Edwin Mosher Ranks First In Sr. Class

M. Andres Is Second; J. Ferreri, R. Peppel Tie For Third Place In Senior Honor Student Ratings

R. Rufer, E. Equizi, J. Headrick, V. Paulun, B. Cosgarea, R. Snyder Complete Top Ten Ratings

Senior class scholastic ratings, released this week by Principal Beman G. Ludwig, place Edwin Mosher, Mary Helen Endres, and Joe Ferreri and Ruth Peppel as first, second, and third honor graduates respectively, in a class of 185 students, thirty of whom are veterans.

Aside from maintaining a high scholastic rating, Edwin has been active this year on the Quaker Weekly editorial staff. He participated in Student Council activities his freshman year.

Mary Helen, treasurer of the Hi-Tri this year, was a member of the Latin club her freshman and sophomore years and was active during her junior year in the Slide Rule club.

Joe, vice-president this year of the Thespians, appeared in substantial roles in the junior class play, "Whispering Walls," and the senior play, "George Washington Slept Here." He was a Salem High school representative at Buckeye Boys' State his junior year and was active in Student Council work his freshman, junior, and senior years. He is editor of the Council handbook now being published. During his junior year he was elected secretary-treasurer of the Slide Rule club. He has been active on the Quaker Weekly editorial staff for two years.

Ruth has been a member of the Hi-Tri during her junior and senior years.

Rufer and Equizi, Fifth, Sixth
In first place is Ruth Rufer. This year Ruth is president of the Hi-Tri. She was a monitor during her junior year and won third place in the story division of the Brooks Contest her freshman year.

Enes Equizi holds the sixth place rating. She was a librarian and participated in the Latin club her freshman and sophomore years. During her junior years she was active in band and orchestra; during her junior and senior years, Hi-Tri and Quaker Annual business staff; and this year Debate and Thespians. She has been a member of the Quaker Weekly business staff for the past three years.

Headrick, Paulin, Seventh, Eighth
In seventh place is Jean Headrick, editor of this year's Quaker Annual. She was a member of the Quaker Annual editorial staff during her sophomore and junior years. Aside from being secretary-treasurer of the Thespians, she has also been a member of the Hi-Tri for the past two years. Jean was a member of the cast of the junior play "Whispering Walls."

Violet Paulun holds eighth place. She entered Salem High from Goshen High school during her junior year.

Cosgarea, Snyder, Ninth, Tenth
Betty Jean Cosgarea ranks ninth. She was secretary to Mr. Cope this year and a member of the cast of the senior play, "George Washington Slept Here." Betty was a member of the G. A. A. all four years, a cheerleader her sophomore year, and a member of the Student Council during her junior year. She participated in Hi-Tri activities during her junior and senior years and served as vice-president this year.

In tenth place is Ray Snyder who received the Knights of Columbus football award this year. He participated in football all four years and in track all except his freshman year. Ray, vice-president of the Association this year, was a member of the Varsity S during his junior and senior years.

Robinson, McGaffick eleventh
Robinson and McGaffick, Eleventh, Twelfth

Eleventh place is held by Janet Robinson, assistant Business Manager of the Quaker Weekly and Annual. She was also a member of the Weekly and Annual Business staffs during her sophomore and junior years. Janet was a member of the Latin club her freshman and sophomore years, a librarian during her sophomore, junior, and senior years, a member of the Slide Rule her junior year, and of the Hi-Tri during her junior and senior years, and a Thespian and Dean's Aid her senior year. She was a member of the cast of the junior play, "Whispering Walls."

Carl McGaffick holds the twelfth place rating.

Jugastru and Faini, Thirteenth, Fourteenth

Virginia Jugastru, Business Manager of the Quaker Weekly and Annual, ranks thirteenth. She was also a member of the Weekly and Annual Business staffs during her sophomore and junior years. Virginia was a member of the Latin club her freshman and sophomore years, a librarian during her sophomore, junior, and senior years, and a monitor and a member of the Hi-Tri during her junior and senior years. Virginia was an active member of the Slide Rule her junior year and a member of the Thespians this year.

