

Ten Favorite Cheers Chosen By Student Body In Poll Last Week Conducted by Cheerleaders

Divided Team Ranks First, Locomotive Second, Two Bits Third; Quaker Drive On Song Chosen Top Ballad

Last week the student body was asked to vote on the question of the ten favorite cheers in the high school and the one favorite song. The cheerleaders, Donna Lopeman, Martha Whinery, Liela Ortell, Helen Chit-sia, Betty Whaley and their advisor Miss Weeks have counted the votes and the results show that many of the old cheers are still the favorite.

The votes ran as follows: Divided Team, first with 740 votes; the Old Locomotive, second with 492 votes; Two Bits, third with 472 votes; T-E-A-M Team-Team was fourth with 552 votes; Color Yell, fifth with 334 votes; Ash Can, Tin Can, sixth with 286 votes; Your Pep, seventh with 276 votes; Hubba, Hubba, eighth with 268 votes; Varsity Yell, ninth with 256 votes; Fight Team Fight, tenth with 204 votes.

The poll was taken to find out just which of the thirty-five yells the students really liked best and also to determine their interest in the cheers at the games. The students really liked best and also to determine their interest in the cheers at the games. The students were also asked for their favorite song. The one that came out on top was "The Quaker Drive On Song." Next came "Rah Rah For Salem."

The thirty-five cheers that were voted on were Beat, Color Yell, S, s, s, s, s, S, clap clap, Locomotive Fight, Locomotive, Center-end, Quarterback-Halfback, Divided Salem, Four fights, Yea Team Fight, Fight, Team, Fight, Victory, We're with you boys, Let's go Salem, Whistle Quakers, Varsity, Your Pep, Our Team is Red Hot, Go back, We got your Nanny, Quaker Chant, Hubba, Hubba, Sockit to 'em, Whis-

Cheerleaders Speak

We wish you to know that the chief purpose of our presenting new cheers to the student body in assemblies was to introduce them for your approval so that you could vote for the ten you liked best as you did last week. It was by popular demand that we introduced them to you. We didn't mean to confuse you or have too many yells, but every day some one came in with a new yell and besides that we were asked to make up new ones, so we tried to please everyone in the assemblies by presenting them.

No more new yells will be introduced in assemblies this year. We will stick strictly to the ten yells that you voted for, except for a few others which we will use once in a while.

We do have a new song Mari-Lou Van Popplen brought us from Fairfield, but we will not learn it in assemblies, only at informal gatherings.

We want you to know that we only introduced the new yells for your approval. We are sorry if they caused confusion or a mix up of any kind, and we hope that you will continue to give us your very fine and loyal support at games and assemblies. We have appreciated it very much.

Monitors Chosen By Office For Year

The new monitors that were chosen to work this year are: 1st period, Ruth Winkler; 2nd period, Sally Zeigler; 3rd period, Joan Shepard; 4th period, Lucy Huston; 5th period, Virginia Jugastru; 6th period, Patricia Duffy, and 7th period, Mary Ibele.

The monitors are an important part of the high school organization. A few of the jobs they do are to turn out the lights at the beginning of each period and to turn them on at the close. This is an important job because it saves the school many hundreds of dollars to have this done. They also take information and telephone messages to teachers and students, which might get to the person a day late if it were not done by the monitors.

Band Marches For Mardi Gras; Gives Halloween Stunts

The Salem High School band marched in the Mardi Gras (Halloween) Parade last night, the first parade of this kind Salem has had since 1940

Tonight the band will give its annual Halloween performance in which ghosts, goblins and skeletons will appear on the field. This performance is to be done almost entirely under the black lights. Mr. Brautigam reports. The cheerleaders have also consented to help in the performance. Also tonight is the Band Mothers' Tag Night in which tags are handed out to those who contribute. The money is to be used for the up-keep of the band equipment.

