Twenty-Five Orchestra And Band Students To Represent Salem High School In Festival

Annual Music Festival to Be Held at Mount Union; Ninety-Six Piece Orchestra to Present Program

Twenty-six students from Salem High School will participate in the High School Music Festival to be held today at Mount Union college, Mr. C. M. Brautigam announced.

Those taking part in the band concert are Bill Byers, Calvin Critchfield, Bob Ellyson, Louise Hanna, Gloria Hannay, Bob Hodge, Inez Jones, Walter Krauss, Glen Lewis, Eugene Mueller, Bill Scullion, Jeanne Sharp, Mary Jane Sproat, Ruth Swaney, Marjorie Zeller.

Those participating in the orchestra concert are Jay Hanna and Donna Regal.

Those participating in the chorus are Ben Bruderly, Margaret Cubbage, Doris Floyd, Peggy Pritchard, Marion Simonds, Mary Mae Votaw, Tom Williams, Dorothy Zimmerman, Lois Zimmerman. Alternates are: Pat Cosgrove and Evelyn Nichlason.

The orchestra rehearsals will be held in the morning, and the band and chorus rehearsals in the afternoon. At 4:45 all three groups will combine to rehearse "THE VOICE OF FREEDOM". Rehearsals will be in charge of guest conductors, Amous Wesler, from John Adams High school in Cleveland, and Ralph Rush, from Cleveland Heights, and Oscar Jones of Finley schools.

The evening program begins at 8:00. Each group will give approximately a half hour concert with "THE VOICE OF FREEDOM" being the Grand Finale, in which all three groups, band, orchestra, and chorus, consisting of 550 students, will all combine music and voices.

Food Classes Prepare Banquet For Quaker Roundballers

During the last six weeks the girls in Mrs. Leah Strain's foods classes worked on a contract. They accomplished different amounts of work for their desired grades. Mrs. Strain said the pupils did quite well with this contract, and some unusually nice notebooks about child care were handed in to her.

Tuesday, April twenty-fifth, the Booster Club gave a banquet for the basketball team, in the school dining room. The foods classes prepared and served the food for the banquet. Several piano selections were played during the dinner by Velma O'Neil, a member of the foods class.

During the next six weeks the foods classes will study about the care of the sick in the home.

Charles Burchfield, S. H. S. Alumnus, Honored In Buffalo

Distinguished Water Colorist Receives Medal

A catalogue, featuring the retrospective exhibition of water colors and oils now being exhibited at the Buffalo Fine Arts Academy of Charles Burchfield, former Salem resident and graduate of Salem High school, has been filed in the library. Burchfield is said to be one of the most distinguished living water colorists.

He was born in Ashtabula Harbor, Ohio, April 9, 1895. At five years of age he moved with his family to Salem. After graduating from high school in 1911 he became an accountant in the cost department of an auto parts company here. In 1912 he secured a scholarship and entered the Cleveland school of Art. His most valued instructor and adviser there was Henry G. Keller. Keller encouraged him to develop an individual style relatively untouched by outside influences. In 1916 he went to New York for a short stay, where he met Mrs. Mowbray Clarke who received his work enthusiastically and gave him his first exhibition at the Sunwise Turn Bookshop. Critical notes were favorable and he continued to develop his style until 1918, when he was inducted into the Army. He returned to Salem and in 1921 left to take up a position as designer with a wallpaper firm in Buffalo.

He has received many honors and awards in numerous exhibitions throughout the country. The University of Buffalo in February of this year presented him with its highest honor in the form of the Chancellor's Medal "in recognition of the fact that through his convincing revelation of the beauty latent in familiar surroundings he has attained eminence among the painters of his generation."

Latin Club Elects First Year Program Chairmen April 25

At a meeting of the "Sodilas Latina" Latin club last Tuesday, Joey Works, Marilyn Schaeffer and Gene Schaeffer were elected first year program chairmen.

Plans were made for a play to be presented in the near future by the Freshmen members. Arrangements were also formulated for a final farewell picnic to be held at the Country Club late in May for the Latin Club members who are ending their second year in the club, Miss Redinger, faculty adviser,

Member of Quaker Staff for Three Years; President Of Student Council; Will Edit Last Edition

Jim Kelley, junior, has been appointed editor-in-chief of the Quaker Weekly for the 1944-45 school year by Jack Rance, present editor, with the approval of Mr. H. C. Lehman, faculty adviser, of the editorial staff.

