

Hilgendorf Is Re-elected President Of Tri-County Journalism Association

Officers Decide First Journalism Convention Will Be Held In East Liverpool November 14

Mr. R. W. Hilgendorf, faculty member, was re-elected president of the Tri-County Journalism Association on October 10, at an advisors' meeting held following a dinner held at the Dinher Bell in Youngstown.

Mr. Hilgendorf and M. H. C. Lehman represented Salem High School at the meeting where nine schools of Mahoning, Columbiana and Trumbull counties were represented: Salem, Niles, Girard, Poland, Struthers, East Liverpool, MacDonal, Youngstown Chaney and Youngstown Rayen.

Also reelected again for this year along with Mr. Hilgendorf were Miss Fannie Harley, Youngstown Chaney High School faculty member, vice-president, and Miss Lovina Newlan, McDonald High School faculty member, secretary.

Two meetings of student journalists were planned, the first at East Liverpool High School on November 14 with Mr. Ira Sayre as advisor and the second meeting at Girard High School sometime in December, with Miss Frances Crider advisor.

Noted Magician Presents Show Next Tuesday

John W. Frye, famous American Magician from Akron, Ohio, will present rare entertainment spectacle in the auditorium at 9:00 next Tuesday morning.

Among his features are shooting through a woman, the doves of Azra, and the mystery of the fourth dimension. There are expected to be hundreds of thrills and laughs for everyone.

This same show will be given for the Junior High at 10:45 Tuesday morning in the auditorium.

Admission is free for association members, while 15 cents will be required of all non-association members desiring to see the show.

'45-'46 Debate Team Selections Made By Mr. Guiler

The 1945-46 debate team was chosen recently by Mr. Guiler. Duane Yeagley, a Senior, is the only member returning from last year's team. The other members of the squad are Bill Schmidt, Lucy Hutson, Sarah Serbanta, Nettie Housel, Naomi Ovington, Phyllis Greenberg, and Jo Ann Whinnery.

Mr. Guiler hopes to join a tri-county league including Niles, Struthers, and East Palestine which will have a tournament once a month. The team will probably join the state league also later in the year.

The subject for debate this year is "Compulsory Military Training."

Questions About Working Answered By Dean of Boys

In answer to some recent questions concerning pupils' working, Mr. Early has released this information:

1. Why are jobs being filled now with 16 year olds in preference to younger applicants?

Prior to the outbreak of war, a state law prohibited the hiring of boys between the ages of 16 and 18, and girls from 16 to 21 for more than 8 hours daily and 10 hours on Saturdays. Employment of anyone under 16 was prohibited.

Following the outbreak of war and the resulting manpower shortage, the law was modified to the extent that many people under 16 were permitted to work in a great many places and under almost any conditions. This was, however, strictly a wartime measure.

Following Governor Lausche's recommendation of a few months ago, the state legislature voted to renew the pre-war limitations. In compliance with the wishes of Ohio retailers, the state government has agreed not to enforce the 16 year old age limit until December 15, 1945. Therefore, it is permissible for youths under 16 to work until the law goes into effect. Considering the December 15th deadline, employers are showing a preference for boys at least 16 years of age.

2. Under what conditions are working certificates granted?

Working certificates are issued from the attendance office in the High School. A state law requires that working certificates be issued only to those 16 years old and older, but, as a wartime measure, this was lowered to 14 years in order to relieve the shortage. After December 15, certificates will not be issued to anyone under 16 years of age, except to a few who wish to work in irregular employment 4 hours a day and 24 hours a week.

3. Why are some young people permitted to work without work certificates?

When a pupil makes an application for a work certificate, the school must determine whether he is old enough to do the kind of work for which he is to be employed. The employed is responsible for requiring the certificate and for giving the employee the type of work which is permitted by law. The school has no responsibility beyond this; state authorities visit employers periodically to make certain that minors are not being employed illegally.

Even though the deans help find employment for many students, it is the local Ohio State Employment Service that is best suited to perform these services. The O.S.E.S is located three doors from the post office.

Note of Appreciation

I wish to express my appreciation to the teachers and pupils who have shown their sympathy to me in so many ways during the illness and at the death of my mother.

