

E. Juenemann To Play For Senior Prom

Eddie Juenemann and his orchestra have been contracted to play for the Junior-Senior prom to be held in high school auditorium May 28 from 9 to 12.

For this occasion Junemann will bring to Salem High a ten piece band. Earlier this year Juenemann and his six piece band played for the Varsity S dance.

The Junior class has charge of the annual affair.

The Junior class officers are: Dick Scullion, president, Frank Enriken, vice president; Jinny McArtor, secretary-treasurer.

Senior Play Profits Exceed Last Year's

Miss Ethel Beardmore, senior class adviser, has recently announced the profit and debit of the senior class play, "Everybody's Crazy," which was presented to the public last December.

It was explained by Miss Beardmore that the total income from the senior play amounted to $437.40. The expenses totaled $108.53 and the amount cleared is $328.27. The money will go into the scholarship fund to be used by seniors.

In the senior production "Our Town," put on by the class of '42 last year, $228.08 was cleared.

The present day seniors netted $319.59 from their junior production of last year, "Ever Since Eve".

Happy SHS Students Peddle Far On Bicycling Party

Well, what have we here? Why, it's a bicycling party. Gosh! Didn't know there were still that many bikes in circulation. Wonder who's heading the group? Oh! Oh! Might have known. It's none other than that vivacious, energetic, up and at 'em, right in th' middle of everything, velocipede pumper Sis Mullins.

Guess the party is about to move, let's join 'em and find out just what we're in for.

Whee-e-e-e! more fun! just the kind of a nevenin for a "bike hike."

Whew! This hill is rather hard to pump!

What, you say we're going down Painter Hill? Oo K. pant, pant,—but we aren't going to pump back up are we? Oh, we are. Well, pant, pant, if the others can do it, so can we, pant! Let's go!

Up yonder, are Bill Stratton, Red Kautz, and Paul Englert peddling away for dear life. Guess they must be racing to see who's gonna' break his neck first.

Ah-h-h-h, this is th' life. Zooming down the open road 60 per with th' wind blowin' through your hair and dust in your eyes. Makes you feel so free.

Whoops! what was that that just

"Hobo" Theme Featured At Annual Hop

FROSH-SOPH HOP TONIGHT! Don't forget! Dancing in the gym to the music of The Rhythmaires. Refreshments, too. The dance will follow a "Hobo" theme and all dancers are invited to dress as such. Association tickets will admit all freshmen and sophomores.

44 Mothers Attend Hi Tri Tea May 12

Approximately 44 mothers attended the Hi Tri tea as guests of their daughters in the home economics department, Wednesday, May 12. This tea, given every year in honor of mothers, has become a tradition with the Hi Tri of Salem High school.

Each mother was presented with a small corsage of sweet peas. While refreshments were being served there were several musical solos by members of the Hi Tri. Mary Byers entertained with the piano solo, "Clair de Lune"; Mabel Hostetler played her French horn; and Ina Mae Getz sang, "I Love a Cottage." Dorothy Haldi, president of the Hi-Tri, and her mother, Mrs. C. R. Haldi, presided at the tea table. The table was attractively arranged with a centerpiece of sweet peas woven around a mirrored surface, and white tapers were lighted at each end of the table.

General chairman of the tea was Jinny Snyder, social leader for the club. The committee helping Jinny consisted of Helen Louise Theiss, Mabel Hostetler, Jean Lantz and Ruth Fideo. Jean Lantz was in charge of invitations; Mabel Hostetler and Gene McArtor, flower arrangements. Miss Leah Morgan and her food classes managed the dining room and refreshments.

Rance Appoints Two Assistants For Quaker Weekly

Ada Zerbs, Jim Kelley Assist Editor

Jack Rance, recently appointed editor of the Quaker weekly, has announced his assistants for next year.

Jim Kelley, a sophomore, was appointed as Rance's assistant and Ada Zerbs, a junior, as copy editor.

Miss Zerbs has been a member of the editorial staff for one year, writing mainly personalities and features. She had an important part in the junior play this year and will be voted in as a Thespian for next year.

Kelley has been on the editorial staff for two years and is also vice president of the Latin club.

Rev. Bauman Speaker at Baccalaureate June 6

The Reverend John Bauman will be principal speaker at baccalaureate exercises on June 6, it was announced by Superintendent E. S. Kerr.

Rev. Bauman has been in charge of the Emmanuel Lutheran church here in Salem for the past 10 years, and has a daughter graduating with this year's class.

