

School Board Announces Commencement Music Plans

Rosemarie Faini, Nancy Bailey, Ralph Firestone, and Bruce Snyder have been named to present a musical program at their class's commencement exercises this June. Rosemarie is a soprano; Nancy will play the clarinet; Ralph will play the saxophone; and Bruce will accompany the soloists.

The four seniors were chosen by the commencement committee, made up of Salem high teachers, Superintendent E. S. Kerr, and members of the board of education. They have all made outstanding musical records during their high school careers. They are all members of the band and have participated in district, regional, and state contests.

Rosemarie is second in her graduating class, has been rated as "superior" at several solo and ensemble contests, and is editor of the Quaker Annual.

Nancy, besides being talented with a clarinet, plays the piano, oboe, and violin. In February she won first-chair clarinet in the all-region orchestra. She is fourth in her graduating class.

Ralph has also received "superior" ratings at the district and regional solo and ensemble contests. He is a four-year member of the band and was band librarian last year.

Bruce is a three-year member of the Robed choir, a four-year member of the band, and has won "superiors" twice this year. He is this year's accompanist of the Robed choir, and, like Nancy and Rosemarie, has won a Marie Burns award.

The selections that the four will present have not yet been announced.

SHS Once Again Gets Accredited

Salem high school has just been accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools for the school year of 1953-54, Principal B. G. Ludwig announced Tuesday.

This means that Salem high is in the highest bracket to which any school can be accredited. The association covers schools and colleges in 19 states.

Salem high has been accredited every year since 1936, Mr. Ludwig related.

Fifth Honor Roll Sees Seniors On Top

The seniors have once again come out on top in the honor roll standings, with over one fourth of the class—29 per cent—getting at least three-point averages.

The freshmen are right behind with 24 per cent and the juniors came in a close third to them. They had 22 per cent of their class members on the honor roll.

Sophomores dropped two per cent from last time, coming up with only 15 per cent of their members on the roll.

Four Point honor roll

Gloria Colannanni, Wendell Dunn, Roberta Gallagher, Lois Getz, Joel Greenisen, Dale Horton, Jim Howell, Richard Hunter, Tim Kennedy, Teresa Stokovic.

Style Show To Be "Sewing Circus"

Plans for the annual home economics class style show to be held Friday, May 15, are well under way, according to Mrs. Bessie Lewis and Miss Ala Zimmerman, home economics teachers.

The theme for the show is "Sewing is a Circus." The clothing aides, Joann Petras, Wilma Stipic, Helen Kornbau, Mickey Lyons, Viola Brenner, and Carol Middeker, who is mistress of ceremonies, will describe the various garments modeled by sewing class students.

Two girls from each of the four classes were elected to serve on a sub-committee. They are Mary Jane Ickes, Margaret Mordew, Janice Maxim, Joanne Lewis, Lois Lippiatt, Marilyn Theiss, Jeanette Harris, and Loretta Spears.

Sally Kirkbride and Donna Blender will go to the Junior high with Carol Middeker to make an announcement of the event to the eighth grade girls.

The art department, dramatics department, and music department all have a part in making the "circus" possible.

Open house will be held by the foods classes after the style show.

OSU's Louis Diercks To Direct 3 Schools At Tonight's Festival

The second annual Tri-City Music festival will be held this evening at 7:30 in the SHS auditorium. Professor Louis Diercks, director of the Ohio State Symphonic choir will be guest conductor.

Professor Diercks will direct over 25 voices from Alliance, Louisville, and Salem when they combine to sing "Psalms 150," "The Earth Is the Lord's," "Come Close the Curtains of Your Eyes," "Comin' Through the Rye," and "Matter of Human Destiny."

Mrs. Emelyn Terry will direct the Louisville high school choir, which recently received a superior rating at the state contest. The choir will sing "O, What a Lovely Magic," "Christ Walks Into the Hills," "Dark Water," and "Swing Along."

School Elects 6 Cheerleaders

Doris McNamee, Wilma and Paula Bodendorfer, Nancy Fife, Joyce Blaine, and Donna Blender have been elected cheerleaders for next year, according to Mrs. Bessie Lewis, cheerleader coach.

After an assembly Tuesday morning when 12 candidates displayed their talents, the students voted for their favorites.

