Coppock, Miller, Alexander Are Elected To Top Office Of 47-48 Sr., Jr., Soph. Classes

R. Theiss, L. Ward, W. Ehrhart, N. Bates, J. Nocera, J. Vincent Also Hold Class Offices.

Senior, junior and sophomore officers for the 1947-48 school year were elected by their respective classes last week.

Bob Coppock, Richard Theiss, and Lee Ward were elected president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer, respectively, of next year's senior class.

Bob, who had a leading role in the Junior class play, "A Date with Judy," is a member of Thespians. During his freshman and sophomore years he appeared in several one act plays. This year he has been a student council representative and a member of the Quaker Weekly and Annual Business staffs. He was vice president of his class this year.

Dick has been a member of the track team and also the band for three years. He was a member of the Student Council last year. He was junior class president this year.

Lee was a member of the Latin club his freshman and sophomore years, a student council representative this year, and a member of the football and track teams for two years.

Junior class officers will be Jerry Miller, president; Walter Ehrhart, vice president, and Nancy Bates, secretary-treasurer. All three held class offices last year.

Jerry, sophomore vice president this year, has been a member of the basketball and track teams and Student Council for two years and a member of the Quaker Weekly and Annual staffs this year.

Walt has been a member of the Varsity football squad, track team, and basketball team for two years. He was class president and a member of the Varsity S Club during his Walt also has been a member of the Student Council this year.

Nancy has been a member of the Student Council for two years and was secretary-treasurer of the sophomore class this year.

Sophomore class officers for next year will be Elijah Alexander, president; Joe Nocera, vice president; and Janet Vincent, secretary-treasurer of the freshman class this year.

Freshman officers will be elected in the fall.

The voting method was changed this year from that of previous years. The persons having the majority of votes were elected instead of each room selecting candidates to compete in finals.

Latin Club Initiates Six New Members

The Latin Club held an initiation for six new members last week in room 208 from seven to nine o'clock p. m.

Those initiated were Leo Kline, Lela Graber, Janet Trisler, Katie Winkler, Ben Bailey, and Treva Bush.

Bob Campbell, Doris Eyton, and Dick Walken were in charge of the program.

S. H. S. Chorus Presents Spring Concert May 23

The Salem High School Chorus will present a Spring Concert next Friday evening, May 23, at 8:15 in the High school auditorium. Miss Georgeanna Beaver, distinguished violinist, will be guest artist.

William Parks is a student conductor and Ben Bailey is the accompanist. Miss Millicent Goldstein is accompanist for Miss Beaver.

The program will consist of the following: First part—"The Year's at the Spring," "Holy, Lord God," "The Green Cathedral," and "Jubilate Deo."

Second part—"Allegro Movement from the Violin Concerto in E Minor, Mendelssohn, performed by Miss Beaver.

Third part—"The Voice of Freedom," "Night and Day," "Hallelujah," "Begin the Beguine," and "Pop Goes the Weasel."

The fourth part of the concert consists of two numbers, "Romanza Andaluza" and "Menuett," by Miss Beaver.

William Parks, student conductor, will conduct the first number of part five which will be "Carmena" by Wilson.

The remaining numbers in part five are "Carry Me Home to the Lone Prairie," "Aleeuette," "In My Garden," and "All Through the Night."

Admission price is 25 cents. Tickets may be purchased from members of the Chorus or at the ticket booth Friday evening.

Chorus officers are: William Parks, president; Marguerite Fultz, vice-president; Donna Lopeman, secretary.

Lee Ward, Martha Bennett, Marjorie Hanna, Dick Jones Appointed As Columnists

Appointments Announced By Betty Ulicny, Adviser, For The Quaker Weekly For 1947-48 School Term

Carol Kelley, junior, has been appointed to the position of Editor-in-chief of The Quaker Weekly for the 1947-48 school term upon the recommendation of a faculty committee, it was announced this week by Miss Betty Ulicny, Quaker editorial adviser. She will succeed Carolyn Butcher who served in that capacity this year.

Band Members Win Ratings At State

Ten members of the Salem High school band, participating in the state solo and ensemble music contest in Columbus, Saturday, returned with high ratings.

Leo Copacia, Jr., who was entered in the snare drum division, received the top award in Ohio this year—a "superior plus." Twelve drummers were entered in the division. A few were given "superior" ratings, but the Salem youth was the only one awarded a "plus" score.

The brass sextet, composed of Robert Hodge, Richard Swartz, Wallace Burrell, Tom Holzbach, William Parks, and Glen Lewis, was awarded an "excellent" rating, second highest. Nine other sextets were entered, only one of them topping the Salem entry.