Mr. Kerr comments that complete baccalaureate and commencement plans will probably be announced next week.

Soph English Class Elaborates on D. Copperfield

"I am just a humble person, a very humble person." So says Uriah Heep in Dicken's immortal David Copperfield. Uriah drops the "h" so that it reads 'umble. Queer? My gallant readers, we all must read "D.C." in the course of our S. H. S. education. So there!

The first period sophomore English class really elaborates on "D.C." Ruth Zeck had charge of the discussion last week. The ball started rolling when Carl Ferri and Joe Kupka both started talking at once. Inez Jones then added her bit. (She was still talking when the bell rang!) Mysteries never cease to happen. Sis Mullins has recited every day since "D.C." was begun.

While discussing "D.C.'s" love affairs, Pat Keener remarked, "While he was young, he fell in love several times, like all boys do." Did you ever see Pat blush?

Bill Vignovich has, for some unknown reason, had his hand waving high every morning. It may be said of him, "There's a hand of Bill's wav-vim somewhere!"

When "D.C." traveled to London he saw the play "Julius Caesar". "D.C." was entranced by this and then remarked, "And to think this

Wykoff, Kupka, Cibula, King Named as Delegates To Buckeye Boy's State

Salem Civic Groups Name Junior Boys to Attend Boys' State; All Delegates Active in School Activities

From June 12 to June 22, Bob Cibula, Ben Kupka, Olin King and Dale Wykoff will participate in the work at Buckeye Boys State at Ohio Wesleyan University as representatives of Salem civic organizations.

Miss Combs Resigns Position As Teacher For Red Cross Work

Miss Alpha Combs, English and dramatics teacher, will resign her position at Salem High school to take over recreational work with the American Red Cross some time after the close of the present school term.

Miss Combs came here from Newport, Rhode Island, last September to fill in the vacancy left by Mrs. David Hart. During her stay, Miss Combs has produced two successful plays: "Everybody's Crazy" and "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court".

Having majored in English at the University of Chicago, she is now working for her Master's Degree in that field at Columbia University.

Miss Combs' work, which consists of teaching patients in Red Cross hospitals to entertain and help themselves during the convalescence period, will be within the United States.

Latin II Classes Read Adventures of "Golden Fleece"

The Latin II classes are now starting the Latin story of Argonauts adventure of the "Golden Fleece," it was announced by the teacher, Miss Helen Redinger.

The Latin I classes are reviewing the year's work and translating short Latin stories.

Spanish II Classes Read Spanish Story

"The Adventures of Don Quixote" is now being read in the Spanish 11 classes. This book has been simplified from the original book, says Miss Mildred Hollett, instructor.

The Spanish I classes are reading the book, "de Gil Blas."

Varsity S Plans Picnic At Firestone Park

The Varsity S club has planned to have its annual picnic June 9th at the Columbiana Firestone Park. Butch Wise, president appointed Dick Culberson, Flick Enriken, Elmer Johnson, Tony Hoover on the food committee; Harry Lodge, Dick Lantz on the entertainment committee; and John Hart, Kirby Laughlin on the transportation committee.

Cibula served as president of his class during his freshman year and vice president during his sophomore year. Also, during those two years he was a member of the Latin club. Recently, he was in the cast of the junior class play, "A Connecticut Yankee at King Arthur's Court".

Also active in extra-curricular work is Olin King. King has the distinction of being one of the two boys ever to serve as librarians in the Salem High school library. While a freshman, he was initiated into the Latin club and was a member of that group for two years. This year, he had a role in the junior class play.

As a Boy Scout, Kupka has achieved the rank of Eagle Scout. At school, he has played football with the junior varsity and varsity squads.

Music is Wykoff's main field of interest. This is evidenced by his work with the Salem High band for the past three years and his place in a dance orchestra newly organized by a group of high school boys. Wykoff has been track manager during all his high school career.

These four boys were selected from a number of candidates submitted by the faculty to the American Legion. The final choice was made by American Legion representatives, Mr. Milton Critchfield and Mr. John T. Burns.

Homer Asmus, Alumnus, Spends Busy Year

The record of Homer Asmus, Salem High school alumnus now enrolled in the pre-medical course at DePauw University at Green Castle, Indiana, shows him to have completed a year of much activity.

Among other things, Asmus has served as president of the Pledge Class, a group of young men who do not belong to any fraternal groups but who wanted to band together into some sort of organization. He was also chairman of Men's Hall Association.

