

Annual Spring Band Concert April 24

PATRIOTIC THEME WILL BE FOLLOWED IN SONGS TO BE PLAYED AT AFFAIR; SOLO, ENSEMBLE CONTESTANTS WILL BE HEARD

A patriotic theme will be followed at the annual concert of the Salem High school band, directed by Mr. C. M. Brautigam, to be presented in the high school auditorium Thursday evening, April 24. There will be no admission charge for the concert but children under high school age must be accompanied by their parents.

Among the selections which uphold the patriotic theme of the program are "God Bless America", featuring the bell lyre, played by Barbara Butler; "America Exultant"; and "Adoration", a concert march introducing the theme, "America the Beautiful".

A feature of the program will be the playing of the song, "Jeannie With the Light Brown Hair", in a special symphonic arrangement. In this special arrangement the clarinets and trumpets are heard in the song, "Jeannie", while the horns, trombones, and baritone saxophone play "Beautiful Dreamer".

Other selections to be heard on the program are "Ballet Egyptian", by Ligini, in four parts; "Overture Hongroise", selections from the comic opera, "Sweethearts", by Victor Herbert.

Also to be heard on the program will be several of the groups and ensembles which will enter the state contest. They are the clarinet trio composed of Homer Asmus, Maybelle Huston and Jean Lantz; trumpet quartet, composed of Robert Entriken, John Botu, Ray Corrigan and William Hanay; baritone saxophone solo, Charles Lind; alto clarinet solo Dorothy Haldi; violin solo, Robert King; vocal solo, Donna Haessly.

Egg Rolling Is Big Feature Of Easter In Washington

Easter day in Washington, D. C. is a highly important one to the children, because this day is their day to shine.

All the children take their baskets of colored eggs and gather on the White House grounds to take part in the annual Easter eggs-rolling contests.

The contestants separate into pairs, each player having one egg. The game is to roll the eggs down hill, with the player whose egg is not broken when it reaches the bottom, the winner. Thus the games are continued throughout the day.

It is thought that this custom came from Germany, where at Easter time the eggs are rolled on sticks which serve as tracks. There the games begin Easter eve at midnight and last for three hours. Apples and small round cakes are also rolled in the same fashion.

In Bohemia all the children roll their eggs at one time, and the one whose egg reaches the bottom of the hill first is the winner.

In the northern part of England eggs are used in playing hand-ball on Easter day.

Everywhere the contests are held they are attended by large crowds of adults, who enjoy watching them. This year in Washington an even larger group than usual is expected. People will travel from all parts of the country to watch the children roll the eggs down the hill and then quickly run after them to find out if they have won or lost.

Musician To Appear At Spring Party

Geoffrey O'Hara, Noted Composer, Will Speak At Association Fete

Mr. Geoffrey O'Hara, noted composer and musician will speak on "The Fun and Philosophy of Musical Compositions" during the program of the annual Association party, to be held April 18 at 8 p. m.

Mr. O'Hara has composed both classical and popular songs, which include "K-K-Katy," "Give a Man a Horse He Can Ride," "Guns" and "There Is No Death."

Beside composing, Mr. O'Hara is president of the Song Writers' Society of New York, succeeding Victor Herbert. Mr. O'Hara was appointed to be Instructor of Native Indian Music by Franklin P. Lane, Secretary of the Interior in the Wilson cabinet, and he is a member of the Town Hall and Rotary clubs of New York.

O'Hara has spoken several times before such groups as the General Federation of Women's clubs, the National Federation of Music Clubs, trade associations, Art clubs and university clubs.

After O'Hara's program there will be dancing in the gym. The dance orchestra will be chosen during spring vacation, by the executive committee composed of the senior and junior Association officers, who are seniors: Louis Raymond, president; George Baillie, vice-president; Vivian Foltz, secretary; Marjory Harroff, treasurer; juniors: William Dunlap, president; Homer Asmus, vice-president; Dorothy Lutsch, secretary; William Probert, treasurer.

Association members may attend the party free of charge. There will be a few tickets at 35 cents each on sale for non-Association members.

