

Ferreri, Kelley Speak At Commencement

Dan Smith To Head Sr. Class;
John Plegge Chosen V. Pres.;
M. C. Scullion Elected Sec.

Junior To Be Led by Gottschling, Coppock, Hodge; Sophomores Elect Krepps, Theiss, Ward

The election of class officers was held this week, and Danny Smith became president of the Senior class for next year. It will be his fourth term as president of his class. John Plegge was elected for a third time as vice president, and Mary Catherine Scullion was elected secretary-treasurer for the third time.

Next year's junior class chose as its officers Dick Gottschling, president; Don Coppock, vice-president, and Bob Hodge, secretary-treasurer. All three boys have held those same offices for two years and will now start a third term.

Keith Krepps, was elected president of the sophomore class for next year. Dick Theiss was chosen as vice-president and Chuck Ward as secretary-treasurer.

The incoming freshmen will elect officers in the fall.

Hi-Tri Mother Daughter Tea Event of May 10

Mrs. Jeanne Singer and Vivian Stowe, Hi-Tri advisor and president, respectively, poured tea at the Annual Hi-Tri Mother-Daughter Tea held Thursday at 4:00 P. M. in the Home Economics room.

The large lace covered tea table was attractively set with two silver tea sets. A novel bouquet of lilies of the valley and pansies served as an appropriate centerpiece.

Approximately seventy mothers, teachers and girls attended the tea. Sweetpea corsages were presented to the mothers and teachers.

Preceding the tea a short program was held in the music room. It was as follows:

Flute Quartet—Calvin Critchfield, Carol Kelly, Esther Jean Mayhew, Jeanne Moore.

Welcome to mothers—Vivian Stowe
"Mother McCree"—Shirley Mangus.
"Ma and the Auto"—Mary Lou Mason

"Mother's Glasses"
Piano Medley—Gertrude Wilms

1. "Mother"
2. "Sougs My Mother Taught Me"
3. "That Wonderful Mother of Mine."

"My Mother"—Betty Cibula.
Hi-Tri Song sung by Mothers and Daughters.

The committee in charge of the tea were as follows:

Refreshment: Joan Combs (Mrs. Strain and the Food Economics classes prepared the refreshments).
Invitations: Pat Loutzenhiser, Helen Kisko, Jackie Troll, Gertrude Wilms.

Corsage and Centerpiece: Betty Cibula, Cathie Scullion, Shirley Mangus.

Clean-up: Social committee.

Musser, Gaunt To Manage Business
For '45-46 Quaker

Business Managers For Quaker Annual,
Weekly Appointed

Mr. R. W. Hilgendorf, faculty advisor for the Quaker business staff, and Chris Paparodis, business manager for the Quaker weekly and annual, have named Robert Musser, Junior, to fill the post of business manager for the Quaker annual for 1946, and Fred Gaunt, Junior, to serve as manager for the Quaker weekly for 1945-46.

Musser, as well as serving on the business staff for three years, had the leading role in the junior class play, "Spring Green." He is a Thesplan this year, and a member of the Slide Rule club.

Gaunt, too, has been a member of the business staff for three years. Along with this, this year he has been a monitor to Mr. L. D. Early, Dean of Boys.

Rev. Mosher To Speak At Baccalaureate

"Power For a Purpose", Will Be Sermon Topic

Rev. Robert Mosher, pastor of the First Friends church, and father of graduating senior, Claude N. Mosher, will be the principal speaker at baccalaureate services Sunday evening, May 27, in the high school auditorium. His subject will be "Power for a Purpose."

In addition to Mosher's sermon, other local ministers will assist in the service.

Quaker Staffs Attend Final Journalism Meeting

The last in a series of five journalism conventions was attended by various members of both the Quaker weekly and business staffs at Younstown East High school, Wednesday night, May 9.

The Salem group attending the Tri-County convention was in charge of Mr. Lehman, Quaker Weekly advisor, and Mr. Hilgendorf, Quaker business advisor and President of the Tri-County Journalism association.

The evening's program included a business meeting which was followed by refreshments and dancing in the East High gym.

Those attending included Mr. Lehman, Mr. Hilgendorf, Jim Kelley, Harvey Walken, Jo Ann Jurgens, Bob Musser, Cathie Scullion, Duane Yeagley, Walter Ibele, Ruth Baltorinic, Chris Paparodis, Rose Ciricosta, David Messersmith, Fred Gaunt and Ted Sabona.