Also receiving an "excellent" rating was the clarinet trio, consisting of Gene Shafer, Lucy Huston, and Jean Lieder, which was entered in the woodwind trio division.

Band Director C. M. Brautigam accompanied the group to Columbus.

Teachers Will Turn Classes Over To Students On Student Day

SCHOLASTIC says there are three reasons why able high school students should become teachers. (1) The United States has waked up—teaching will be on the upgrade. (2) Are you looking for an under-crowded profession? Then pick teaching. Law, medicine, engineering, aviation, journalism, industry—all have waiting lists. (3) We have never met anyone who thought that education was not the most important of the social agencies. The real teacher has influence and personal rewards out of all proportion to the hard and even ill-paid work he does. If you want the business of helping humanity grow, teaching is for you."

With this in mind, the Student Council planned STUDENT'S DAY for May 20. A Student Council Board of Education considered 125 applications from which the following thirty-eight qualified as teachers for the day:

Principal, Mr. Ludwig, Joe Ferreri; Dean of Boys, Mr. Early, Jerry Miller; Dean of Girls, Miss Zimmerman, Marjorie Hanna; art, Mrs. Headrick, Jean Headrick; librarian, Miss Lehman, (to be announced); Mr. Allen, Elijah Alexander; Mr.

Brautigam, Bill Parks; Mr. Barrett; Barbara McFadden; Miss Beardmore, Virginia Burrier; Miss Bickel, Betty Cosgara; Miss Cope, Marilyn Mellinger; Mr. Cope, Tom Scullion; Mrs. Cox, Carol Kelley; Miss Doxsee, Janet Robinson; Mrs. Groves, Joanne Creighton; Mr. Guiler, Erla McGuire; Mr. Hagedorn, Bill Zeck; Miss Hanna, Bob Harris; Mr. Henning, Carolyn Butcher; Miss Hollett, Alice Galchick; Mr. Hilgendorf, (to be announced); Miss Johnston, Tom Holzbach; Mr. Jones, Louis Yakubeck; Miss McCready, Bob Watterson; Mr. Miller, Frank Hoopes; Mrs. Mulbach, Joan Sheppard; Mr. Olloman, Marcie Vaughn; Miss Redinger, Enes Equizi; Mrs. Singer, Viola Fidoe; Mrs. Strain, Antoinette Tempesta; Mr. Stuckey, Pete Monteleone; Mr. Swanger, James Rhodes; Mrs. Tarr, Loie Barnard; Mr. Tarr, Joy Chessman; Miss Thorp, Pat Keyes; Miss Ulicny, Billie Ann Finley; Miss Weeks, David Messersmith and Ruth Winkler.

Teachers were chosen on the basis of (1) interest in teaching, (2) scholastic standing, (3) and ability as leaders.

Journalists Call Convention Swell

Arson on the loose! That was the cry last Saturday when eighteen Quaker staff representatives joined with four hundred other school journalists at the Northeastern Ohio Scholastic Press Clinic held at Kent State university.

The highlight of the meeting was the dramatized news event. Representatives of each paper covered an anonymous call which later turned into a "fire" with firemen, policemen, fire victims, doctors, and nurses. The "fire" was at the Kappa Mu Kappa fraternity house. A cup was awarded to the best write-up submitted in the contest.

The Clinic started with a meeting of all representatives in the auditorium with Robert Blumer, student chairman, in charge. He introduced Professor William Taylor, School of Journalism, who in turn presented the Dean of Kent State to welcome the school reporters. After the dramatized news event the representatives, who were not covering the story, attended round table discussions held from 11 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. Round tables started again at 2:15 and continued until 3:30 p. m. From 4 to 5 a tea

Closing Session Held By Council

During the Student Council meeting last week final reports for the year were given. Dick Jones reported that 2,007 pupils had enjoyed the noon movies held during an eight week period. He reported that, even though the project was not intended as a money making affair, the Council netted a profit of about $3.00. The president, Don Coppock, instructed the committee to make plans for next year's programs.

Plans for a Student Council picnic were conducted by the picnic chairman, Jerry Miller. The picnic will be held tomorrow.

The group voted to send dues for next year's membership in the National Student Council.

Elijah Alexander reported that the matter of hooks or lockers for the boys' dressing room would be considered for next fall.

A committee was appointed to choose a book which is an annual Student Council gift to the library in honor of the president. Lee Ward, vice president, appointed this committee as follows: Nancy Stamp, Leo Copacio, and Jerry Miller.