In fourteenth rank is Marion Faini, treasurer of the Varsity S. Marion was a Salem High school representative at Buckeye Boys' State during his junior year. He was taken into the Varsity S last year.

Butcher, Smith Tie For Fifteenth
Tied for fifteenth place are Carolyn Butcher and Shirley Smith. Carolyn, editor of the Quaker Weekly, was the first negative speaker for the Debate team and a member of the senior play cast, "George Washington Slept Here," this year. She was a member of the Latin club during her freshman and sophomore years and a mem-

Tickets For "Date With Judy" On Sale

Junior play ticket sales started Thursday, April 10, and will continue until Friday, April 18. Each of the home rooms is trying to sell the most tickets in order to win the contest. Each day the amount of tickets sold in each home room will be posted on the board. The students have voted on home room representatives to take charge of the sales. The representatives are as follows: Room 201, Donald Bishop; Room 202, Marge Hanna; Room 203, Don Maxon; Room 204, Ted Sabona; Room 205, Chuck Ward; Room 309, Donna Roessler.

"Date With Judy" Preview Presented

A preview of the Junior play, "A Date with Judy," was presented the student body at an assembly yesterday. The preview consisted of the introduction of characters and a few skits and scenes from the play.

"A Date with Judy," based on the idea of the radio program of the same name, will be presented in the High School auditorium, April 24 and 25, at 8:15 p. m. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the Junior class.

SUPT. KERR ON PANEL AT KENT STATE U.

Supt. E. S. Kerr participated in a panel discussion on the subject, "The Crisis in Education," at Kent State University, Wednesday evening.

Other panel speakers included Miss Edith Peters, President of the State Teachers Retirement System; Mrs. Helen Stopher, representing the Ohio Congress of Parents and Teachers; Harold J. Bowers, representing the Department of Education; and Lou Lyman, representing the field of business.

Dr. Walter Dew Talks Thursday On 'Chemistry of Modern Times'

Dr. Walter A. Dew, widely known speaker on chemical progress as it affects the average American, will speak at a student assembly, April 24, on "CHEMISTRY THE GENIE OF MODERN TIMES."

He will demonstrate several score of the newest developments of modern chemical research, some of them yet to be publicly introduced.

Dr. Dew is eastern manager of the Extension Division of E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Company, with headquarters at Wilmington, Delaware. During the past 12 months, he has spoken at scores of meetings in many states.

Dr. Dew is a graduate of Princeton University where he also did post-graduate work leading to the doctor of philosophy degree in physical chemistry. In 1924, he joined Du Pont where he has held numerous positions in research, technical, and supervisory capacities. Early in World War II, he directed the training of supervisory personnel for several Du Pont-operated government ordnance plants, and later served as a member of the management staff at the Oklahoma Ordnance Works. In 1943, he handled Du Pont personnel contacts with the University of Chicago, and was later stationed at the Clinton Laboratories, Oak Ridge, Tenn., where he directed the training school for operations supervision for the Hanford Engineer Works near Pasco, Wash.

Dr. Dew has served as secretary of the Kanawha Valley Section of the American Chemical Society, is a member of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers, and of Sigma Xi, honor scientific society, and has been an active worker in numerous Boy Scout Councils.

Students Enjoy 'Snake' Assembly

An Association assembly was held Wednesday featuring Jack Raymond who is the owner and director of the Kentucky Reptile Gardens.

Having over fifteen years experience in the out-of-doors, Mr. Raymond was a speaker who was well-fitted to present in a most interesting and entertaining manner the fascinating subject, "Herpetology," covering reptile life in this country.

Mr. Raymond had been actively connected with camp life as a director as well as in other capacities. He has had personal contact with the various species of reptiles from the state of Maine to the mountains of the Far West and the coast of California, and from the Southern point of Florida to the woods of Minnesota and Canada. From the folklore of every section, he has developed many interesting and amusing stories relative to man's belief concerning snakes and their habits.