Twelve Students Are Initiated Into Thespians April 26

Twelve students were initiated into the Salem High Thespian troupe at an informal ceremony in the auditorium Wednesday evening. Those initiated were Sally Campbell, Joan Combs, Jim Cope, Jack Emery, Jackie Jensen, Pat Keener, Mary Lou Mason, Sis Mullins, Dolores Poorbaugh, Jeanne Sharp, Ernest Ware and Dick Widmyer.

In order to be eligible for membership it was necessary for candidates to have a minimum for 12 Thespian points, a "C" average, and to be at least in their Junior year. All 12 candidates met the requirements and have been accepted as new members.

Committees on the initiation were program, Dick Butler; Beatty Cibula, Rachel Keister and Martin Juhn; speech, Don Whiteleather and Marilyn Page; foods, Marian Messersmith, Jean Dilworth and Joanne Zimmerman; invitation, Miss Ospeck and Ada Zerbs.

At a recent meeting plans were made to hold an annual banquet. May 18 was set as the tentative date. It was also decided to produce another of a series of one-act plays, sponsored by the Thespians. Only Freshmen and Sophomores are to be used in the cast. Marian Messersmith and Dick Butler will direct the play.

"Just Suppose," Wins First Prize In Scholastic Sponsored Contest

Below is an editorial written by Barbara Brown, of Olney High school, Philadelphia, Pa., which won first place in a contest sponsored by the Treasury Dept. and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

Suppose there were no tomorrow? Think about it for just a minute—No tomorrow for you, or your kid sister at home—or the brother who left for the army yesterday. Did you ever think that we, who have had so few yesterdays, may have no tomorrows?

It has happened, you know. To Jack Feldman, and to Bob Ernest—and to fifteen other boys who sat in our classes just last year . . . They will have no tomorrows.

Kelley has been a member of the editorial staff for three years, and Managing Editor of the Weekly this past year. He is a former journalism student.

While in high school, Kelley has been active in many other activities. He is president of the Student Council and held the office of vice president of the Latin club his sophomore year. He has been an honor roll student since his entrance to Salem High. Having pursued an academic course in preparation for college entrance.

Kelley has announced that he will select his staff within a few weeks.

Twelve New Books Recently Received In SHS Library

New books recently received in the library are:

- Boyle—Avalanche.
- Coles—Great Caesar's Ghost.
- Colver—Mr. Lincoln's Wife.
- Dempewolf—Animal Reveille.
- Downey—Dog of War.
- Forbes—Johnny Tremain.
- Goodman—Fireside Book of Dog Stories.
- Haig-Brown — Starbuck Valley Winter.
- Kimbrough—We Followed Our Hearts to Hollywood.
- Shea—The WACS.
- Shiber—Paris-Underground.
- Spencer—Made In China.

They died before they ever had a try at living . . . so that we here at home might have our chance.

There are millions who were asked to give up more than double feature at the movie . . . or a spiffy new pair of pumps for next year's formal. A soda is a pretty insignificant thing, when you think of things like—

The kids in Russia, who live on a few ounces of cereal a day. They have never seen an ice-cream soda.

The Polish boys and girls, who would be in school right now, just as we are . . . if there were any schools left.

Susie Sub Deb

By Pat Keener

Hi There, Fem:

Here I be with gossip about the newest fad and fashions around school.

FOR SWEATER GIRLS ONLY:—Snappy Susies are reversing their light sweater—dark skirt formula. This season they are wearing dark sweaters with light skirts (even white). As I looked around I noticed Inez Jones, Jeanne Sharp, and Joanne O'Hara wearing this pleasing "combo." They combine to make an outfit that rates a second look from that special someone in anyone's life.

BABY BEADS—Sew big wooden beads around the neckline of your pull-on. If you have a cardigan, sew them in place of the regular buttons. P. S. The beads can be found in any baby department.

STRETCH SAVERS—If the neck and sleeves of your favorite pull-ons have stretched beyond recognition, here's what to do: before they dry, weave ribbon in and out of the neck and sleeves. If you haven't any ribbon handy, just use some string, this will keep them in shape through many washings.

UNDER COVER STUFF — Have you heard the latest about the nighties the gals are wearing lately? The last few slumber parties brought them out in their full glory. They are lacy, and miles wide. Sis Mullins raided her attic, and found one her grandmother owned. Mollie Schmid, Peg Roose and Bette Gibbs also have some flannel cuties. The nighties can be found in most of the department stores now.