Thursday, November 7, has been set for the main band performance of the year at the Reilly Stadium. The band will review the various formations that have been used at the football games after which the band will be heard in a short concert. The majorettes will repeat their various routines and use their lighted batons under the black lights. As a special feature, Mr. Brautigam has planned a trumpet duet composed of Bill Scullion and Wallace Burrell. Also the Halloween performance will be repeated and the barbershop quartet composed of Dick Theiss, Bill Parks, John Huddleston and Wallace Burrell, will sing. Mr. Brautigam said that last year's performance was put on for approximately 4,000 people. The tickets this year will be sold only at the gate and there will be no advanced sale. The whole performance is expected to last about an hour and a quarter.

THANK YOU

I wish to thank all the students who volunteered for the different committees for the senior play. It is pleasing to know that so many are willing to help and to work on extra-curricular projects. Although the number of students selected had to be limited, there will be other plays this year for which the committees will be needed.
Edith Cope

SEWING CLASSES

The clothing classes have been completing their first articles which were dirndle skirts. This week each girl modeled her finished article before the class.

A movie entitled "Threads of Fashion" was shown to the girls last week.

Attention Girls! Read New Book On D. Madison

"Glamorous Dolly Madison," a very enchanting biography by Alice (Curtis) Desmond, has been placed in the library for your reading pleasure.

Mrs. Desmond writes of a timid Quaker girl who became the Cinderella of the White House and rose to world fame. Dolly Todd was awed by her dominant father, and dutifully married the man he chose for her. She was widowed in her early twenties, and soon after this she met Aaron Burr, immediately fell in love with him but married his friend Madison out of pity.

She was admired by many great men of her day, including George Washington, Alexander Hamilton, Andrew Jackson, Washington Irving, Henry Clay, Daniel Webster, and Patrick Henry.

Not only was Dolly Madison the first White House hostess to serve ice cream, but she also rescued Washington's portrait before the British burned the presidential "palace," she sent the second telegram, dedicated the Washington monument, and posed for one of the earliest daguerreotypes.

The book contains many "well chosen photographs, chiefly of contemporary paintings, and as practically everyone of national importance was in her circle, these make a portrait gallery of our great."

Dolly's radiant personality placed her far above all the other First Ladies of the White House, and even as an aged and impoverished widow she still remained the beloved Dowager Queen of the White House.

His very excellent "rags-to-riches" biography will have a large audience of readers among older girls.

CHEMISTRY CLASSES

The chemistry classes are studying water, its composition and behavior. They have taken the water from some chemicals and have watched the difference in activity of those chemicals. They have also been studying about acids, bases and compounds formed from metals and non-metals.

Make-Up, Property, Stage, Light And Sound Effects Committees Chosen By Miss Cope For Play

Shirley Smith, Emmit Ogle, Enes Equizi, Dick Jones
Chairmen; Apprentices for Make-Up Group Chosen

Senior play committees, composed of make-up, light and sound effects, property, and stage crew, have been selected by Miss Edith Cope, director, for this year's senior play, "George Washington Slept Here," which will be presented in the high school auditorium November 21, 22, and 23.

Those on the make-up committee are: Shirley Smith, chairman, Joan Hannay, Marilyn Schaefer, Miriam Bauman, Jamesetta Fox, Marjorie Hanna, Sally Hurlburt, Carol Kelly, and Betty Whaley.

The following girls have been chosen as apprentices to the make-up committee: Gloria Vincent, Martha Flickinger, Norma Hanna, Suzanna O'Donnell, Donna Leipper, Geraldine Williams, Gloria Steffel, Phyllis, Weidenhoff, Virginia Burrier, Caresse Krepps, Odessa Bohner, and Mary Plegge. Several lessons in make-up art will be given to them in a class to be conducted after school.

Light and Sound Effects

The light and sound effects committee members are: Emmet Ogle, chairman, Dick Jones, Bill Weber, Don Bishop and Bob Askey.

Property Committee

Enes Equizi is chairman of the property committee and will be assisted by Sally Lou Zeigler. The rest of the committee members are: Janet Dobinson, Virginia Jugastru, Harold Whaley, Marilyn Maxwell, Odessa Bohner, Dick Walken, Jamesetta Fox, Gloria Vincent, Norma Hanna, Geraldine Williams, Nick Zantel, Caresse Krepps, Phyllis Weidenhoff, Genevieve Szymczyk, Eileen Hunter, Esther Stoudd, Miriam Bauman, Mary Plegge and Donna Arllison.