Mr. Raymond has traveled more than 300,000 miles, through every state in the Union, in presenting "Herpetology" (reptiles of North America) before various types of audience.

Stick To It!

In a recent editorial of the Scholastic Magazine, the subject of stick-to-it-iveness was discussed as one of the marks of maturity. Stick-to-it-iveness was defined as "the ability to stick to a job, to work at it no matter what the obstacles, until it is finished; it is the persistence, the determination, the will power to drive through to a goal, you have set upon in advance to everything you do."

In golf or tennis the fellow who follows through in the stroke is the one who makes good. It's the same with any worthwhile accomplishment; we cannot quit until the ultimate end is reached.

When we lose interest, give up, turn to something else the instance the going gets hard, we are still in the baby stage, so to speak. If we are to become matured, we must learn to overcome the obstacles of unpleasantness, discouragement, and hardship. We must not yield to the temptation of feeling sorry for ourselves. So let's pick ourselves up when we meet difficulties; go on ourselves everlasting until the job is finished.

Spring Makes Studying Hard

As school days draw to a close more and more out-of-school activities come up to add to the already crowded schedules of students, especially seniors, and with parties and the beautiful spring weather it's pretty hard to study sometimes.

Those students who have only one, two, or maybe three study periods a week undoubtedly know how to use every possible minute in their study halls, but some of the luckier ones who have one or two study periods a day probably find it hard to work every minute and maybe get side-tracked and start wasting precious time. Then 3:30 p. m. comes and they find that they will have some work to take home.

If these students would use their study halls to their best advantage, they could almost eliminate home work. After all, who wants to spend any more time on school work out of school than need be. Try working harder in school; you'll have more time for yourself after school.

TEEN-TIME TIPS

By Marilyn and Shirley

Here we are back in operation. Did you have fun on your vacation? Hate to start back, though, I bet, but you know how this school is set. Start at nine through at four, work all day what a bore. Just eight more weeks, that's all, of this tramping through the hall. Now let's review this week but fast so this column will be off at last.

EASTER PARADE

Yes'a nothin' but sunshine all day, but what a wind. It seems this Easter parade was led mainly by suits and adorable ones at that. You should have taken a trip to "THE CORNER" to see all this Easter finery.

HERE COMES SUMMER

Since summer weather is just around the corner, you better start planning for a summer wardrobe. We'll look mighty silly running around in skirts and sweaters when others have cotton summer dresses.

If you're wondering what to buy, get a selection of prints and solid color dresses, since print dresses are back in the fold and more popular. Plaids will always be good for summer dresses. Wait awhile before you buy playshoes. There are scads of new and different playshoes coming in. You can still run down your heels on your loafers for awhile.

Long hairdoes will be worn this summer, so don't cut those locks, gals. Long hairdoes can be swept up in cute teen-age styles.

FLORAL HEADGEAR

Flowers for spring fashions. Go to the five-and-dime store and buy a few tiny flowers and enough ribbon to go around your pretty head. Sew the flowers to the ribbon, and tie the ribbon prettily about your tresses.

PIN-UP PILLOW

An elongated cushion—dachshund proportion—keeps freshly pressed hair ribbons filed. Use curtain rings to hang it on the wall... anchor the ribbons with corsage pins.

WHAT'S NEW!!

1. VIRGINIA JUGATRU'S navy blue suit with a military front.
2. GAIL MELLINGER'S navy blue suit with a plaid jacket.
3. BILLIE FINLEY'S purple plaid summer dress.
4. BARB PEDERSEN'S gayly colored peasant skirt.

FLASHY FEET

Have you seen all the gayly colored pumps?? HELEN LEIDER'S are chartreuse and CAROLYN BUTCHER'S, JOAN HARDY'S and JEAN KELLY'S are vivid red. HELEN PIKE'S are a light grey.