In athletics, Asmus' specialty was the half mile on the varsity track squad. In this, he copped a first place against Notre Dame, two seconds against Wabash and Purdue and two thirds against Notre Dame and Indiana State. Asmus was not a candidate for varsity track at the beginning of the season, but his excellence in this sport in an intramural game warranted a berth on the varsity squad.

He is home for a short vacation.

RUTHIE'S RECKLESS RAMBLES

Ka-zoo, Za-zar, here I am . . . and there you are. (Anyway, I hope you're there.) Lots of fun 'n stuff tonight in the gym for the freshmen and sophomores, and between having someone yell at them through the mike and sliding down the slides they should have a great old time gettin' in a dance here and there, and now and then. I managed to scrape up a few more dates for the "Hobo" shindig and here yo-all are: The spotlight will be on:

- Jack Kelly and Gert Herman
 - George Vavrek and Paula Kerr
 - Ruth Reider and Bob Stone
 - Roberta Weber and Ray Wilson
 - Ruth Swaney and Ernie Ware
 - Vivien Stowe and Lowell Hoperick
 - Bill Vaughn and Ella Fultz
 - Bea Taylor and Jim Wright
 - Pete Davis and Elaine Slosner
 - Gloria Hannay and Lloyd Harroff
 - Cathy Scullion and John Sharp
 - Bill Ward and Marty Brian
- (Hope ya' have a nice time!)

Yup! It's only a week away. The night that the juniors dream about, and the night that the seniors wait for all year. Shhhh . . . I don't want it known that the PROM IS NEXT FRIDAY NIGHT! YOU SEE, THOSE STAGS, GEORGE URSU AND PAUL HORNING, HAVEN'T YET HEARD ABOUT IT! (THANKS) So far quite a few of the brave lads have staggered forth to report a date in tow for the momentous occasion. You will find a number of them below:

- Sunny Paige and John Cone
- Alma Alton and Knobby Green
- Ada Zerbs and Art Scheib
- Herb Hansell and Carol Jaeger
- Mary Byers and Fred Krauss
- Dorothy Haldi and Bill Benson
- Walt Vansickle and Ruth Umberger
- Curly Dinsmore and Betty Merry
- Doris Holroyd and Kirby Laughlin
- Warren Helm and Ann Bodirnea
- Jinny McArtor and Terry Atkinson
- Betty Hardy and Duber Miller
- Clyde Pales and Camille Jones
- Baby Fratila and Bob Sell
- Teeny Schell and Jim Primm
- Dot Brobander and Bill Haessly
- Jean Lantz and Dan Reardon
- Lorraine Adams and Jim Steele
- Emma Bauman and Bob Cibula
- Doris Ellis and Red Kautz
- Barb Butler and Dick Scullion
- Nada Krepps and Butch Wise
- Faye Cozad and Howard Coy
- Bill Stratton and Ann Tolp
- Dot McCready and Jim Hunter
- Liz Stewart and Albert Kenst
- Mildred Kenmuir and Martin Juhn
- Tooter Lozier and Bob Knepper
- Jeanne Warner and Herb Wilker
- Helen Louise Theiss and Ray Fawcett
- Esther Davis and Dick Lodge

Nosiree! I have NOT forgotten those "steadies" as you know them:

- Tay and Bird
- Jeanie and Wiggle
- Ruthie and Johnnie
- Esther M. and Dick Lantz
- Jinny Snyder and Bill
- Priscilla B. and Ed Ferko
- Mary Beth and Kenny
- Mousie and Maggie

"The little fortune teller man" up at the Corner created quite a sensation from the sounds in the halls and "When's your birthday?" Esther Davis was quite impressed with the fact that she was going to get fat from laughing and he also told Jack Rance that he was different from anybody else . . . (don't know exactly what he meant!) - 'Tis okay if you believe in fortune tellers.

Well, gotta leave you for awhile, but here's a thought for the day. When you don't know how to spell the word you want to use, try a synonym. Bye!

Yo-Yo Fad Strikes SHS

As the radiant sunshine beats down upon the irregular shaped domes of SHS students, this lovely day in May, one can't help noticing the very latest device of "brain pacifiers" that has taken the dear old school completely by storm—the well-known "yo-yo".

While our "bloodshot optics" gaze drowsily about, we begin to wonder whether we are really awake or whether this is just a terrific nightmare, because everybody seems to have one of those babies' playthings.