Stage Committee

Six Pupils Chosen For 1946-47 Debate Squad by J. Guiler

The Debate Squad for this year has been announced by J. C. Guiler, debate coach. The members of this year's team will be Enes Equizi, Tom Holzbach, Carolyn Butcher, Jo Ann Whinery, Nettie Housel and Harold Whaley.

The question for this year is: Should the United States Adopt a System of Socialized Medicine?

The debate teams are planning to take a trip to Columbus in December to attend the Debate Clinic at the Ohio State University where different authorities will speak on the question of socialized medicine.

Two veterans are back on the team this year. They are Jo Ann Whinery and Nettie Housel.

Parents -- Salem Is Growing

Lately much emphasis is being put on the question of the $750,000 school bond issue. One might think that the present condition of our schools is being exaggerated. This week was American Education week and many parents and voters saw for themselves that even now their is lack of sufficient room for young students. It is obvious that these same facilities will not meet the demands in a few years due to the steadily increasing population.

Salem is growing and it cannot be denied that new
and more means must be provided for this growth.
Voters must vote "yes" when they go to the polls on November 5. The $750,000 bond issue is an absolute necessity and must not fail.

Yell For New Cheers Too

It is Friday morning and every student is looking forward to the pep assembly, at the end of the fourth period. All morning long you are restless and full of pep and glad that the periods are short, and finally when the last bell rings you dash out of class, talking and humming as loud as you can. "Just listen to the band," you remark to your friends as you enter the auditorium. As you take the seat which has been assigned to you, the curtain rises and you see before you the five smiling faces of the cheerleaders. The assembly start off with a few old yells, and then suddenly a cheerleader pops up with one with which you cannot make heads nor tails. So what happens? You make no effort at all to help this new yell along. What becomes of all the pep you had before the assembly? It's still there all right, but you just can't understand why they waste time with new cheers. Just suppose what would happen if every student acted as you did. There would not be a cheering section at any game. Of course our favorite cheers are the old ones that never will die, but won't you do your part to help the cheerleaders with the new yells?

TEEN-TIME TIPS

By Marilyn and Shirley

"The frost is on the pumpkin"
and you're knee deep in chemistry experiments, coke dates,
and last minute plans for the week-end. You scuffle through fallen leaves on the way to school, thinking about that big pumpkin you are to cut for for your little brother. In fact, you find you have the what-
to-wear worries when those big occasions start rolling around.

There are some boys and girls who aren't going to scamper around the last minute to find something to wear. For they have already picked their clothes to complete their wardrobe for this year. One of our boys in DOM PARLOW with an eye-catching blue sweater. The front has three rows of dogs pulling a sled. This sweater will certainly add pep to his wardrobe. "GOTCH" GOTTSCHLING has a new winter jacket lined with warm wooly fur.
These jackets are on the order of Air Corps jackets and will certainly keep one warm.

If anyone doesn't appreciate his Jackets, give them to Donna Ward
—she loves them.

Have you seen that exquisite black nylon turtle sweater that belongs to BILLIE FINLEY?? It certainly is an eye-catcher!!

There must be a new shipment of saddle shoes in as indicated by the amount of new ones seen around the halls this past week.
Get yours, girls, while they last

CHUCK WARD has quite a large selection of plaid shirts. We girls think that more boys should wear them. Are we right??

STEVE ALEK has been looking forward to this: He is the "Hubba" boy of the freshman girls. What do you think?

HAVING TROUBLE
WITH SWEATERS?

If the neck and sleeves of your favorite pull-on have stretched beyond recognition, here's what to do: Before they dry, weave ribbon in and out of the neck and sleeves. If you haven't any ribbon handy, use string, this will keep them in shape through many washings.
This week we thought we would review a typical glamour girl and handsome boy, formed by a combination of various S. H. S. students.

