SALEM SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

SALEM, OHIO

VOL. 61 — NO. 1

THE QUEEN AND HER COURT

The new 1975 football Homecoming Queen is Terri Domencetti. As these words were spoken by last year's lovely queen, Mary Pat Webb, Terri couldn't really believe that it was her name that was being said. She was so excited that she could hardly show how she felt. Miss Domencetti's escort was Don Miller. The members of her court were Sue Henderson, escorted by Roy Paparodis; Janie Jesko, escorted by Pat Barrett; Sally Kendall; escorted by Dave Tat-man; Julie Lange, escorted by Don Farmer; Lori Lantz, escorted by Vic Watterson; and Kathy Tullis who unfortunately was unable to attend because, due to illness, was in the hospital. Kathy was still with us in our hearts. Her escort would have been Mark McCarney. Mary Pat, the 1974 queen was escorted by Rick Faulkner. The drivers of the cars were Jim Alexander, Jay Santee, Pinky Sheets, and Mike Stapleton.

After the exciting Salem-Poland game, the Student Council sponsored the Homecoming dance featuring "Icarus." The cafeteria was decorated to honor the queen and her court. The dance ended at 12:00, but it was only the beginning of Terri's reign as the S.H.S. football queen.

S.H.S. wishes to congratulate Terri. We are proud to have her as queen and we know she will bring the best of luck and success to our Mighty Salem Quakers.

New Faces At SHS

There are twelve, both male and female, persons that add to the faculty at Salem High School this year. The new teachers are as follows: Mr. Richard Wainer, Vocational Counselor; Mr. Bill Davies, football head coach, Practical Math, Pre-algebra and Algebra I.

Mr. Tom DeBarr teaches Bookkeeping I and General Business; Mrs. Jean Esposito, English I and IA; Mrs. Kristy Farmer is head librarian; Mr. Tom Fisher teaches Physical Education; while on the other side of the gym Miss Kay Stevens teaches girls Physical Ed.

Mr. Jeff Jeckavitch leads the Stageband, Marching Band, Concert Band and Grade Instrumental. Mr. Bill Meyers, Metal I and Small Engines; Mr. Louis Newton, Drafting II (relations and laboratory);

Mrs. Edeltiaud Reed, English I and German I-IV. Mrs. Ruth Maihefka teaches Personal Typing, Typing I. So, if you happen to see an unfamiliar face as you fight your way through the crowds at school—instead of stepping on their toe, smile and say "hi". Just assume that they are a new teacher—friend not foe.

People From Afar

This year we have with us at SHS four foreign exchange students. They seem to be having a great time adjusting to our ways. These students are living with several Salem High families and will be living with them until they complete their stay in our country. These students names are Susan Barker of New Zealand who is staying with Don Winch. Bernardo Cadario of Bolivia staying with Mr. and Mrs. George Snyder. Patricia Delaiti of Belgium staying with the Ospecks' and Anders Stromhall of Sweden, staying with Mr. and Mrs. Null of N. Union.

Anders says that the ways of people in our country compared to the people of Sweden do not differ much, but, he says that they have more freedom to do what they want.

Senior Pictures

by Vicki Beiling

Neil Csepke, photographer for senior pictures and the yearbook this year, is making a reminder that senior portraits can still be taken, but those seniors wishing to have their photos by Christmas must have their sitting scheduled for a date before October 30. He has also stated that students who have picked up, or will be picking up their finished portraits prior to No. 15 should stop back after this date to pick up their folders and to look at the new mottled and wood frames which have just arrived. Price lists for the pictures can be obtained at the school from Mr. Esposito, or anyone can contact Mr. Csepke at Neil's Studio, 1040 Georgetown Road.

What's Happening Around School

Are you caught up with the latest happenings at Salem High School? Besides getting a whole gossip minute taken away between classes this year there are many exciting things happening! For instance, the "in" place to go during study hall is the library. The difference this year is that when you do go in "you are 'in' for good. No more visiting the bakery or Burger Chef or roaming the halls. Of course, if you don't like the more studious atmosphere of the library, standing up in study hall is always fun. It is a good way to see who is in your study hall that period!

