By Carol King

Four more pairs of twins have been discovered since the Quaker stated that there was only one set in Salem High. They are Bernice and Ernest Swetye, Faye and Ray Hilliard, Jean and June Brunner, and Robert and Richard Altenhof. Of the Swetye twins, Ernest is the older. He has no special likes but harbors a great dislike for girls. He has no use for the female of the species at all. Olives are his favorite food and Vaughn Monroe is top-notch with him where music is concerned. He is also an ardent fan of Bing Crosby. As for what he plans to do when his high school days are behind him, he doesn't know. Work doesn't appeal to him yet.

The other half of this pair is Bernice. She is very fond of art and her ambition is to get straight A's in it. It's also rumored that a senior lad is something special too. She has no favorite band, but thinks no one can beat Eddy Howard in the vocal department. Her favorite food is French fries. She dislikes something everyone has had a lot of lately—tests.

Faye and Ray Hilliard celebrate their birthdays on February 6. Faye is older by 15 minutes. She must like the waltz tempo in music because Wayne King is her favorite band leader. Mildred Dawn is her favorite vocalist. Her chief dislikes are girls smoking and conceited people. Roller rinks are her idea of a place to have fun for she loves to skate. She enjoys a milkshake afterward because that's her favorite food. Faye wants to be a school teacher.

Ray is the male half of the pair. He enjoys farming and good books anytime as long as it isn't an English book. English to him is the most aggravating subject anyone is forced to study. He has no favorite band or vocalist, but he does have a favorite food—steak and onions. Sounds good, too. Ray thinks he'll pick carpentry as his work when he finishes school.

The third set of twins are both girls, Jean and June Brunner. June is the older. Both Jean and June want to be secretaries for some large firm. Their favorite food is French fries and milkshakes and they both like hayrides and boys. Vaughn Monroe is tops with them where a vocalist is concerned, but their favorite band is Salem High's. They seem to have a lot in common.

The last but not the least set of twins is Robert and Richard Altenhof. They, too, are very much alike in their ambition. Robert is the older and they came about on August 24, 1932. They have no special likes or dislikes but their ambition is to be farmers. They, too, think Sa-

Guiler Formulates Debate Squad

Ten students were selected last week by J. C. Guiler, debate coach, to comprise the 1947-48 debate team.

The debate subject this year is Resolved: "That the United States government should require compulsory Arbitration in Labor Disputes."

Seniors, Sophomores Have Dental Checks

Dental check-ups have been given to all seniors and sophomores during the last two weeks. The checking up of the seniors was a regular part of their health program.

The dentists who donated their time to this project were Dr. Donald Lease, Dr. P. W. Sartick, Dr. William Ward, Dr. Joe Schmid, and Dr. Stewart Elder.

The check-ups were given entirely free of charge. Check-ups were given to pupils during their study periods. Mrs. Lucille Brian and Troy Penner assisted in getting the pupils to the office of the nurse.

APOLOGY!

In the recent Freshman class pencil sale, homeroom 303 won the contest not 103 as was announced in this paper a few weeks ago. The Quaker regrets this error.

Annual Heads Bruce Frederick Select Staffs Is Freshman Leader

Marjorie Hanna, editor-in-chief of the 1948 Quaker annual, and Bob Coppock, business manager of both the weekly and annual, have announced their appointments to the annual editorial and business staffs, respectively, with faculty approval.

The editorial staff includes Marjorie Reash, junior assistant; Odessa Bohner and Virginia Burrier, senior assistants; Miriam Bauman, Carol King, Marcy Vaughn, Martha Flickinger, Don Silver, Jerry Miller, Patricia Keyes, Nancy Trebilcock, Dolores Stratton, Carol Johnson, Jo Ann Whinery, Sally Hurlburt, Stella Jones, Danny Keister, Rosalie Hrovatic, writers.

The typists are Nancy Callahan, Sara Cocco, Barbara Busche, and Mary Ann Linder. Bill Weber, Chuck Ward, and Jim Hurlburt are staff photographers. The staff artists are Bob Askey and Paul Berger.

On the annual business staff are Chuck Ward, assistant business manager; Frances Kline, Bobbie Albaugh, Miriam Bauman, Gloria Vincent, and Joe Deagan.

Miss Betty Ulicny and R. W. Hilgendorf are advisers of the editorial and business staffs, respectively.