Carol has had three years of active experience on the Weekly editorial staff, serving this year as Assistant Editor. She also edited The Quakerette, Junior High student publication, when she was in the eighth grade. An honor student, Carol is a member of the Hi-Tri, The Thespians, and the student librarians staff. She had a part in the recent Junior play, "A Date with Judy."

Along with the appointment of the editor-in-chief, staff columnists were also announced. Lee Ward has been selected to write a sports column, and Martha Bennett has been approved for the writing of a fashion column. Dick Jones and Marjorie Hanna are also to write columns in alternating issues.

Approximately forty students have expressed their desire to work on next year's Weekly. From these students a make-up staff will be selected to assist the editor. These students will be able to qualify for the position of Assistant Editor which will probably be filled at the close of the first semester.

Next year's staff will use the new style book which was compiled this year by the advisers of the Tri-County Journalism Association. All staff members will be required to know and to employ the rules of the Tri-County style of journalism.

Next week's issue, which will be the last of the current school term, will be edited by the new staff.

Etchings Displayed In Library Showcase

Water color pictures from the art classes have been displayed in the library show case. The pictures, which are examples of color theory, have been painted on the following subjects: "A Walk in a Garden at Twilight," with a purplish cast in everything; "Breakfast Outside At Dawn," with red in every color; "A Desert Resort," a yellowish cast over everything; "A Scene from a Mystery Play," with a green light over everything; "A Night Club Scene," a blue light in all the colors. Five pictures were painted for the annual Hi-Tri Mother-Daughter tea.

There are seven seniors leaving the art classes. This will make room for new entries as the art enrollment is limited to 18 students in each of the two classes. The graduating seniors are Bruno De Cola, Alice Galchick, Joanne Hambach, Robert Harris, Jean Headrick, Ruth Rufer, and Dorothy Zimmerman.

Aim At Your Goal

We all know of the bulky volume in the library called Who's Who In America. We also realize that very few if any, from our number in SHS will ever see their name between its ponderous covers. However, NOW is the time to start working toward this and other similar goals, not "in a few years" or "sometime maybe."

Since this is nearly the end of the year several organizations are setting up their plans for next year. There is a variety of these and surely something to suit every taste. If, however, there is no organization now in SHS in which you are interested, report an idea of your own to the faculty. Perhaps there are others who would appreciate the same type of activity.

Before the WHO'S WHO of the nation, you first must get your name in the town, county, and state WHO'S WHO and the beginning of these is right here in Salem High School. There is a place for everyone in SHS to seek his particular goal, whether in sports or other extra-curricular activities, so let's each one take his own light from under the bushel and use it.

It's a Thought!

As each class goes through high school, hundreds of dollars are spent for class dances. Frequently the attendance of these dances is disappointing with only a small minority of the class taking part.

Instead of spending so much money on dances, why couldn't we save our money and in our senior year spend it on something worthwhile? Perhaps the class could go on an excursion trip to Pittsburgh, Cleveland, or some other place where museums, historical landmarks, and such interesting places could be visited. Such a trip would no doubt benefit each individual, not for just a few days but for a lifetime. Time and money would certainly be well-spent.

Probably three or four busses could be chartered to transport the class. In defraying the expenses, possibly part could be paid by the class and the remainder by each individual student.

Teen-Time Tips

By

Shirley and Marilyn

This is the last time we bring to you, Our Teen-Time Tips and what is new. It sort of makes us feel quite queer To know this iss the last we'll be here. Just for you we'd work day and night. To have this column looking right. We may have missed quite a few, But it was awfully hard to see all of you. We wrote this column the best we know how, Well, all be good and by for now.

IDEA! !

Our little freshman RITA PIERCE certainly dug up a cute idea. She sews her boy friend's name on the pocket of her dresses. If ever she changes her mind, all she does is clip the thread and start again. Try it, girls; it is really cute.

LOOKING AHEAD

Here are a few thing our seniors are going to be when they grow up. You will be glad you knew them once.

ROD AND TURTLE—California playboys.

CHARLIE FRANKS—Just graduating.

BUTCH ROTH—Flag pole sitter.

GAIL LEACH—Opera singer.

JOAN AND LANNY—Vaudeville team.

PAUL RITCHEY—Chief of police.

BETTY MCBANE — Radio program of her own.

THE BOYS—Constant users of Route 14.

FRANK HOOPES—Heart in California.

SIS WELSH—Heart in Salem.