For those who are interested in the more social aspect of SHS, many clubs have started organizing and making plans for the school year. Pep Club, under the direction of Janie Jesko, Shar

Fitch, Martha Flood and Marjorie Ospeck, has been instigating school spirit by painting signs, decorating lockers and cheering at football practice. They will be selling Salem Quaker Keychains at $1.00 each very soon. They are brown leather with both the school name and "Quaker Sam" imprinted on them. Working closely with Pep Club are the Pepettes, under the direction of their fearless co-captains Jacque Ellis and Nancy Paparodis. They have already been very busy making signs for the players' yards, locker room and school lockers, not to mention making their traditional "goodie-boxes."

Student Council is another group that has been very busy. Starting off the year right, they put apples and "Welcome to School" notes in all of the faculty's boxes.

In order to spread spirit, they started a spirit chain and with that money they will be giving free pizzas to the winners of the "Mystery Person" contest. The first "Mystery Person" was Mr. Cabas and Lori Lantz won the pizza. Be listening for the next time when there will be a "Mystery Person" contest! Student Council is also in charge of the concession stand which is open every day after school, offering lots of fattening goodies, and your favorite legal beverages. It is an excellent way to hit the hungries after a long hard day of school. Listen to the morning announcements for student council news.

Up With People

by Cheryl Crawford

On September 15, S.H.S. welcomed the musical cast of "Up With People" to its halls for the first assembly of this year. Both assemblies were enjoyed by the students and the faculty.

The cast members arrived in Salem late Sunday evening and stayed in the homes of various host families.

If you had a study hall 5th period in the auditorium you probably heard the brass section practicing for the show they did Monday night, which packed the auditorium and received a beautiful response from the audience.

The cast has 500 members and is traveling all over the United States to celebrate America's Bicentennial. Fifty were here.

"Up With People" has been in existence for 10 years, and their past achievements have taken them to the White House, Spain, Italy, Switzerland, England, and Belgium. Literally people from all over the world are represented in the large cast. The cast has just completed 13 High School assemblies in the Akron area, and are moving on Miami, Ohio, and Bowling Green Universities.

SALEM PEPS

SHS is making a new tradition this year. Since we have our female cheerleaders and female PEPETTES, male liberation is taking a big step forward this year by having the Salem PEPS. Coach Hardman came up with the idea after the first Pep assembly. He then turned to three basketball players, Mike Stapleton, Tim Cope and Dion Treleven to back him up. They must have because today we have the Salem Peps.

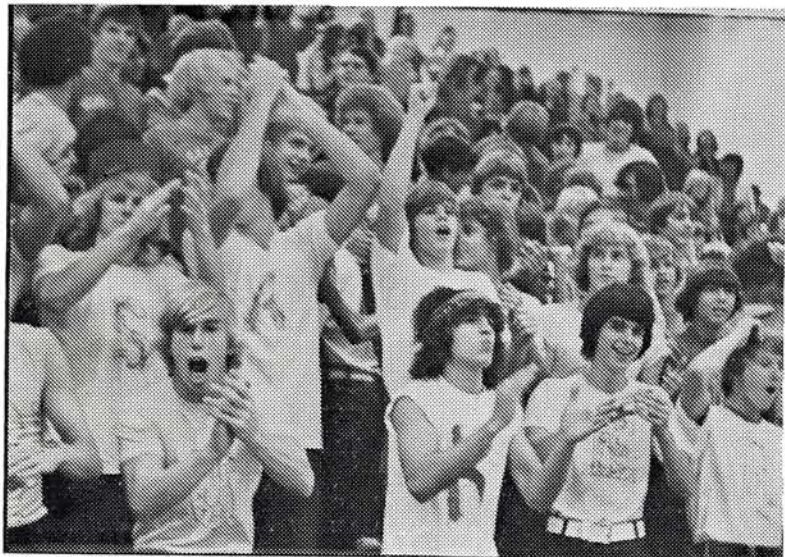

The senior boys making up the PEPS are: Jim Alexander, a basketball player chosen to wear the letter S. Tim Cope, another basketball player wearing the A.