Grade Schools Present Operetta for Music Week

The grade schools gave the Operetta, "Tom Tit Tot," Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. The operetta was directed by Mrs. Ellis Satterthwaite and the proceeds are being used to buy victrolas for the elementary schools. The operetta features Urelma Trestone as Queen, and John Schmidt as King.

Junior Class To Choose Gift For School This Year

The junior class headed by Danny Smith, John Plegge and Velma O'Neil, with Mr. A. V. Henning, advisor, has decided to buy the customary senior gift in their junior year.

This year's junior class is the first class to buy their gift in the junior year. President Danny Smith said, "We want to buy the gift this year so that it will be here for us to appreciate in our senior year."

The class has fourteen ideas for the gift to vote on. They are. Clock for the lower north hall, new blinds for study hall, honor roll for graduated servicemen, rug for stage, flats for stage, bust of Roosevelt, new lights for 209, lights for trophy cases, new ticket booth for Reilly field, bulletin boards for rooms that need them; electric stamping device for the office, mirrors and lights for the dressing rooms, fiction books for the library, and Junior and Senior classes combine to buy a monument for those who died in battle.

Thespians Attend "Best Foot Forward"

In accordance with the plan of observing actors at work upon the stage, Thesplan Troupe 358 traveled to Lisbon May 4 to see the Lisbon "Best Foot Forward." The troupe went backstage and exchanged greetings with the cast afterwards.

At a recent meeting the troupe drafted a new constitution. This if adopted will take effect next year.

Initiation of new members will take place May 18. Committees for this function are Jim Kelley, Estelle

Quaker Annual Is On The Way!

Word was recently received from the covermakers for the Quaker annual that as yet the covers have not been completed. This unfinished task holds up other processes connected with the year book, and although the printing has been finished, the binders cannot start work until the covers are delivered to them. The annual, which is generally issued around the last week of school, will be distributed then if at all possible, and all efforts on the part of the staffs, editors, and managers are being directed to that end, but due to war time restrictions and difficulty in shipment, as well as the unfinished covers, the book may not be issued until later. If such is the case, provision will be made so that all those who should receive their annual will get it at the soonest possible time.

V-E Day of Work

With the war in Europe having reached its climax, it is only human for us to forget about the war with Japan for a while. Our victory with Germany, which has occurred, seems to bring the end of the whole thing much closer.

This is probably true if our joy over the defeat of Germany doesn't cause us to forget the importance of the war effort. It is still our duty to sacrifice that extra sugar, meat and gasoline, and we must still buy bonds.

Our misfortune of losing President Roosevelt at a time like this must be overcome by doing all we can to help President Truman in his difficult task.

Get Your Prom Dates!

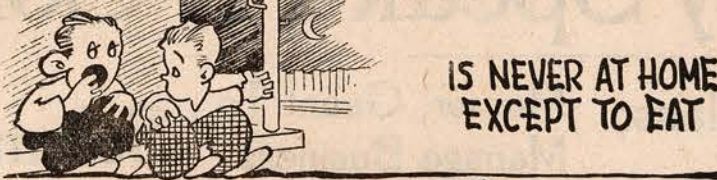

Some of the you boys certainly ought to be ashamed of yourselves. Here the prom is exactly one week from this Friday, and half of you don't have a date. Oh, sure, by the time May 25 rolls around some of you will have gotten a date, but just as many won't. Some aren't too shy to ask; they just won't do it. The prom is one of the things a girl looks forward to most, and a lot aren't going to have that happy memory to look back on. Why? Just because some boys are too selfish to take them. A girl certainly can't ask for a date to the prom. You don't have to be nuts about the girl. Maybe she's one of the gang, but couldn't you take her? You'll have just as good a time as she will. A good many girls are going to be awfully disappointed at not getting to go to the prom. Come on, boys, there's just one name for you. Old-fashioned as it is, it still fits: CADS!

Practice Debate Held For Junior High Pupils

The Salem High School Debate Squad, coached by Mr. J. C. Guiler, held a practice debate at the Junior High School on Wednesday, April 2. The debate was held for the eighth grade only, and was part of a program designed to interest Junior High students in debating when they enter High School.

The topic discussed was "Resolved: That the Legal Voting Age Be Reduced to 18 Years." The members who took part were: Affirmative—Virginia Burrier and Ray Pierce; Negative—Marjory Zeller and Duane Yeagley. The debate was held between the Affirmative and Negative teams. No decision was given.