Others who participated included Juanita Campf, Nance Zeck, Jeri Jackson, Ruth Ann Baddeley, Linda Karns, Pat Harris, and Mary Jane Parana.

Doris was a varsity cheerleader this year. She will lead the squad next year as captain.

Doris, along with Nancy and Joyce, will be a senior next year, while Donna and the twins will be sophomores.

Mrs. Lewis reported that the balloting was very close, with several of the losing candidates being exceptionally close to the top.

Classes To Vote For '53 Officers

Class officers will be chosen next week in freshman, sophomore, and junior homerooms for the school year of 1953-54.

The Alliance high school choir, under the direction of Miss Eva Sackett, will sing "Come Thou Holy Spirit," "Lost in the Night," "Arise, O God, and Show Thy Might," and "Rocks My Soul." Alliance received a rating of excellent in state competition.

The Salem high school choir, with Thomas Crothers directing, will sing "Turn Back, O Man," "Battle Hymn of the Republic," "Jacob's Ladder," "Tears," and "Bless This House."

Professor Diercks practiced this morning and afternoon with the Salem choir and with the combined choirs.

Legion Names 4 Juniors Delegates To Boys' State

Charles Jones, Dale Horton, Sandy Hansell, and Tim Kennedy, all juniors, have been selected as Salem's representatives for Buckeye Boys' State, to be held at Camp Perry, Port Clinton, Ohio, from June 12 through June 21.

Buckeye Boys' State is sponsored by the American Legion and is the counterpart of the Legion Auxiliary-sponsored Buckeye Girls' State. At Camp Perry elections are held for all state, county, and city offices. Each of the approximately 1000 juniors attending will hold an office of some type. The purpose of the event is to educate American youth in the seriousness of government service.

Three other local clubs, the Lions, Kiwanis, Rotary, and the Junior Chamber of Commerce are assisting the Legion with expenses.

The four were chosen by faculty members and a Legion committee on such points as reliability, leadership, character, interest in social studies and current events, and ability to compete with others of the same age.

Tim is an officer of the Coin and Stamp club, and a member of the French and Slide Rule clubs. Dale is a biology aide and a member of the Spanish club. Sandy is a member of the Student Council, Thespians, band, Spanish club and is the junior assistant editor of the Quaker Weekly. Chuck is vice-president of the Student Council and is an active Thespian.

Alternates in the order of their choice are Ray Pearson, Joel Greenisen, and Wendell Dunn.

Alumni to Give Scholarships

The Alumni Association, which last year gave 1500 dollars in scholarships to three graduating seniors, plans to give three more such scholarships this year, it was announced this week.

The money for this scholarship fund is obtained from interest on the Alumni Association money, money from the senior class, wills, bequests, and gifts.

A senior, in order to apply for such a scholarship, must have obtained a "B" average during high school and must be planning to take a full four-year college course. He must use his scholarship his first year of college. Only those not receiving another scholarship are eligible.

The applications are discussed among the teachers and those selected are recommended to the scholarship board which makes the final decision.

Applications will be distributed in the homerooms next week. They are due in the principal's office May 11.

Juniors Named To Prom Committees

With the Junior-Senior Prom less than a month away, the junior class officers have swung into action, appointing the decorating committee and the date bureau.

Those who will set the theme and atmosphere for the affair are Bob Sebo, Joe Hajack, Betty Moore, Don Abe, Chuck Jones, Carl Flitcraft, Gary Paxson, Bob Talbot, Bill Mergert, Barbara Smith, Barbara Patterson, Joan Hart, Carol Wilde, Doris McNamee, Helen Dicu, and Helen Kornbau.

The date bureau, which is set up by the hosts of the dance, the junior class, will provide dates for those juniors and seniors who are "dateless" but wish to attend the prom.

The students serving on that committee are Jackie Welsh, Nora Guiler, Sandra Church, Ann Zuber, Joel Greenisen, Dale Horton, and Sandy Hansell.

The prom will be held Friday night, May 29.

Extends Deadline For File 13

The deadline for "File 13" entries has been extended to Wednesday of next week so everyone will have time to submit a contribution. Almost 80 entries have been turned in, but judging has not yet taken place.

Subscriptions are still being sold in homerooms for 10 cents. The pioneer copy of "File 13" is expected to come off the press during the week of May 25.