Junior Association Officers Selected By Class Members

WILLIAM DUNLAP, HOMER ASMUS, DOROTHY LUTSCH, WILLIAM PROBERT WILL GUIDE AFFAIRS OF ASSOCIATION NEXT YEAR

William Dunlap, Homer Asmus, Dorothy Lutsch and William Probert were chosen as president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively, of the Salem High School Association, in an election held by the junior class association members a week ago Wednesday in the home rooms. These students will hold their respective offices during the next school year serving as assistants to the various officers for this year.

Thespian Club To Initiate 11 Persons Into Membership

Eleven students were initiated into the local troupe of the National Thespian Dramatic Society for High Schools at an initiation ceremony on the stage of the auditorium last night. Those initiated are Isabelle Lockhart, Tom Moore, Betty Alexander, Joyce Stratton, Ray Corrigan, Bennie Ware, Sidney Simon, Jean Carey, Wayne Steffel, Donna Haessly and Twila Yates.

The formal part of the initiation was in charge of the troupe officers and the adviser, Miss Viola Bodo. The officers are: President, Lucia Sharp; vice president, Nannabel Beardmore; secretary and treasurer, Robert Balantine.

Certificates and cards of membership were presented to club members who were initiated at a ceremony earlier in the school year, following the formal ceremony for the new members.

Following the initiation, refreshments were served by a committee, including Nan Beardmore, Florence Hiltbrand and Bill Dunlap.

At a meeting held last Monday after school, club members voted for the persons to receive the Thespian award at the end of the year. Each year a gold pin in the form of the Thespian head, with three pearls set in it, is presented to the boy most worthy of an honor as an actor, the girl most worthy as an actress, and the person who has been most helpful to Miss Bodo behind the stage.

Books Of Miss Maude Hart On Display In Library Case

Featured in the display case outside the library, during the past week, was a collection of books belonging to Miss Maude Hart, Dean of Girls, which were purchased at the homes of the authors or at the scene of action of the book. The collection of this sort of books is a hobby of Miss Hart.

Among the books displayed was a copy of "The Complete Works of Shakespeare", purchased at Shake-

Dunlap, secretary-treasurer of his class for three years, was a member of the junior and senior play casts, and cast of the Kent play, "The Last Curtain," is a member of the Thespians and the band. He is also a member of the business staffs for both the Quaker Weekly and Quaker Annual.

Asmus, president of the junior class, is also a member of the band. Miss Lutsch works in the library, is a member of the Hi-Tri and serves as secretary to Mr. Cameron. She was president of her class during her freshman years.

The officers of the Association for this year are president, Louis Raymond; vice-president George Baillie; secretary, Vivian Foltz; treasurer, Marjory Harroff.

G. A. A. To Entertain With Play Day Here

Members of the Salem High school Girls' Athletic association will be hostesses to a volley ball Play Day in the gymnasium tomorrow.

Five schools besides Salem will participate, these being Sebring, Lisbon, Columbiana, Fairfield and Leetonia. Each school will bring nine girls to the games.

The different teams will play under the names of colleges. Play will be for the championship and consolation points. Refreshments will be served by the local girls.

These play days take the place of the interscholastic girls basketball which was abandoned several years ago, although the play is for the enjoyment and recreation only, not for prizes.

There will also be table tennis games during the day.

Vacation At Last

In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love—and spring vacation!

Yes, at long last, vacation has arrived, amid cheers and glad greetings. Everyone seems to have a different plan of his own for spending vacation this year. One boy plans to "eat n' sleep," as he puts it. An ambitious girl is devoting her vacation to helping with spring house cleaning, while still another individual is going to—of all things—study.

Of all things? Not such a bad idea is it. Just take a couple of afternoons to brush up on that math book you've been carrying around all year, and also to catch up on a little neglected reading. It may help those sad looking grades a lot.

It's been a long grind from Christmas vacation 'till Easter, with never even a holiday, so, no matter how you spend vacation, we wish you "happy vacation" and don't wait up for the Easter bunny.