Dramatics Coach Holds Tryouts

Tryouts for the senior play, "January Thaw," a Penthouse production, were started last Monday with Miss Irene Weeks, new dramatics adviser, in charge.

The cast includes seven male and six feminine parts. The play was rated second most-popular by high schools all over the country last year.

Football boys who were interested in trying out were urged to do so since the date of the play has been extended until football season is over.

Red Letter Day Leaves For Another Six Weeks

Once again that fateful day has come and gone; the first report card for this school year. It must be admitted that just about everyone was plenty worried about that day of reckoning. Of course different people had different worries. For example, John Hermann was worried for fear he would get a B, while Margie Haessly was worried for fear she wouldn't.

It is amazing how many students can make a good grade in Latin, German, or Spanish and still make a low grade in English. Jerry Miller suggests that some students might be living in the wrong country, so far as language is concerned at least.

It is interesting to review the different reactions noted as the re-

Dick Brautigam and Eva Hannay Are Vice-President Sec.,-Treas.

The final election of Freshman Class officers was held Tuesday morning in each freshman home room. The following students were chosen to represent the Freshman Class for the year: Bruce Frederick, president; Dick Brautigam, vice-president; Eva Rae Hannay, secretary-treasurer.

This election was the outcome of almost two weeks' campaigning. Each home room nominated one candidate for president and one candidate for secretary-treasurer. A Freshman Class meeting was then called for Wednesday, October 15, to introduce the nominees for class offices to all the freshmen.

The presidential candidates and the subjects on which they gave a short speech were as follows:

Bruce Frederick, "Freshman Basketball;" Dick Brautigam, "Activities in our Physical Educational Classes;" Robert Bush, "Our Freshman Football Team;" Robert Zimmerman, "School Spirit;" Jay England, "High School Band;" James Callahan, "Extra-Curricular Activities."

The secretary-treasurer nominees were as follows: Robert Hill, Marie Vender, Eva Rae Hannay, Jerry Van Hovel, Barbara Ross, and Mary Jane Taflan.

Assembly Honors School Athletes

Recognition was given to the cross-country team, the football squad, and Coach Ben Barrett at the pep assembly held last Friday afternoon.

The assembly opened with the Quaker Drive-On Song, followed by a new cheer to Coach Barrett who then spoke to the student body, asking their cooperation as "assistant coaches." He stressed the fact that, since the toughest games lie ahead, all should help him and the boys by seeing that the members of the football team are kept in excellent training condition. Coach Barrett said that he thought the girls could play an important part as assistant coaches by not asking the boys to parties and by not keeping them out too late at night.

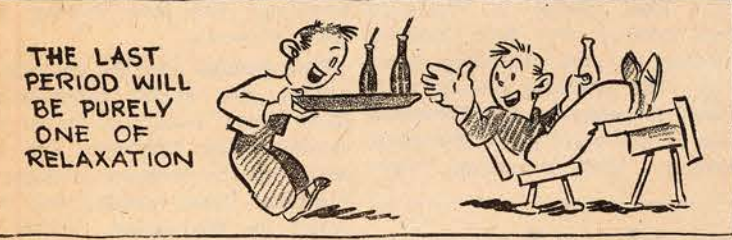

Each cheerleader then directed a cheer, and a new yell was introduced by Marge Lutsch. The assembly closed with the singing of the Alma Mater, accompanied by the Salem High School band.

New Pupils To Get Help

Any new pupils coming to Salem High from now on won't have to worry about getting acquainted! Each new pupil will have a member of the Student Council as his "big brother or sister." The Council member will give a handbook to the student, introduce him to the teachers, familiarize him with the building, school activities, and so forth. The Council will be very glad to give assistance to any new pupils throughout the year.

REMINDER FOR BOYS

This is a reminder to all boys who intend to work at the postoffice during the Christmas Holidays. Applicants must be at least 16, have written permits from parents, and turn their names in to the office by October 28. The list will go to Washington by the first of November. Postoffice officials will select the boys, but fellows with the best scholastic ratings will have preference. The jobs will last from December 16 to 24.

Sweater Girls

Some of our gals are the proud possessors of some very tricky new sweaters. MARGE KING has a cute white sweater with a big red heart appliqued on it. Through the heart is a black dagger with "blood" dripping from it. Very catchy! JUNE GIBBONS is wearing a pretty yellow short-sleeved number with circles of ribbing at the neck. BARBARA RISING has an outstanding blue sweater with an appliqued dog and an honest-to-goodness chain around its neck. NANCY CALLAHAN has not one, but two, luscious angora sweaters. They are kitten-soft in white and baby blue.