Council Earns $248 Refund

When the Student Council met Wednesday, President Helen Copacia announced that the tax stamp drive had broken last year's record, and that the council will receive $248 refund on the stamps turned in. This money will be used to pay for the school handbooks which are revised every year. The remainder will be put aside for next year's council.

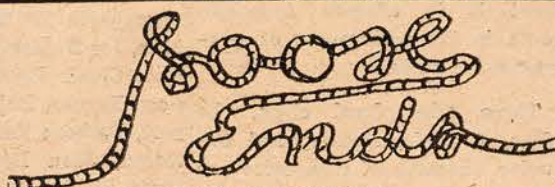

When Salem is host to the Columbiana County track meet and the Class B meet May 8 and 15, the council will be in charge of the refreshment stand.

Mary Mercer and Patt Ross were named as a committee of two to select a book to be presented to the Library from the council.

Dick Gleckler, who is in charge of the CUSH campaign, reported that two surveys had been made concerning the conditions of the lockers.

SPRING IS HERE

Even if you can't prove it by the weather, you can by the summery clothes the gals are beginning to wear to school.

At the Spanish Fiesta last Saturday night they all looked crisp cool, and real gone. So come on, gals; the time has come to put the wool skirts in mothballs and to get out all those frilly cotton and organdy dresses. Muy Buena

The Spanish Fiesta was really something to remember. Besides the beautiful and colorful decorations and the wonderful music, the dancing of Senora Hainei really climaxed a perfect evening. Her gypsy dance was a wonderful treat and her rumba dancing with her husband was something we won't forget for a long time.

The bull-fight was an amusing innovation, and Joe Hajcak tells us that his plans for the future might include real bull-fighting. Don't forget, Joe, that not all bulls are composed of Sandy Hansell and Dale Horton; and that not all the picadores are as brave and daring as Joel Greenisen and Bob Winkler!

All in all we had fun, and thanks go to the Spanish club members and their adviser, Miss Hollett.

SUCH CHARM

The movie on charm and personality which was viewed in an assembly last week seemed to affect quite a few of the studes of our dear SHS.

One of the boys who became charm-conscious was Don Kuntzman, who was seen brushing up Joyce Blaine's blue suede shoes. The boys in the Spanish II class became perfect gentlemen also. When Miss Hollett walked into her class one afternoon, all the boys gracefully stood up; then Sandy Hansell and Gary Paxson proceeded to pull out her chair. Sigh! Why can't they always be so gallant?

HIGH GOAL

Since the unveiling of the names of the honor students took place last week, it kinda makes you think. So, to all of you who are not seniors, if you try a little harder perhaps you could be one of the honor pupils in your class.

Congratulations to the ones in this year's class and lots of luck to the ones trying for next year's honors.

DIAMONDS AND SPRING

To Rosemarie Faini the coming of spring proved to be quite exciting. This pretty senior gal became engaged to Frank Zocco of Youngstown Friday.

BE-BOP

The Quaker Follies seemed to touch off a spark last Thursday. After dismissal the orchestra began playing bop music and many of the feminine studes were keeping up with the rhythm and really cutting the rug. It would be terrific if we could have regular jam sessions like that, don't you think- Oh, well, we can dream, can't we?

ODD BUT FUN

Of all odd things to bring to school, the fencing swords that Ann Zuber brought last Thursday take first place. They caused quite a sensation too. Outside of school that day Joan Hart, Doris McNamee, and Joyce Blaine took turns fencing with each other, doing a little bit of goofing off to boot. The swords also made their rounds through the hands of umpteen other fun-loving people.

WORTH SEEING!

The light gray flannel suits that Tommy Ehrhart, Denny Herron, and Paul Hannay sometimes wear are really something to see. These boys look like they have just stepped out of a fashion magazine. All we can do is we like, we like.

CONGRATULATIONS

Orchids are in order for Judy Tame and Pat Schmidt who are the honored seniors to be the speakers at Commencement. We are sure that they are thrilled beyond words and that they'll do a good job. Congratulations, girls, and good luck.

While we are on the subject of congratulations we really should extend them to all the musically-inclined students who traveled to Delaware, Ohio, for a contest and returned home with excellent ratings. You are a real credit to our school, kids.

