Summer School Information. Students should see Mr. Cabas if they are interested in attending summer school here. Students who need a credit of English I, II, or III must go to West Branch. Registration forms are available from the counselor. For a student to attend West Branch, a letter of approval from Mr. DeLane is necessary.

Seniors: Please inform your counselor where you wish to have your final transcript sent. A final transcript consists of your 12th grade grades and proof of graduation. A final transcript is necessary for colleges and several post-secondary schools.

Seniors interested in Civil Engineering Technology. The Builders Association of Eastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania are sponsoring a tuition scholarship at Youngstown State University. This award is not based on financial need. It is based on past records, references, desire to work in this field. See Mr. Stoffer for more information and an application. The deadline is June 15.

Sophomores, Juniors - The 1979 Teenage Institute on Alcohol and other drugs will be held at Kenyon College Aug. 5 through Aug. 9, 1979. The institute is designed and directed toward high school students who represent today's youth. It is not a rehabilitation or treatment program. The five-day live-in experience provides basic factual and theoretical information. It is hoped that students who attend this will influence and help other youth in their school and community. The deadline is April 30. Please see a counselor for an application and more information. In the past, several students from Salem have participated in this program.

The Ohio Forestry Association is again sponsoring the Ohio Forestry Camp. Two sessions June 10-15 and June 17-22 will be held. Students who attend are sponsored by garden businesses, civic clubs, organizations, etc. The fee is $100 per week. It is suggested that the sponsor pay $60 of this amount and the student the remainder. The Ohio Forestry camp is nationally known as an outstanding experience for young people. Forestry, along with conservation ethics is taught. The camp is held at Hidden Hollow Camp outside of Mansfield.

SPANISH AWARDS

The following Spanish students received awards after participating in the foreign language day contest at Youngstown State University. There were approximately 35 students competing in the third and fourth year Spanish reading contest. Gloria Hays, a Spanish four student came in first place.

In the poster contest Jill Lofland won a second place award. Marjorie Andrade, our foreign exchange student from Ecuador, also won an award in the native competition.

More than 600 students from 30 among these teens and faith is a unior and senior high schools in reality that extends outside the northeastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania competed on April 27 in the sixth annual Foreign Language Day at Youngstown State University. Competition included readings, skits and posters in German, Italian and French, Spanish.

The Cast for "The Sound of Music"

- FRI., MAY 11, 1979 Letters To Editor

Dear Editor,

I would like to compliment the students at Salem High School. I think that students this year were especially nice, well-behaved, better dressed, and more polite than at any time in the nine years I have been at this school. My special appreciation goes to the Senior Class because I believe that they provide leadership in these areas for the rest of the student body. Thanks to everyone for making this a very enjoyable year for me.

The Salem High School Drama and Music Departments will conclude their 1978-79 Season with the critically acclaimed musical, THE SOUND OF MUSIC. One of the most popular and successful of all Broadway musicals, the show was transferred to the screen where it won five Academy Awards including the Best Motion Picture of 1965.

THE SOUND OF MUSIC is a true story. It is based on the memoirs of Maria Augusta Trapp, who as a young postulant, was sent to the villa of Captain von Trap to be governess to his children. Director for the spring musical is Mr. Viencek who met the original Maria several years ago. He remembers her saying that "I fell in love with the children first, then married their father. Later I fell in love with him." The author had a few criticisms of the Hollywood version of her life. She said. "For some reason it was more glamorous to have the family climb over the mountains at the end of the movie and end up in Switzerland. Anyone who knows anything about geography can tell you that we went to Italy.'

Some of Salem High School's finest talent has been selected for the musical. Brenda Pool will play the part of Maria which is the most demanding one in the show; she is on

by Keith Hochadel

What do a track record holder, a beauty pageant finalist, and a Sunday School teacher have in common. They are all one in the same person. Abi Leija, SHS's latest in a string of Teens of the Month, is this person described.

Abi was selected by the Salem News-Kent State Salem Branch committee as May's Teen of the Month. Extra curricular activities play a big part in Abi's life. A Pepette during her senior year, she also played the role of Jean McCormick in Plaza Suite. Abi showed her versatility by also participating on the track team. A four-year member of the squad she holds the school record in the 440 yard dash. Although this season Abi has been hampered by knee surgery, she is now returning to her top form.