HI FEMS!

GRADUATION HINTS: Just think, graduation is just around the corner for most of you seniors. Doesn't it make you feel old? Some of you fellows and girls are probably looking around for suitable graduation gifts about now. I shall try to be of some help. I have seen some cuties in the stores and magazines that you could buy for the girls. Have you seen the new Chen Yu nail sets? They consist of polish remover, base coat, several shades of nail polish, any shade of lipstick that you prefer and some grand Chen Yu hand lotion, all in an attractive leather case that looks grand on your dresser. Since Chen Yu is popular with almost everyone, these sets should go over in a big way. By the way, Frozen Fire is their newest shade in polish.

Stationery is another popular gift for any girl. You may buy fancy stationery, plain or cartooned stationery. Stationery with her name printed on also makes a nice gift.

She would also like a pretty slip. You may buy very nice ones that she just has to cut around the bottom to shorten. Another popular slip is the kind with a blouse attached to the top. It is so handy to wear with a skirt.

Try a Bracelet

Identification bracelets for girls are going over in a big way too. You may buy her a gold or silver one with her name on the front and your on the back. Humphrey Bogart bought Lauren Bacall a diamond bracelet and had "If you want me just whistle," engraved on the back, so you could have a little sentiment put on the back of yours if you like.

The newest thing in compacts is the kind that you tap the metal top over the powder and up comes enough powder for the end of your shiny nose. These is no danger of spilling powder all over the inside of your purse with this compact. You may buy her a pretty shallow one for her purse, or a deep one for her dresser. They are only $2.00 a nightie, the newest cutest ones are those silk jersey ones with a mid-riff. Mid-riff P. J's are also popular now.

Eavesdropping Proves Interesting Pastime

Have you ever eavesdropped? Well, I have. In fact, that's about all I do. Sometime I'm going to hear something I don't want to, but here are a few items of interest I've overheard. It pays sometimes . . .

Everybody seems to be talking about the book Fran Vaughan and Ruth Baltorinic are writing. The title is "The Era of Peter Linden". If you haven't had the chance to read it, you don't know what you're missing. Take it from me; I read it.

Helen Pike received a new puppy the other day. And is it ever darling! Everyone is suggesting a name for it. Francis A. Lanney suggests Puddles. (I wonder why?)

If you haven't heard Ginny Baillie talking about her horse I don't know where you have been. It is a beautiful horse.

If Harv Walken can't tell you the latest in baseball just ask "Birdie" Brian. She knows everything imaginable about baseball.

Have you seen Pat Keener's friend from the Navy Air Corps? If you have, you know why everyone who has seen him is swooning. Honestly, he looks exactly like Tyrone Power. And is he ever . . .

Have you been noticing all of these Junior girls going steady lately? Please tell me how they do it. For instance, there is Bea Taylor and Louie Juliano, Sammae Lockhart and Harold Keefer, Donna Doyle and Jack Crawford, Lois Johnston and Don Firth, and, of course, there are Nickie and Norm and Elaine and Tom.

Poor Dirty Bill is having trouble with looking at Barb. He can only look at her with one eye, but he certainly fills that one with her. (He's got it bad.)

SABOTAGE

BY MOLLIE

Dear Friends and . . .

Those who aren't speaking to me. (Tsch! Tsch!) Here is another whole week passed in our lives and we lucky Seniors only have two more weeks left. I know I harp on the subject, but you wait 'til you're in the same boat and then see how tickled you are. Well, long and as thrilling as this last week has been, I haven't too much news for you. I'll see what I can dig out of the old, dirty trash barrel and talk about this week. I hope I don't stick my hoof in my mouth again, though. I constantly cause people to stop speaking to me, and it's only because they like to have something to gripe about. And then some great man said . . . "It's the truth that hurts." How true! Oh, well, I can introduce you to any of my friends and show you that everyone isn't mad. O. K., I didn't SAY I had any more than two . . . that's enough, ain't it?