RATIONED FASHIONS — Those popular loafers you have all been yearning for are now on sale at most stores. They are selling a certain amount of them without ration stamps. Better get on the beam, lassies! Speaking of shoes reminds me of the little moron who put crumbs in his shoes to feed his pigeon toes. (ouch!)

FUR-SIDE INSIDE — The newest coats out are fur-lined jobs. They are plain wool on the outside, with leopard, muskrat, or sheep linings. They feel mighty good on these chilly mornings, and for those late dates.

NON-SKID RAYONS — For you

Grables who are having trouble with your rayon hose crawling around your legs, here is a tip—rub hand lotion all over your legs and allow to dry before putting on your hose. This keeps your seams straight and your legs from chapping. While we're on the subject of legs, Mary Lou Mason has a darling lapel pin in the shape of legs a la Grable made of plastic. She tells me it is a dime store gem.

EARS BURNING?—A pair of woolen gloves will help this situation. Sew the gloves together by the finger tips and attach crocheted strings or rib-

Who Is It?

"Don't you want to ride with me Billy?" "No. My mom won't let me ride with girls." "But I'm not a girl I'm a boy."

This conversation was carried on about twelve years ago.

You don't believe that this picture is of a boy? Well it is. He is a Sophomore. 5 ft. 8½ in. tall with a beautiful butch. He knows everyone in the school and everyone knows him. He weighs about 132. His favorite orchestra is Harry James and favorite recording is "Cross Your Heart." His sport is basketball. He wouldn't tell me HER name so we'll let it go at that.

Look in the ads for his name. Maybe you'll find it this week.

Chappell Bells

BY JUNE

It is time to uncork another can of chatter demons. The can is not so full today but since it is the noted theory that womanhood has a gift of gab, we'll see what can be done.

The Association Hop was really a rare specimen. more antics and tumbles! "Boogie Woogie" Martin and his men were really in the groove and that ain't hay. They stayed in the groove all evening too. The Decoration Committee tells me that the decorations were supposed to represent April Showers. Quite fitting, too! Ah, doesn't everyone love rain? A person gets used to it when the blasted stuff makes its appearance every other ten minutes. Getting back to the party, everyone had a grand time. Especially Peg Roose and Sis Keyes, who were intelligent and wore their very highest heels. About the middle of the gala affair these two misses could be seen running around in their stocking feet. And Peg with nylons on, too!

Here are some of the dates present:

Jim Kelley—Betty Gibbs
Pat Keener—Jim Gibbs
Bill Stoudt—Barbara Lane
Jim Appedison—Joan Hardy
Tony and Ginny

Jay and Alma
Peg and Paul Englert
Sis Mullins and Scub

? and Jack Rance

Sis Keyes and John Mulford
Barb Butler and Bob Ellyson
Sally Campbell and Gene Howell
Connie and Walt Brian

By the way, the most interesting dance team I noticed at the party was Mrs. Brown and Bob Musser. How's about it?

THAT'S LIFE

Last Wednesday was undoubtedly a red letter day for the majority of us. Great day . . . that's report cards! Maybe that's why they've been rolling the streets up so early lately. It's funny how so many studes turn bookworms after that fatal day. It only lasts two weeks at the most though. It's kind of a different story for the Seniors though. Of course they'd kinda like to own one of those things they call a diploma. It won't be long, kids!

These were voted tops as the three sweetest words in the English language:

1. I love you
2. Dinner is served
3. All is forgiven
4. Sleep till noon
5. Keep the change
6. Here's that five

And the saddest were:

1. External use only
2. Buy me one
3. Out of gas
4. Dues not paid
5. Funds not sufficient
6. Rest in peace.

LOOKING FOR FUN

Yes, sir, if you can't find something to do, just drop out to Don Rosing's residence some night. You see, he throws a party every night and two on Sundays. Not long ago, there was a gas attack. It seems that Oyster Ritchie and Forrest Richard Field were roaming around in the depths of Rosing's cellar. Someone threw a tank or something of sulphuric gas down and kindly locked the cellar door. The two victims of this circumstance got kind of groggy so they escaped the fumes by climbing through a handy window. Things like that go on constantly. It really must be fun. Just ask Lowell Gordon (another one of the Field boys).

CORN OF THE WEEK

"Melvin! Melvin!"

"What, Ma?"