NEW SWEATERS

Many sweaters are coming in with a school name written on the front. Maybe if you shop around, you will be able to find one with Salem High.

NO BOY'S NEWS

This week there isn't much we can say about the boys because they don't seem to go all-out for Easter finery like the girls, but we hope to have something of interest to them in the following weeks. But wait—

ROBERT LEE "NEMO" SPROAT finally broke down and bought a new pair of jeans! We are going to miss that old dirty pair of levis of his, but all good things must come to an end, including this column (joke! !).

Junior Gift Committee Named

The Junior class gift committee for the 1948 gift has been selected. The students voted on a representative from each home room. The representatives are as follows: Room 201, Virginia Burrier; Room 202, Martha Flickinger; Room 203, Jim Litty; Room 204, Dolores Stratton; Room 205, Lee Ward; Room 309, Donna Leipper. A meeting will be held in the future to decide upon the gift.

Sugar And Spice

By Joan Hardy

IT'S SPRING

This is the time of the year when a young man's fancy turns. Maybe that will explain why Charles Franks asked four dates to the Association party last week. Friday morning he undertook the task of getting rid of three of them and finally ended up taking Marge King. Will she ever know how lucky she is?

JOIN UP

Bev. Buchman is really in demand these days. She's gotten letters from several colleges but the letter that impressed her most was the one she got from the army. They offered her twelve more months of higher education all for free. She hasn't quite decided whether to join up or not, but she will admit it will be hard to turn down.

JOBS WANTED

Pete Cain and Moe Mercer have asked Student Council President, Don Coppock, for jobs at the noon movies. They like their work ushering at the local theaters and want to get all that kind of work they can. Well, that's one way to get in free.

LIVING HER PART

If you notice Jamesetta Fox acting a little strange lately, don't be worried. She is just living the part she is to take in the Junior class play. The role of Mitzi which she depicts, is that of a very extreme character which requires Jamesetta to act that way even after play practice.

GET WELL WISH

We'd like to give all the fellows and girls who were in the accident a get well wish. I see Marge Theiss, Marge Hone, Shirley Doyle and Ruth Zeck are back at school. That's swell. But all who are still laid up—Get well QUICK!

SPRING FEVER

Jim Layden has spring fever already. He sure is in a bad way. I guess he is a little worried, too, because he can't do his work as well these days. Cheer up, Jimmy Boy, you aren't alone. Is he?????

"MAMMY"

Looks like one of our brilliant little students is always being influenced by a movie. Ever since the Jolson Story was on at the theater, Jerry Rice has been singing "Mammy." We really should have another talent assembly for those few who haven't heard Jerry sing.

EXERCISE

Shirley Robusch and Barb Hughes have a good idea for losing weight. They bring their jumping ropes to school at noon and jump ropes to reduce. They say it's killing two birds with one stone. Well, that's all just fine, but don't over do it, girls, or you may become mere shadows.

NEW DANCE

Have you seen it? Well, this new dance is really something. Marilyn Eterwein and Barb Burson call it "Mopping up the Floor." They do just that, too. Maybe if you ask these two girls in a real nice way, they'll teach you this new dance.

LOST AND FOUND

Did you see Dutch Miller looking under the lockers on the south first floor last week? He spilled his marbles out of his marble bag and they all rolled under the lockers. He found all but two of them. One was blue and white and the other was green and brown. If anyone happens to find them, please return them to Dutch. They were his two best shooters.

Alumni News

NEW ALBUM OF BOOGIE WOOG
 Columbia has put out the most important album for jazz fans in many months. When boogie-woogie left the piano to become an orchestral form, it was Will Bradley who made it as popular as it is today. The records in this album—are famous for their weird titles and wacky McKinley vocals. These records represent the best of Bradley's collection. They feature the great drummer, Ray McKinley, and the trombone playing of Will Bradley. Freddie Slack, who is considered one of the finest boogie pianists in the business, adds plenty of solid sparkle to these sides.