In discussing her senior year Abi suggested to others, "During your senior year have as much fun as possible because the year after is when the headaches start." This year Abi was a contestant in the Junior Miss Pageant and placed as the first runner up. Her feelings on the pageant, "It was good because it wasn't a popularity contest. They voted for you as you were as a person." Also this year Abi was nominated for the Basketball Sweetheart Court, an honor she ranks high in her high school career. She was escorted by Jim Stoops. Abi is also enrolled at the Barbizon School of Modeling in Youngstown.

Alabama University will be the starting base of Abi's future. Her ultimate plans are to become a lawyer. Besides studying law at Alabama, she also hopes to try out for cheerleading and run track. Abi hopes to get a job at the county court house so that she can get a better background in law. She is presently employed by Foxmoor at the Southern Park Mall.

Working on the prom as a junior is listed as one of Abi's most enjoyable times. In concluding Abi added the following advice, "I think first of all, do what is right for you as long as it's in the limits of right and wrong. Most importantly, enjoy yourself and have fun."

Dear Seniors:

The end of the 1978/79 school year is rapidly approaching and for most students, this is a welcome and happy occasion. For most of the staff, this is a rather sad time of year. We realize at this time of the year that we will not see many of our students again as members of our student body. Our graduating seniors will "scatter to the four winds," never to be seen again as the class of '79.

I would like to extend my personal best wishes to all the graduating seniors and wish them luck and success in all their future endeavors. We know you will do well, and you may rest assured that we here at school are still on your side. We will be watching each of you as you leave the school and begin your future activities, whatever they might be.

I would encourage you to do your best. Give all that you have, in the way of abilities, toward anything you undertake and you will continue to be successful.

Please return to your school whenever you wish and whenever you can. Each of you will continue to always be a part of Salem City Schools.

Graduating Seniors, we are happy to have been a part of your lives while you have been in school and you have represented your school, your family and yourselves, very well.

We wish you the best of everything and may God Bless You All.

We're proud of Students of Salem!

R. E. Bond, Superintendent

Bond Issue

by Ann Barrette

Coming up once again in Salem is the school bond issue. In June, voters will decide whether or not the 2.9 million dollar levy will be passed.

If this levy were to be passed, a new school plus additions to two other schools would be possible.

The new school, which would replace Prospect, would have five classes each of 4th to 6th graders. The building would contain 19 rooms rather than the 14 at Prospect. The cost would total 1.95 million dollars.

The addition at Buckeye would accommodate a new Kindergarten class, and would include a lunchroom, 2 new classrooms, temperature control for the building, new pavement, and improved windows ($422,000). The Southeast addition would include 5 new classrooms, a lunchroom, and new pavement ($542,000).

A school bond levy has not been passed since the addition to the high school was added in the late 60's. When asked why a levy has not been passed in so many years, assistant superintendent Randy Engle replied 'I feel it's mainly because it's one of the few areas that people have a right to say 'no' about spending their tax dollars."

Students from very far away came to visit the Salem High students on Friday, April 27 which was AFS Day. These students were all from different countries from around the world and are visiting the United States. The students did not come from these different countries for just one day but they have been in the U.S. for about eight months and will be returning after the school year in the summer. All the AFS students are staying in the Salem area. The students are Jose Loureiro from Brazil and is attending West Branch High School and Jose said he enjoyed AFS Day at Salem, John McRoberts is from Rhodesia and is living in Niles, Ohio. Jaime which is pronounced (hi-me) is from the country of Costa Rica and is going to school at South Range High School, and the last one is a student that is from Switzerland and is attending Salem High School and her name is Rita Holderigger. the Wizard of Oz, others see her working hard in the Steno II class, but Sherene Knoedler is also famous for participating in the Miss Northeastern Ohio beauty pageant in Alliance, on Saturday, April 28.

Although she didn't place any firsts in the contest, Sherene feels she "gained a whole lot of knowledge, all about life" in the event.

