be so hard. If they think enough of us to do all this for us, we should show them we appreciate it by studying and honestly trying to learn what the teachers are willing to teach us.

A Puzzling Problem

One puzzling question before the student body individually, at this time, is the choice of clubs. Clubs are an important part of the school's extra-curricular program, and their success or failure is to a certain extent a barometer of school spirit and interest.

Everyone likes to belong to an active and prominent club, but some members do not realize that a club's reputation and success is merely a matter of their own effort in cooperation with the rest of the club. They choose clubs merely by the prestige former members have built up, and show reluctance in joining smaller and less noted organizations. It is this type of member who would drag his club to a lower level if it were not for the more active members. There is little or no relation between a club's past achievements and its success during this school year.

The efforts of the sponsor and the officers are of no avail if cooperation is not received from the club members.

Are you an asset or a liability to your chosen clubs?

Columbus Day

This Here
an'
That There

Thoughts between classes: Wonder if there's really such a need for the hurry and scurry between bells— Seems funny all these little Freshies this year!— Silly positions kids manage to get into during assemblies and study hall! Some of them actually look comfortable. Have to try them sometime!!!

Burton Sutter is slowly replacing his Betty with one of our new students, H. K. Well, I must say Burt, you got somethin' there!!!

Noticed the smoke curling upward from various chimneys. Often wished to be an artist this time of year. Reason? So I could paint the leaves of the trees as they turned red and yellow. Now, don't tell me THAT isn't an ambition!

Congrats:—To all the new officers of the Senior Class. They have held their respective offices for three years and starting a fourth. Nice people, these!!

Walter Bolinger must have a mania or something to get my attention. Don't know who she was but they were at the game together.

Prediction:—The song "Remember" written by Irving Berlin years ago will become a nation wide hit now that it has been revived!

These Walter's! Now it's Walt Wagner. He practically lives in Lisbon these days. Wonder what the attraction is! A girl no doubt!!

Have you noticed the number of hairdressers that lean towards the upward trend. Naturally they're modified for class rooms but still the hint of it is there. Personally I like them but there are lots of people who don't. Dick Broomall described one girl's as little bird nests. Clever! Yeah, I got a laugh too!!

Just sittin' here in the study hall lookin' around makes me wonder where on earth they ever got that name for it!

There are lots more brunettes than there are blonds in old S. H. S. The blonds are in there pitchin' but they don't have a chance!

Pet Peeve:—Bow ties are tops on my list! Don't know why but I've never seen one—not even one—fella who looks nice with one!

Dick Yarwood sure has technique when it comes to coining words and phrases! The other day in salesmanship he described a failure as "A broken needle in the pin cushion of life." Pretty clever I calls it! Original too!!!

Gosh whata personality! Why can't there be more like Avie Bard's. What a pleasant place this ole word would be!

Opinion:—Wonder why it is that so many people who are tall are conscious of their height and stoop. In my opinion there is nothing as nice to see as a tall person who is really tall, straight, and willowy! No offense to anyone is intended.

Quite a few "Jitter Jackets" round school now. First there was Margie Kniseley's, then Martha Clark, Jane Tinsley and Patsy Bolen. I like them, don't you?

And will someone please interpret Bob Lyons odd little wrist movement while talking.—I just can't figger it out!

Couple of the Week:—Dick Capel and Martha Layden get in the limelight this week. Not sure how long it's been goin' on but it is quite a long time! More power to ya kids!

I'll be roamin' the halls so beware!
Bye now.

X-Country Season
Opens Tomorrow

Coach Clarke's cross country team has been practicing for the last two weeks, in preparation for its first meet of the season, tomorrow at 10 a. m.

Salem, Akron North and Akron Buchtel will participate in the meet which will be held at Forge Field in Akron.