Bob Risbeck, our star wrestler is wearing the letter L. Mike Stapleton, a basketball player has the honor of the letter E. Ron James the tennis freak will put on the letter M which rounds out the name SALEM.

Q was worn by Rick Uptegraph. Roger Devine, a wrestler puts on the letter U. Terry Krepps, wrestler and painter of the shirts worn by the PEPS wears the letter A. Mark Callatone, famous kisser wears the letter K for kiss. Kim Morrison cross country man wears the letter E. Next to him is his identical twin brother Ken Morrison another cross country man who wears the letter R. Doug Hardman, the coaches son and basketball player decided on wearing the letter S to round out QUAKERS. The Quaker heads include John Foster, golfer; Jim Elrod and Dion Treleven, basketball player.

These "men" are there for one reason. They aren't there just to mess around. They are there to get the Freshman, Sophomore, Juniors, and Seniors to let themselves go and root for their team — THE MIGHTY SALEM QUAKERS. So far the Salem Peps have been getting through to the students.

New Time Schedule

by D. Sweet

A new time schedule has been adopted this year at Salem High School. Because of regulations for minimal class periods in such courses as Industrial Arts and other vocational classes, (among others), our days and periods have been lengthened and class changes shortened.

According to Mr. Joseph Marra, Principal, the three morning classes are about three minutes longer than the afternoon classes, with lunch (or fifth period), always ninety minutes. After the first semester, this schedule will switch, with the longer periods in the afternoon.

When asked whether he would be any more lenient on tardiness, Mr. Marra said that there was no reason to be; adding that there has been less tardiness this year than last year at this same time. Last year there was five minutes between classes instead of four.

There has been some talk around school about making a petition to try to get the class changes lengthened to five minutes as it was last year. Mr. Marra explained that the office would accept the petition, but it probably could not be changed this school year. If the school day were lengthened, there would be a busing problem because of the time limit to get elementary students. He also adds that the administration is meeting the state law.

Three Cheers for SHS!

by Molly Merrill

The new frosh cheerleaders who will be leading their Quaker team to victory this year are Sue Stone, Kathy Blubaugh, Martha Van Fossan, Chris Juliano, Abi Leija, and Jo Lynn Slocum. Tryouts were held early in September, with a panel of judges. Each girl practiced during the week before final tryouts after school until 5:00, then on September 15, the final six were chosen. Each girl had to do the two cheers "Turn On the Power" and "Hey Hey Hey," plus the Quaker jump.

The new frosh cheerleaders have been busy practicing every other day after school until 4:30. They have come up with their own versions of the cheers "Hello," "Salem," "Tick Tock," "We're Go'in to the Top," and "Let's Give One Big Fight." Their first game was cancelled two times, so Thursday was their first game, which was home. They will be playing Canton Lehman on Oct. 2, and Columbiana on Oct. 9, both at home. They will be playing Canfield, Alliance, and East Palestine away this month.

Miss Stevens is the cheerleading advisor.

Key Club

by Vic Leija

Key Club is a service organization for young men enrolled in high school. Key Club operates under the school's regulations and draws its membership from the student body.

Its goals are the development of initiative, leadership ability, and good citizenship practices. These qualities are encouraged by each member accepting responsibilities in the administration and activities of the club, and by allowing him to use his own initiative in carrying out the project selected by, or assigned to him.

Key Club, not only provides the school with many services which make it a more pleasant place for students as well, but it undertakes various projects for the benefit of the entire community.