"It was a lot of fun," Sherene told the QUAKER, but her biggest experience was "the experience of knowing more about the big world out there. Some of the girls did this all the time, it was a business. I met all kinds of people, many were really phony and did about anything just to succeed. It showed me a different aspect of people."

In the contest, Sherene was involved in an interview with judges, "who asked a lot of questions about Salem and the low-income housing," a gown and swimsuit competition and talent. Sherene probably fared best in the talent competition, as she sang "The Way We Were," accompanied by her friend, Cathy Carson.

Sherene found out about the pageant when she read about it in a small ad in the paper. She wanted to find out what it was like to be in a pageant, "after watching Miss America all my life." It was a little more involved than she imagined, "It cost more money than I figured, we

The seniors are busy making the final preparations for their graduation as they look forward to it with great expectations ... especially the graduation parties! They have already picked up their senior announcements and senior key. The seniors have decided upon the senior gift and have also decided to donate $1,000 to the Alumni Fund due to the fact that they have been the richest class Salem High has had. The future of this year's seniors hold various things such as college, jobs, and just bummin' around. Seniors, although the end of your high school years are coming to an end, your future is just beginning. Good luck! Juniors

Congratulations Juniors, it's over - the PROM was a success! This year's juniors have been viciously working on the construction of the prom which everyone liked. Although there were a few fights, at the end everyone joined together to make the prom the paradise that it was. The after-prom also went extremely well. The boat ride was super and the buses were even on time. Along with the prom, some of the juniors have been busy taking the ACT test, registering for classes and making plans for college. As this year ends, the juniors are more excited about being next year's senior class. Good luck juniors, have fun, Besides competing in a beauty contest, Miss Knoedler enjoys collecting sheet music, singing and playing the piano. Salem students may find her on stage in New York City one of these days, as she is very interested in acting and music and one of her dreams is to appear on Broadway. She has proved her talents in this field, in the many plays she has been in: Godspell, Our American Cousin, For the Lions to Win, and The Wizard of Oz. Sherene has also shown talents in public speaking, placing 1st her junior and senior years, and placing 6th in the state competition last year. She is still waiting for the results of this year's state competition.

Going after things seem to be a part of Sherene Knoedler. With her looks, personality, and great talent, the world should look out. This girl is going to be something!

On Trial

by Tim Harp

Are you wondering what is happening in Room 146?

Well, they are preparing to hear pleas. By this it means that the accused person either pleas guilty or innocent. If he pleas guilty, a lesser sentence is handed down, but if the accused pleas innocent and the two attorneys can't come to an agreement then a petit trial is set up in which a twelve-man jury hears the case and then gives their verdict.

Right now Miss Rafferty's classes are not holding the trials, but are preparing for them. These please and/or trials will begin in a couple of weeks.

"They have had about a month to prepare for their cases," said Miss Rafferty.

She also stated that, "Most of the students are involved."

Miss Rafferty has been holding these hearings for three to four years and "the students' reactions have been positive toward them. commented Miss Rafferty.

So now when you hear "guilty" ringing through the halls you know where they are coming from.

Some comments from some of the students:

D.W.: "It's alot of fun and learning at the same time." K.J.H.: "It's good because it'll teach us just what goes on in a trial." M.M.: "Basically understand court system. It is allright." R.S.: "Really fun andI'm judge and can tell anyone to shut up."

Exams

by Jackie Harrold

Once again, the time for semester exams draws near. Because everyone cooperated with the exams in January, they will be conducted in much the same way. The only change The class of 1981 has spent most of in taking the exams this semester is that the seniors will take their exams on the thirtieth and thirty-first of May, and the underclassmen will take theirs on the last two days of school, the sixth and seventh of June. Mr. DeLane commented that he was "surprised" with the way the situation was handled last semester because of the fact that the school has not had to deal with semester exams before. Mr. DeLane himself had semester exams when he was in high school, and he considers them merely a "matter of course." He can't say that he liked or disliked them, but he feels they are an important factor in helping the student prepare for college. He has a philosophy about the exams. "If the student prepares right for the exam, the grade he gets on it should be no different than his other grades for the course." He added that to change a student's grade is not the purpose of the exams.

school a week early, he replied, "At this point no, but the one thing it really depends on is the conduct of this year's senior class." He also added that he would not tolerate any pranks at the end of the year which could harm another person and that measures would be taken against any person who tried one. Mr. DeLane feels that "Mature behavior is treated maturely."