Senior Personality

Our personality this week is an ex-Navy veteran who will graduate with the class of '47.

He has dark brown hair, green eyes, a deep voice, and a darling smile. He is usually seen with some of his many friends, either Buddy-Buddy Franks, Nemo, Gail, or Ray.

He plays football for dear old Alma Mater and seems to like it especially well because, so I'm told,
that is one of his reasons for coming back to school after his discharge. Some of his other likes are, the music of Vaughn Monroe and his favorite song is "How Dry I Am" which he would like to hear a recording of by Vaughn. Since he can't be left out of the class with other men, he likes women too.

Some of his buddies have given him the name of "Manuel" and if you would care to find out why just ask him and I'm sure he'd be glad to tell you. His pastime is taking care of Buddy-Buddy, and his favorite haunt is Charlie's place, and last but not least, he can make himself at home anywhere.

And now for the final part of the personality, something you have all been waiting for. The name of our personality is none other than Steve Alek Oh, by the way, Steve is the idol of the freshman girls

Sugar &amp; Spice

HANDY MAN

Besides his regular school activities, Tom Holzbach can do a lot of outstanding things, but good.
The other day I was very surprised to see him
sewing a few stitches during English IV class.
After I got to talking to him about his remarkable self, he informed me that he could write pretty good poems too. The one he was so kind to contribute follows:

MAN'S A FOOL

As a rule, man's a fool.
When it's hot he wants it cool,
When it's cool he wants it hot,
Always wanting what is not.

MISTAKE?

Marge Theiss made the unforgettable mistake of walking through the boys' locker-room last week. At the Girard game the majorettes were directed to the ladies' lounge and wound up in the boys' locker room. I sure hope this isn't contagious, or there's going to be quite a competition around here.

IT COULDN'T BE TRUE

In the past week someone told me that Milan Alek
is much different than any other boy around school.
Did you know that he stays home every night, does his homework, and hates women? Well more power to him, if he can hold out, that is.

GET A DATE

The senior play and the junior-senior party are in sight and it would be wise for all the available males to start writing that note or making that phone call to the gals of their choice. Don't let it go 'till the last hour and then start your campaign. Remember Rome wasn't conquered in a day. So let's go all out.

DESSERT

The SUGAR AND SPICE this week goes to our BARRETTMEN for the super job they've been doing lately; they're right in there ----- our gay gals who are soooo enthusiastic at the games. The team would be lost without them ----- the kids who had enough nerve to take their report card home last week ----- the FRESHMEN are excluded from this. They all made the honor roll so of course it was no effort for them.

RATS AND SNAILS TO . . . .

The dead wood at the football games. Just how can they keep from yelling??? ---- those who haven't paid their penny rent for the use of my mirror this week
----- Zeke and Nemo for their article about mirrors and girls last week. What gal poisoned you guys on life?

P. D. Q.

A speedy recovery is requested of Dick "Red"
Tolson by all the very lonesome students of S.H.S.
We miss him lots and for the good of our spirits he'd better hurry up and get well. So how about it, "Red," are you with us?

NEVER AGAIN!!!!

Why did Polly Ailes look so sad Monday morning?
Could it be she didn't get all the corn cleaned up?
Some people's kids just don't care what they do when they're not at home. But it's more fun.

THAT'S WHAT HE SAYS

Joe Nocera has been wearing a big patch over his right eye. He says he got hurt in football, but to tell you the truth no one believes him. You'll just have to think of a better one than that, Joe.

SHOW UP

East Liverpool will be here for the biggest game of the season tonight and the turnout should be the same.
Good luck to the Quakers. If you'll go, they'll fight and we'll win.

Help Keep School Clean

Since our school was freshly painted this summer,
we should make an extra effort to keep our school clean. That means not only the walls, but also the floors and desks.

It is positively disgusting to walk along the halls and see papers and small bits of paper strewn along the lockers and sometimes in the middle of the hall.
Not only does this look bad, but it also makes more work for the janitors.

