

Quakers Trounce East Liverpool, 38-6

Book Week Is International

Children's Book Week, to be held this fall from November 10-16, has become an international event. This year a Book Week celebration in thirty-nine countries around the world will play its part in encouraging and emphasizing international understanding. The theme for 1946, "Books are Bridges," conveys the importance of books in stimulating interest in, and appreciation of all peoples, all cultures, all phases of the life of the world. Surveys show that there are over a million children in this country who have never seen books outside of their school texts. This means that there are all too many children who have never read a book "just for fun," or in search of new experiences in science, in nature, in the realm of the imagination, in art and music, in handicrafts; of new games to play and stories to laugh about. Backed by the Children's Book Council, libraries, schools, bookstores and civic groups throughout the country will make an intensified effort during this week to awaken the nation to the importance of books to children. Back of them also are the twenty-seven national organizations which cooperate with the Council, and which enthusiastically endorse the Council's slogan "more books for more children."

Library Staff Plans National Book Week

Next week along with other pupils all over the country, Salem High School pupils will celebrate National Book Week. They will enjoy a motion picture, a recording, and a display of new books; all planned by the library staff.

The film, NOT BY BOOKS ALONE, will be presented in an assembly program. The picture is a technicolor release of the work and use of a library, and has proved to be popular with exhibitors.

English classes will hear the recording, THE JOYS OF READING, recorded by Frederic G. Melcher, editor of the magazine, PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY. Other classes are welcome to use the record.

Fifty new books have been added to the library this fall and are ready for everyone's reading pleasure. More will be available within a short time.

These new books in keeping with the Book Week theme are bridges to many things such as: Other lands, other people, facts and information, wonders of science, fun and entertainment, the world of nature, and realms of joy and imagination.

THANKS

Speaking in behalf of the students of tomorrow as well as the students of today, we of the Quaker wish to express thanks to the citizens of Salem who made possible the passing of the School Bond Levy.

Salvation Army Band To Appear Here Nov. 10th

The Salvation Army has scheduled a 52 man band from Canada, to appear here Sunday after playing in Akron on Saturday night and Sunday morning.

The noted conductor of this band is John P. Kershaw who studied under George Marshall, a noted British conductor and composer.

In 1939, while the King and Queen were on a tour of Canada, the band was called for a command performance. The entire band served in World War II.

The vocalist is Miss Margaret Macfarlane. There are also other noted soloists who will present novelty numbers throughout the program.

Pep Assembly For Liverpool Game Held Last Friday

A pep assembly was held by the student body last Friday. The assembly was opened by Supt. Kerr who asked each student to urge his parents and friends to support the school bond issue. The second half of the assembly was presented by the cheerleaders who led the student body in various cheers such as "Divided Team," "Color Yell," "Old Locomotive," and others. Sally Allen, the school mascot, was introduced to the student body at this time.

E. S. Kerr Presides At Convention

The N. E. O. T. A. met in the Cleveland Public Auditorium on October 25. Supt. E. S. Kerr, who was president, presided at the general meeting in the morning and at the business session in the afternoon.

Friday morning's program consisted of a concert by the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra, an invocation by Dr. Thomas W. Graham, Dean of the Divinity School at Obedlin College, and an address by Dr. Walter Judd, Congressman from Minnesota. Dr. Judd's topic was "The Significance of the Events in Asia."

After graduating from medical school in the United States, Dr. Judd studied in Tokyo and was for many years in charge of American hospitals in China and Japan. He is an authority on Oriental political affairs and delivered one of the most powerful addresses in the history of the N. E. O. T. A.

Baby Alligator In Biology Class

A baby alligator from Florida was given to the biology classes last week by Lela Oertel who received it from friends here in town. The alligator measuring ten inches in length and less than a year old, is being kept in the biology laboratory.

The biology classes are doing their diffusion experiments with oil of wintergreen instead of ether this year.

The best specimen of corn stalks was brought in by Margie Haessly last week. Mrs. Cox reported that the red ink experiment of these stalks was very successful.

Biology students of the past years will be interested to learn that Dr. Herman J. Muller has been awarded the Nobel Prize in Medicine for 1946 for producing mutations in fruitflies with X-rays.

Local's Victory Marks 1st Win Over County Rivals In Past Twelve Battles

Snyder, Ward, Franks, Ehrhart, Burger Score Salem's Touchdowns; D. Wolfe Registers Potters' Lone Tally

Before a hysterical throng of some 6,185 football fans, the victory-determined Salem High Quakers accomplished the supposedly impossible when they whipped the thoroughly confused East Liverpool Potters by the amazing score of 38-6 on the home field last Friday night.