Are Their Faces Red!

BARB BURSON and BOBBY ALBAUGH'S favorite color seems to be red. Anyway, that's a mighty pretty shade.

Slick Chicks

There's nothing smarter than a suit to wear to classes, and there are some very classy suits to be seen in these halls. PAT YINGLING has a smoky blue fitted suit with silver studded pockets that is really neat. RITA PIERCE is sporting a stunning kelley-green corduroy job trimmed with shiny gold buttons. LEILA ORTEL'S striking blue suit is fashioned with a fishtail back, a double row of silver buttons on the jacket, and huge pink cuffs buttoned with matching silver buttons.

Don't Miss

Be sure to notice JO SHEPHERD'S extra-heavy silver I. D. bracelet with the name on the front and a special inscription on the back. This is really an unusual bracelet and Jo is quite proud of it. Wonder how she sleeps at night with a bracelet like that one?

Cheers for the Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders made a mighty nice appearance at the game last Friday night. Those new reserve uniforms in black and white to match the varsity's red ones look terrific out on the field, and those red and black Quaker insignia's are really on the ball.

Be Prepared!

Jack and Don are typical high school students. They belong to the same class, wear clothes that are alike, talk the same language, but there is one difference. Jack gets good grades; Don does not. Why? Jack seldom takes any books home, and Don always has home work.

It's simply because Jack goes to class alert and wide awake, ready to recite and take part in class discussions. He also uses his study halls wisely. Don is inclined to be more of a dreamer, his attitude is "why prepare my lesson now? I can do it later . . ."

The results are that Jack is getting good grades and having a lot of fun while in school. Don isn't getting good grades and is missing out on a lot of fun. Moral: Go to class prepared, take an interest in your school work, and use your study halls to your best advantage.

Why Chew?

Do you chew gum in school? If you do, are you always careful about how you dispose of it, or do you just lay it down in the most convenient place you can find at the moment?

Someone left a wad of gum on a seat in one of the English classes a few days ago. The next student to occupy this seat was a girl.

Of course, this girl was not in the habit of having to inspect the seats before sitting in them. The result—the sticky gum ruined her skirt. Surely this gum was not left there intentionally to ruin someone's clothes.

Everyone knows it is against the rules to chew gum in school. But if you must, please be careful with it. There are wastepaper baskets in every room in which to dispose of trash. Use them! How would you like to ruin one of your best skirts or your best pair of trousers through someone's carelessness? The best and safest policy would be to save your gum until after school hours.

JUST BROWSING -

Life stories of 319 persons who figured in the news of 1946 appear in Current Biography 1946, a 734-page reference volume which has recently been added to the high school library, according to Miss Lois Lehman, librarian.

Most numerous in this collection, which tells "who's news and why," are more than 100 government officials in the United States and abroad, thus reflecting the widespread interest in international affairs centered about United Nations personages. Figures in education and literature are almost as numerous, and over 40 names are politically prominent. Leaders in business, social service, and social science appear frequently in these pages and many active in journalism, law, and the theatre are among the more than 30 professions represented. A convenient index by profession is included.

Each sketch includes a photograph and references to additional material. Considerable research makes possible impartial and accurate biographical information, while an informal, lively style makes the sketches especially readable.

A seven-year index, covering 1940 to 1946, includes the names of all those whose biographies or obituaries have appeared in Current Biography from the first issue in 1940 through the issue of December 1946.

True or False?

TRUE OR FALSE?

1. Tuberculosis (or TB) is a disease a person is born with —
2. Tuberculosis can usually be cured by a change of climate —
3. You can tell who has TB just by looking at them —
4. At last there's a wonderful drug that cures tuberculosis —
5. Everyone should have a complete physical examination including a chest X-ray annually —

Quiz Answers

1. False. No baby has TB when it is born. TB is caused by a germ. We catch TB from someone who has it—someone who is spreading TB germs.
2. False.
3. False. People who have early TB look fine, feel fine. On the surface they are OK. It takes an X-ray to look inside and find out if TB has damaged their lungs.
4. False.
5. True.

Dear Editor,

Everyone's been hearing about the wonderful football team we have this year and I agree that it's fine. But I've also noticed a really swell band. They've worked hard on their formations and have really accomplished a lot since the beginning of the year.