What's The Reason?

This editorial is dedicated to those students who, after years of good report cards, tire of the work involved and resort to the "easier" way of getting grades, cheating.

Many would be shocked to see Bobby Brilliant copying answers from a paper slipped undetected under his tablet. Nevertheless, this does happen—and almost every time a difficult test is taken.

As most of the students who copy have the ability to get good grades in tests honestly, why do they cheat? Those who cheat are bound to get caught in the end. Even if the teacher doesn't catch them, the other students see them and they certainly don't like them any better, or appreciate having their own grades pulled down by the cheaters.

If you are one who cheats, instead of cheating in the next test, if you have the urge, study a little harder and give the others a chance by playing fair.

Tennis For Girls

Last week it was announced that the tennis team had been organized for the coming season. A question then came to the minds of several girls around school. Why not have tennis for girls? This subject has been discussed frequently by girls around school, but nothing has ever been done about it. Why not?

Webster defines tennis as "a game played with a ball struck by a racquet." Webster calls it a game, but today to many it is an occupation. Many famous women tennis stars, who are now making thousands of dollars, played their first tennis match in some city like Salem. This doesn't mean that the girls are expecting to discover a tennis genius among themselves, but why not give them a chance to see what they can do by organizing a girls' intramural tennis league?

Come on, girls; let's get some action and put this thing across.

Easter Bunny Gives Lowdown On Egg Coloring And Stuff

"The flowers that bloom in the Spring."
"Tra la."

Oh happy day. Spring at last. Daffodils, pussy willows, crocuses, spring suits, hats that look like flower gardens and light drizzles of rain are back again. I am very happy about it all, because in the spring time I have a rush business. Around about April the 13th I will be very busy and so rushed I won't know what to do. Do you know who I am? You don't? Well, I am the Easter bunny. Isn't that sweet?

All the little kiddies around Salem High promised me last year that they would help me so I have come to look them over. I really need some trustworthy helpers this year and I am sure that I will find them here.

Oh my, what a mob. It must be noon. I shall just have to meander around and see whom I can find.

Now let's see, there's Louis Raymond surrounded by the loyal member of his fraternity. They would all make good egg carriers. "Tyker" Hart could raid the hen houses and Sid Simon could carry the baskets. "Gub" Corrigan and Bill Dunlap could drive the cars. They always drive for everything, and that would save me so much hopping around.

Oh, and over there is Glo Gibson and "Stretch" Ware. They would make good egg washers. They are so "wishy washy" anyway. Before they were through, though, they would be throwing the eggs at each other.

And over there is Jan Wallace and Jean Carey. I don't know any thing that they are good at doing, (that is anything connected with Easter eggs).

I've got to find some others now. Some real he-men. Wow! What are these two mountains rising before me. Oh, why it's the Wukotichs, Melvin and Marvin. They are just the men I am looking for. Now I need only about six more helpers. There's "Lefty" Schmid, I'll just draft him into the service. He probably won't come unless Percival is along. I might as well get her while I am at it. And then there's "Mouse" McGhee and "Cutie" Lind. I'll take them along too. They can dip the eggs. I had better take along a couple of comedians to entertain the group, and they can hide the eggs then. "Slats" Entriken and "Sal" Freed are just the boys.

I have enough now, and I am sure that my work will get done with so many willing and fast helpers. It is just a little army of efficiency.

Happy Easter to you all.
The Easter Bunny.

Song Hits and High Hits

"GOODBYE NOW" said Ray "Gub Gub" Corrigan to the stage as he left it after the play. "Gub" is a member of the local fraternity and he is a trumpet player in the band.

He likes cocs and Charlie Barnett. He is always driving around and his car is usually filled to overflowing with the "boys".

"Gub" has lots of friends and is one "swell" kid.

"AIN'T IT A SHAME ABOUT MAME" sings the Fan Club of Mamie (Sweegi, Trailblazer, Cannonball, etc.) Equize. Mamie is well-known throughout Salem High for her plunging through the student mobs with the daily bulletins. Mamie is not sure which her favorite orchestra is but Andre Kastelonatz rates pretty high. Her favorite food is anything she can get.