Recognition Assembly

by Walt DeShields

On Friday, May 25, the Salem High School will hold its annual recognition assembly in either the gym or the auditorium. The assembly will begin around 8:15 in the morning and last as long as it takes to hand out the awards.

Bonnie Chandler, the class president, will be introducing the various people that are giving out the awards. The same awards as last year are planned to be given out. The seniors might have to wear their caps and gowns to the assembly, but this is not a fact yet. Some students want to wear their caps and gowns and most do not. It could be an optional thing for the seniors. Mr. DeLane thinks the assembly is good for the students, "During the year the school and paper recognizes the sports and athletes very much, not that that isn't good, but by the same token we need to recognize the academic achievements of the students also. Students should take pride in winning an academic award or a college scholarship as for any achievements they do in life."

Sam's Angels

Hello, S.H.S.! How's everything going? Let's take a look around the school.

Last weekend was the prom. The reports are great so relax Juniors! The waterfall was a tremendous success and the goldfish are still surviving in Mr. Park's aquarium. The after-prom went well with everyone enjoying the cool breeze of the river and the discomania.

The track team goes to sectionals today and the Angels have already done the praying for all individuals involved. The season has gone fairly well for both girls' and boys' teams, although the weather has been extremely cold this season. Good luck to those who make it to districts.

Since the weather has been warming up, the gals are starting to 'lay-out" and get a jump on the summer tan. We've noticed how the guys have started walking through the yards to watch the bikini beauties. There are always crowds in our backyards — ha, ha! (poor) We would like to mention the baseball team. There we just did!

Seniors, are you counting down? There are only twelve days left, Yea!! Have fun at those senior parties. -Toodles!

fact that the senior class gets out of school a week early, he replied "At 1980 Prom: Where Will It Be?

by Jackie Quinn

Those crazy rumors you've been hearing about the junior and senior prom being held at Timberlanes, are not exactly true, but the idea has been brought out into the open.

A few years ago Mr. DeBarr mentioned the idea to Mr. Engle and the juniors-to-be who were all for it, but somehow it didn't work out. Mr. DeBarr quotes, "with all the time, money, and effort put into the prom, we could give the kids something much better." The ideas Mr. DeBarr have, have been discussed, but nothing is definite. It is merely up to the officers for the prom next year.

One of the reasons for wanting to try something new is because of the money put into the prom. An estimate of $2,400 was used this year and half of the students didn't show up until half an hour after the prom started. The juniors worked long and

by Deanna Zorik

If you're an underclassman and plan to go on to college after high school and need a little help towards the payments or have a 3.0 average or above, maybe you could receive a scholarship for the college of your choice. Scholarships are given to seniors who are chosen by a special committee, although this year's winners have not been chosen yet. Scholarships are applied for during the spring of the senior's year.

The local scholarships given by the high school are: the Alumni Scholarship, the Max Fisher Scholarship, the Salem Education Association Scholarship, the Salem PTA (Parent-Teacher Association) Scholarship, and the Business In Professional Women Scholarship., These are handled by the Salem High School guidance counselors. Another local scholarship, which is handled by a local music club, is the Esther Odoran Scholarship. It is given to seniors who are going on in music.

The requirements for the Alumni Scholarship is that you must have at least a 3.5 average. In order to receive the Salem Education Scholarship, you must maintain a minimum of 3.0 during both your junior and senior years. This scholarship also considers your financial needs, teacher evaluations, and any extra-circular activities you have participated in.

So if you're interested in any of these scholarships, see your counselor for more details on them. hard to make a beautiful prom for the seniors and they did, but is all the work really worth it?

The idea Mr. DeBarr has for next year is a bit like this: all of the students have an opening dinner at a very nice restaurant, with soft music playing while eating, then after the meal, have the band start and ENJOY yourselves! The students could have a much better band without too much worrying of costs, and a gorgeous dinner, probably half the price! How's that sound, guys???