Ah yes, the "yo-yo" has at last come into its own in the world of "knick knacks" and "flip dicks," because the high school youths have adopted it as their favorite plaything.

However, as we really begin to take notice, we see that the only people who are entertaining themselves with such a childish toy are: the freshmen, sophomores and juniors.

According to the freshmen, the art of yo-yoing causes, not only many hours of delightful entertainment for those adolescents, but also a great amount of mental strain and bulging biceps.

Such foolishness is undoubtedly considered elite and stylish for children in the primary schools and freshmen and sophomores (they just don't know any better), but when a junior is found idling his time away in such a nonsensical manner, that is too much.

It is the opinion of most people that, after having spent three years in high school, these juniors (so-called young men and women), would be ready to leave all their foolish, childish fancies to the underclassmen and prepare to assume the role, that has been so nobly portrayed, but which will soon be vacated, by the class of '43 of "glorious seniors".

However, this role can most certainly not be played to the highest degree and standard, as it has been by the seniors of '43, until the juniors realize that they are no longer underclassmen, and put away their juvenile ideas.

All we can do now is hope and pray.

Bobby Brian Is B.B. Fan

Roses are red,
Violets are blue,
You can't have suger
And Bobby Brian, too!

The foregoing young miss, whose correct name is Barbara, hails from senior home room 208. She stands 5 ft. 9 in., and weighs 130 pounds. Brown hair and blue eyes, which can usually be seen looking through a pair of shell-rimmed glasses, help to identify her.

"Bobby" is fond of baseball (here the Indians have preference), dancing, steaks, and milkshakes. Green is her favorite color, and William Holden her favorite actor. Favorite band leader is—here are a few hints. His first name is Harry and his last, James. Get it? Favorite song is "Johnny Zero."

Barbara's hobby is collecting records, classical and popular. To date she has approximately 250.

Having people misspell (accidentally, of course) her last name as Brain instead of Brian is a pet peeve of hers. Also that latest and very complicated fad, the yo-yo.

After graduation, Barbara wishes to attend Oberlin College, but has no definite plans as yet.

Band Leader Has Troubles

Ho-hum. Nothing to do. What say we look in on "Salty" Sell and the Rythmaires for a little diversion.

Well, there's the maestro himself, trying to get things organized. When I say trying I mean just that. He's trying to do something with the music and the boys are trying to him. Dan Reardon is over there blowing something sweet and low on his trumpet (just like H. James, doncha' think?) while Martin Juhn beats out some hot boogie on the keyboard. (Oh, well, you know how the old saying goes, "Varsity, etc.")

"Blitz" Krauss and Dale Wykoff get together and manage to get out a little tune. This makes them so happy they decide to adjourn.

Giggle. There's Herb Hansell over there in the corner trying to play the "Cow-cow Boogie" from a book of old time waltzes.

Golly, Salt's really getting mad, now, we'd better go. I've had enough of this anyhow, haven't you?

Congratulations

Our congratulations to 310! This freshman home-room has sold more war stamps and bonds than any other home room in Salem High school. Through the efforts of Hi-Tri representative Ann Tolp, this room has gone over the top in showing its patriotism and its earnest desire to help.

It is through the whole-hearted cooperation of rooms like this that the Hi Tri bond and stamp sales in Salem High have gone over $3,000. If more home rooms would make it a point of purchasing their bonds and stamps at school, the school could really go over the top.

Monday morning when your Hi-Tri representative comes in, have your dollars ready for a large purchase of War Bonds and Stamps for Uncle Sam!

Diary Tells Story

Every student who believes he has done his full share in helping the war effort, and every student who thinks that the war we are fighting is a cinch, one which we cannot possibly lose (we never have lost a war) should read "Guadalcanal Diary" by Correspondent Richard Tregaskis. The heroic struggle of the Marines on this fever-infested island should never be forgotten.

Our victory in Solomon Islands was taken by many people to be just another step in this "easy war" we are fighting. Actually, our victory in the Solomons was a victory brought about by a handful of brave Marines. This victory was bought at the cost of men's lives. Only one who has actually seen the battles with the snipers and submarines can grasp the full meaning of what our so-called victories really mean.