One of the two hamburgers that she won last week was given to our eminent professor of chemistry.

Thespians To Initiate Nine New Members

Plans for a masquerade party for club members and members of the casts of the various plays which have been presented at school this year were also announced.

VIV'S VERBAL VENTURES

BY VIVIAN FOLTZ

(Someone let it slip that that group of indefatigable inquisitors, The Examination Board, in their determination to keep dumbbells, even you and me, from going out into the world, have added to their schedule of examinations a novel sort of torture, taking the diabolical of forms, that of the intelligence test. We have procured a model copy of the exam for the Saint Albans News, and sooooo we pass it on to you.)

INTELLIGENCE TEST

This is a test to ascertain just how dumb you are. Do not leave your fingerprints on the paper; we can tell who you are by your signature. Do not turn the page until the examiner yells "Let'er rip" and do not stop until the examiner hollers: "Tally Ho!"

Underline the words which make the following statements true:

1. Washington crossed the Delaware in..... (a) desperation (b) 1776 (c) the "Queen Mary" (d) order to get to the other side.
2. Rudinalph plays on the..... (a) flying trapeze (b) linoleum (c) Cleveland Indians (d) nerves of the listeners.
3. Most professors are..... (a) junior high graduates (b) in favor of fewer periods (c) a trial on the students nervous system.
4. You can fool all of the people some of the time and some of the people all of the time, but you cannot fool..... (a) Prof. Jones (b) with nitroglycerine (c) around with me, kid!
5. Romeo didn't get his women because..... (a) he had coffee nerves (b) he had a protruding proboscis (c) he failed to see his dentist at least twice a year (d) even his best friend wouldn't tell him.
6. Andrew Jackson was called..... (a) The Tennessee Shad (b) and had a straight flush (c) (censored).
7. In the following series count the number of fives that are not preceded by an eight, which is followed by a nine which is preceded by a pair of threes, reading from right to left: 73258956487593387 93345876379335987.

Another One Chalked Up For the Fairer Ones!

Mr. Wizz Stewart, who has whalloped practically every man in school in that nerve-racking game, ping-pong, has at long last been yanked from his throne. And by a woman, no less. Yes, Miss Rebecca Jeanne Carey wrapped up the game to the tune of 21-31, and modestly admitted that she must have been 'on'.

Don't feel too bad, Mr. Stewart, Becky beats lots of fellows at their own game.

Yea know, the band is a mighty interesting organization. The weirdest things, go on behind those oh-that-they-could-be-sound-proof walls. The average rehearsal includes not only the usual run of pull-erized pilacotas and mangled meno mosso grandiosos, but also queer and unusual happenings among the persona'.

For a good healthy chuckle one should take a squint at Tyker Hart, as he, with a wad of one cent bubble gum crowding one cheek, blows loudly and mightily on the clarinet in the other side of his mouth, and revamps the music to his own inimitable style in order to catch Katie's eye.

Also a credit to the clarinet section is Casnova Whitacre, playing all the rests like hot licks, and mournfully nursing a cut lip which he claims he obtained in a boxing match. Boxing who, that is the question.

Then to the vast amusement of absolute'y no one but themselves, the trombone huddle gets together and gives forth with a corny remark or two. All of which generally originates in the neighborhood of 'Corny' Herb and 'Corn' Shuck.

As for romance the band has plenty of that too. It is an everyday occurrence to see 'Dutch' winking at J. Stratton, and although she blushes to a scarlet hue, she giggles and winks back. Then there is Freshman-Terry with an eye on the sax section; and tuba players, L. Hollaway and Betty blissfully batting beats back and forth, oh, such stuff.

And as Mr. Brautigam very gracefully waves the stick to and fro, smiling beamingly on his little prodigies, ah . . . little does he know . . .

Well, as Columbus said to the world, "I'll see you around."