ON TO THE AFFAIRS OF THE PEOPLES

Shirley Stamp had open house last Saturday night, and I think everyone was there (excepting me), and Shirley knows it. The people that didn't go into the party had a real good time looking in the windows. The Highland Gang was there, making up the majority of the fems, and there were many boys, like Bob Roberts and all his little friends, Mutt, Bubbles, and lots of the other upper-classmen. I guess they like this budding youth . . . hmmm, on second thought, how could they help themselves? I don't know what they spent the evening doing but, since they're Freshmen, I have an idea. . . THAT wasn't a nasty remark, either, because, even if you don't believe me, I like the Frosh all of a sudden. It's either that I have relatives or that they are almost Sophs now. We, I mean I, sort of strayed off the party subject, but all the kids did have fun. They have bumped their gums about it all week, so it must have been all reeccccet! Johnnie Farcus came home on a fast, hurried leave and wandered into this party, too. He had fun, Shirley. Maybe you should start a little canteen of your own for the Salem Servicemen Home On Leave. Hey, that sounds like a pretty good idea. Don't you bother, I'll do it myself!!!

PATRIOTIC! DASHING!

We have some flag putter-uppers among us, too. Chris, Mike, Jack and three others whose names I didn't ketch put the flag up above the school the happy Monday of this week when everyone went hog-wild over the great news, and what better reason than the end of the Nips could we have to go as such good work, fellers?

NO BROKEN BONES NOR HEARTS

No one got themselves beaten up this week, so I'll use my Purple Jelly-bean space to mention the two hearts that have tied in a knot that all have already noticed or they are blind. Yes, chums, I mean the two Juniors, your friends and mine, too (I think!), Bea Taylor and Louie Juliano. Bea isn't a blonde, so Louie didn't fall for that part. There must've been something else to attract him. . . How about telling us the secret, Bea? Anyhow, they're a real cute couple and they have a date for the prom, I hear, so you can all view them then at their best if you don't see them before then. The flowers of May caused by April showers to you two, and good luck plus.

FACTS — FACTS — FACTS

These will really astonish you, no kiddin': June has asked Mutt to send her 16 orchids for the prom. Now, here's how she wants them: In a horse-shoe shape with "Success" written across the front. Sounds good to me. I think maybe she'll have a little pair of wings pinned under the word, though, to help the Air Corps along.

Eve Schmidt thought you might be interested in the fact that she cleaned her teeth last Saturday morning at 8:30, May 5, 1945. I want ya' to put that in your diaries . . . dot's good!

Pat Loutzenhiser went to a birthday party for her grandmother last weekend and had a real good time. Well, that's what she told me . . . I can't help it if you don't believe me.

Sal Campbell had a happy celebration for the great news on Monday. Never expect her to wait for official news . . . no sir, not at an excuse for a party, at which no one had to clean wall-paper and had a super time. I think she's trying to rush things in hopes that the 71st rushes Gene home. Good idea!

Love, MOLLIE.

Quaker Thinclads Finish Second in Salem, Warren, Struthers Track Meet

Yielding seven first places to Warren, including both of the relay events, Coach Fred Cope's trackmen took second place with 54 1/4 points, compared to the Presidents' 58 3/4 points and Struthers' 39 points in the annual triangular meet May 2.

Although they placed in every event, the Quakers won only four firsts including a tie for first in the pole vault.

Mutt Schaeffer stood out as Salem's outstanding performer as he won the 440 yard dash, took third in the broad jump, and placed the mile relay team second for 7 1/2 points.

Bill Ward also did well with a first in the 220 low hurdles and a third in 220 yard dash as well as being a member of the half mile relay foursome that copped second place.

Taking two firsts and one second for 13 points, Bob Dugas of Struthers captured the high scoring honors.

A new record of 1 minute and 33.3 seconds was made by the Warren half mile relay team. The Presidents also posted another excellent time in the mile relay team. The Presidents also posted another excellent time in the mile relay for another first place.

Quakers Hosts At Annual County Track Meet

Tonight, Salem High will be defending the Columbiana County track championship they gained last year. Three other teams, East Palestine, East Liverpool and Columbiana, will be out to try and break the Quakers' bid to repeat.

The general opinion seems to be that it will be a close three way race for first between Salem, E. Palestine and Liverpool with Columbiana not far behind.

Plenty of hotly contested races seem in store when the Quakers meet with Palestine's Gorby, Wade and McGahan; Liverpool's Suencer, Pack, Means, Ward and O'Hanlon; Columbiana's Keck, Newell, Evans and Laughlin.

Columbiana recently took a fifth in the difficult Poland Relays. Liverpool dropped a 60-49 dual meet to Boardman as compared to Boardman's 74-44 victory over Salem. Palestine recently copped third place at a large meet in Pennsylvania.