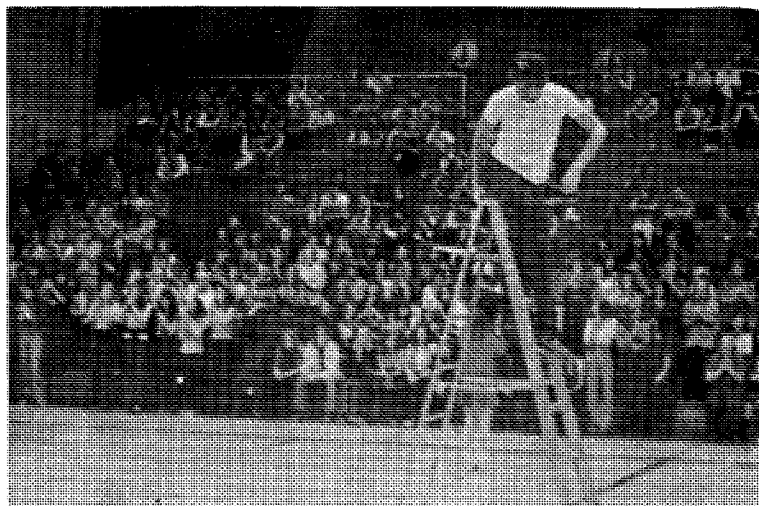

If anyone is interested in joining Key Club, our next meeting is here at the High School, on October 13, 1975. The room 125, across from the cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. We welcome you to come.

Interact

by Bill Bentley

The Salem High Interact Club is once again making plans for another successful year. The club, which has been in existence for nine years, is sponsored by Rotary and has had a high reputation for its activity in scholastic and community affairs. Among the many activities or projects that Interact sponsors each year are the Rotary Exchange Student Program, Rotary Pancake Day, school clean-up, distribution of turkeys to needy families and collection of toys for needy children during Christmas, concession stand, dances, rock concerts, and many more. Any money that is made from these projects goes annually toward the purchase of a gift for the Robert Bycroft School of Mentally Retarded Children.

(NOTE: Invitations for membership into Interact have already been sent out. However, if there is any male student in grades 10-12 who wishes to join, please see the club's adviser, Mr. Bevington, or one of the officers.)

SALEM'S SPIRIT

by Marjorie Ospeck

"We've got spirit yes we do. We've got spirit how 'bout you?" Dressed in black sweaters and shorts, saddle shoes and black knee socks are a group of twenty super spirited girls from the senior class known as the Pepettes. Their job is to reinforce the cheerleaders and stand behind the mighty Salem Quakers raising spirit throughout the student body. They spell out Salem Quakers and are as follows:

S — Sally Kendall, A — Diane Bielski, L — Lori McNeelan, E — Jacque Ellis, M — Lissa Bork, Q — Peggy Koenreich, U — D. J. Jackson, A — Nancy Borkowski, K — Kim Ruark, E — Denise Roberts, R — Nancy Paparodis, S — Abi Chappell. There are also four Quaker Heads who stand on the outside of the letters who are Janie Jesko, Martha Flood, Shar Fitch, and Marjorie Ospeck. The four Alternates are Caryn Skowron, Kathy Tullis, Cacy Capel and

Bobbi Barr. Pepettes do lots of exciting things like decorating the locker room and lockers, making signs for walls, yards and everywhere, get the team popsicles, and performing silly skits at assemblies.

At games they cheer their lungs out and go bananas too. Co-captains this year are Nancy Paparodis and Jacque Ellis. Both of these girls deserve special thanks for all the extra time and effort they have put forth. School spirit is vital in a successful season. The cheerleaders have brought back many new techniques from summer camp to initiate spirit. Some of them are the pie in the face from the ladder trick and the whistle in the hall. These are all to encourage school spirit to its fullest! So yell "We're from Salem, couldn't be prouder" and mean it and strive for a year filled with Quaker Spirit. Show the team Salem's pride by cheering at assemblies and games.

Band

by Tina Saltsman

The Salem High School Band has undergone many changes since Mr. Jeckovitch, the new band director, has come to Salem. The changes began in mid-July when practice started on preparation for the Carnation parade in Alliance. After marching five miles in the parade, the band began getting set for the Lisbon Fair. The biggest change occurred in the last week of August when band camp was held. It lasted for five days from eight till three. On Friday night of that week they celebrated the camp's end with a party.