The album consists of "Beat Me Daddy" (2 sides), "Scrub Me, Mama, with a Boogie Beat," "Boogie-Woogie Conga," "Down the Road a Piece," "Celery Stocks At Midnight," "Fry Me, Cookie, With a Can of Lard," and "Chicken Gumboog (ie)." All the vocals on these records are by Ray McKinley.

For a really great all-time album be sure to put this down on your list. It's tops!

 If you saw the picture, "The Razors Edge," you will remember a melody heard in one of the scenes. The public went for this tune so a few writers got together and added some words to the melody. It turned out to be "Mam'selle" and it's fast becoming a top ballad on the nation's list. Among those who have recorded it so far are Art Lund for M-G-M, Dennis Day for Victor, the Pied Pipers for Capital, Dick Haymes for Decca, and Frank Sinatra for Columbia. For a really great treat be sure "Mam'selle" is on your must list.

Senior Girls Invited To Delta Meeting

All senior girls received invitations from the Delta Kappa Gamma, national honorary society of teachers, to attend a meeting at the Mary Patterson Home at East Liverpool last evening. The meeting which was in the form of a party, is an annual affair.

This being an all-county affair, students from neighboring cities attended. The primary objective of the meeting was to interest girls in the field of teaching.

The evening's speaker was Miss Hay, a renowned educator from Scotland. This popular speaker recently was an exchange teacher at the high school in Charleston, W. Va. She has currently spoken for the American Association of University Women.

Miss Hay gave her own personal impression of the American high schools in contrast with those in her native Scotland.

Jean Headrick Wins Quiz Contest

Representing the Quaker publications, Jean Headrick, Annual Editor, was declared the winner in a United Nations Quiz which was a part of the program of the Tri-County Journalism Association at its April meeting held at Braceville high school, April 9.

Competing with approximately twelve students from various schools, Jean successively answered a number of questions on different phases of the United Nations organization, its members, and work. In award for her top score, Jean was presented with a journalism book, "Headlines and By-lines," by William Otts and Nat Finney, for the use of the Quaker staffs.

The main feature of the evening was an informal address by Dusty Miller, noted humorist and newspaperman.

Entertainment also included a get-together with a grand march, round and square dancing, and refreshments.

John Mulford, Walt Vansickle and Bill Byers spent their Easter vacations invacations in Salem from Tenyon College.

Frankie Sharp and her cousin, Sarah Church were here from Walnut Hill prep school.

Track Team Has Ten Meet Card; Face Rayen Tonight

Remaining Meets: Boardman, Uhrichsville Relays, Struthers, Warren, McKinley, County and District

The Salem High track squad has a very difficult schedule facing them in the coming weeks. Last Tuesday they met an impressive Louisville team. Tonight the Quakers go against Youngstown Rayen and entertain Boardman next Tuesday before going to the annual Uhrichsville Relays. Dual meets with Struthers, Canton McKinley, and Warren follow in that order. The Quaker tracksters then journey to Canton for the McKinley relays. The County meet will be held at Reilly Field, while the N.E.O. District affair will wind up the campaign at the local cinder path. The State meet is the final engagement of the year for those who qualify in the district competition.

The outlook for this season is bright and Coach Fred Cope is hoping for one of the finest showings in the recent years. In the dashes the local sprinters should be able to hold their own with most of this district's competition.

Curt Ross, Wilbert Faulkner, Jerry Miller, Don Coppock, Dick Gottschling, Dan Crawford, Ray Yeager, John Bush, Ray Snyder, and Don Johnson will wear the spikes and represent the Quakers in the dash events. John Huddleston, Ted Boone, Jim Jensen, Jerry Smith, and Bob Boone will lead the field in the hurdles. In Glenn Thorne the locals have one of the finest distance men seen here in recent years. He should rank high as a district contender. John Ursu, Charles Bailey, and several others will also be in the mile and half-mile events for the Red and Black cindermen. In the discus Bob Pager, who heaves the platter quite a distance, should be a definite contender for district honors. Pete Cain and Don Birkhimer will throw the twelve pound shot put for the locals. Bob Boone, Elijah Alexander, and Jack Lozier will be the high jumpers, while Boone, Dick Theiss and Ray Mercer are expected to be the mainstays in the broad jumping department. Virgil Kelly and "Burp" Field will do the pole vaulting for the Quakers. The mile and half-mile relay teams will play an important role in competition this season. They are expected to come through with some impressive showings.