"Are you spitting in the fishbowl?"

"No, Ma, but I'm coming pretty close."

COUPLE OF THE WEEK

This time the arrow is pointed toward Sammae Lockhart and Frank Carlross. They really are a cute couple and can be seen together quite often. Frank is one of those Southern gentlemen. I'm quite sure he doesn't have that Mason-Dixon line. Sammae probably has the same hope. Anyway here's to you, kids!

Well, I've dug up all the dirt there is to be found. Therefore, I'll have to pound the pavement. Don't ever forget though that the smallest of all packages is the person wrapped up in himself.

Which Will It Be?

The High School Canteen idea is rapidly formulating into more than a dream and an ideal. Many steps have been taken and it is now on the way to a reality.

The idea, as most ideas go, seemed grand and marvelous to the students, and with no further thought they pledged themselves to cooperate.

This pledge of cooperation encouraged those interested in it to proceed with further plans; plans by which the project might be started as soon as possible.

What the pupils of high school have yet to realize is the work involved in this "canteen". Will they be willing to help when called upon or will they let a few do all the work, the few who are reliable and who are willing to do their share?

In many cases this is found to happen unless interest is so great that everyone will feel that it is a part of his duty and that it is a privilege to help.

Then, too, one objection which has plainly been brought to the surface is the idea that a certain few will take it upon themselves to run it, eliminating the rest from the "way-so" as to what goes on. If students have enough spirit, and everyone does an equal share of the work, and gets an equal share of the fun out of it, this won't happen.

With these points in mind, and with many other problems yet to be solved, the success of the canteen, it can be clearly seen, lies solely with the boys and girls themselves and the interest they show in it.

Other places have made their canteens successful, and also some have failed. Which will it be here—failure or success?

Think Twice

The most recent news stories have made many Americans think twice about the length of this second great world conflict. Yes, the news of the Japanese advance into India and the determined German defense of Cassino really set a United States, which was set for peace in 1944 or early 1945, back on its heels.

But these setbacks may be of immense value to Americans and in their way may help rout the Axis by serving as a stimulant for the millions of Americans who were all set to sit back, take it easy, and let the allied armed Forces quickly end the war.

Now citizens of the United States, the workers and high school and college students as well, will think twice about "laying down" on their jobs, not buying war bonds, taking wartime vacations, not giving blood, or not donating to the Red Cross.

They will again have to pull in their belts and buckle down to the all important job of winning the war, for Americans have learned that this battle for survival isn't over yet and may not be for quite some time.

A soldier got a letter from his wife containing a sketch of their car's instrument panel. "This is the exact way the dashboard looks," she wrote. "Do we need a quart of oil?"

Quakers Romp Over Louisville 78 to 40

Red and Black Tracksters Sweep 10 of 14 Events; Dunlap Stars For Salem

Dunlap, Quaker Speedster, Scores 20 Points With Firsts In 100-Yard Dash, 220-Yard Dash, Broad Jump, and High Jump

Opening their 1944 track season and taking 10 of the 14 events, Coach Fred Cope's Salem High thinclads conquered Louisville High 78 to 40, last Friday in a dual meet at Louisville.

Charles Dunlap, veteran letterman from last year's squad was high scorer for the Quakers as he took four firsts for a total of 20 points. Flick Entriken chalked up a total of 10 1/4 points in three events while Ed Ferko took first in the 440 and 880 yard events for 10 points. Art Hoover and Charles Myers each scored 5 points in the mile run and shot put, respectively.

Both the Salem half-mile and mile relay teams won firsts. The half-mile relay team is composed of Don Raymond, Dan Sanor, Dick Gotschling and Francis Lanney. Walt Brian, Dick Widmyer, Charles Schaeffer and Don Chappell make up the mile relay team.

bons to the other ends, long enough to tie under the chin with a bow. Kinda cute and Oh! so warm.

POCKET FASHIONS — Sew a pair of gloves or mittens on either side of your favorite skirt. Leave the tops open and you will have pockets worth picking. If you have a sweater with a hole in it, sew a mitten over it in the same way.

DICKIE DOIN'S—Knitted dickies are very popular now. Many girls are knitting their own, so get out your needles and go to work, girls.

Your Peter Pan collared dickies worn under those new collarless blouses are just the thing. Buy your blouse in color and top it off with a white dickie, or vice versa.

I leave you with this poem:
Mary had a little lamp
A good one, we don't doubt,
And every time the boys came in

The little lamp went out.