Now that school is underway, the band practices every day during school, rain or shine, plus two nights a week for two hours, one night at Reilly Field and one at the high school. They are planning on attending the Kent State Band

Salem Senior Drafting Club

A new club has been organized at Salem High School. It is comprised of the seniors involved in Drafting, thus named "The Salem Senior Drafting Club." This past month the club has elected officers for the coming year. They are as follows: President — Ken Foust; Vice - President — John Young; Secretary — Pat Allison; Treasurer — Rick Schwartz; Sergeant-at-Arms — Kevin Gray; Public Relations — Gary Eagleton; Fund Raising Chairman — Tim Anderson.

The S.S.D.C. has already set its first record. They are the first vocational club to become part of V.I.C.A. (standing for Vocational Industrial Clubs of America), an honor to be part of. Not every drafting club gets to be a part of V.I.C.A., and here are a few advantages of being in the club. First of all, the club has a chance to participate in contests held nationwide. Contests involving job application, prepared speaking, outstanding individual achievements and merits. These contests held on four levels: local, regional, state, and national.

V.I.C.A. also holds regional meetings that our seniors will be attending, the first meeting on the 18th of October at Brooklyn High School near Cleveland. At this meeting, regional officers will be elected and goals set for the future year of the new "Salem Senior Drafting Club."

Day on November 8.

The officers this year are: president — Bill Bentley; vice president — George Equizi; secretary — Barb Shinn; treasurer — Amy Cook. This year the band is working toward buying new uniforms. The ones they have now are quite old and are wearing thin. So, the Salem High School Band is on its way to having a completely new and different style.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Make our words gracious and tender for we never know when we may have to eat them.

Student Council

by Cindy Dowd

A picnic at the house of the president, Sally Kendall, to make plans for the year and to welcome the freshmen, made a good start for this year's Student Council. This year's Council is busy and has lots of ideas ready to be put into action. Some of the ideas were brought back from Debbie Baran, Carolyn Boeckling, and Cindy Dowd, who were chosen to represent SHS at a Student Council Camp at Ohio Northern University in Ada, Ohio. They stayed 6 days, June 28 — July 3, in which they exchanged ideas with other Councils all over the state. They had lots of fun and made many friends. The Spirit Chain was one of the many ideas brought back.

This year's Council divided up into different committees, to get more accomplished during the year. Some of these committees are: Concession stand, Ways and Means, Dances, and a committee to help solve the smoking problem. The dance committee along with others in the Council decorated for the Homecoming Dance.

The concession stand, which is open every night after school, is going to be painted soon. Anyone having an idea for painting the concession stand should contact any Student Council member. The members are posted on lists all over the school.

The officers for the 1975-76 year are: President — Sally Kendall, Vice-president — Brad Smith, Secretary — Janie Jesko, and Treasurer — Carolyn Boeckling.

Student Council is doing all it can to help the student body. If you have any suggestion or ideas which the Council could use, talk to one of your class representatives.

M. B. S.

Hi! Here we are again. This is not your average everyday Leprechauns, Lollipops and Roses column because it is not called Leprechauns, Lollipops and Roses. Therefore, we do not want to be associated with Leprechauns, Lollipops and Roses.

say congrats to the new queen Terri Domencetti and her court.

Good luck to the newly chosen Freshmen Rah-Rahs and their football team. The going bananas of the Pepettes has seemed to have lifted the spirits of the school and most of all the team.

As for the time change, why?

Those poor Driver's Ed kids have to get up even earlier AAAAAH!!! Too BAD kiddies. The whole school seems to be running against the clock these days. Four minutes is not enough time. We could barely make it in five last year.

We would like to welcome the new teachers at Salem High this year. All the chicks at Salem High throw out a special welcome to Mr. Fisher.

While buzzin' down the halls of S.H.S. these things were heard . . . Who ya asking? . . . They even put limburger cheese on ya? party, again? . . . alright . . . What's there to do? . . . We didn't get footballs!! . . . We want a victory . . . Seniors got the Spirit Stick!!! Boy Pepettes!!!