Akron East has a very tough team with six of seven lettermen returning from their 1937 state championship team. Coach Clarke has not as yet chosen his team. The Salem team held a time trial last Friday. The majority of the boys showed up fairly well. Charles Huddleston had the best time which was 11:35. This is good for this time of year. In another month this time will be cut down considerably. Another time trial will be held soon, and from this trial, the Salem squad will be chosen.

1,000 Pencils Sold
By Frosh

The Freshmen have sold about 1000 out of 1500 pencils so far this year with Marion Nye selling the most. There are still a few pencils left but they are going fast. The freshies held a class meeting Tuesday and nominated class officers Thursday.

The sophomores nominated officers Thursday by the usual method. The date of actual election is yet unknown. One of the first things the class will do is to choose the colors. The colors chosen will be used for the remainder of their years at Salem High. The class is proud to boast of both drum majors. They are Don Freed and Bill Fineran.

G. A. A. Prepares
For Initiations

Immediately after school today the G. A. A. will hold its first meeting to discuss various undertakings of the club for the year, and also to make things ready for new members to come in.

Those persons desiring to become a member must have at least a "C" average in school work. Another requirement is that they earn 100 points by participation in the activities of the G. A. A. When these points are earned each girl will be notified and will then be initiated. The initiation will be followed by a party either in the gym or in the Home Economics' rooms.

Tennis is being played at the present time, and kickball will be held next.

This year each sport is under the supervision of one leader. This leader is to come to the gym each night and check the roll. It is also her duty to have girls picked ahead of playing time to umpire games and keep score.

In this way the club will try to lessen the duties of Miss Hanna, sponsor, who has been almost overtaxed with keeping the activities of the club going in previous years.

Salem to Defend Unbeaten Record

With two victorious tucks away under their belts, the Salem High Quakers are about to embark on what really amounts to their big game this year. The opponents for tonight's fracas will be the East Liverpool Potters, who were smiled upon in last year's contest by Dame Luck and beat the Salemites in the last 10 seconds of play.

This year with Salem back for revenge and with a better team, the home fans are hoping to see them turn the tables on their county rivals. The players themselves firmly believe that this year they will turn the trick.

After last week's triumph over a highly touted Ravenna squad the Quakers are and have a right to be confident because the victory raised their own self-esteem. Followers of the Salem team, however do not as yet really know whether or not the team is good or if it has run into some poor teams which were much overrated. This week's game will tell the tale for the Potters boast of a tough team this year, having last week, beaten Akron West, who were last year's champs. But then in their game with East Palestine the score was only 39-0 in their favor. This total looks mighty good naturally but this season the team from Palestine is their weakest in years. Oddly enough this is the same score which Salem ran up against Sebring. Spectators having seen both East Palestine and Sebring in action say that Sebring has the better of the two teams. This would seem to give Salem the edge over East Liverpool. However one cannot always go on former game scores as a team does not always play the same on two different occasions.

Last week the blocking left nothing to be desired and Coach Schroeder was probably well satisfied with the results. The only weak spot in the Salem attack is their passing which is not accurate or consistent.

It was Stu Wise who was the main ground gainer and ball totter as he got away on some brilliant runs. It was the blocking that made these feats possible for without good blocking a ball carrier is almost useless.

As we said before, the team itself is anxious to get back for last year's defeat. Anyway the whole school body will be hoping that they do so.

good for such little guys.....

Speaking of drum majors. I hear Beatty did a pretty snappy job at Alliance last Saturday with the Miami U. band during the Miami-Mount Union game.....

A lot of "Studes" seem to be going in for bowling. I saw Jack Warner, Dix Yates, Tommy Rhodes and some others going at it hot and heavy at the Masonic alleys the other nite. (For fairly obvious reasons score won't be mentioned).

Word has reached this seething metropolis that "Ollie" Olexa is going "great guns" on the Western Reserve frosh team. Rumors have it that he is a cinch for the quarterback post on the varsity next year...

I see where the Cubs finally grabbed the National league flag. Although I'd much rather have seen Cincinnati come thru, the Cubs were second choice...