JOYCE LOWRY—Watching after many Locks.

BARB AND DON — Teamed up with Joan and Lanney.

WHAT BETS WILL DO ! !

Donna Ward went out for summer in a big way. She said she was going to exercise in the sun after school and she would wear her tennis shoes to school. A couple thousand kids bet her she wouldn't wear them. She vowed she would, but the morn brought snow, not sunshine. Well, she got her money anyhow.

WHAT HAPPENED ? ?

Some of our studes last week decided to dress up with white shirts and ties. They were JOE FERRERI, FRANK HOOPES, and TOM HOLZBACH. They looked very nice. More boys should try this..

POOR KIDS

Turtle Dressel has been thinking seriously of getting a dog collar since he hasn't go money for a hair cut (or maybe he just likes it that way). He forgot about his idea after Corky reminded him that she wouldn't be able to buy a dog chain for it. We hope they solve their problm soon.

1947 Seniors In 1967

Time takes us ahead twenty years. In the fair city of Salem we are given the key to the city by the Mayor Emmet Ogle. He invites us to look the burg over and see what improvements have been made since the class of '47 were let out into the cruel, cold world.

We start our investigation at the beginning of what used to be State Street but is now Pedersen Alley, named for it's most faithful cleaner, Douglas, for the past 20 years.

The first place of business we come to is the James Laughlin Jacks factory, owned by that great champion Jim.

While walking along we pass Sgt. Donald Callahan of the police force twirling his "billy club" as he slowly walks his beat.

On a nearby telephone pole we notice a large sign with the words "Vote for Honest Charles Alexander for Congressman" written on it.

Walking past the court house we see the hedge trimmer, John Bush, bidding Jess Paxson, the juvenile judge, the time of day as he and his secretary, Joan Hannay, walk into work.

Across the street on the post office steps we see Frank Hoopes, the postmaster, talking to Marilyn Melinger, famous designer, about making his girl, Sis Welsh, a wedding dress.

The next shop we come to is a wig store which is owned by Bonnie Ruble. She is advertising for a model and we see Donna Ward applying for the job.

Coming out of the corner drug store owned by Virginia Jugastru, we almost bump into Dick Gottschling who is now the president of the Marilyn Schaefer, Gene Shafer, and Dale Schaefer pen and pencil company.

The day is very warm so we decide to drop into Patricia Duffy's Tavern for a coke. There we find those two well-remembered fellows, Bruce Herron and Francis Lucas, having a coke too. They are still bachelors and are planning dates to take Phyllis Murphy and Leta Votaw to the circus that night.

Just as we walk out of the tavern we see Jack Beatty driving the fire truck up the main street. He is going on an emergency call to the Coppock residence where Barb and Don's children are all up in a tree and won't come down for their dinner.

As we go on our way we meet Eva Brookshire and Donna Brown coming out of the Loretta Cocca Coffee Shop. They are on their way to the Bill Parks Record Shop where there is a sale on Jean Herron's records.

After passing the Clarence Votaw Vegetable Market, we meet Anna May Umbach, who is the visiting nurse, walking hurriedly to the Bob Watterson Gas Station where Bruno DeCola is caught in the door way.

We no sooner get on our way again until our attention is diverted to the Lee Sproat Dancing School. Connie Petrucci, the dancing teacher, is busy trying to keep a crowd of children in order with the threat that she will call Stephen Alek, the chief of Police, to put them all in jail if they don't settle down.

Next we see Shirley Doyle, Dolores Flint, Mary Lu Haessely, Betty Mix, and Helen Pike standing outside of the Joyce Lowry Day Nursery waiting for the morning classes to be dismissed.

We notice Robert Bush pasting a sign on a trash can that tells of the Tony Martinelli and Andy Parlow prize fight to be held at the James Jensen auditorium that evening. Dick Harris is referee, unless he meets with an accident. But that is not likely as he has been living in one of Gail Leach's armored cars since he took the job.

While passing the Cosgarea Globe, the local newspaper, we see Helen Chitica, editor, and Mary Ellen Garloch, society editor, talking to Freda Hermann, the fashion editor, and Donna Rose Kniseley, the owner of a bakery, about the cookies they had at Betty McBane's garden party last week where Theda Sheen was voted the best dressed woman in town for 1967.

Alice Galchick is asking Dr. Tom Holzbach what to do for a toe ache that she has had for four years, and he tells her to eat three of the Louise Bingham reducing tablets a day and the pain will go away for good, if she is lucky.