Another fault of some students seems to be their habit of sticking unwanted paper and Kleenex into desks. You wouldn't want to clean out those desks, so don't have the bad manners to leave them for someone else to clean out. There is a wastebasket in every room and there are disposal shutes in the halls for unwanted papers.

Quakers Face Liverpool In Crucial Contest Tonight; Large Throng Is Expected

Rivermen Are Given Slight Edge In Season's Biggest Encounter; Quakers Anticipate Triumph Over Potters

A crucial grid battle is expected at Reilly Stadium tonight with the continuation of a bitter but interesting rivalry between two of the county's top teams when the Salem High Quakers go against the always strong East Liverpool Potters.

The Potters, playing with tough luck all season, have won only two of their six games. Last week, after battling their opponents all over the green, they dropped a 6--0 decision to Martins Ferry. The East Liverpool eleven completely outplayed the opposition, but couldn't produce the points needed for victory. In fact, all of their losses have followed a similar course. The Liverpool squad will come to Quaker-town with a definite trend toward victory. Despite their poor record, the ceramists will be classed as slight favorites over the Red and Black in tonight's tussle. The Pottery city eleven, although losing four of their games, have displayed power in all phases of the game. Their well rounded attack will be tough to stop and thus they rate the edge over the Quaker gridgers.

The Barrettmens should not be underestimated, however. Their attacks are starting to move and the Quakers seem to have a newly-added incentive over their previous fashion. Starting in poor form, the Salem gridgers have gained confidence, teamwork, valuable experience, and all-around improvement over their early season play. They now have a string of four, and a total of five precious victories in their seven games tucked securely under their belts. The Quaker grid-machine has possibly its best chance in the past ten years of upsetting the highly touted Potter crew, and from all indication the Salemites will be out to take full advantage of this long-awaited opportunity. In their past two games, the Barrettmens have unleashed a powerful attack against strong teams and they will be out more than ever to repeat that performance in this fray tonight.

Thus far the two teams have played no common foe, so little conclusion can be drawn from this point of view. But casting all other figures aside, a terrific tussle is booming between the Liverpool powerhouse and Coach Barrett's dangerous and rejuvenated squad.

A capacity crowd is expected to witness the contest which begins at 7:45 p. m.

Probable starting lineup:

E. LIVERPOOL		SALEM

Reserve, Frosh and Jr. High Squads Gain Valuable Experience

If playing games with neighboring reserve freshmen and junior high teams helps to make football players, then Salem coaches and officials are doing their share. Salem has a seventh and eighth grade squad coached by Robert Miller, a freshmen squad coached by Leonard Hoppes, and a reserve squad coached by Frank Tarr.

A brief resume of the season for each squad appears:

- Salem Seventh and Eighth
 Salem 21, Leetonia 0
 Salem 22, Leetonia 0
 Salem 6, East Palestine 12
- Salem Freshman

 Salem 0, Alliance State St. Hr. High, 6
 Salem 27, E Palestine Reserves 0
- Salem Reserves
 Salem 24, East Palestine 0
 Salem 6, Woodrow Wilson 26
 Salem 18, Goshen 12
 Salem ?, Leetonia?

The varsity team, coached by Ben Barrett and Joe Kelley, besides playing a regular schedule had a dozen scrimmages with other teams.

Senior girls and boys received dental check-ups Wednesday in the Nurse's office by the Doctors Sandrock and Harwood. These check-ups were conducted by the hygiene classes.

G. Thorne Qualifies For State Meet To Be Held Saturday

Cross Country Coach F. E. Cope and seven boys treked to Akron last Saturday to participate in the district cross country run.

From a field of ninety participants in this two mile classic, Salem's Glenn Thorne finished eighth. The other Salem runners finished as follows: Ursu, 37th; Pierce, 45th; Theil, 49th; Bailey, 50th; Sechler, 61st; and Hickey, 74th.

Davis of Akron East emerged victorious and was clocked at 9 minutes 54.3 seconds, this being a new record for the two-mile course. Incidentally, the first ten men all broke the old record, thus showing it was an unusual run. The other lads ahead of Thorne, besides Davis, were Pate of Warren, who came in 2nd; Petrie of Akron North, 3rd; Streidferdt of Warren, 4th; Watson of Louisville, 5th; Mains of Akron North, 6th; and Stalnaker of Akron East, 7th. The first ten boys automatically qualify for the state meet which will be held at Mansfield tomorrow.