Five new majorettes and a new drum major are fronting the band and give it plenty of class. The majorettes began practicing several weeks before school and together they worked out many fascinating and original formations. Our band is sure to go places and I know they have everyone's good wishes backing them.

A STUDENT.

Change of Scene

Barb Burson and a few others around school seemed to have lightened up quite a bit. Don't they know that in winter time colors are darker?

A. W. O. L.

While Mr. Guiler was out of history class it seems Dom. Parlow was overcome by a thirst that overcame him. He left the room to do something about his trouble. While he was out, Mr. G. came back and Dom had a difficult time explaining.

Corn of Week

This gem of literature is contributed by Mr. Brautigam. It seemed a fellow was telling a couple of his friends about his fishing trip. He was one of those "one-that-got-away" type. He was telling how large the fish was and what a struggle it gave him. He said it was too bad it got away because it weighed 30 pounds. His friends had gotten a little tired of all this and here they thought they had him. They asked him how he knew it weighed 30 pounds. He said, "Why it had scales."

Reminder

The Student Council is just what its name indicates—a council of students elected by you to serve you. They can only do this if they know what you want, so don't forget to put those suggestions in the student council boxes which are located in every room.

Typical Poem

At last we come to the literary article which might have been written by any of the high-classed, very intelligent seniors . . . .

I like in early morn to rise

To hear the songsters singing,

But off' in bed I am surprised

To hear the school bell ringing.

By—A. F. Senior

Inquiry

We've been asked, "Has Bob Coppock been to any of the better shows in Youngstown lately?"

Spotlight

Mr. Tarr—"Who made the first nitride?"

Student—"Paul Revere."

Dope of the Week

He—"You are the breath of life to me."

She—"Did you ever try to hold your breath?"

Mudders

At the semi-pro game between Salem and Chardon last Sunday, the ground was soupy. Evidently most people didn't expect this condition and thus Nancy Callahan, Sara Cocca, Carol Kelley and Sally Hurlburt showed up in open toe and heel shoes and moccasins. We hear the local shoe stores' sales will be increased by four.

Along the Foot Lights

A poem whose origin probably could be traced to some of the boys in dramatics is called Stage Struck:

Here lies the dust of Edward Dust,

An actor by profession;

Some heartless brute threw rotten fruit,

And ruined his expression.

Callahan, Dean of Boys, Has Athletic Interests

By Sally Hurlburt

John P. Callahan, dean of boys, is a man of good athletic interests and abilities. His high school days were spent at Fairmount West High, West Virginia, where he participated in football and basketball. At State College, West Virginia, he also played football and basketball before going to West Virginia University. Here he was president of the student body his senior year, and received his Bachelor of Arts and Master's degrees.

John Callahan

For thirteen years, Mr. Callahan taught physical education, social studies, and was coach in basketball and football at Marietta High School, Marietta, Ohio.

At Marietta College he had charge of the military physical education program from May, 1942, to November, 1942. His next three years were spent in the naval aviation physical training program.

Mr. Callahan returned to West Virginia University for one year of graduate work before going to Iron-ton High School, Iron-ton, Ohio. Here he not only was the director of physical and health education and the dean of boys, but served also as an assistant in athletic coaching.

He has known many people and has had many experiences with schools and students during his teaching career. Of Salem High he says, "I have a very high opinion of Salem High School and its students."

Mr. Callahan says his pet peeve is making out duplicate admittance slips for students who have lost their original copies. Cottage cheese seems to be his main dislike along the food line. His hobby is reading and his interests are headed in the direction of all athletics.

Miller Appoints Committees

Student Council committees for the year were appointed by Jerry Miller, president, when that organization met October 7.

They are as follows: Publicity chairman, Carol Smith; buses to games, Dick Tolson and Lee Ward; Noon recreation, Dick Jones, and Bob Coppock; Movies, Lee Ward; Dancing, Pat Thompson, Lois Firestone, and Janet Vincent; hand-books, Bob Coppock and Dick Jones; Constitution revision, Joe Bachman, Jay England, and Dan Crawford.

TWINS

Salem High's band is tops but they have no favorite vocalist. Fruit is their favorite food so maybe when their high schools days are over they'll raise it on their farms.

This then sums up the sketches of the twins in Salem High, but remember, there are five pairs in school, including Wilbert and Wilford Faulkner. According to all the records there aren't any more twins in Salem High at this time and the Quaker hopes this corrects the mistake made in it formerly.