Sincerely

ETHEL BEARDMORE

Thirty-Nine New Members Initiated Into S.H.S. Hi-Tri; Ceremony Held Last Night

Officers Esther Mayhew, Velma O'Neil, Gert Wilms, Mary Lou Vincent Head Initiation Proceedings

The Hi-Tri initiated thirty-nine new members into their organization last night in the Salem High school gymnasium.

Song Books Purchased By Spanish II Club

Miss Hollett's Spanish II class has purchased new song books entitled CANTEMOS. They have enjoyed using them occasionally for the past week. The books contain twenty-six Mexican and Spanish songs, the favorite being ADIOS MUCHACHOS. The second period of the day is greatly enjoyed by the class since the CANTEMOS arrived. Velma O'Neil accompanies at the piano.

The class is now reviewing last year's work with the help of EL CAMINO REAL — BOOK 1. When this work is concluded, they will use BOOK II for the remainder of the year. Pupils of this class later hope to establish correspondence with pupils in the Spanish-speaking countries.

Band Attends Wellsville Game

The band attended the Wellsville football game last Friday night and performed before a large attendance of Salem and Wellsville football fans.

The band members will perform under the regular lights at the Struthers game tonight.

The band has been working on several formations, one of which will be used at tonight's game. The complete program is not yet known at this writing. The Struthers band is expected to attend this game according to Mr. Brautigam, Salem Band instructor.

Vincent Appointed Thespian Play Committee Leader

A short meeting was called to order by Mrs. Tarr due to the absence of president and vice president. Plans for getting the Thespian pins were completed and the money for them must be in by Wednesday. Mrs. Tarr appointed Mary Lou Vincent, chairman for arranging the Thespians yearly activities, Mary Lou was to have chosen her committee by next meeting.

Partners were selected to direct the one act plays. Pat Loutzenhiser, secretary and treasurer of the Thespians said all dues should be paid by next meeting. The officers are: President, Bill Ward; vice president, Cathie Scullion, and secretary-treasurer, Pat Loutzenhiser.

Biology Classes Take Field Trip

The biology classes have been taking field trips out to Hope cemetery whenever weather permits. The main reasons for these particular hikes was to find different kinds of evergreens and mosses. The teachers pointed out some spruces, hemlocks, arbor vitae, and several junipers. Also pointed out was the large sycamore tree at the entrance of the cemetery. This tree is one of the largest of its kind in this area.

The contest of collecting plants ended Monday, but as yet the winner has not been named. All such wild life as mosses, ferns, evergreens, flowers, and fungi were entered.

For the past two years Mrs. Cox has given the book, "Wild Flowers" by Homer D. House to the biology student who collected and handed in the most different kinds of wild flowers. Last year Esther Stoudt received the award by collecting over 150 different kinds. Due to the fact that the publishing company did not publish this book during the war it was impossible to get this book again until this year. Esther was given her award last week.

Salem Hi Faculty Holds Party

The faculty members of Salem High School and their husbands and wives held an outing at Firestone Park, Wednesday, Oct. 17th.

The social committee under the direction of Mrs. Strain planned an interesting program, with a luncheon, several games and musical selections highlighting the evening's entertainment.

Sewing Classes Redecorate Room

Broomsticks skirts were the first article finished this year by the clothing classes under the direction of Miss Ala Zimmerman. These skirts were worn in a style show held last Thursday and Friday.

"Some of the skirts were ruffled and some were plain," said Miss Zimmerman, "and they definitely show the likes and dislikes of girls."

The class is now redecorating the sewing room with the idea of creating a homey atmosphere. The girls are making pictures and the framed flower prints are ready to be put up.

The girls started their initiation in the morning, when they visited the various homerooms advertising the sale of Victory Bonds and Stamps by the Hi-Tri during the Eighth Bond Drive.

The feature of the initiation was a candlelight ceremony conducted by the officers, Esther Jean Mayhew, president; Velma O'Neil, vice president; Gertrude Wilms, secretary; and Mary Lou Vincent, treasurer, following which the new members repeated the club motto and creed, and sang "Follow the Gleam," the Hi-Tri club song.

After the initiation, refreshments were served by a Senior committee with Irene Fleischer as chairman.

Pvt. Bob Shea returned to Channahon Field, Illinois, Sunday, after spending a furlough at the home of his parents.

Martha Jean (Sis) Keyes, student at Katherine Gibbs' school, New York City, was home for the weekend.