The following is the standing of the teams entered
 First—Akron North
 Second—Akron East
 Third—Akron Garfield
 Fourth—Louisville
 Fifth—Akron South
 Sixth—Barberton
 Seventh—Salem
 Eighth—Akron Buchtel
 Ninth—Struthers
 Tenth—Boardman
 Eleventh—East Liverpool
 Twelfth—Akron Central
 Thirteenth—Warren

Jane—You remind me of the ocean.
 John—Romantic, wild, and restless?
 Jane—No, you make me sick.
 "Can you stand on your head?"
 "No, it's too high."

Library Personality

We certainly have some very attractive librarians; for example, just take a peek into the library sixth period. At the desk will be Virginia Burrier, one of the five junior girls who are student librarians. Ginny has been a librarian for two years, and she loves her work.

Virginia simply adores Clare de Lune, Daphne de Maurier is her favorite author, and Merle Oberon her favorite movie star.

People who read other people's mail aggravate her, but hot fudge sundaes or olives never fail to soothe her.

Virginia has some unusual likes and dislikes. Her secret desire is also a strange one; she would like to see the Taj Mahal in the moonlight.

There is nothing strange about Ginny's personality; she is really 20/20! This 5' 3" junior lass plans to be a surgeon.

Barrettmens Garner Fifth Grid Triumph By Lashing a Bewildered Girard Indian Squad, 26-12

Ehrhart, Franks, Parlontieri, Martinelli Display Talents For Quakers; Hosteau Shines For Rivals

The Salem High Quakers, gaining momentum with every game, trekked to Girard last Thursday night and came home with their fourth straight triumph and fifth of the season by scalping the Girard Indians, 26-12, in a thrill packed game.

Coach Ben Barrett's lads showed superiority over the bewildered Girard squad throughout the contest in both the offensive and defensive departments. The stalwart Salem line weakened only twice during the encounter, while the speedy Salem backs were riding the ineffective Girard forward wall all night.

The Quakers' first scoring chance came mid-way in the first quarter when alert Steve Alek pounced on a Girard fumble on the opponents 28 yard line. A penalty advanced the oval to the 14 from where after two plays Lee Ward smacked off tackle for the locals' initial touchdown of the battle. Tommy Miner's place kick was good for the extra point and the Barrettmens held a comfortable 7-0 lead.

In the opening minutes of the second quarter Charlie Franks sliced through right tackle for six yards and the second Salem touchdown. This touchdown march covered 43 yards with Walter Ehrhart doing a majority of the ball carrying. Jimmy Laughlin's place kick was blocked.

Late in the second frame, Franks intercepted a Girard pass on the Salem 40 and returned the pigskin to the rivals 40 yard marker. Five plays were all that was necessary for the Quaker third TD. Tommy Miner went the needed half-yard for the six-pointer on a quarterback sneak. Ehrhart kicked the extra point and as the half ended, Salem held an impressive 20-0 lead.

The Indians seemed to profit by the half time rest, for early in the third quarter Housteau crashed over for the Girardites first marker. This TD was set up by a pass interference called against Salem on the Quaker's 6. It took big Housteau the limited four downs before he was able to penetrate the Quaker's line for the touchdown. Chicarelli's kick was blocked.

The remaining portion of the half was played in Salem territory with both teams exchanging punts.

Early in the final quarters substitute Neal Augustine shook lose and sped 36 yards to the Salem 4 from where Housteau crashed over for the touchdown. Chicarelli failed again on the extra-point try.

Things began to look gloomy for the Quakers, but with the last period nearly half over, the Barrettmens came back to life and looked like the team that performed during the first half.

The Salem lads received the kickoff on their 39 yard line and with beautiful blocking, powerful running and sheer determination,

The Spotlight

By Nemo and Zeke

POWERFUL GROUND ATTACK!!