One of the girls in the senior class had received an engagement ring the night before, but to her chagrin no one at high school noticed it. Finally, in the afternoon when her friends were sitting around talking, she stood up suddenly. "My it's hot in here," she announced. "I think I'll take off my ring."

Teacher to teacher, 'Radio programs are ruining this school. Every time a pupil answers a question he wants to get paid.'

Office Gives Out Amount Collected In Chest Drive

The Community Chest of Salem High School thus far has taken in $191.39. This total includes both student and teacher donations.

The donations were taken up in homeroom where the pupils were issued envelopes in which to put their contributions. Red feathers were given to signify that a student had donated.

The Community Chest money is distributed to many different organizations such as the Home for Aged Ladies, the Memorial Building, the Boy and Girl Scout troops, the Salem City Hospital, The Red Cross, and the Salvation Army. These organizations are vital to the community and must be given as much support as possible by the students and adults of the city.

Miss Lehman Gets Degree

Miss Lois Lehman, Salem High School librarian, has been awarded the degree of bachelor of library science by Western Reserve University's School of Library Science.

'47 Grad. Head Majorette

Billie Ann Finley, student at Eastern Washington College, Cheney, Wash., has been made head majorette of her college band, according to a recent announcement.

Billie, a graduate of 1947, was one of the five majorettes that led the Salem High band last year. She was a majorette here for three years.

Football equipment has been ordered for the Junior High School football team. The team is going to be coached by Robert Miller, Salem High basketball coach. The home room touch-football games are in charge of Mr. Phillips.

Last Friday the Junior High choir, under the direction of Miss Doris Tetlow, gave a program of three selections for the students. They were The Lord's Prayer, With a Song, and Serenade (from The Student Prince).

The date for visiting day at Junior High has been tentatively set for October 29.

The art classes have begun a new line of work differing in some ways from the contour drawing they have been doing since the beginning of the year.

They are shading their pictures with black and white to put more depth in the pictures. This is known as texture drawing.

Quakers Overwhelm Wildcat Team, 40-6, Before 6,500 Fans

Barrettmens Win Sixth Straight; Ehrhart Is Outstanding Gainer

By Jerry Miller

The power and ability of Coach Ben Barrett's mighty Salem High Quakers was decisively proven last Friday night at Reilly Stadium, as his charges completely overwhelmed a bewildered Struthers High eleven by a 40 to 6 score before an over-capacity crowd of 6500 astonished fans.

The Red and Black, unbeaten in their first six attempts thus far this season, have compiled a total of 12 consecutive victories over a two year period.

The Barrettmens unleashed a terrific ground offensive attack in rolling up their highest score and exhibiting their finest performance of the campaign. Tom Miner and Rudy Maroscher, whose signal calling was outstanding, proved themselves valuable in the running department as they repeatedly sneaked through the middle of the Wildcats' forward wall for sizeable gains. Again, Captain Walter Ehrhart was the most effective ground gainer of the evening, reeling off a total of 127 yards from scrimmage. The play of the vastly improved Quaker line was one of the brightest spots of the contest and brings with it a more enlivened spirit of security and promise for the remaining games. Salem held a decided edge in every statistical comparison.

The Quakers' first tally came in the closing minutes of the first period when Lee Ward circled right end for four yards. Maroscher's placement was perfect. In the second quarter the locals scored twice with Miner sneaking across from the one yard stripe and Carl Hrovatic snatching a perfect pass in the end zone. After the first attempt was unsuccessful, "The Toe" Maroscher converted perfectly for the latter try and the Red and Black led 20 to 0 at halftime.

No points were pushed across in the third stanza, but the potent Salemites marched for considerable yardage and three more touchdowns in the final quarter. Howard Herrington scampered around right end for a tally and Maroscher added the point. Soon afterwards, Ward dashed for another touchdown from the 12-yard line and Rudy's kick made it 34 to 0. The final Quaker score came when Quarterback Maroscher sneaked across from the three. His try for point was not good.

Struther's lone tally came on a well-executed pass from Skvarka to Delsanders. A plunge for the point was unsuccessful, and the final count stood 40 to 6 in favor of Coach Barrett and his fighting squad.

Salem To Meet As the Crowd Cheers . . . Girard Tonight

Quakers Out To Scalp Indians for 13th Win

Salem High's undefeated and untied Quakers will be seeking their 13th consecutive victory in tonight's tussle with the Girard High Indians at Reilly Stadium.