Well that's all, Toodles!!

Lyrics

"Breathe"

Breathe, breathe in the air
Don't be afraid to care
Leave but don't leave me
Look around and choose your own ground
For long you live and high you fly
And smiles you'll give and tears you'll cry
And all you touch and all you see
Is all your life will ever be.

Run, Run rabbit run
Dig that hole forget the sun
And when at last the work is done
Don't sit down it's time to start another one

For long you live and high you fly
But only if you ride the tide
And balanced on the biggest wave
You race toward an early grave.

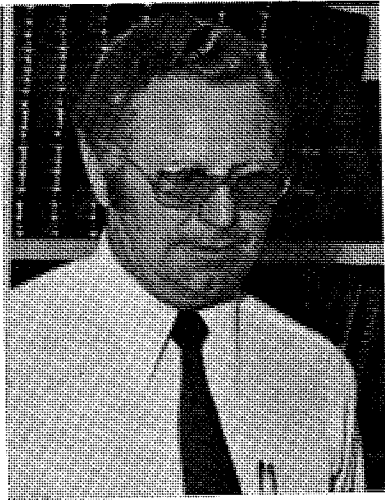

—Pink Floyd

Interview With Mayor Alexander On Curfew

by Doris Fiebiger

Mayor Charles Alexander submitted his veto of the recent curfew ordinance at the council meeting Tuesday, September 16, after delaying as long as he could. Mr. Alexander believes it is the parents' responsibility to know where their children are and that the safety committee should not be worrying themselves with "baby-sitting" as he put it. The fact that Salem's curfew would be different from the rest of the county's also bothered the mayor. When asked for additional comment on the issue, he declined except to re-emphasize what he had already said. "I don't believe in a curfew, and I never have." By vetoing the ordinance he hopes that the youth can enjoy a few more days—at least until late October—before the curfew might become effective. Since he has already vetoed it once, the mayor can not do so again, but is hopeful that the safety committee will re-consider the ordinance.

"While I may be a hero to the kids of Salem, I'm a bum in the sight of the policemen; but I still don't believe we have the manpower to enforce it anyway."

MAYOR ALEXANDER

Play In Progress

by Debbie Conser

The Salem Senior High School Drama Department has chosen the comedy "You Can't Take It With You" as the fall production. The play will be presented November 21 and 22 at 8:00 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

It is the story of the Sycamore family which has been out of touch with the "real world" for many untroubled years. Their private world involves snake collecting, ballet dancing, play writing, making explosives, and others. One member of the family goes about the business of working in the every day world and through her outsiders enter the home. Their entrance disrupts the household and so the excitement begins.

The cast consists of veterans and rookies. Kelly Burgess will be Penny, the main character, Linda Lewis as Essie, Debbie Hrvatin as Rheba, Rick Heiner as Paul, and Kevin Fehr as Mr. DePinna along with many other actors.

Leaders Club

by Cheryl Blubaugh

Leaders Club is now in its second year. It is made up of sophomore and junior girls as of now, and they help or lead the gym class in some way. They are also active in the gymnastic club. The officers for this year are: President — Cheryl Blubaugh, vice-president — Patty Borkowski, secretary — Elaine Grisser and treasurer — Sandra Dunbar, the advisor is Miss Kay Stevens, the new gym teacher.

What Do You Think About "Jaws"?

by Dee Devan

I am sure by now most, if not everybody, has heard, seen, or read about the popular book and movie of "JAWS"! There have been several specials on sharks also more news reports on shark attacks along the coast lines. As in the movie, businesses have lost money and others have profited. Theaters, for one, have been packed every night for every show. There are long lines of excited people waiting to see the "great shark"! The movie was held over for six to seven weeks in Youngstown. Even the last night the theater was packed.

In August, Florida had a shark fishing contest. The sharks that were caught weighed two hundred pounds up to a thousand pounds.