The Salem Quakers smothered Girard last Thursday night in a powerful ground attack, 26-12. Staging a first half power house, the Barrettmens ran wild over Girard to chalk up a score of 20 to 0 at the half.

The Quakers led all the way over the Girard Indians. Although Salem could not do a thing in passing, they proved much power on the ground. Salem had 14 first downs to the Girard's 7.

Much credit goes to effective Walter Ehrhart rolling up an average of 9½ yards per try and walking away with the ball toting honors.

Lee Ward accounted for one T.D., Tom Miner for one, and high score leader "Curly" Franks accounted for two. Ehrhart and Miner got the credit for the two extra points.

POTTERS DROP FOURTH

The East Liverpool Potters dropped their fourth game out of six to a battling Martins Ferry squad, 6-0

Martins Ferry scored late in the final frame by a pass heaved by their fullback Don Jackson. It was rough going for Liverpool, especially when they scored in the second frame, only to be called back by an offside penalty.

Liverpool took the edge in yardage gained and in first downs, 12-5

WELLSVILLE COACH YANKS TEAM

Coach Mearle Atkins of Wellsville took his team off the field in the third frame in the game with Mingo Junction. The referee ejected a player off each squad for unnecessary roughness and the coach did not agree so off they went. They were losing 35-0 anyway.

LISBON ROUTS LEETONIA

Lisbon routed a weak Leetonia team last Saturday afternoon 26-6. Lisbon has almost a perfect season with the exception of a 9-7 setback with Palestine.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK!!!

Why can't Salem get some football action pictures in the Salem News?? See if you can answer! We're sure it's no $64 question

QUESTION NUMBER TWO OF THE WEEK

In a game last week a player signaled for a fair catch but fumbled the punt. He recovered the fumble and ran for a touchdown. Should the officials have allowed the score??

BROWNS BEATEN

The Cleveland Browns bowed to the San Francisco 49'ers., 34-20, last Sunday afternoon. This marks the first time that Coach Paul Brown's team has lost a game this season.

COPE'S CROSS COUNTRY

F. E. Cope's Cross Country men went to Akron last Saturday for the district meet. Akron North received top honors, Salem placed seventh with Captain Glenn Thorne being the only one who qualified for the state meet at Mansfield. Good Luck, Glenn!!

NEW JERSEYS!!!

The Salem Quakers will meet Liverpool tonight and also will be sporting their new red jerseys. The jerseys are all red with the exception of white numbers and white stripes on the sleeve.

SALEM TO BATTLE POTTERS

The Salem Quakers will meet up with East Liverpool tonight for their first home game since Wellsville. The Quakers have a better (much better) average than the Potters. Salem winning five out of seven tries while Liverpool only winning two in six tries.

Salem has not beaten Liverpool since 1934, that's only 12 years. The nearest they came to beating them was in 1936 when the team tied 6-6. So let's start turning the tables, TONIGHT!!!

G. A. A.

The Girls Athletic Association, under the direction of Miss Ada Hanna, has started to play volleyball with Camille Enriken in charge of the team

There are about 40 girls who are now signed up for volleyball. Any girls who are interested but have not yet signed up, should notify Miss Hanna as she would like to have as many girls as possible.

The girls will continue to play volleyball until the boys take over the gym for basketball practice.

First Of Gridiron Portraits Features Football Captain

One of the most likable and outstanding personalities in Salem High is James Laughlin. Jim holds the honor of being football captain. He is also a Quarter-back and field general of the fighting Quaker Grid team. Being well-liked by all players and students, "Lock" is a fine example of the true Salem High sports enthusiast. Jim is an all-around athlete. He is a member of the smooth working Quaker basketball team and is a valuable player at all times.

During the summer he is engaged in many activities. "Lock" played softball for the "Little Gem's," Class B Champions, and was a dangerous hitter and competent fielder.

He is a senior and a member of the Varsity "S" Club. Jim stands about 5' 9", weighs 145 pounds, and has brown hair.

If you don't know Jim, be sure to get acquainted with him; he's one swell fellow.