Coach Ben Barrett's spirited charges will be out to scalp the Indians who, earlier in the season, lost a tight fray to the Struthers lads 7 to 6. The high scoring Quakers will have to be on their toes though, for the light and fast Girard eleven is dangerous in many respects and will definitely be out to upset the mighty Barrettmens from their pedestal in the coveted ranks of the undefeated.

Regardless of the fact that the local gridders are highly favored over their warrior foes, the contest stacks up as an interesting one and another definite test for the powerful Red and Black. Coach Barrett is expected to use the same tactics which so successfully vanquished the opposition in the first six games of the campaign.

Another capacity crowd is expected for the tilt which is slated to get under way at 7:45 P. M.

Probable starting lineups:

SALEM		GIRARD
Boone	LE	Zirafi
Wank	LT	Lozier
Wilson	LG	Perko
Burger	C	Blott
Parlontiere	RG	Cretello
Zeigler	RT	Richards
Hrovatic	RE	Jamieson
Miner	QB	Over
Ehrhart	LH	Del Bene
Yeager	RH	Demas
Ward	FB	Triplett

Salem Cops Meet

With Alex Kamasky running off with first place and Charles Bailey taking second, the Salem High cross-country team won over Boardman, 18 to 37, Wednesday, October 15, at the Salem Golf course.

Kamasky made the two miles in 10:58.6 minutes with Bailey following with a time of 11:03 minutes. Placing third was Conklin of Boardman with Gene Dean, Jerry Jeffries, and Bob Coffee of Salem following.

Pat: It's simply fine to wake up in the morning and hear the leaves whispering outside your window.

Tom: It's all right to hear the leaves whisper, but I never could stand to hear the grass mown.

By Lee Ward

Salem Swamps Struthers!
The Red Hot Quakers dumped Struthers Friday to the tune of 40 to 6.

Gaining the most ground during the game was Captain Walt Ehrhart who racked up 127 yards.

From the first few plays it seemed as though the game would be a real battle, but the Quakers soon got up steam and began to roll.

Tom Miner used the Quarterback Sneak affectively during the game. The Sneak, which is ordinarily good maybe once or twice a game, netted Miner a touchdown and centered the defense in the middle, enabling the end runs to click.

The Salem line—Boone, Wank, Wilson, Berger, Parlow, Ziegler, and Hrovatic—knocked would-be tacklers all over the field and very seldom allowed the Struthers backs to penetrate to the secondary.

Salem's T. D.'s were accounted for as follows: Hrovatic, Herrington, Miner, Maroscher, and Ward, 2. Struthers' lone tally was on a pass from Skvarka to Delsander in the end zone.

Clippers Lose Close One
Columbiana had tough luck again. The Boardman Spartans came through in the last minutes of the game to break a 13 to 13 tie and hand the Clippers a 19 to 13 defeat.

Potters Drop Sixth
The East Liverpool Potters dropped their sixth game in as many

Frosh vs. Liverpool, Reserves vs. Niles In Doubleheader

A twin bill was held last Wednesday night in the world of football. Salem Freshmen, coached by Frank Tarr and Carl Field, tangled with the East Liverpool Freshmen at 7:30. At 8:30, the main attraction of the night, the Salem Reserves, met a strong Niles High reserve outfit.

Joe Kelley, Ray Reasbeck, and Bob Miller officiated and the Salem High band was on hand with some music.

starts, when Austintown Fitch eked out a 6 to 0 decision. The Potters, reportedly looking their best of the season, almost shampooed the Fitch eleven who had been undefeated. A fourth down pass in the last two minutes of play rinsed out the opposition, and Fitch's Bud Tocco scored in the end zone.

Drops In The Bucket
Canton Lehman knocked off Canton Timken 13 to 7 — Wellsville dropped to Midland, Pa., 26 to 0 — Hamilton lost to Springfield 19 to 0 — Mr. Cope said the team gets Cider and Doughnuts Monday — Newton Falls felled Ravenna 12 to 7 — Youngstown North froze Leetonia 12 to 0 — Rayen hosed Girard 32 to 0.

Girard ????
Who's going to win the game tonight We would pick Salem. Girard is always "up" for the Salem game, but so was Struthers. Struthers beat Girard, when they played them, and as you know we kind of "painted the town Red" last Friday, so going by averages, we should win. However, that's how people go broke.