"Whizzer" Wise looked pretty hot on those reverses last week. Another touchdown was almost scored in the last few seconds when the "Whizzer" intercepted a Ravenna pass and galloped to the 10 yard line. Hope he can keep it up tonight.....

I'll see you at the game! !....

On The Bench

By Robert J. Dixon

Well Fans:

Who was it that told me that Ravenna was tough? I lost two bits on that game. No, I didn't bet on the other team but thought that we wouldn't beat them by more than two touchdowns. And then the team walloped them by twenty-five points I don't think anyone in the school ever expected the game would be that one-sided. One person I know of certainly got fooled. If you are interested dig out last weeks Quaker and take a peek at the prediction Mr. Herbert Jones made on the game. He will tell you he is a gambling man (a milkshake is the limit) but I am willing to bet he won't make a wager on another football game.....

A sample of some real bone jarring, tooth rattling tackles were made in last week's game. Notable among these was the one Carrol Greene made after a Ravenna man had just pulled down a pass. But "Greenie" hit him so hard the ball squirted out of his arms and Salem recovered. Nice work.....

Our drum majors really put it over on the opposition's baton manipulators. They're

Quakers Swamp Ravenna 25-0

Salem High Quakers remained undefeated and unscored on as they defeated Ravenna 25 to 0 at Reilly field last Friday night. This was their second win. Previously they trounced a Sebring eleven, 39 to 0. The Ravenna game was their first real test, and the red and black lads came through with flying colors.

The Quakers outplayed Ravenna in every department of the game. Good blocking again helped make possible Salem's victory. Wise, Salem's halfback and leading scorer, was probably the most outstanding player on either side, as he repeatedly got away for large gains. Salem scored three of the four touchdowns on end sweeps. This was in all probability Ravenna's greatest weakness.

The game was Salem's all the way. As soon as Salem got possession of the ball in the first quarter, Wise gained 45 yards in two plays. On the next play "Buster" Wukotich gained 17 yards through the center, before he tripped and fell. Then Wise went around end to score. Capt. Bill Schaeffer's place kick was wide.

After the touchdown, neither team was able to make first down. Salem received a break after Schaeffer was forced to kick on the fourth down and Ravenna's safety man fumbled and Salem recovered.

Dramatic Chatter

All the world is a stage—Shakespeare.

Al J. Freed deserves an honorable mention in this column for the facial expressions used while singing "A tisket a tasket." I think he knows all the words, not sure though.

While I'm on the subject I might mention the fact that the band was pretty good. The Hi-Tri ought to use it often.

The Salemasquers have high hopes this year. If they gather enough money from various activities they are going to present a gift to the school for the Stage. Monday they are having a box social at Centennial Park. I wish you luck.

"Gone With the Wind" as presented by Salem High School. Directed by Janet Greenisen; produced by Lucia Sharp, Marie Kniseley; Screen Play by Bob Neale and from an original Story by Margaret Mitchel.

Musical Score by "The Sultans of Swing"

Musical Arrangements by Al J. Freed

Scarlett's song "The Merry Widow" by Harvey Rickett.

THE CAST

Scarlett O'Hara..... Polly Silver (She's the type)

Rhett Butler ..... Me (By special request)

Madeleine Wilkes ... Helen Lowery (She's easy to get along with)

Asely Wilkes ... Winthrop Difford (Looks like a man of the old south)

Aunt Pittypat Hamilton .. Mary Lou Emery (She can play the part)

Charles Hamilton, Scarlett's first husband ..... Don Vincent (He gets killed at war. Personal grudge)

The Tarlton Twins, Joe Morris Henry Pauline (Seen so much together)

Others in the cast include: z Dorothy Milligan doing the character part of Mammy; Faye Lantz, the part of Pork. Mammy and Pork are two colored servants.

Next time I'll give out the cast of "Marie Antoinette."