Betty Gibbs, who is attending Lake Erie college at Painesville, was home for the weekend.

Perry Whitacre, who is now on leave, will return to McCook, Nebraska, on the 22nd. Perry's address is:

Perry Whitacre
712th Squadron, 448th Bomb Group
AAF McCook, Nebraska.

Don Firth and Johnny Poznisko, now home on furlough, will return shortly to Newport, R. I. for reassignment.

Pat Keener, freshman at Denison university spent the weekend at home. Pat has been pledged to Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

A day's vacation will be observed next Friday because of N. E. O. T. A. convention.

They're Still Giving; Are You?

Next week, throughout the nation, starts the Community War Fund, a crusade that might be called our first and greatest postwar project. It is not seeking money to finance destruction but to undo the harm done in the past six years and to help rebuild and refit the war-torn countries of the world. It also takes care of all the charitable organizations at home and entertains the men in uniform who have restored peace to peace-loving nations. There should be no need to list these organizations for you all know their names and you certainly should know the need for the heart-warming work they perform. Therefore, once again we students have an opportunity to render a favor to our country and to the world. Although we don't have a lot of money to spare, certainly all of us can scrape together something, maybe a little more than "something," as our contribution to the cause. Let's prove that we students, America's future citizens, can really pitch in and give our support to the Community War Fund. Remember: "They're Still Giving. Are You?"

Were You Proud?

As you looked at your report card on Wednesday were you proud of your grades or was your report card something you were sorry to take home? Do you feel ashamed at the thought of your marks?

Well, a new six-week period is starting, and with it comes a new chance. Starting a new grade period is like turning to a new sheet of tablet paper—a clean one with no black marks on it. This offers a chance for all who really want to bring their low grades up.

So, regardless of your report card this grade period, whether it was good or bad, take advantage of this new six weeks and decide to work harder. Make your next set of grades something you will be proud of!

Control Instincts

Don't be a termite! They are nasty, grub-like things and no one in his right mind would want to be like them. So stop digging initials and cute sayings on the desks. Yes, we know about those prized initials of famous men which were carved in their school days. If anybody can prove his claim to genius, I'm sure a desk will be provided for his special use. But the rest of us will just have to control our termite instincts.

Have you ever seen a two-year-old scribbling on the walls? Take a look at our walls! Pretty big for such silliness! Come on! Wake up and grow up! Be CONstructive, not DEstructive!

FADS 'N FASHIONS
By LOIS AND NIKI

Hi Kids,
Well, to get off with a quick skip and jump this week, we have some opinions from our laddies and lassies of their likes and dislikes of some of the clothing worn by the studes of S. H. S.

For the boys:
Joan Hannay—I like to see boys wear flashy socks and ties.

Donna Doyle—I like to see them wear sharp sport clothes.

Gertrude Zerbs—I like to see boys with white shirts and very loud ties.

Nancy Stamp—I don't like to see plaid pants and plaid jackets worn together that do not match.

Ruth Baltorinic—I hate to see them wear sloppy T-shirts.

For the girls:
Fred Koenreich—I don't like girls in overalls.

Chuck Alexander—I like to see them wear sweaters and skirts.

"Burpy" Fields—I hate to see girls with their arms loaded down with too many bracelets.

So-o-o, if any of you males or females dress to suit the apple of your eye, take hold of some of these hints.

The twins this week are none other than Marilyn Miller and Nancy Hunt. Well, they aren't identical twins, but both do have blond hair and green, brown and white argyle plaid sweaters, which are strictly on the beam. Ruth Baltorinic has a delicious looking new melon-colored cardigan sweater. Gloria Hannay has a dreamy looking baby blue pull over. And, Marge Willis has a dreamy looking baby pink pull over.

Pea Coats and More Pea Coats
Girls, if you want to get a coat that you're sure everybody will like, just buy a Pea Coat. They are really all the rage again this year, and Donna Neely, Stella Jones, Pat Thompson, "Bobbie" Albaugh, Helen Lieder, Barb Lane, Gertrude Zerbs, Carolyn Butcher and Bueda McCammon have joined the girls that got them last year. A couple of these girls do not just wear these Navy Pea Coats as a fashion, but they are really interested in the Navy.