Jesse Owens Slated To Run Here In 12th Night Relays

WELL-KNOWN TRACK STAR WILL ATTEMPT TO SET NEW WORLD'S RECORD FOR 440-YD. DASH WHEN HE RUNS IN EXHIBITION MAY 3

F. E. Cope, Salem High track coach, who is now making plans for the twelfth annual Salem Night Relays, to be held May 3, has been notified recently that Jesse Owens, one of the world's foremost track stars, will run and broad jump here as an added attraction for the Relays. He will be trying to set a new world's record in the 440-yard dash. Cope also stated that 20 teams have indicated that they will compete in the meet.

Cope has been working vigorously with his charges during the past few days to prepare them for the first dual meet of the current season with Youngstown Rayen. Cope is somewhat handicapped this year because several of his mainstays are either working or going to start to work in the near future, and because Elliott Hansell has been avoiding strenuous workouts because of a lame back.

Tom Rhodes, pole vaulter, and Bruce Krepps, who competes in the broad and high jumps, are both working at the present time, while Orrie Wright, who has been showing up well in the hurdles, is going to start to work some time in the near future. Should Cope lose these four men, the thinclad machine would suffer greatly.

The following boys will probably make the best showing in the Rayen meet here April 16:

Dashes—Elliott Hansell, letterman; Ed Cobb, Carmen Nocera, Bill Beardmore and Frank Snyder.

Middle distances—Phil Cozad, letterman; Bob Allison, Ralph Davis, Bill Martin and Frank Hagan.

Distances—Art Horning, letterman; Bill Shoop, Frank Quinn, Lee Boone, Harry Beck and Frank Lutz.

Weights—Eugene Myers, letterman; Bob Scullion, letterman; Felix DiAntonio, Marvin Wukotich, Ward Zeller, John Hart, Glenn Weigand, Bob Ruffing, Robert McNicol and Bob Moore.

Hi-Y Cagers Win Youngstown League Cage Tournament

Local Club Basketeers Defeat South Hi-Y Squad, 23 to 17

The Salem Hi-Y basketeers completed their conquest of the Mahoning Valley Hi-Y league last Saturday when they stopped Youngstown South's Hi-Y, 23-17 in the final game of the league tournament.

In the first round of the tournament, the Hi-Y cagers drew a bye. They then went on to top the Canfield Hi-Y quintet, 39-22, Thursday night. This win led them to Struthers, whom they defeated Friday night, 49-32.

In their final battle Saturday afternoon with South, they were never in any serious trouble. Warren Tullis paced Salem with eight tallies, and Richey got four for South to lead them.

The Salem Hi-Y cage team was also the winner in the league games which were played throughout the winter at the Youngstown Y. M. C. A.

Because they are the winners of both the league and the tournament championships, the local boys will receive the American Legion trophy, individual awards and gild basketballs, these to be presented at the annual Hi-Y banquet at the Youngstown Y. M. C. A. April 29.

Box scores for the Salem-South game follows:

Greetings Readers:

Well, the Hi-Y came through with a 23-18 triumph over Youngstown South Hi-Y to cop the tournament at the Y. W. C. A. last week. We were shown the trophy, and believe it was worth the effort which was put forth for it. The trophy will be presented to the team at a banquet in April.

Last week, we shunned the Hi-Y's low-point man, Lefty Schmid, and hurt his feelings deeply. Lefty vented his ill-feeling on the Struthers Hi-Y last Friday night when he became HIGH point man for a night, dropping in (hold your breath, folks) a total of SIXTEEN points to lead his mates to victory. Lefty reached his normal status in the final game when he was held to three points. But Lefty was well satisfied with his showing as were his team mates.

Just found out that Jesse Owens, one of the world's famous speedsters, will appear at Reilly Stadium, May 3, as an added attraction of the night relays. He will broad jump and also will be trying to set a new world record for the quarter mile.

This columnist hopes that "Al" Hansell's lame back will permit him to compete in the Quaker's dual meet with Youngstown Rayen, April 16. "Al" is our best dash man and will be sorely missed should his back not respond to treatments.