Seniors in Band Get Recognition

For the Lisbon game tonight the Salem High School Band will put on a double feature program. The first part will be Dad's Day, featuring the Dads of the football team; the second part will be senior recognition for the senior members of the band. Mr. Brautigam has also planned to have his daughter, Carol, sing "Auld Lang Syne."

Immediately after the football season, the band will change from football to concert playing. Individual tryouts for the seating arrangement of the players for the concert will be held.

From the Fall Festival contest in Lisbon, October 26th, in which seven bands were entered, Mr. Brautigam received a check for $100 as the first prize.

Deans Will Speak At P. T. A. Nov. 12

The High School P. T. A. will meet next Tuesday evening. Mr. Early and Miss Zimmerman, as speakers, will acquaint the parents with the work of the Deans and give them an understanding of the problems which confront Salem High School students.

The Quakers have taken a thrashing for twelve straight years from the Ceramic City foes, but this year's score marks the greatest margin by which a Salem team has beaten the Columbiana County rivals in their 32 annual meetings.

The score was not the only factor which showed Salem's superiority. The Quakers compiled a total of 306 yards net gain compared to 136 for the Potters, whereas the locals completed 3 of 5 passes, two of which went for touchdowns, while the visitors connected on 3 of 15 attempts. All indications point to the fact that it was the Quakers' night.

Before many of the spectators got settled in their seats, the Quakers had piled up a 14-0 lead. Shortly after Walter Ehrhart punted out of bounds on the Liverpool 6 yard line, he recovered a Potter in completed lateral in the fotes' 11 yard marker. Three plays later, Lee Ward crashed over from the 3 for the Quakers initial score. Franks plunged for the extra point.

After the kickoff, Ray Snyder recovered another Liverpool fumble on the receiver's 26. Once again it took the Barrettmen only three plays to gain another TD. This

Nocera, Darling, Vincent Elected As Officers

Joe Nocera, Wayne Darling, and Janet Vincent were elected last week as president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer respectively of the freshman class of 1950.

The other candidates besides Joe and Wayne for president included: Lois Brookshire, Ben Bailey, Robert Kridler, George Reash, Angelo Volio, and Elijah Alexander.

The candidates for secretary-treasurer included: Janet Vincent, Victor Lake, Marjorie Davidson, Helen Schuler, Don Huston, Treva Bush, Robert Stratton and Carol Steffel.

Miss Sara Doxsee is the freshman class advisor.

Chemistry Classes Determine Water %

The chemistry classes are determining the percentage of water in crystallized substances. They are starting the study of chemical formulas and equations as well as the structure of the atom and how it is applied to the term "valence."

"Ben" Barrett, football coach of the Salem Quakers for four years, led his 1946 charges to a goal he has long looked forward to Victory over Liverpool. With confidence in his charges and victory in his mind, he gave many hours and much hard work to the drilling of his crew.

The confidence and determination of Frank Tarr, assistant coach, plus an excellent job of scouting the Potters, helped to gain the victory over East Liverpool. It is hoped that this victory helps in a way to repay Mr. Tarr for all of his hard work for which he gets little praise.

To F. E. Cope, Salem High Faculty Manager, credit must also go for the downing of Liverpool. He's an active booster and impulsive rooter for the Quakers. A vote of thanks is also extended to Mr. Cope for making our victory assembly the success it was

Join In At Noon

How many of you have noticed that on assembly days, especially on Fridays before a game, there is a group of students who get together out in front of the school at noon and really cheer for the team? No one knows who started the idea but it is really good practice for that big game to come. The group is usually led by Betty, Martha, Chet and several other cheerleaders. When the students get started and feel like cheering, nothing can stop them. It really sounds good to hear that every single student is behind the team and hoping for victory. No one knows what our cheering means to the boys who make up the football team, but it must certainly mean something to them because the boys and Coach Barrett can't seem to tell us enough how much they appreciate our cheers. Why not join this group at noon time and practice up for that big game and really be able to tell the boys how much you are with them?

Religious Education Beneficial

Within the last few years, a number of schools throughout Ohio as well as in other states, have instituted classes of religious education. As a rule the classes are held during school time and are attended only by those who desire to do so. In Youngstown schools such classes are held with a reasonable degree of attendance. Beyond doubt, interested pupils of our own school, if given the opportunity, would benefit from such classes of religious education, dealing with Bible beginnings, Bible Archaeology, and such subjects. Certainly in this day when emphasis is put on vocational education, religious education in our schools should not be altogether out of the question.