So I'm going with the Wind. Goodby, "Bud"

Jitterbug's Column

Hi yah, kiddies . . . and all you "cats" and such! We're spinnin' right along. As you all or should know, this is to be a semi-scandal column. So roll back the rug, turn on that old radio, shuffle around a bit and "yez go into our dance"! Yeh man!

Last week I promised to the person who turned in the best answer to the swing question, "What is Jive?" very honorable mention in this yere column. Well, I find the winner, after readin' all these answers, to be a "cat" who knows his kittens, or a real honest-to-goodness "swing" addict and ace jitterbug—Mr. Eugene M. McCready. Here's his definition of "Jive": (Quote) "Jive is a part of the swing language which means, 'get hot'! It is commonly used in orchestras and refers to any instrument in taking a 'hot lick' ". (End quote). Therefore students, our top jitterbug and ace of all 'shufflin' (also the Lambeth Walk) is Mrs. McCready's one and only Eugene! Hats off, students! But yez get on with this "dance"!

This week's question to be answered and turned in to the Quaker office before noon Monday, "explain what is meant by "hot lick"! Don't forget, noon Monday. Only about 125 got in on last week's contest. Let's have 500 this week! Just look at that write-up above!

My space is running out, kiddies. Don't forget to study your swing books for next week's session, and don't forget your answers for "Explain what is meant by "hot-lick"! Until next week. "So long, ever-body."

Quakers Swamp Ravenna 25-0

ed on Ravenna's 14-yard line. After the quarter, when the ball was placed on the opposite site of the field, an went over for the second tally of the ball game. Salem's try for the extra point failed.

In the second period, Ravenna got a break and it seemed as if they were bound to score. The break occurred when Ravenna recovered a Salem fumble on the Salem 17-yard line. Salem was then penalized 15 yards for holding, and it was Ravenna's ball, first and ten on the Salem two-yard line. Salem rallied and held for four downs. A few seconds later the gun banged for the first half. Score: Salem 12, Ravenna 0.

In the second half, Salem kicked to Ravenna and again Ravenna fumbled and Salem recovered. After several plays, Schaeffer snagged a pass which was good for 15 yards. Wukotich then went off tackle to score standing up. Again the try for extra point failed.

The ball changed hands several times during the third and fourth quarters. There were several substitutions for Salem. Again a pass to Schaeffer, this time thrown by Oano, set the stage for the fourth and final touchdown. This pass advanced the ball from the 40-yard line to the ten. From there Wukotich went off tackle to score. Schaeffer converted for the extra point. During the next few minutes the ball changed sides several times and Coach Schroeder sent in an entire new squad of reserve players. The gun sounding, ending a great game. Score Salem 25, Ravenna 0.

Capt. Schaeffer looked good in the pass-snagging department, as well as playing a good defensive game. Bill Rogers, who has been at end as a substitute for Dick Terry, as well as serving as blocking back,

Personalities of S. H. S.

Dark brown hair with brown eyes that have a certain twinkle add to this senior girl's personality.

She claims a dimple to be her own, along with 205 as her home room. She is secretary of the association, is in the Spanish club and the Salemasquers.

All sports appeal to her, but swimming is her favorite. What is your guess? She's Mary Fisher!

Five feet 11 7/8 inches of boyish personality with dark red hair and brown eyes are what you see as he saunters in 205, his home room.

A dimple and a swell sense of humor adds to this person—and his odd, but still pleasant, laugh sets him apart from all others,

He plays basketball and rates the varsity squad. He likes all sports, but basketball is tops in his opinion.

Do you know him? Just call him "Dunk".

played a bang-up game and made several fine tackles. The fine work of Marvin and Melvin Wukotich, twin brothers, who play full back and center, respectively, should also receive mention.

Leon Havre, the Ravenna sophomore flash played a good game, got away for several gains and heaved a few passes, but was rushed so badly by Joe Vender and Bill Schaeffer that he never got a chance to spot one of his receivers.