Have heard that Buster (All Ohio) Wukotich is out for track this year. Says he's going to heave the shot put. More power to ya' kid. You'll need it with a man like "Scub" Scullion around.

Speaking of football, the boys are heart-broken because spring football practice has been called off. But, don't worry, men, there'll be plenty of work for all when summer vacation ends.

And while we're on the subject of vacations, here's hopin' we get lots of sunshine and warm weather next week. A lot of the boys would like to play a little baseball in preparing for that season coming up shortly.

This scribe went to the L. C. T. last Saturday night to see Wyndol Gray, the Akron South flash, play and was not disappointed at all in what he saw. For a high school stude, this boy can really play ball. He was on the winning squad, on the all tourney team and was voted the most valuable player in the tournament. He seems to be very modest about it all, too. He also scored 79 points in four battles. The Quaker's own Coach Herbert Brown looked very good getting 20 points, although his team went down in defeat. Tough.

Last Monday found the Suburban League All-Stars and some of the football team playing a game of basketball (?) in the gym. This tussle was the cleanest football game or dirtiest basketball game this scribe has ever had the fortune or misfortune of seeing. Both sides rang up points, and members of both teams hit the floor, the rural boys usually being the victims of a vicious block. Never did find out who won that game. Anyway, the contest was exciting.

At this stage of the training season, this scribe, who is backed by countless multitudes, is picking Cleveland's rampaging Indians to ease ease home with the pennant, after a close hard race. Brooklyn is the choice of this writer to oppose the Indians in the World Series. It's sort of early to forecast the winners but, as it was mentioned earlier, I am well backed in my choices.

So with misgivings, regrets and all that, this columnist retires for a period of one week and wishes you all a happy spring vacation.
So Long.

OH MY! IT CAN'T BE THAT BAD, CAN IT?

I passed the door;
I heard a shriek;
My hair stood up,
My knees felt weak.
I peeked inside
What did I see?
Murderous faces
Haunting me.
"Excuse me, sirs",
I weakly said,
"I seek the living,
Not the dead."
They started to cry,
And then to laugh.
"We're not the dead,
We're the annual staff."

Sir Walter Scott, purchased at Kenilworth Castle; two editions of the "Corrise Oxford Dictionary", bought at Oxford, England.

Also in the display were pictures showing scenes around Stratford-On-Avon and interiors of several historical buildings there, and small china replicas of the house of Shakespeare and his wife, Ann Hathaway.

Have Dancing Classes

The girls gym classes, under the direction of Miss Sara Hanna, have been dancing during the past week. Plans are being made to continue the dancing classes for the coming three weeks. Boys who have study halls during the girls gym periods may report to the gym to learn dancing.

College Representative

Mr. Harry W. Swan, representative from Fenn college, Cleveland, spoke to Salem High seniors interested in Fenn, last Tuesday.

Study Food Buying

In concluding the study of consumer buying, the home economic classes, taught by Miss Leah Morgan, viewed displays of canned goods last week. A local grocer supplied the foods, which were arranged in various groups.

Five points were stressed as guides in buying. They were:

1. Wholesomeness as a guide in selecting foods.
2. Grades and varieties as guides in selecting foods.
3. The pocketbook as a guide in selecting foods.
4. Labor-saving devices and containers as a guide in food preparation.
5. New and different foods as a guide.

The foods included marrons, French fried onions, wild rice, pie crust mixture, brown bread, pudding sauces, spiced whole pears, canned grapes and several others.

Also in connection with the project, the foods and sewing classes saw movies entitled "Meat for Thought," "Love in the Kitchen," "Wardrobe Limited" and "Silks and Rayons."

Classes Study Rivers

Members of Mr. C. F. Schroeder's physical geography classes, in connection with the study of rivers and their social effects, are preparing reports on the great rivers of the world, including the Amazon, Hoang Ho, Nile, Oplorado and Mississippi.

The social studies classes are writing constitutions for school, modeled after the United States Constitution, containing a statement of purposes, bill of rights and laws for the observance of these aims.