THE TOP DRAWER

By Jim

How many kids saw "Guss" Allison stopping a baseball at the Cleveland Indians' game last Tuesday night? He practically took the ball right out of Al Rosen's hands.

Physics problems of a different nature were discovered by Mr. Stadlander last week. His students noticed a wad of paper hanging on a string, swinging in front of the art room window. When said teacher investigated, he found the culprit pulling the paper up through the physics class window and chuckling to himself; which only goes to prove that he who laughs last stays in detention longest.

This column would like to thank the Spanish club for its wonderful fiesta Saturday night. One of its highlights was the jitterbugging of three sophs. Dale Middeker, John Todd, and Bill Nyberg were, to say the least, "as cool as a well-digger's knee".

Among "noticeables" this month are Harold Garloch's green Plymouth and Bob Stirling's "dreamboat." We here insert an "in memoriam" to Don Hilliard's Ford convertible. Early this month Don got it stuck on some railroad tracks and couldn't get it started. You-know-what came along. So ends Don's Ford. Pleasant thought: Don jumped.

The secret is out! Yes, now the senior know where they stand in their class and that combined with report cards last Wednesday, has put a few seniors out of action. But we would like to say congratulations to those in the top third, swell going to those in the middle third, and to those in the last third—well, we're all in the same boat, boys!

Tonight will feature two attractions: the Salem high Choral Festival and an Elks dance at 9 p.m.

The next time you get a chance ask C. Jones if you might hear the recording of "Roll Out the Barrel" that group of "vocalists" made at the Memorial building. It sounds very much like 100 monkeys running around in a barrel of molasses.

WHY MAY DAY? READ ON

By Patt Ross

Do you know that today is May Day? Perhaps, when you were smaller, you followed the tradition of preparing May baskets for one or two of your friends and leaving them mysteriously on front doorsteps. If you ever observed the first of May in this manner, you were following a custom practiced by mankind for more centuries than we can reckon. The ancient Romans used to make sacrifices on this day to the goddess Maia, the mother of Mercury, and it is from her that the month probably got its name.

With the coming of Christianity people forgot all about the goddess but continued to observe her day. It is hard enough for an individual to break a habit, but for a whole race it is very hard indeed. All through the Middle Ages and later it was a public holiday in England and was celebrated with all sorts of frolicking. In the early morning many people, young and old, would flock to the woods and meadows to gather flowers and blossomed boughs, bringing them into the villages and farms and towns. There a Maypole was set up and around it the prettiest maidens danced winding gay ribbons in and out in honor of the May Queen, who was chosen from among this number every year.

The Puritans felt that all this jollity was very wicked, and would never tolerate a Maypole on this side of the ocean. But in some strange way the old, old customs stayed alive, and though we have no gay processions today all over the country about this time we hear, in some small way, of May baskets, queens, balls, dances, parties, skits, and stories.

Quaker Flashbacks

1938 — Salem high Quakers remained undefeated and unscored upon as they defeated Ravenna, 25 - 0, at Reilly stadium.

1938 — F. E. Cope announced that for the first time the band will be able to attend all the football games.

1938 — Due to the crowded conditions in the gym classes, juniors will be excused from taking physical education this year.

1938 — Counting everyone in the stadium at the recent Liverpool - Salem game, regardless of how they entered, the attendance reached 10,000.

1942 — So far Salem high has given nine teachers to the war. The latest was John Paul Olloman.

1942 — Many prom goers are being hindered this year because of the problem of gas rationing.

1942 — News note — In France a cow that chewed up a German communication cable was captured as a saboteur.

1942 — Bow-tie talk.

Green tie — looking for a date

Blue tie — going steady

No tie at all — woman hater

Black tie — washed up; still in mourning

Plaid tie — gives all the girls the same line

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Why not have a campaign for the various candidates up for class offices? Instead of merely having nominations and votes, campaign for your candidate. Make signs, invent yells, and have campaign speeches. They do this in Junior high and it promotes a school spirit that we seem to lack after we get into high school.

When our next elections come up for class officers, Association officers, and Football Queen, make something out of it. I think those who came into SHS this last year miss the election enthusiasm they had last year, so let's boost the candidate of our choice in about a 2-week long campaign.

Campaign and then vote.

Frosh Help CUSH

"But where'll we put our books if we can't put them on top of the lockers?" This is the complaint often heard since the CUSH drive started.