TEEN-TIME TIPS

By Marilyn and Shirley

We are off on another week of the sweater will look as if it is special for that skirt. Try it. For further information see Tootie.

Let's get along with our sight-seeing tour through the halls. First, we will stop and see NANCY HUNT'S new flattering black sweater with her initials on the shoulder. Wear it more often Nancy!! Our next stop is TREVA BUSH with her new green sweater with white figures on it. It is right pretty!! Our next stop is a group of freshmen who have been wearing new grey sweaters which are alike. Some of these charming freshmen are CAROL STEFFEL, JOAN DEWAN, JUNE WILLIAMS, MARGE GREENE, SHIRLEY M'CAVE, NINA SNYDER, SHIRLEY ROEBUSCH, CAROLYN ROWLONDS, BARBARA SWEENEY and a few more. They are up to something, kids!! Maybe it's a club. Good idea!! Let's move on down the hall until we come to VIRGINIA JUGASTRU'S new pink and black dress. This luscious dress will give you many a side glance, Virginia!

Let us now stop at the male center and see JERRY JEFFERIES' new white and red plaid shirt. It certainly will do something for you. KEITH KREPPS is another one of our males who has a snappy tan sweater. This sweater is for all around sports wear. Really is good-looking!! BOB WANK also has a snappy green sweater with white reindeers on it. It is really nice, Bob!

NEW IDEAS !!

A new idea originated by TOOTIE VAN POPPLEN is to embroider your sweater with the excess material from your plaid skirts. Then JANICE SELL has the idea of making a purse out of the excess material. This really looks nice if you are handy with the needle. If you aren't, maybe Janice will help you with it. How about it, Janice?

Few of the girls have made head bands to match their skirts out of the left-over material. You can fasten the ends of the material, with a narrow piece of elastic which will help it stay more securely.

Here is a poem composed by us about something which we think has happened to many of you:

ISN'T IT THE TRUTH?

Hair's a mess,
When you take more time than less.
Clothes are mussy,
When you try to make them fussy.
Nails are broken,
When you take that special token.
Complexion not clear,
When that special date comes near.
No, you can't win.
No matter how you try.

FOR THE LAST TIME

The saddest part of the column comes now when we seniors realize this is the last time we can wish our football team good luck. We have a right to be proud and cheer for the boys out on the field for they certainly have given us wonderful games under the supervision of Coach Barrett.

Good luck guys, on the game tonight!!!

Sugar & Spice

By JOAN HARDY

COULDN'T BE PROUDER

Congratulations to the terrific team of '46. Not only for the way they handled last week's game, but also for all the other games too. Tonight the seniors will be out their playing their last high school football game. They have made us all very proud of them and, in our opinion, there isn't one of those guys who isn't an all-around "All American."

COMING OUT

"Walfelia" along with two buddies, Boone and Huddleston, made an elaborate debut on Halloween. Walfelia and Boone were really slick chicks scantily dressed in the costumes of many nations. (But, oh that sweater!) Huddleston, wearing top hat, white tie and tails, escorted the other too. Thanks fellows for adding so much to the Halloween fun. It's too bad it only comes once a year.

SQUISH-SQUASH

Sloppy, gooey, oozy, messy and smelly were the freshman girls on Halloween. Gail Mellinger, Mary Steffel and Janet Lodge were just a few of the many girls who got free shampoos and facials. Gee what an improvement in their appearances. Hope they don't hold a grudge; after all you are only a freshman once—thank Heavens!!!!

NOTICE

I hear Harold Kibbler is just about the neatest thing on his side of school. Besides being alive, he has curly blonde hair (get this next one) clear blue eyes and is a little on the bashful side. Just how cute can he be????? Better get your bid in now girls and find out.

DARKNESS

The south hall, second floor, confusion every night about 6:00 o'clock is just Betty Rayniak, Phyllis Murphy and Marie Nocera trying to find a light switch. They can't even get to their lockers without tripping over a water fountain or waste basket. I hope the paper shoot is never opened when they go by there some night or they might find themselves being bundled for the paper drive.

LITTLE HELPS

Sally Allen and Carol Brautigam were really big attractions at the game last Friday night. Sally helped the cheerleaders and Carol aided the band. The spectators were fascinated by these two little ladies with personality plus. Hope we see more of them.

MAKE UP

Glad to hear Jean Redinger and Dick Herron, Nancy Hunt and Rod Herron and Joyce Lowry and Jim Laughlin have, settled their squabbles for good. That's just swell kids. Hope everything runs smooth for all from now on.