Of course we are broke, so we spend a little time window shopping and we see Kenny Smith trimming the windows of the Ellen Thompson Dress Shop.

Well, kids, this is my last column so I'll try to make it good. I've really enjoyed writing it and I hope you've enjoyed reading it. This last column is especially dedicated to all the seniors.

GREEN PERFUME." The vocal is by Don and the chorus. This novelty tune is fast becoming a favorite.

SHORT NOTES

THE TEX BENEKE and FRANKIE CARLE orchestras will share the Chesterfield summer spot, replacing the regular stars. Perry Como and Jo Stafford..... LYNN WARREN replaced Chris Adams as gal vocalist with the RAY MCKINLEY band ---- STAN KENTON has broken up his orchestra because of ill health..... GENE WILLIAMS has replaced BUDDY HUGHES with the CLAUDE THORNHILL orchestra.... BUTCH STONE has left the LESS BROWN band and now has formed a band of his own ---- BILL USHER, ex-GENE KRUPA vocalist, is now with CHARLIE BARNET.

SENIORS' FAVORITES

Since this column is being dedicated to the seniors, we thought it would be a good idea to find out what songs are liked best among them. Here are a few of them:

- Joyce Lowry—"Heartaches."
- "Red" Lucas—"To Each His Own."
- Nancy Lesick—"Mam'selle."
- Dolores Flint—"Night and Day."
- Betty Burger—"And So To Bed."
- Marilyn Schaefer—"It's the Same Old Dream."
- Carolyn Butcher—"Time After Time."
- Bob Hodge—"Peg of My Heart."
- Lu Lu Haessly—"Miss You."
- Bonnie Iler—"Begin the Beguine."
- Gail Leach—"Sentimental Journey."
- Marg Hollinger—"Midnight Masquerade."
- Dick Gottschling—"That's My Desire."
- Marge Theiss—"The Talk of the Town."
- Pat Duffy—"All Through the Day."

LATEST DISCS

HARRY JAMES and his orchestra have made one of their best recordings in a long time. The first side is a new ballad sung by Marion Morgan. It's "AS LONG AS I'M DREAMING." She does a swell job on the vocal. On the reverse is an instrumental piece, "STELLA BY STARLIGHT." Harry and his boys do a fine job on this.

SAMMY KAYE'S orchestra have recorded a tune that Frankie Laine made famous. It's "THAT'S MY DESIRE" with a good vocal refrain by Don Cornell. On the flip-over is "RED SILK STOCKINGS AND

On the marquee of the Marion Faini playhouse we see that the great actress Loie Barnard is appearing with that well-known actor Joe Steffel in the season's romantic hit "Pasha" written by playwright Martin Roth.

When we pass the Ford Garage we notice Bob Dresel, proprietor, chatting with Clark Tolson about no one bringing his Ford home.

As we pass the Snyder 17th National Savings and Loan Bank we see Paul Ritchey, president, and Edwin Mosher, bank examiner, arguing about $100,000 shortage on the books. They are talking so loud that they frighten Betty Kelley, a customer, and Margaret Kerr, the cashier, out of the bank.

With this we leave the peace loving people of this fair city. As we drive away in our car we see Jean Headrick landing in her helicopter, returning from an exploring expedition in the wilds of Washingtonville.

"Curly" Crawford—"Anniversary Song."
"Sox" Doyle—"The Same Old Dream."
Tom Holzbach—"Midnight Masquerade."
Andy Parlow—"Anniversary Song."
Bill Tolson—"Mam'selle."
Joan Hannay—"I'll See You In My Dreams."
Jimmy Jensen—"April Showers."
Chuck Alexander—"Margie."
All Seniors—"After Graduation Day."

"Don't Take Your Love From Me" to Alex from Jean.

dance was held at which time Seymour Slater, president of the North-eastern Scholastic Press Association presented the annual awards in journalism, and Robert C. Dix gave his rotating cup for the winning news story on the dramatized news event.

At lunch time box lunches were served by the Lambda Phi, University woman's journalism sorority. The faculty advisers attended a luncheon at the Robinhood at which Cole of the Akron Beacon Journal was the speaker.

The following students attended the clinic: Carolyn Butcher, Carol Kelley, Jean Headrick, Odessa Bohner, Shirley Smith, Marilyn Schaefer, Lee Sproat, Jerry Miller, Bob Campbell, Martha Flickinger, Marcie Vaughn, Jo Ann Whinery, David Messersmith, Donna Ward, Virginia Jugastru, Janet Robinson, Enes Equizi and Loie Barnard. They were accompanied by advisers Miss Betty Ulicny and R. W. Hilgen-dorf.