Here are some opinions of people who have seen "Jaws"; Cindy, "It's the best movie I've seen." Molly, "The best movie I've seen in a long time." Nance, "I liked it but it didn't affect me, I went swimming in the ocean anyway." Mr. Esposito, "Great!" Cheryl, "Looks real." Mr. DeBarr, "Loved it!" Sue, "Fantastic!" Betty, "Rates next to the Exorcist." Ed, "I jumped right off my seat." Muzzy, "Great, I liked the part where Quint gets it!" Shar, "I thought it was scary." Kim, "I saw it twice." Nancy, "It will gnaw at you!" Drew, "My arm will never be the same!" Margie, "I was afraid to go canoeing in the lake." Gregg, "I'd pay two and a quarter to see it again." Lois, "It kept me on the edge of my chair!" Gwen, "I did not like it." Bob, "It was O.K." Scott, "It was worth waiting in line for two hours to see it!"

Get a scholarship worth $16,000 to $20,000. But you've got to get going.

If you've got what it takes, you may qualify for a four-year scholarship at one of 58 of the country's leading colleges and universities through the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps (NROTC). This includes all tuition, fees, books, plus $100 per month living allowance—a value, depending on school, of approximately $16,000 to $20,000.

But you've got to get going. Because, to qualify, you have to take one of two tests: the SAT (Scholastic Aptitude Test) or the ACT (American College Test). These tests are given on the following dates this year for the college year commencing September 1976.

SAT Nov. 1
ACT Oct. 18

Coach Davies --- New Coach at Salem High

by Tim Crouse

Mr. Bill Davies has taken over the position previously occupied by Mr. Paul Mentis as Salem High School's head football coach.

He likes Salem and its people and emphasizes the need for enthusiasm about the team in the community.

His first three years of high school football were spent at San Ramon High School in California, where he played halfback. He played for undefeated Bay Village High in New York his senior year.

Following graduation, Coach Davies played baseball and football for Cornell University, where he majored in mathematics and physical education.

After graduating from Cornell, he went into engineering. After a short time he decided he wasn't happy with this work and decided to get into his biggest love, football.

He got his first coaching job as an assistant at Baldwin Wallace College, where he met George Hill, who was later to play an important role in Coach Davies' coaching career. Mr. Hill, was leaving Baldwin-Wallace to coach the defense at Duke University at the time Coach Davies was arriving at Baldwin-Wallace to coach. It was George Hill who arranged the meeting between our new coach and Woody Hayes, the head coach at Ohio State University. Coach Davies was then hired as graduate assistant coach there, where he stayed for two years. He then decided he wanted more responsibility so he put in his applications at small colleges and high schools. He had a chance at getting the head coaching job at Findlay College but, since he liked Salem and Salem liked him, he accepted the job here.

In comparing college coaching with high school coaching, Coach Davies said, "College coaching is more detailed, which means that there is a coach for almost every position on the field. In this way coaches can specialize in certain positions. High school is much more general." He also said, "I had to spend more time on football in college than I do here in Salem." In college he was active in football from 7:30 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. Another point he made is that the "basics are the same in college and high school coaching. In both you have to run, block, tackle, throw, catch, and kick."

His future plans for the team are to have more pre-season scrimmages, to try to build up the schedule, and most importantly to win.

Coach Davies teaches algebra, pre-algebra, and practical math.

Kim Oriole --- That Girl in Cross Country

That's right, there's a girl on the cross country team! Kim Oriole, 14 and a freshman, is making history right here in our very own school. She is the first girl ever to try out and make a place on Salem's cross country team. Being the only female member of the team doesn't bother Kim at all, and since there are no other girls she doesn't create much of a problem as far as locker rooms are concerned. The only thing she doesn't like about it is being interviewed.

Kim's first experience in competition was in the sixth grade when she joined her elementary school's track team. Ever since then she has enjoyed running, but the first time she actually competed in a cross country event was last year when she ran in a Pennsylvania race. Kim says she will keep on running after she graduates from high school and even after college. Being a little bit outgoing and having a positive outlook, she will most likely have a successful record at SHS and later on, too.