Mary Lou Van Poppelen has the remedy of keeping warm on these chilly days, by wearing plaid flannel shirts for sports wear. She has a big wardrobe of these consisting of a red and blue plaid one; a green and red and a brown and white plaid one. They really look super with skirts or jeans, and keep her mighty nice and warm.

NYLON!!
Have you seen Velma O'Neil strutting around with that luscious looking high necked white blouse on? If you've wondered why, we'll let you in on a secret—sh!! It's made from the nylon of a parachute. Also she has a head scarf made out of it too. If you haven't noticed it, take a good look at it, because it's really darling and you don't very often see things made from a nylon parachute.

Ideal Frosh Boy
Hair—Tom Scullion
Eyes—Kenny Schrom
Nose—Johnny Gilbert
Mouth—Jerry Smith
Physique—Ed Bosich
Personality—Walt Ehrhart
Dancer—Tom Miner
Clothes—Bob Campbell
Well kids, we'll end for this time, and for a reminder be sure to see if you fit up to Carol's measurements. You'll have to hurry, because Friday will be the deadline for them.

Gym Teams Hope To Resume Football
The touch football teams of Mr. Copes gym classes have been hampered by the weather so much that each class has been able to play only one scheduled game apiece. At this time there are no standings to be given. It is hoped that the weather will change before long so that the schedule can be completed. Last year each class managed to play 14 games or more each.
The boys have been doing calisthenics and exercises on the gym floor. Lieut. Elliott Hansell has given some of the classes a taste of preliminary training as he obtained it from the air corps.
Corp. Eugene Brooks of the Ground Air Forces has worked out with several of the classes. The boys say it's a real workout and hope to continue with them but they all want to get to Reilly field for touch football.

JUERGENS JOURNAL
BY JO

Here we go again for another good old gab fest! Can you take it? Golly, I only wish I knew WHAT we're going to talk about this week! How 'bout some of you giving yours truly a break and scaring up a little dirt? All contributions gladly accepted. . . . Well, I guess I do have a FEW items here—so let's go. First of all, this happened a while back, but it's too good to keep. Seems Betty McBane really was in a stew the other night. Unbeknownst to her big sister, she wore said sister's rain hat to the game. All went well, and it seemed as though sister would never discover the "loan"—until some thoughtless chap sitting behind Betty decided the hat made a nice ash-tray. Results: three nice holes in the hat, and practically a nervous collapse on Betty's part. . . . I'm wondering what will happen if Bobbie Albaugh decides to take typing when she's a junior. The way she's guarding those long nails, it would be a crime to make her cut them. . . . And I swear I think I'd pass out cold if the football team didn't congregate in that one corner of the second floor hall. . . .

I guess I really started something last week by claiming that our senior boys won't sing the Alma Mater. Mert Cody and Ben Bruderly have politely (?) informed me that they DO sing it. Mebbe so, but what's the matter with the rest of you boys? How about EVERYONE singing next time? O. K., now, any more opinions on the subject? . . . Seems as though SHS'rs really went social last Saturday night. The Pederson twins "entertained," and many people were there, including Nancy Callahan, Carol Kelley, Marilyn Miller, Frankie Sharp, Nancy Hunt, Shirley Stamp, Sally Hurlburt, Donna Ward, Joy Chessman, Marty Bennett, Lloyd Harroff, Juicy Karlis, and about a dozen others whose names I can't (for obvious reasons) mention here. . . .