B. S. S.

Ray Snyder has acquired some interesting initials behind his name. They tell me Uncle Charles bestowed the honors. Congratulations, Ray. Gail Leach has had this degree for sometime now and hopes Ray will make a go of all it stands for. Marilyn Miller and Tooty Van Popplen are working for the same deal. It really must have something behind it.

A BARGAIN'S A BARGAIN

Donna Lopeman very distinctly said that if the team took Liverpool she'd kiss them all. The guys kept their end of the bargain, Donna, what's hold-you back? Let's have some action as the team is getting tired of waiting.

GOOD NEWS

Dick Tolson is recovering rapidly and will be back to school before long. Isn't that swell? I see he took our advice and that's good too.

REMINDER

The "Sugar and Spice" box is still in the Quaker Office. It can hold many suggestions and items so let me hear from you. Thanks to those who have sent in articles. Keep it up; it's appreciated

LAST BUT NOT LEAST

Tonight is the last game of the season and the team will be doing their best. They'll need and want you backing them so don't let them down. Let's all be there for sure.

Since tonight is the night of the last game this season, and also one of the hardest games we have played, the cheering section ought to put a little more pep into those yells. Really get behind those yells.

The Lisbon Blue Devils will invade the Salem gridiron tonight for a tussle with the Quakers which should prove to be one of the most interesting in this district.

The Lisbon powerhouse, coached by Edwin Bucher, is one of the top teams in the district. Thus far, they have compiled an enviable record of seven victories and have suffered only one defeat, that being a hard-fought, questionable battle to the East Palestine Bulldogs earlier in the season. Last week, they dumped the highly touted Columbiana Clippers by a 26-6 count, and previously crushed the Leetonia Bear outfit by a similar score.

The Blue Devils have a dangerous and well-rounded attack, featuring one of the finest passing exhibitions in the county. They are also tough on the ground and bound for the goal line every time they

Instead of starting out with the usual musical gossip, I think the team deserves a barrel of rabs for their outstanding display of great talent in last week's game. Let's hope tonight they do as well.

Tex Beneke and the Miller orchestra recently broke all existing records for opening day attendance at Chicago's Oriental theater. Their draw was considerably greater than that chalked up by Jane Russell a few weeks previous when she appeared at the Oriental in conjunction with the opening of "The Outlaw."

Reports from Hollywood seem to state that the life of Harry "the horn" James is being written as a movie script under the title "Horn the Plenty." 20th Century will get the first chance to make it.

time Charlie Franks carried the pigskin into the end zone and Laughlin tossed a strike to Jimmy Jensen for the extra point. As the scoreboard registered Salem 14, visitors 0, the fans went wild.

Early in the second quarter, Ehrhart's magnificent punts which went out of bounds on the 3 put Liverpool in hot water once again. The Potters were forced to kick, with Charlie Franks returning a good punt to the Rivermen's 36 yard stripes. From here the fighting Red and Black marched to another score with versatile Walt Ehrhart skirting around end for the third touchdown. Franks was stopped cold on his extra point try.

As the last half opened, Tommy Miner put his talented arm to work and tossed in a beautiful pass into the waiting arms of End Ray Snyder who gathered in the remaining necessary yards for the Quakers' fourth six-pointer. Miner's extra-point pass was incomplete and the score remained, 26-0.

The Quakers' fifth touchdown was set up by another Potter fumble with Jensen recovering. After two running plays from the rivals 35, Miner pitched another ball to Snyder who caught the pass in the end zone.

Liverpool's only offensive spark flared up shortly after this touchdown. From their own 37, the Potters marched down the field and made the score 32-6. Don Wolfe crashed over from the one, climaxing this 53 yard drive. Trobovich's attempted extra-point try was blocked by Dick Gottschling.

Walter Burger, Salem's third string center, garnered the final touchdown as he intercepted a Potter pass and raced eight yards to pay. Rudy Maroscher's pass for the extra-point was incomplete.

The Quaker's line deserves high praise once again along with the running and passing attack of the talented Quaker backs.

Hats off to the mighty Quakers who molded the Potters by dishing out a 38-6 defeat last Friday night at the Reilly "Battle Field" Stadium.

CAPTAIN LAUGHLIN

We want to write up the boys to whom this Quaker is dedicated this week. First comes our CAPTAIN and quarterback "BURR HEAD" LAUGHLIN. On offense he did a splendid job of keeping the Potters guessing on every play and throwing an extra point pass to Jensen which spelled sure defeat for the Potters. He also stood out on defense at his safety position.