A hearty cheer goes to the freshmen in room 306 who solved this problem. They put their books under the lockers!

This inventive group, wanting to help CUSH, but also knowing that the lockers can't be opened between classes, made the supreme sacrifice and laid their tablets, books, magazines, etc., in the little space under the lockers.

Here's hoping that the rest of the complainers jump on the bandwagon and solve their problems as easily

20 of 79 Girls
Plan For College

Of the 79 senior girls interviewed by Miss Ala Zimmerman, dean of girls, only 20 are planning on continuing their educations after graduation. Eight more plan to enter nurse's training.

A total of 24 girls have already accepted positions in banks, offices, and various industries in Salem, and of these, 15 are presently being trained for their work.

These surveys are made by the dean of girls every year, and an effort is made to keep track of the graduates' activities.

To those interested in college
the dean has given aid in planning college work and has told the girls of available financial help.

If any girl is in need of a part-time job she can best be helped by inquiring at Miss Zimmerman's office.

Long time no see, seniors and senioritas. To start off we have a number by the Mills Brothers called "Say Si, Si." Frank Sinatra has come up with a cool caper for all you thin chicks who think you're not being noticed called "Lean Baby."

Have you heard the ditty by our good TV entertainer, Red Buttons? It's called "Strange Things Are Happening." If any of you kats and chicks have trouble with laziness just tell the folks you're in a strain or under pressure. Maybe they'll understand.

Getting on with the platter chatter we have "Can't I" with Billy May on the instrumental side, while Nat "King" Cole has the vocal. A real pretty song that should have happened, but didn't is "Someone to Kiss Your Tears Away" by Eddie Howard.

You'd better jump hep to this real cool cookie by Shirley and Lee called "I'm Gone." Most profathius. "Ramona" done by the Gaylords is intriguing. "I Believe" by Frankie Laine is really one delicious wafer.

If you ever feel alone and broken-hearted just listen to "Cheating Heart" by Joni James. It's sad, but relieving. "Tell Me a Story," by Jimmy Boyd and Frankie Laine, is sensational.
You know, Jimmy is really making tops in the musical world.

"How Do You Speak to an Angel" by Eddie Fisher is a real good song. Also "Teardrops On My Pillow" by Sunny Gale is a hit on the flips. The Gaylords have come up with a spin called "Spinning A Web."

How do you kids go for Harry Kari's "Yokohama Mama" and
"Yes, Sir, That's My Baby"? We think they're gone. "Gomen-Nasai" by Richard Bowers is wonderful and the meaning is so beautiful.
An American soldier in Japan wrote the song for his Japanese sweetheart whom he was unable to marry because of the laws.
This song means, "I'm sorry."

That's all the platter chatter we can give you at this time, so-turn on your radios and try to catch these tunes.

G.A.A. Plans Trip To Washington

A new project is being launched this year by the G. A. A. to stimulate more interest in the group.
With the surplus funds that the club has acquired over a four-year period, the girls are planning to send the active junior, senior, and sophomore members to Washington, D. C., for four days.

The girls are planning to leave June 8. Final plans as to a definite means of transportation have not been decided.

The club plans to take a trip every two or three years, depending upon the number of active members eligible. To be assured of sufficient funds, the girls are selling all-occasion cards and writing paper during the last few weeks of school.

Tomorrow Connie Gillett, Jackie

COMING UP SOON

Just around the corner are both the Columbiana county and the Class A and B district meets, both being held this year at Reilly stadium. The county meet is scheduled for Friday, May 8; the Class B district meet, for Wednesday, May 13; and the Class A meet, for Friday, May 15. The attendance at Salem's track meets so far this year has been very poor. Here's hoping the crowds pick up for the remaining meets.

For the past three years the county meet has been won by East Palestine with East Liverpool tying them for top honors last year. This will be the 50th annual Columbiana meet, one of the oldest in the state of Ohio.

Again this year the East Palestine Bulldogs are led by Tony Conkle, the so-called one-man track team. Everyone will be watching him in particular.

The power-packed East Palestine thinclads also took top honors in last year's district meet. The Class A district meet has been held at Reilly stadium for 18 years straight, and for very good reasons, too. Here they receive excellent management under Fred Cope. We also have the advantage of owning one of the best tracks in this part of Ohio.