In the coming weeks the power of Cope's charges will have to be used to the limit in an effort to defeat the difficult competition lined up for this season.

The complete schedule for this season is as follows:

Tues. April 15—Louisville, here.
Fri. April 18—Youngstown Rayen, here.
Tues. April 22—Boardman, here.
Fri. April 25—Uhrichsville Relays (night), here.
Wed. April 30—Struthers, here.
Tues. May 6—Warren, here (night).
Sat. May 10—Canton McKinley Relays.
Fri. May 16—County meet, here.
Sat. May 24—N. E. O. District meet, here.
Sat. May 31—State meet.

ber of the Hi-Tri her junior and senior years. During her junior year she was a Dean's aid, News Editor of the Quaker Weekly editorial staff, a member of the Quaker Annual staff, and won third prize in the short story division in the Brooks Contest. Carolyn acted as a monitor her sophomore year and was Copy Editor of the Quaker Annual this year.

Shirley, secretary-treasurer of the Association, was on the Quaker Weekly editorial staff and a member of the Thespians this year. She was a member of the Latin club her freshman year and served as secretary-treasurer during her sophomore year. She was vice-president of the Slide Rule and secretary-treasurer of the French club her junior year. Shirley participated in Hi-Tri during her junior and senior years.

Hermann and Holzbach, Seventeenth, Eighteenth

Freda Hermann holds seventeenth rank. During her freshman year she was a member of the Latin club and the Hi-Tri her junior and senior years. Freda was an active member of the Slide Rule and French club her junior year and she served as secretary-treasurer of the French club this year.

In eighteenth place ranks Tom Holzbach. Tom participated in football during all of his four years in high school and was a member of the track team during his junior and senior years. This year he was a negative speaker for the Debate team and a member of the Slide Rule and Varsity S. A member of the band for four years, Tom took part in the Mount Union Music Festival during his junior and senior years. He won second place in the essay division of the Brooks Contest during his junior year.

Floyd and Coppock, Nineteenth, Twentieth

Doris Floyd is nineteenth in rank. She was a member of the Chorus all four years, participated in the Mount Union Music Festival her freshman and sophomore years, and was a member of the Hi-Tri during her junior and senior years.

In twentieth place is Don Coppock who has been vice-president of his class for four years and president of the Student Council this year. During his junior year he was president of the Slide Rule club.

Don was a member of the track team during his sophomore, junior and senior years. He played football and was in the Varsity S this year.

Other seniors will be notified of their ranks by their home-room teachers.

Congratulations

Congratulations to the Columbiana Clippers for their fine playing and conquering the State Class B Championship. This is the first Columbiana County team to win a State Championship for Class A or B.

Bob Pager, Captain Elect

Bob Pager, 6' 6" center, was voted Captain of the Quakers' 47-48 Basketball Team. Good Luck, Bob.

Honor Coach

Coach Johnny Cabas was elected coach of the year for his fine accomplishments in basketball which he well deserves. He has turned out many fine teams since he has coached at Columbiana and intends to turn out more championship material.

WARNING

Keep in shape for track.—Mr. Cope.

Thinclads In Shape

Coach F. E. Cope's boys made a good showing against Springfield in a dual practice meet. He reports they are in good shape; the ones that are out "that is." It seems that some of the boys didn't come out for track which will tend to make a poor season. If you are talented in the field of track and do not come out, you are not only hurting yourself but the school record which should be good every year for the size of the school. This includes freshmen who have most of the undiscovered talent. Who knows maybe one of you can pole vault 11 feet