One thing that really ticked me off was that the day before the prom about 75 students were willing to get out of class and help set things up, but come the morning after, less than half of them were willing to clean up!" remarked Coach DeBarr. That's another thing concerning the prom for next year.

This year's prom was one not to be forgotten by our seniors. One more special thanks to the juniors and hopefully next year your prom will be even better!

Prom

by Don Whitney

Friday, May 4, was a night to remember for the Juniors and Seniors who attended this year's prom. Nearly 300 students were present. The theme was "Two Tickets to Paradise," and the high school cafeteria truly was "Paradise." Everyone danced to the music of "Steppin' Out" from 9-12:00. At 12:00 the students rushed home to change into something more comfortable and hurried back to the high school to catch Greyhounds for Pittsburgh. At Pittsburgh, students boarded a party liner, a boat which cruised on the Ohio River. Everyone returned home at 8:00 exhausted from an exciting evening. A few comments made about the prom were:

J.M. - "It was good, but the group was poor."

G.C. — "The Juniors did a good job. I was impressed with the entrance and decorations, but we still had the best prom."

D.M. — "The whole evening was great. I had a fantastic time.'

W.D. — "It went fast. They needed food for the after-prom."

P.W. — "It was much better than last year's."

A.B. — "I thought the Juniors did a really great job.'

TO EVERY TEEN-AGER

Always we hear the plaintive cry of the teen-agers: "What can we do? Where can we go?"

The answer is . . . GO HOME! Hang the storm windows, paint the woodwork. Rake the leaves. Mow the lawn. Shovel the walk. Wash the car. Learn to cook. Scrub the floors. Repair the sink. Build a boat. Get a job.

Early in February, sophomores ordered their class rings which should be coming in on May 16, of next week. The recent candy sale began at the beginning of May and ran for two weeks. As the time goes on the sophomores will be getting ready for the semi-formal tomorrow night which will be disco this year. Gals, get your short dresses out and guys climb into those nice suits - and have fun.

Freshmen

Freshmen, you deserve a round of applause. Your first year at SHS is almost over. The semi-formal will be exciting and everyone is nervous. It's your first dressy dance. Overall this year's freshmen have been trying to organize themselves for the next three years. Those years will go quicker than you all think. Good luck at SHS and enjoy it while you can.

With the high school tennis season in full swing now, the Salem netters are in the thick of competition for the Mahoning Valley Conference crown.

Mr. Ritchie, the mentor of the Salem squad, stated that Poland and Warren JFK would be the teams to beat this season. With the Quakers at 3-2 in conference play at this point, Coach Ritchie stated, "We're right in there" in regard to the team's chances for an MVC title.

The team from Salem will play a 16-game schedule this season after two games were cancelled to shorten the regular 18-game slate. When asked for a prediction for this year's record, Coach Ritchie said, "It would be nice if we could go 13 and 3 or 12 and 4."

Mr. Ritchie stated that, "There will be some big shoes to fill next year," when asked how the loss of two strong senior players, Jim McQuilkin and Randy Smith, will affect the team next year.

Coach Ritchie explained that the singles and doubles spots on the team are determined by a tournament at the beginning of the practice season. The top three play varsity singles and the next four pair up for varsity doubles matches, and so on for the reserve team. Doubles players and reserve players can advance to singles or varsity play by playing challenge matches with other members of the squad.

Practices are held on Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays at Centennial Park. Matches are also held at Centennial on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays, usually.

The Quaker wishes the Salem Netters good luck in the upcoming season.

Baseball Team After MVC Crown

by Pat Weldon

The Salem Quaker varsity baseball team has compiled a surprising 8-2 record (as of this writing) early in the season. Despite a few games having been rained out, the team had done very well thus far, and has a seven-game winning streak.

The general opinion of the players concerning the season so far, has been that they did get off to a slow start, but they are coming around now.

Which game was most important for the Ouakers, according to senior Clyde Wolfgang? "The Liberty game in which we won 13-7." And which was your most exciting? "Again, Liberty, because we had to come from behind and it was a league game." What are his feelings about the rest of the season? "If we keep playing to our potential, a winning record and a MVC championship are possible.'