120-yard high hurdles—Ritchie (L) won, Entriken (S) 2nd, Bixler (L) 3rd. Time: 16.2 sec.

100-yard dash—Dunlap (S) won, Bixler (L) 2nd, Krauss (S) 3rd. Time: 10.7 sec.

had a hamburger when they were out on a date—or any other time, for that matter. They are old, very old . . . older than you and I will ever be . . .

There are millions of them . . . in Norway . . . Holland . . . Denmark . . . Belgium . . . They would stare in amazement if they could be here to see—

A jalopy painted bright yellow. "The Tin You Love to Touch" printed in big green letters on the back.

A high school senior, uncomfortable in his first tuxedo. . . . calling for his date looking nervous.

Millions of things that we take for granted . . .

There is such a feeling of permanency in our tight little world. We'll go to school with the gang today . . . and tomorrow . . .

Buy War Bonds . . . That's simple little phrase. It's the American way of saying what we mean in a few direct words. Buy War Bonds.

Yes—you and everybody must buy War Bonds. We've got to buy more and more of 'em. Just get the idea into your head that your $18.75 might—you might end the war one fifth of a second sooner. That maybe, in that one-fifth of a second, the boy next door could be on the receiving end of a bullet . . . Then you'll know that it's worth any small sacrifice you have to make!

Notice!

Mr. Chester Brautigam, band director, wishes to announce that the High School band concert will be held May 11, at 8:15 p. m., in the Salem High school auditorium.

The program will be announced in the next issue of The Quaker.

Huddles with Hoover

By Tony Hoover

It looks as though the local thinclads have a very good chance of copping the County meet this year, if their initial encounter is any evidence of what they will do in the future.

Charley Dunlap proved to be a one man team, by garnering four first places. "Stuff" Dunlap had only to go 5 feet 7 inches to win his high jump and declined the opportunity to see how high he actually could go. In the broad jump he soared 20 feet 1 and 3/4 inches, a distance that is thus far unequalled in this district.

At the time of this writing the results of the dual contest between Boardman and Salem are unknown, but it is guaranteed to be close with Salem probably taking the meet by a narrow margin.

From the looks of things in Canton and Akron, there are going to be some broken records in the annual District Meet this year. Last Saturday a lad in Akron and one in Canton both clipped off the mile in 4 minutes and forty seconds. Another student hailing from Akron sped through the 100 yard dash in 9.9, a speed that was not surpassed in last years State Meet.

All you studes that have any interests in Paul Englert, Ben

Kupka, Al Votaw, John Tompkinson, "Socko Vavrek, or Gene Howell, had all better brush up on Auld Lang Sang, as all of those potential draftees mentioned above leave for their physicals next Wednesday, and no telling how long they will be around after that.

Farewell till Friday, Arthur Hoover

Below is a letter written to Miss Beardmore, History teacher in Salem High from Frank Hill, a United States Air Cadet and a member of the class of 1943.

Dear Miss Beardmore:

Truly I am ashamed of myself for not writing before this, but after faithfully promising to do so before I left home I think it is about time.

I am now stationed at Washington University here in St. Louis, taking my college preflight before entering further flying training. Really I am finished with the scheduled Air Crew course here, but when the day came for us to leave, our orders were cancelled. In some ways I am glad they were, but in others I am not so glad. We are all anxious to get on with our training, but then the subjects which we are taking here will help us out in later life, and the more of it we can get the better off we will be. The course includes Math., Physics, Geography, History, and English. They are all fast and more advanced classes than the regular college students have, but if you keep your nose to the books you can keep the grades where they belong. All that is required is a weekly average of 70 and if you don't get this they make you attend a supervised study session on weekends during your Open Post period. As yet, I don't know how, but I have not had to attend any of these.

The University here is a very beautiful place, and is even more beautiful with the coming of spring. As for the city itself, I don't think a person could ever want to be near a better town, unless it was home, and still be in the Army.

I have been getting the Quaker every week, and have been reading about this new Canteen which you are trying to work out. It sounds like a very practical thing, and I am sure the kids at S. H. S. will cooperate 100 per cent if such a thing is accomplished.

There is one question in my mind I would like to know if they have decided as yet as to the price of the new Quaker Annual. The reason I ask this is because I would like to send in and have them reserve a copy for me. Even though my High School days are over, I still like to have a few memories which I can look over and see just what it was like in the good old days.