Incidentally, the Columbiana County meet is one of the oldest and most bitterly contested of its kind in Ohio. Last year, Salem won by the largest margin ever recorded over a second place team in the meet's history, at the cinder track in East Palestine.

Boone (S), Theiss (S) and Meggs (W) tied for 3rd and 4th. Height—5 ft. 6 in.

HALF MILE RUN: Bollas (W) won; Little (S) 2nd; Kraker (W) 3rd; Mollenkof (W) 4th. Time—2 min. 6.2 sec.

BROAD JUMP: Smith (W) won; Busby (W) 2nd; Schaeffer (S) 3rd; Reed (W) 4th. Distance—19 ft. 11 1/2 in.

220 YARD DASH: Reed (W) won; Pulca (W) 2nd; Ward (S) 3rd; Bobby (St.) 4th. Time—24 sec.

MILE RELAY: Warren won (Bollas, Ackerman, Williams and Corbin.) Salem 2nd, Struthers 3rd. Time—3 min. 34 sec.

SPORT PICKUPS

BY HARV

Greetings Sport Fans:
Another week is past already so I guess it's about time for me to pen another column so here goes.

PEBBLES FROM THE CINDER TRACK

Last Saturday's relays at Canton did practically nothing as to an indication of Coach Cope's thinclads. The reason was simple—too many of the team were back in Salem. Many Red and Black speedsters could not get away from their Saturday jobs to make the trip while several are still ineligible.

Anyway with more meets scheduled for weekdays and a few more hour's study (or a little luck) the Quakers chances for improvement seem brighter.

Coach Cope (.090) and his boys hope to get on the track honor roll by giving a grade A performance tonight on the oval at Reilly Stadium. Good luck fellows!

Bill Stoutt, Bob Boone and Dick Baughman scored for the Quakers at Canton totaling 4 1/4 points to give the locals (censored) place.

SHORT PICKUPS

Sonny (Draft Status unknown) Walter, Boardman's ace "Pole Mole" soared over the bar at 11 feet two inches to give the Spartans their only first in the Canton Meet which made up for the nine footer at Uhrichsville.

Several teachers in the fair portals of our fair school participate in the fair game of baseball. Among these fair (I knew I could insult them if I tried hard enough) players are: Mr. F. E. (.090) Cope who is an infielder by trade, Mr. Chester Brautigam, pitcher, Coaches Barrett, Miller and Tarr, all of whom are distributed throughout the Class A circuit.

If you want to see some real ball playing just go out to..... some major league park and witness some good teams. (Thought I was going to say Centennial Park, didn't you?)

Seriously though all these teachers will be playing Class A at the park this year so if you're out that way some night you had better zip over and watch them. Especially Mr. Cope who batted at a torrid .090 clip last year for the Salem News. The Indians better sign him up.

TALL PICKUPS

The Indians for those who are interested (who am I kidding) have hit absolute zero. Yep they are in last place. But never fear they'll snap out of it. Why they even rise as high as sixth or seventh.

RUTHIE'S RHYTHM

BY RUTH BALTORNIC

RUTHIE'S RHYTHM

Greetings, all you music lovers and my friends who read this column. Glad to see you.

To start the ball rolling this week, we have a new song that was introduced by Dinah Shore last week, called "Along the Navajo Trail". It's very nice, especially when Dinah sings it.

Congratulations to Bill Scullion on his super rendition of "Summertime" in the assembly last week. It was really nice, and I'm sure we'd all like to hear more of it. How about that, Bill? For that matter, the whole assembly was swell.

An old favorite that almost everyone likes is Tommy Dorsey's arrangement of "Marie" and his "Song of India". Those two songs keep making comebacks every so often and so deserve some mention here. And how about Glenn Miller's "In the Mood"? That's one record that's hard to get, but it's a swell fast dance tune. "Begin the Beguine" by Artie Shaw is another good number that is still quite popular.

A cute tune is "Tiddly-i-Tie," which is done by Russ Morgan and his orchestra. It's got a tricky set of words that make you remember them.

Another song that seems to be getting shoved into the back-ground is "Besame Mucho". This is in the Latin-American theme and is sung very well by Andy Russell.

Now for a tune that is currently popular: It is "Captain Kidd," and a recording of it can be obtained with Ella Mae Morse doing the vocals. It's the most popular record on the juke box at the Jayteen, too.