At Pat Thompson's, Gail Leach had a little trouble. Seems he managed to break three unopened bottles of pop during the course of the evening. Awkward, isn't he? The guest list included Helen Lieder, Gail, Ben Bruderly (how'd he get in here again?), Donna Neeley, Burpy Field, Bobbie Albaugh, Rose Ann Loutzenhiser, Dick Jones, Dick Zeck, and Stella Jones. . . . Did everybody see Chuck Ward's lovely curls last week? Oh, but beautiful! In case the rest of you fellas are jealous, I'll let you in on a little secret. It's done with pincurls. . . . Speaking of curls, here's a tip to Ike Ibele, who, 'tis said, needs curls for the part of "Curly" Nolan in the senior class play. For, as everyone knows, Ike just isn't blessed that way. We advise Ike to see Dusty Covert in regards to the merits of a permanent, in case the pincurls don't work out! . . . Add to your list of new nicknames: Mary Lou Van Poppelin is now "Ivy". Just a nickname, it has nothing to do with "You Came Along". . . . Esther Hagerty and Don Shoop ought to get together, since both seem to feel better without shoes. Well, really, you two. Suppose there'd be a fire drill? . . . Are you looking for a chance to get even with someone here at SHS? Well, then, here's your chance. Dig up one of their baby pictures and give it to Dolly Ferko (208) for use in the Quaker annual. Then just watch them squirm when the annual comes out. Just a word, though: The pictures can't be returned to you. . . . Duck DeJane has asked me to tell you what a swell job of cheering you did at the game last Friday night. And Burpy wants to know why you can't do as good a job at the games here? Shall we show him tonight, kids? . . . Seen in the halls: Marty Bennett always walking through the halls with Elaine Abe. Why? And I know a lot of you have seen them, too, because so many of you have mentioned it to me. . . . Jean Redinger certainly bears up well after a practically sleepless night, doesn't she? But it's not as bad as it seems. The lassie was merely sleepy on the way home from the game last week, and the old mean band members wouldn't let her sleep. Every time she'd doze off, they'd wake her up. . . . Today is Bob Roessler's birthday, and tomorrow is shared by Dave Linton and Leonard Sobek. And here are next week's: October 21, Freda Herman and Adrian DePietro; October 22, Mary Ibele, Ted Boone, Edwin Mosher and Louis Yakubek; October 23, Betty Mix, Peg Redinger and Evelyn Schmidt; October 24, Clifford and Clayton Ayers and John D'Antonio. . . . I guess that about winds things up for now, so see you at the game tonight, if not before. And if not before, then next week.

Quakers Topple Wellsville 26-13

Local Attack Spearheaded By Bosick and Herrington; Salem Outfit Never Behind

Louie Juliano, Moe Hollinger Pace Line Once More; Bengals' Passes Set Up Two Touchdowns

Using his first string backfield for only about one quarter, Coach Ben Barretts' Quaker Gridders hit the victory trail with a bang. Paced by Freshman Eddie Bosick, Salem roared off to two first period scores and was never headed after that.

Salem drew first blood after Rish's poor punt went only to the Wellsville 39. Herrington missed the placement this time and it was 16-0 with barely more than seconds to go in the first quarter.

In the second period, the Bengals scored after a flurry of passes clicked against the Quaker second stringers. Rish passed to Tomaine for 30 yards, Moore to Rish was worth eight more, and Moore passed to Carter for 17 to the Salem 5 yard line. Rish dashed around end for the touchdown and Tom Nickolson booted the extra point.

After several short pushes by both teams in Wellsville territory, Ted Boone intercepted a Bengal pass on the 25 and went to the 19. The second string backfield worked the oval to the 3 yard line with fourth and three to go. Barrett put Bosick in and he went over for his second tally. Herrington's third placement was also good. With two minutes to go till the half, Salem led 19-7.

In the third period after an exchange of punts, the Quakers started a drive on their own 24. The drive of 76 yards took 14 plays, Bosick carrying the ball six times for 45 yards of the distance. Herrington drove over from the ten yard line, going around end. Herrington's conversion was wide, giving him two misses and two good ones.

Wellsville gained 31 yards on a punt when a Bengal recovered a Quaker fumble on the midfield strip. From there it took only eight plays, with Rish again scoring on an end run. Nicklosos place kick went under the crossbars and the game ended 26-13.

The Quakers all were outstanding; Koenreich and Brunner performed well in their first starting assignments, Louis Juliano and Moe

Hollinger were powerful, and Don Chappell and John Szymczyk again played their ends well.

Barrettmen Seek Third Triumph

Tonight when Coach Barrett's Quakers meet the Struthers Big Red, they will be out after their second win in three starts over the visitors since Mr. Barrett left the coaching post there to come to Salem.

The locals and Struthers both have rather mediocre records thus far this season: Salem having won two games, lost two and tied one and the Big Red having won One, lost three and tied one.

Struthers has three starters back from last year's squad which beat the Quakers 6-2; two halfbacks, Massaro and Dugas and a guard, Wolfgang.

The Big Red stacks up several pounds heavier man for man than the Salem boys, but other than that the two squads rate about equal.

Walken Along The Sport Scene

BY HARV

It was Salem halfback Eddie Bosick, Who made Wellsvilles Bengals Feel so-sick.

Quay Kerr.