The Spotlight

By Zeke and Nemo

LOOKING IN THE PAST

This is a year which will not be forgotten in the minds of the people of Quakertown for there have been new records made and old ones broken. More interest has been shown in the school sports than in previous years which can be credited to the coaches, faculty, managers, Booster's Club, students and players. They have all done their share, even if it was no more than cheering. We, the class of '47, hope to have set an example for the future classes of Salem High School and hope that many new records can be set by these future classes.

We will turn the pages of our dusty log book. Salem defeated in a fifteen-minute preview at Niles, against Chaney, score 6-0. It was good experience for the team before opening game. Sept. 13—Cleveland Rhodes 19, Salem 0. September 20—Ravenna 6, Salem 12. This was the first defeat Ravenna had suffered in seventeen starts. Sept. 27—Plaster Palestine! (It was a good try.) Palestine 13, Salem 8. Oct. 4—Leetonia 0, Salem 13. (What a push over). Oct. 11—Wallop Wells-ville, and that they did to the tune of 39-0. Off to Struthers on Oct. 19. This was our meet, after trailing in the first half 7-0. We turned on the heat to defeat them 21-7. Onward to Girard on Oct. 25 where the mighty Quakers could not be stopped for the Indians bowed to us 26-12. Nov. 1, a date that will always be remembered for the mighty Quakers defeated E. Liverpool 38-6. Then one of the finest seasons in many years was wound up with a decisive victory over a potent Blue Devil team, 21-13.

TO RETURN

The outlook for next year's football team is very promising. The following boys have signed with Coach Barrett:

Tracksters Trek To Canton Relays

Track Coach F. E. Cope and twenty of his Quaker tracksters trekked to Canton's Fawcett Stadium last Saturday to participate in the Canton McKinley Night Relays along with 16 other district schools.

From the field of 17 teams, Akron East emerged victorious while Canton McKinley, last year's winner, finished second. The Red and Black tied for sixth place honors with the Boardman Spartans, both garnering 14 points.

The locals' points were gained by the following boys on the basis of 5 points for first, 4 for second, 3 for third, 2 for second, and 1 for fifth. Glenn Thorne—2nd in Mile Run 5th in Half Mile.

Bob Boone—2nd in High Jump. Dick Theiss—3rd in Broad Jump. Jim Jensen—5th in Pole Vault. Ted Boone, John Bush, Jim Jensen, John Huddleston—5th in Shuttle Hurdle Relay.

Salem Host To Annual County Track Meet Tonight At Stadium

Columbiana, E. Liverpool, E. Palestine, and Salem Will Take Part In Meet; Winners Receive Trophies

Salem will play host riday evening to the 44th annual Columbiana track and field meet which will be held at Reilly Stadium. Preliminary events will begin at 5:00 P. M.

The following schools will participate: Columbiana, East Liverpool, East Palestine, and Salem.

Awards to be given are as follows: gold, silver, and bronze medals for individual events, gold medals for the winning team in relays, permanent statuette trophy for winner of meet, statuette trophy for winner of each relay, statuette trophy for high point man.

Custodian of awards will be Willard Ferrall. Awards will be presented by Mozelle Lee, Shirley Smith, Marilyn Schaefer, and Beverly Stowell.

Salem tracksters who will compete in Friday's meet are Elijah Alexander, Don Birkhimer, Bob Boone, Ted Boone, Pete Cain, Don Coppock, Dan Crawford, Wilbert Faulkner, Gordon Field, Dick Gottschling, John Huddleston, Jim Jensen, Alex Kamasky, Virgil Kelly, Jack Lozier, Ray Mercer, Jerry Miller, Bob Pager, Wilmer Palmer, Curtis Ross, Dick Theiss, Glenn Thorne, John Ursu, Jack Wilson, and Ray Yeager.

Coach F. E. Cope is vice-president of the N. E. Ohio Track Association.

Ten Cheerleaders To Be Chosen Soon

The final choice for cheerleaders will be made May 26. It is planned that out of the forty-five persons trying out, ten will be chosen, making the number of cheerleaders the same as last year which was the first year for the reserve team.

These ten people will be judged on the basis of acrobatic ability, personality, audience appeal, and co-operative spirit. At least a C average in school work is also required for placement.

In the initial tryouts, each person displays his ability in the yell of his choice and those who come through that test form in groups of twos or threes and work out a routine for some yell. From these groups the varsity and reserve squads for next year will be chosen.