ANOTHER HEART-BREAKING LOSS

The meet last Tuesday with Girard was a heartbreaker to lose. This was the second meet for the Quakers that was decided by the mile relay, the last event to be run. Jerry Martin and Bill Lipp both ran the mile in less than five minutes. All of the members of the Quaker squad have been steadily improving.

Jack Alexander did 5 feet, 11 inches in the high jump the other night. This is pretty good for a freshman, since the school record is 6 feet, 1 inch. We're betting that he will do better than six feet before the year's over, and he has three more years to go in SHS. John Baker has been improving in the shot put . . . Jim Beard is looking good in the broad jump . . . Bob Sebo is coming along in both the dashes and low hurdles . . . Joe Hajcak also looks good in the hurdles.

Cope Announces All-Star Teams

Fred Cope, boy's gym instructor, announced this week the standings of the gym class basketball teams at the completion of two 12-game rounds of play. He also announced the first, second, and third all-star gym class cage squads, along with the top point-getters in the classes.

Each of the all-star teams has six players. The first team is composed of Paul Paster, Jack Kelly, Matt Klein, Bill Panzozt, Stanley Strojek, and Jerry Cosgrove. David Brantingham, Jim Fife, Walter Leininger, Duane Bates, Bob Stockton, and Bill Sidinger make up the second team. Chuck Harris, Dick Saltsman, Bob Boels, George Mordew, Conrad Thorne, and Dave Williams were selected for the third team.

The top eight scorers, with over 200 points each, are Stanley Strojek, 256; Bill Panzozt, 231; Stanley Kataro, 224; David Brantingham, 216; Matt Klein, 212; Jerry Cosgrove, 211; Paul Paster, 206; and Jim Fife, 203. The standings at the end of the second round are as follows:

Slim Crowd Watches Girard Defeat Quakers In Thriller

Witnessed by only a handful of SHS track fans, the Tarrmen saw their second defeat of the track season at the hands of the Girard thinclads last Tuesday evening, 60-58.

The Quakers were leading by a slim margin of three points when Girard took the mile relay to cop the locals' third meet of the season. Originally scheduled for Monday, but called because of the weather, the meet was to have been a triangle affair with Salem competing against both Girard and Boardman. The Boardman squad couldn't get here Tuesday so the remaining teams participated in a dual meet. Another meet with Boardman may be scheduled for later in the year.

Both squads received six first places with Salem getting six seconds while Girard took only five second-place slots. Girard copped eight thirds while the locals took only three. Salem won the half-mile relay with the visitors taking the mile relay. Roy Honeywell of Salem and Bob Post of Girard tied for second place in the pole vault.

Tom Carey of Girard was the high scorer of the meet, taking three firsts and a third for 16 points. Bob Sebo led the locals with 10 1/4 points winning the low hurdles, taking second in the 100-yard dash, placing third in the 220, and running in the half-mile relay team.

Other Salem firsts went to Eddie Votaw in the pole vault, Jerry Martin in the mile run, Jack Alexander in the high jump, Tom Johnston in the 880-yard run, and Jim Beard in the broad jump. Quaker seconds went to John Baker in the shot put, Honeywell in the pole vault, Jack Ferece in the discus, Dave Williams in the 880, Bill Lipp in the mile run, Sebo in the 100-yard dash, and Joe Hajcak in the high hurdles.

Local Cindermen Trip Rayen Tigers

Displaying improving form the local cindermen edged the Youngstown Rayen thinclads, 60-58, last Friday night at Youngstown.

The Quaker tracksters took several first places, including the mile relay that won the meet. The Tarrmen also captured eight second places and three thirds. Jerry Martin of Salem won the point-earning mile run. Bob Sebo also did well in the low hurdles. Other firsts went to Dale Barton in the 440-yard dash, captain Tom Johnston in the 880-yard run, Eddie Votaw in the pole vault, and Jack Alexander in the high jump. John Chester, Bill Lipp, Martin, and Barton ran for Salem on the winning mile relay team.

Joe Hajcak took second in both hurdles while Sebo took second in both the 100 and 220-yard dashes. Other second places went to Roy Honeywell in the pole vault, Chester in the 440, and Alexander in the 880. Jim Beard took third in the broad jump, as did Jack Ferece in the discus and John Baker in the shot put.