That little poem practically summarized the game of last week in which the local gridders playing headsup ball completely outclassed the Bengal aggregation.

For the Quakers it was the aforementioned Ed Bosick and Howard Herrington who did most of the ball toting while on the line the entire forward wall did yoeman service.

Short and Tall Tales

Howard Herrington's two place kicks were the first extra points that the Red and Black Chargers have made or attempted in this manner this year.

Coach F. E. Cope's cross country team paced by Glenn Thorne, Bill Urbanowiz, Tony Viola, "Red" Tolson, and Dick Jones are rapidly rounding into shape. They dropped their first meet to Struthers last week but are improving rapidly.

The future of the Salemfootball team is very bright indeed with such Freshmen as Tom Miner, Walt Ehrhart, Ed Bosick and Sophomores Ted Boone, Pete Cain, Lee Ward and Tom Holzbaugh, etc. around.

Wellsville usually manages to tie or hold East Liverpool down every year. Well, maybe Salem can start considering East Liverpool with that thought in mind.

Jim Rawers, Canton McKinley basketball and football ace in second string center at Army; Bill Leonard, Youngstown East End last year is Notre Dame's second string end and Steve O'Dea, Campbell Memorial star athlete of 1944 is seeing a lot of service at his center position at O. S. U.

Len Corbin, Warren High's stellar track and football ace and an all-Ohio section of 1944, picked over 150 yards last week against Youngstown Rayen and he plays end. That's right—this is the end.

Tonight the Barrett men play host to the Struthers Big Red. I'll say Salem 19—Struthers 12.

MUSICAL HA-HA'S

BY MINNIE

Well here we are again, report cards have been issued this week and half of the student body has been walking around with long pans. Cheer up everyone, it's Friday.

Victor has just released a record which features Duke Ellington and his orchestra "Every Hour On the Hour" (20-1718) with the vocal refrain by Al Hibbler. Johnny Hodges is featured on the sax. On the reverse side Duke and his boys record the tune "Time's A-Wastin'."

"That's For Me" with "Yolanda," on the flipover. These two tunes have a distinctive musical quality, are recorded by Artie Shaw and his orchestra on the Victor disc (20-1716). "That's For Me" is from the film "State Fair," and "Yolanda" is from the M-G-M picture, "Yolanda and the Thief."

Phil Brito has that certain personality flash in his voice as he sings "You're Not Fooling Anyone But Yourself" and "If I Could Be With You One Hour Tonight."

Lionel Hampton works overtime on "Loose Wig" and "Overtime" for Decca. The Hamp scorches the disc on this pair of riff instrumentals and establishes his band as one of the finest swing organizations in the land.

Superb in every detail, Victor's first album of non-breakable plastic records carries a brilliant performance of Richard Strauss' tone poem, "Till Eulenspiegel," with Serge Koussevitzky and the Boston Symphony orchestra as the artists. "Till Eulenspiegel," (pronounced Oil-en-Speegal) tells in music the story of the practical joker of German legend. Till goes through life playing one prank after another with a nonchalant indifference and a merry whistle until he swings from the gallows. There have been other recordings of Till, but none to surpass this newest Victor offering.

Deluxe has an unusual release in their recording of "The Blonde Sailor" as waxed by Ted Martin and the Airline Trio. Unusual because this is an old melody that's now being revived with new and timely lyrics, and is enjoying a renewed popularity. On the back is "My Dreamland For Two."

Thorne Takes First In Two Cross Country Meets

In a Cross Country meet held at the Salem Golf club last Friday afternoon, the Struthers distance men beat Salem 28-27.

Glen Thorne of Salem took first in the two mile event with the time of 10 minutes and 59 seconds. Other Salem men who scored were: Bill Urbanowitz (4), Tony Viola (6), Dick Tolson (7), and John Strojcek took an automatic tenth.

Coach Fred Cope announced that he will enter his team in the District meet at Akron on October 20.

Salem took third place in a meet on Monday with Boardman, Warren and Struthers, held at Warren. Boardman placed first, Warren second, and Struthers fourth.

Glenn Thorne of Salem again took first place on a slow, soggy 2 1/4 mile track with a time of 12 minutes, 53.5 seconds. Oatley and Lewis, of Warren took second and third respectively, Davies of Boardman placed fourth and Marli of Struthers fifth.