See Movie Picture

A motion picture about an abrasive silicon carbide, better known as carborandum, was shown last Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday to Mr. Herbert Jones' chemistry classes, Mr. E. A. Englehart's metal industries classes, and Mr. R. B. Clarke's general science classes.

The picture also included views of Niagara Falls, where great quantities of carbide are made because electricity is cheap there. Large electric furnaces in which carborandum making is carried on and which are similar to the ones used in making graphite, were shown.

Pictures concerning the abrasive, aloxite, a compound of aluminum, were also included.

To Hold Track Practice

Required track practice will be held Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at 9 a. m. of the vacation week, at Reilly field, it was announced recently by track coach, F. E. Cope.

Those wishing, may practice on the other days of the week, also. In case of rain, practices will be held in the high school gym.

ARBAUGH-PEARCE FUNERAL HOME

WHAT TO DO WITH A MILLION DOLLARS?

You have often heard someone say, "Boy, what I wouldn't do with a million dollars." Well, here's what a few of Salem High's females said when asked exactly what they would do first (after they came to) upon learning that they had inherited a hundred million cents.

Nada Krepps, that well-known virtuoso of the keys replied, "I would buy a new piano."

sic clubs to be held in Columbus, April 2 to 6.

Miss Brian competed in the advanced piano group, while Miss Beery entered the soprano soloist division, Mrs. R. F. King was piano accompanist for Miss Beery.

Clubs Have Party

Members of the Hi-Y club were entertained by the Hi-Tri club members at a party in the school last Monday night. The party was carried out as an April Fool affair with everything being done backwards.

There was a program in room 209, in charge of the Hi-Tri president, Florence Hiltbrand, and the program chairman, Lucia Sharp. Following this, the group went to the gymnasium, where there was dancing, followed by refreshments.

The refreshment committee consisted of Anne Belan, Doris Brunner, Evelyn Koch and Mary Stiffler. Besides Miss Hiltbrand and Miss Sharp, those on the program committee were Eleanor Schultz and Cleo Santee.

"I'd put it in the bank." (Who said freshmen are dumb?)

Miriam Seeman stated, "I've always wanted a Deussenburg." (Who hasn't.)

Dolores Rich's mind immediately turned to clothes and she replied, "I'd buy a new wardrobe."

Alma Alton said, "I would give the money to my mother." (Another bright freshie.)

Jan Wallace, a junior, answered, "I'd buy a whole kennel of Afghan dogs."

Gene McArtor, with index cards in one hand and a huge encyclopedia in the other, remarked, "I think I would establish a home for aged high school librarians."

Dorothy Greene, Football Girl, and Dorothy McCready were standing side by side when approached and D. McCready replied, "I'd buy a new car," whereupon D. Greene submitted, "Yes, that's a good idea, then we'd both travel."

Members of the faculty seem to be dreaming of a Hawaiian paradise and Florida shores. Miss Lehman and Miss Hanna both said that they would take a trip to a place where it was nice and quiet for a change (Hints to certain members of certain classes.)

If anyone has heard of a second J. D. Rockefeller or J. P. Morgan, who is distributing millions of dollars, will he please inform the afore-mentioned persons so they can start saving the necessary box tops.

They are Jean Lantz, tenor saxophone solo, "Beautiful Colorado;" Donna Haessly, vocal solo, "Windflower;" clarinet trio, composed of Homer Asmus, Maybelle Huston, and Jean Lantz, "Improvisation" and "Gypsy Dance;" trumpet quartet, composed of Ray Corrigan, John Botu, Robert Entriiken, and William Hannay, "Festival Prelude;" Robert King, violin solo, "Concerto by Mendelssohn."

Lois Field, Mrs. Charles Gibson, and Mrs. Robert King, accompanied the musicians.

"Edith," he whispered, "will you marry me?"

"I don't know, Tom," she replied coyly.

"Well, when you find out," he said rising, "send me word will you? I shall be at Eva Gordon's until 10 o'clock. If I don't hear from you by then I'm going to ask her."