In his book, Mr. Tregaskis has told in simple language the life and death struggle for the Solomons. The battle is not glorified and in places it is even humorous, but from this account students can fully realize the true impact of war. Perhaps, knowing the true facts, this will serve to make them more conscious than ever of the ever-present need for real aid to our government. This aid can come from our regular purchases of war bonds and stamps; our blood can help; jobs in defense industries are vital; and any work which we may do with the U. S. O. or the Red Cross is all vital to the well-being of our soldiers. What's more, from our full cooperation in the war effort we are day by day shortening the war, making the days which "Guadalcanal Diary" describes fade farther and farther into the distance.

N.E.O. Track Meet Held At Reilly Stadium Sat., 15 Schools Represented

Meet Greatly Curtailed Because of War Restrictions: 150 Athletes Meet Here Tomorrow For Contest

Greatly curtailed because of war restrictions, the annual northeastern Ohio track meet will be staged tomorrow morning and afternoon at Reilly stadium. The event will attract approximately 15 schools and 150 athletes.

This represents nearly a 50 per cent decline in the number of contestants from the previous year. Akron North, Boardman, and East Palestine loom as meet favorites. Palestine obtained added prestige as a result of the ease with which it triumphed in the Columbiana county track meet last week.

Winners and runners-up in the 14 events will be eligible for competition at the State meet in Columbus the following Saturday. This year, ribbons, instead of medals, will be awarded to contestants placing first, second and third in their respective field. The action was taken as a conservation measure. Cups will be presented to the winning school and the runner-up.

The Quakers expect to enter approximately 20 boys. Gerald Bingham has likely chances of copping the broad jump if he continues to leap as he has in practices. Ed Ferko looks promising in the 440 yard dash. Revamping of the mile relay team the past week allows room for speculation. Ferko will run as anchor man. Fred Krauss will be advanced to the third position, and Perry Whitacre will move into second place, and the fourth man has not been decided upon.

Preliminaries are scheduled to begin at 9:00 a. m. and the finals will start at 2:00 p. m.

East Palestine Wins County Track Meet

East Palestine won the fortieth annual Columbiana county track meet in scheduled fashion last Friday evening under the lights of Reilly stadium. Finishing poor runners-up in the quadrangular affair, Salem, East Liverpool and Wells-ville were second, third and fourth, respectively.

The East Palestine lads garnered 71 2/3 points, the Quakers 54 1/3, the Ceramists 23, and the Wells-ville thinclads had to be content with a trifling 5 points.

Stanley Kell from East Palestine was the individual star as he established a new record for the lightweight discus with a heave of 140 feet 11 inches, besides taking another first in shot-put and seconds in the 100 and 220-yard dashes. Incidentally, Kell broke his own record, made in last year's meet.

Scoring almost half of his team's total, Charlie Christian of the Pottery City squad took second place laurels with wins in the 100 and 220-yard dashes and was a member of the winning 880-yard relay team. Harold Roberts of East Palestine again took the mile and half mile runs. This was the fourth year that he has captured the mile and the third year for the half mile.

Frank Entriiken led the locals with 9 1/3 points, and a fall in the hurdles relieved him of four more points. He tied with two others for first in the pole vault, won the high hurdles, and grabbed a fourth in the 220-yard low hurdles. Taking first in the broad jump and second in the high jump, Gerald Bingham picked up eight markers for the locals.

The track was in excellent condition as the result of three days' grace from rain.

Summary:
100-Yard Dash—Won by Christian (E.L.); Kell (E.P.) second; Tomlinson, (E.L.) third; Smith third; Smith (W) fourth; time 10.5

Quakers Trample Wellsville 106 1/2-11 1/2

In preparation for the annual Columbiana County track meet, the Salem High thinclads staged time trials at the expense of the Wells-ville Tigers as they rolled up 106 1/2 points while their foes were struggling for a mere 11 1/2 a week ago Tuesday under the light of Reilly stadium.

The locals captured everyone of the 14 events and yielded only two second places. Frank Entriiken took firsts in the pole vault, high hurdles, and low hurdles to compile a 15 point total. Finishing a close second for high point honors with 13 markers, Charlie Dunlap took firsts in the high jump and 220-yard dash and a second in the broad jump.

All season the pole vault maximum has been 10 feet, but Entriiken raised the horizontal another three inches in the Wellsville meet and that was sufficient to win the event without further exertion. Gerald Bingham gave his best meet performance of the year as he broad jumped 20 feet, 10 inches.

Summary of last night's meet:
120-Yd. H. H.—Entriiken (S) won, Giles (W) 2, Taflan (S) 2. Time 17.1 seconds.