For those of you who like the deeper type of music (and who doesn't, occasionally?), I'll give you the names of a few albums that are worth your while to get. First on the list is Beethoven's 5th, which is, incidentally, the most popular of the classic music albums that is sold, according to popular vote.

Next we have Brahms' 1st. Some others are Schubert's Unfinished (8th), Mozart's 40th, and Tchaikowski's 5th. All of these are on sale at the local music store and can be had at any time.

The "Warsaw Concerto" is a lovely song that is almost a classic, and is one that all of you would like.

I guess that about winds things up for this week, so if any of you have any suggestions of new songs that you'd like to see printed, let me know.

O-say ong-lay for now.

Work for Boys Found By Dean of Boys' Office

During the past week the dean of boys office has found boys for many and various jobs, including: work at dairies, the ice company, Mullins, Demings, milk routes and as general handymen around homes. The only job that Mr. Early has not been able to fill is the number of boys that are needed for farm work. More boys are needed for farm work this year than any other year, because of the great call for more food. If any boy wishes to work on a farm this summer, please notify Mr. Early as soon as possible.

Around the World — with — S. H. S. Alumni

First Lieut. Elliot Hansell is home for 21 days. Elliot serves as a navigator and saw action in North Africa, Sicily, Italy, and other battle-grounds. He will report to California for reassignment.

Johnny Farcus, '45, is home on furlough after finishing his boot training with the coast guard.

Robert "Doggy" Scullion is home for 90 days from the hospital where he is now stationed.

Charles "Chuck" Gibbs arrived home last Saturday evening as a surprise to his family. Chuck is stationed at the Navy hospital in Philadelphia.

Sam Pridon is spending a leave at home from the navy. Sam was one of Salem's top basketeers while he was in S. H. S.

Marine Pfc. Robert Martin is home on leave, recovering from wounds he received in the battle for Iwa Jima.

Jack Smith spent a short time at home on his way to his new station in Philadelphia.

Merchant Marine Augie Juliano is home after six months of sea duty. Augie looks super in his dress uniform. Who wouldn't after being with the Merchant Marines?

Martin Juhn is home after completing his boot training at Great Lakes, Illinois. We expect to hear some Juhn boogy before too long, Martin.

Sailor's letter home: "I enlisted because I liked the nice clean ships the Navy had. Now I know who keeps them that way."

Salem Studes Enjoy Quiet V-E Day (Oh Yeah!)

No school today! Now we can all go on a hike. More fun; more people killed.

The first thing that goes wrong is that mother is totally unprepared to pack a lunch so I have to take an egg sandwich. Ever eat a cold egg sandwich? Take my word for it—don't!!!

When we arrive at a place to eat we open our coke (with our teeth,—no can opener) and prepare to have a refreshing drink. But the coke is warm. Ugh!!

After finishing lunch we all tramp down into the woods. There is much excitement as Marjorie spies a snake but it is soon forgotten. Soon we all become tired so we spread our trench coats out along the road and lie down. It's all very nice until a car comes zooming along and we get dust in our mouths.

Finally we decide to take some pictures. We all cross our legs and show our bare feet. Other pictures are taken but we don't tell about those.

Weary and thirsty we trudge the long way home. When we reach Jeanne's house we just about drink the well dry then lie down on the living room floor for awhile.

When we arrived home somewhat later we all notice we have sun-burned legs and cheeks.

We were dirty, tired and sun-burned but it was fun.

If you want to buy your friend

Lingerie Bags Always Nice

Lingerie bags are nice for her drawers. You may buy pretty satin ones in a dreamy peach shade, and have her monogram put on them. They are grand for holding her hose, hankies, nighties, or undies, especially when she travels.

Why not buy her a handy luminous mat for her bedside table? I saw a darling ivory colored one with a rosebud in each corner. It glows all night in a dark room, and you can see all of the things setting on your table, including the hands on your clock. It can be washed with a damp cloth too.

You may buy a darling miniature settee and dresser stool to hold her jewelry and powder at one of the local stores. They come in several different shades, and look very sweet on her boudoir table.

How About a Diary?

A nice diary is also an ideal gift for a girl. Something for her to write her inner-most thoughts in. They are loads of fun to read in future years, or so they tell me. You'd best buy one with a big fat lock.

In case any of you are interested in any of these suggestions and can't find them around, let me know and I shall tell you where I found them. Happy Shop-lifting!

Bobby: Gee, I'm awfully hungry.

Betty: What did you have for dinner?

Bobby: Company!