Well, I guess I had better Roger this letter to a close.

As always,

Behind the lines in Bougainville, New Guinea, North Africa, England, Greenland, China, and Italy—wherever Uncle Sam's fighting forces can be found—sports play a vital part in winning battles. Sports furnish these fighting men enjoyment and relaxation between battles and serve as a great moral builder.

The boys are determined to play their favorite sports whatever the conditions. In the Pacific, coconuts have been known to be used as footballs. Bowling alleys and miniature golf courses have been built behind the battle fronts. When equipment is lacking they make their own.

Baseball leagues have been formed throughout England, North Africa and many islands in the Pacific. Football, basketball, soccer, checkers, and horse racing are some of the other favorite sports of our Allies as well as Uncle Sam's men.

There is a war to be won and there are hardships and dangers in winning it. But the American will get his sports no matter where he is.

Junior High News

A series of three talks, delivered by Dr. G. A. Roose was concluded last week. The talks took place in assembly and were given exclusively for girls. The talks dealt with girls' personal hygiene problems.

Joe Kelly spoke to the Sports Club last Friday, April 21 concerning practices for track and the Junior High inter-room baseball schedule. A Junior High-Salem Freshmen track meet has been scheduled for this spring, Mr. Kelly announced.

Next Thursday and Friday two assemblies, one for the seventh grade on Thursday, and the eighth grade on Friday, will be held. The assemblies will be presented by the orchestra under the direction of Mr. Regal and the Glee club under the direction of Miss Tetlow and Mr. Regal.

Tonight and tomorrow night, the Junior High P. T. S. is sponsoring the Austintown Minstrel Revue which is to be held in the High School Auditorium.

Last Friday the seventh and eighth grades saw a technicolor film entitled, "Song of a Nation" which tells of the writing of the "Star Spangled Banner". Three Ohio Travelogue pictures were also shown last week. The travelogues showed much of this vicinity's scenery including the campus of Kent State University, the hills around East Liverpool and Mill-creek park.

Next Friday, the Junior High Association party will be held starting at two o'clock when Junior High association members go to the State theatre to see the movie "Chip Off the Old Block". After the picture a dance will take place at the High School gym, from four until six. Music will be furnished by Martin Juhn and his orchestra. Refreshments will be served.

Males Hunt For Protection From Female Date Hunters

As everyone probably knows, once every four years there comes a freakish year which is called Leap year. Not only does this year have one extra day, it also has the distinction of being the time when the ladies propose to the men.

To commemorate such an occasion the Junior Musical Culture club sponsored a Leap Year Dance, April 15. In this affair the usual procedure of boys asking girls was reversed, and the boys were the ones who did the sweating, wondering if they would get a date.

The girls must have liked the reversed order of procedure, for by Wednesday the dateless females were swarming around in wolf packs, and the undated males were dodging around corners with a hunted look in their eyes. It was the fate of more than one he-man to have successfully eluded one date-hungry mob of girls by dodging into a class only to be surrounded by another pack of female wolves.

Ah, yes, Leap year comes only once in four years but to the fellow who spent days slinking away from these date-crazy girls, that is

Personalities In Salem High School

The personality of the week has green eyes and blonde hair; she is about 5 ft. 5 in. and weighs 120 pounds. The personality is a girl and is a member of the Sophomore class. Her favorite dish is spaghetti, and also cokes. The song that really sends her is "LOVE, LOVE, LOVE," and the band to play it to suit her is T. Dorsey. Her hobbies are skating, baseball, and bicycling. Her only dislikes (practically) are music lessons and dishes.

Every one of her many friends call her "EVE," and "EVE" would love to go to college. Of course, you are all on the beam by now and are hep to who is being personality-ed. (Gee whiz!) Naturally, it's Evelyn Schmidt.

Another personality of the week is Ernest Ware. Jake (that's his nickname) has brown eyes and dark brown hair, is 5 ft. 8 in. tall and weighs 145 pounds.

Jake's favorite dish is chocolate cake and ice cream. (Who's isn't?)

Just once every four years too often!

The song that strikes him down is that favorite, "YOU'LL NEVER KNOW," and especially if it's played by Tommy Dorsey.

Jake wants to go to college and is going if the old UNCLE SAM doesn't have other plans. He would like to join the Navy. His hobbies are archery, bowling, having fun in any way. If you don't know Jake, you are missing something. But, then, who doesn't know "JAKE"?