220-Yd. L. H.—Entriiken (S) won, Greene (S) 2, Giles (W). Time, 28 seconds.

Shot put—Thomas (S) won, Weigand (S) 2, Bell (W) 3. Distance 40 ft, 2 in.

100-Yd. dash—W. Krauss (S) won, Bell (W) 2, F. Smith (W) 3. Time, 11 seconds.

880-Yd. run — Ferko (S) won, Hoover (S) 2, Rance (S) 3. Time 2:12.6.

Discus — Hart (S) won. Hrvatin (S) 2, Brian (S) 3. Distance 118 feet.

Mile run—Hoover (S) won, Rance (S) 2, Little (S) 3. Time 4:57.1.

220-Yd. dash — Dunlap (S) won, W. Krauss (S) 2, Lanney (S) 3. Time 24.9.

From the Sidelines

Tough breaks and a few other minor details cost the Red and Black thinclads of Salem, the Annual County track meet. It was more or less a dual meet between Palestine and Salem, for those two teams ran neck and neck throughout the entire meet but Palestine collected a few unexpected points while Salem lost a few sure points. The final score considering this a dual meet was Palestine 71 2-3 to Salem's 54 1-3. Flick Entriiken received one of toughest breaks a hurdler could get and that was tripping over a hurdle while leading the race. He got to his feet immediately and fought for first place again, but his fall cost him too much ground and he finished fourth. Knobby Greene, who was trailing Flick, was delayed when Flick rolled over into his lane but Knobby came in second and gave the Palestine man a race that he will long remember. Flick took first in the high hurdles and tied for first in the pole vault. Tony Hoover and Ed Ferko did all right for themselves in the distances. Tony took a second in the mile and the half mile while Ed took first in the 440-yd. dash and second in the half mile run. Duane Thomas, although no match for East Palestine's Kell, did very good, taking second in the shot put. John Hart, also no match for Kell, took second in the discus. Every year, for the past few years has been going to be Salem's year to win the County track meet, but next year, without a doubt, will be the Red and Black's year, due to a practically all-junior and underclassman team. So, next year the Bulldog from East Palestine is going to drag its tail.

The Sportsman of the Week:
Our sportsman of the week is none other than that "High Flyin'" man, Gerald Bingham. Gerald, last year when a sophomore, broad jumped a distance of 19 feet 6 1/2 inches to set his own record. This year he has broken his record twice. In the Wellsville meet he won the meet easily with a leap of 20 feet 10 inches to

THE JACKSONIAN, Jackson, O.
"Is your mother at home?" inquired the canvasser of a small boy in the yard.
"Yes, sir," replied the boy, politely.
The salesman rang the bell half a dozen times, but there was no response.
"Why did you tell me that your mother was at home?" he asked the boy reproachfully.
"Because she is, sir," replied the youngster, "but we don't live here."

"You know how you can tell the difference between a student and a teacher, don't you?"
"No, how?"
"Well, if there are two people in a classroom and one of them is asleep, the other one is the teacher."

"Glamour" is the word gals. I mean in more ways than one. I've just discovered a new magazine, a miniature Mlle. And is it nifty! "Glamour" is its monicker.

There's a new Baby Bonnet in the Back-of-the-Head hat family who's getting more precocious all the time. Her first cousins..Bennie, Beret, and Skull Cap—are just as much favorites this spring as ever. But they're beginning to sit up and take notice of this outstanding child prodigy. Young gals will probably clamor for these snug little bonnets. There's nothing fly-by-night about them and they cling comfortably to all sorts of hairdos and are tied securely at the chin.

An ensemble has not been complete these past weeks without the added touch of a yo-yo. Little men in white coats stand at entrances to homeroom doors and all who pass through the portals MUST have a yo-yo. Otherwise Mouse McGhee is said to have started this remarkable evolution. It's now quite common to see everyone walking to school with books in one hand and a yo-yo in the other.

All the styles of yesteryear are coming back again. The pigtail fad is now going strong. We've noticed Joan O'Hara, Myrna Tullis, and Inez Jones looking outstandingly "school-girlish" not to mention "cute" in theirs. Large bows (should I say ribbons?) add the touch of perfection.

In occupied Holland a Nazi raised his arm and said "Heil Hitler." A Dutchman said, "Heil Rembrandt." Asked by the Nazi, "Why do you say that?" Answered the Dutchman, "Because you gave the name of your best painter and I gave the name of ours."