Kim lives at 1313 Jennings Avenue with her brothers and sisters and, of course, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis McGhee. At her home, she likes to spend a good amount of her time with her horse whom she calls Abou, which means "son" in Arabian. Other sports Kim likes to take part in are basketball and football. She plans to try out for the Salem girls' basketball team and said, "I wish our school had a football team for girls. That would be neat." She will also probably run the mile for the girls' track team this spring.

Handball and Paddleball

Two sports that are becoming more popular every year are handball and paddleball. These sports can be played anytime of the year.

Handball doesn't sound like the most exciting sport around, but once you play it, it's not as bad as you think. It is a very simple sport to play but it also uses almost every muscle in the body. The game itself is played in a fairly good sized four walled court. There is only one disadvantage in playing handball — getting hit with the ball, because it's almost solid rubber. If you're worried about the hands, there are well padded gloves to wear when you hit the ball. How you play is simple — hit the ball against the wall with your hand. Usually two people play, taking turns hitting the ball, but it is good exercise for just one person too. Handball is guaranteed to get anyone in shape who thinks they're not.

Paddleball is generally the same as handball. It also is played in a four-walled court like handball. The only thing that is really different is that instead of using padded gloves, someone who's playing uses a racket. The rackets look like sawed off tennis rackets. There are two kinds of rackets you can get; the stringed one that looks like a short tennis racket, and the wooden one that's heavier, but better to use.

Both games require a lot of running around, dodging, and ducking. Hand and eye coordination are also important.

So, for those of you sports nuts who want to try something different you might like handball or paddleball. Just watch out!

The Salem fans witnessed a shocker Friday night at the Homecoming game when two Senior boys actually drove for the queen candidates. At this time Strike Three would like to congratulate Terri Domencetti on being crowned Queen. Her escort was Donny Miller.

Strike Three would like to send a fast get well to Coach Davies. In a three week span, Coach Davies has suffered the loss of two front teeth, while demonstrating the proper use of the two man sled. Just recently Coach Davies has come up with a black eye, which resulted from being tackled by one of his own players. Come Christmas time we will all know what Coach Davies will want for a present.

Many of you are probably still recovering from that dynamite mind blowing concert in the auditorium a couple of weeks ago feature "Up With People." They really had the Juniors and Seniors "Rockin and Rollin." The audience almost lost it when "Up With People" played Philadelphia Freedom but the highlight of the concert was when the lead guitarist jumped up and almost smashed his guitar. If they had a couple of smoke bombs, they could have been as good as "Kiss."

Strike Three would like to congratulate Kim and Ken Morrison, Sue Garlock, John Foster, Mario's, Josie's, Greg Equizi, and Mark Callatone for wrecking their cars the past couple of months.

John Foster is still looking for the person who sideswiped his new '76 Capri in a parking lot. Lucky for Greg Equizi that his parents were getting a new car because he totaled their other one. As for Callatone, he wiped out his left front fender but didn't even scratch the paint. How could he do that?

Golf Team Updates

by Ronnie Montrose

Coming off an impressive 12-2-2 record last year, the Salem Quaker Golf Team is off to a slow start this season. The Salem five has compiled a 4-3 record so far this season with two wins over Lisbon and victories over Columbiana, and Sebring. Their losses were to Niles, Labrae, and West Branch.

The varsity golfers include John Foster, Rick Mattix, Jim Kerr, and Alan and Kevin Guechmand. Junior varsity players are Ed Stone, Keith Hochadel, Eric Burk, Jay Hissom, and Doug Meyers. Players lost to graduation last year were Fred Girscht, John Fridon, and Bill Mowery. The Quakers are coached by Chet Tetlow.

The Quakers play their home matches as well as their practice at the Salem Golf Club and will compete in a tournament including all area schools at Avalon Lake's Golf Club in October.

Two years ago area schools began playing their matches in the fall instead of in the spring as had been the tradition in past years. John Foster expressed his feelings about the change, "I don't like playing in the fall as much, because the weather is getting colder instead of warmer. The wind becomes a bigger factor at this time of the year."