WALT "FLASH" EHRHART

Showing up his talented toe on both place kicks and punting, Walt had the Potters on their heels all evening. He also galloped off many sizable runs and recorded on six pointer

BOB "BOOBY" HODGE

Playing the best game of his career, besides being a mainstay on defense, Hodge ripped off plenty much needed yardage when it was needed most.

CHUCK "REVENGE" FRANKS

Starting in the fullback position and often shifting to righthalf, Chuck revenged the 20-0 defeat which the Quakers of '44 suffered before he entered the service. He was the gun all the way, shining in no particular field, but playing consistently throughout the tilt. He was good for 7 out of the 38 points.

RAY "STICKY FINGERS" SNYDER

Ray played beautiful heads-up ball the whole game, recovering Liverpool's fumble to set the second touchdown and catching two beautiful touchdown passes. He also performed brilliantly on defense.

DICK "HAMBURG" GOTTSCHLING

Playing consistently the whole game and breaking up many Liverpool plays, including the blocking of Trobovich's one and only attempt for an extra point, Gotch gets a lot of credit for his hard driving.

TONY "BALONEY" MARTINELLI

Doing his usual good work, Tony stopped many Liverpool plays and was usually in their backfield. To Tony goes a lot of credit for shining in his first year of football.

ARNOLD "FLICKER" FLICK

The heaviest man on Salem's team and playing a game to be proud of that's Arnold. Playing not as a pace-setter, but keeping up with any member of the squad, he turned in one of his best games of the year.

ANDY "NOSE" PARLOW

Playing splendid ball, Andy was the mainstay on the Salem line, making Liverpool's backs wish they had stayed at home.

LEE "DEMON" SPROAT

By Zeke, Not Nemo)

As usual Lee was there cracking through the Liverpool line and playing a considerable amount of the game in the Liverpool backfield. Lee was also in on a lot of those tackles which broke breaking up Liverpool's plays

STEVE "TEETH CHATTERING" ALEK

Playing a very impressive game, Steve shone on defense and offense, always putting that ball right where it belonged.

ED "ALL AMERICAN" BOZICH

A substitute left-half, but always a threat to all on-comers, Ed piled up the best average yardage gained per try.

LEE "BONE CRUSHER" WARD

A pile driving full-back, Lee plunged through the line for many needed yards and a six pointer.

PETE "SMILEY" CAIN

Pete put in a very impressive game at the center position, backing up the line.

JIM "I CAN STILL CATCH THEM" JENSEN

Jim used his usual defensive playing in crushing Liverpool. He got Laughlin's pass for an extra point.

TOM "BUCK ROGERS" MINER

"The "Arm" let go with two beautiful touchdown passes and played his usual heads-up game.

Here are the boys who racked them up:

Ward	6
Franks	6
Ehrhart	6
Snyder	12 from Miner
Burger	6
Jensen	1 from Lock

OUR LAST VICTORY??

Let's take a glance now at the game to be played tonight, climaxing the '46 season. Looking back through Lisbon's records this season, it's apparent that the Quakers will have to keep playing their heads-up games against this foe. Each and every student is urged to attend this tilt tonight. Senior boys will be out there playing their last game of SHS football. Let's have all hands out there showing appreciation. We'll end our column this week by saying, "Let's Go, Quakers. Win, lose, or draw, we're with you 100 per cent."

get their hands on the ball. The Lisbon squad is spear-headed by Alan Webber a terrific passer, speedy runner, and good kicker. Ray Davies, a fast, shifty, and deceptive runner, carries the pigskin on many of the ground plays.

The fighting Quakers were in the parade of glory last Friday night when they trounced a supposedly powerful East Liverpool High eleven to the tune of 38-6. This victory was the fifth in a row for the Barrettmen, and the sixth of the current season. They displayed a brand of ball which has not been seen in this town for several years, and showed the ability which they are capable of once they get rolling.

The Red and Black will, by all means, be out to continue this streak when they face the Blue and White of Lisbon at Reilly Stadium tonight. The Quakers also lost a close skirmish to the East Palestine eleven and defeated Leetonia 13-0.

Little can be drawn from this outlook except that a very close tussle can be expected. Practically anything can happen (and probably will) when two fighting and powerful squads like Lisbon and Salem get together on the turf. The two teams, playing a similar brand of ball all year, will have to be rated quite evenly.

Tonight's tussle, the last game for the locals, is being observed as "Dad's Night." A capacity crowd is expected to witness the contest which begins at 7:45 p. m.