Just how close is the MVC title from the grasps of the Quakers? Junior, Scott Smith had this to say, "We have a very good chance at the MVC championship. Canfield should give us the most trouble, but I am confident we can win it all."

The important question in everyone's mind about next year's team is, what effect will the tournament play.

graduation of so many seniors do to the team? Also, what is the basic outlook for next year? Junior Tom Wright commented on the subject. "I think we will have a strong infield and outfield but lack in pitching."

Scott Smith was asked the same question and replied. "We'll probably be hurt most with pitching and experience, but the way the underclassmen and reserves have played so far, we should have a good team."

And what do next year's prospects look like to Clyde Wolfgang? "With the seniors graduating, it leaves a relatively inexperienced team for next year, but there are some good reserve players coming up.'

Tom Wright was also asked the same question and he replied, "I think we will have a good strong outfield and infield, but may lack a little in the area of pitching."

And just how are the reserves doing this season? Well, out of four starts and despite many rainouts, the J.V.'s have a 3-1 record. The three wins have come because of excellent pitching. They have compiled two 1hitters, and one no-hitter.

We at the OUAKER would like to wish the best of luck to both teams for the rest of the season and in

Joe Hartzell: Marathon Man by Don Isaacs

The main ingredients in becoming a marathon runner is determination and stamina, and these are found in a Salem High School athlete by the name of Joe Hartzell.

On April 16, 1979, Joe ran in the most famous of all marathons, the Boston Marathon. Joe qualified for the Boston by placing one-hundred forty-eighth out of almost three thousand in the Cleveland Revco Marathon last May.

In the Boston it took Joe about seven minutes just to reach the starting line because of the some ten thousand runners that crowded the street. Not only did the start slow Joe down, but he said, "The weather conditions, which were 39 degrees and cold rains, just wasn't what I like to run in. I prefer to run in temperatures near 55 degrees, but I have no control over the weather." "I was really pleased with the way I ran," Joe said. "The main reason is because the course was tougher than my time, which was 2:54:29, by five minutes. The time, 2 hours 54 minutes 29 seconds, was good enough to get Joe a place of somewhere between 1700 and 1800, he wasn't sure because they haven't sent him his final finishing papers yet. Whatever finish he gets, Joe just did a tremendous job in finishing.

to New Philadelphia for the Mini Relays. The team came back to Salem with a fourth place mark.

The Quakers then began one of the hardest weeks of their workouts as they were looking forward to another County Championship Title. The boys started their week with the F.E. Cope Relays held at Salem. Many area teams, Alliance, Howland, Hubbard, Youngstown East, and Marlington competed.

The men of the Red and Black really showed alot of fans at Reilly Field much more than they expected as they won their ninth Columbiana County Championship Title. Many people were saying the Quakers would go down in defeat this year to East Palestine or East Liverpool.

The Cindermen had their last duel meet they were defeated by West Branch.

Now coming to the end of the season, the Red and Black finished second in the MVC Championship Meet and they now move on to the Sectionals, Districts, and then State.

Congratulations guys, on a job well done throughout the entire season.

This issue of Sportsworld would like to end this interesting article by saying congratulations to all those lucky Seniors which will be turned out to the world in one month. Good luck, Seniors, in all your future plans.

SPORT SCENE

Welcome to another fantastic article of Sportsworld. As you must have noticed we headlined this page on the last issue. This was due to our superior column which is without a doubt better than any column in the whole paper including those "janitors."

Sportsworld would like to congratulate all the spring sports on all their fine records. Tennis, baseball, and track are all doing exceptionally well and we at Sportsworld wish these teams all the best in the rest of their respective seasons.

The tennis team is now 8-3 and will be participating in a sectional tournament. This team is 3-2 in the MVC and will play the remainder of their schedule after the sectional tournament. This is the finest record in the history of Salem tennis. The columnists at Sportsworld would like to congratulate all those netters on their successful season.

The track team turns in another fine and successful season. They were defeated only by West Branch which was a 5 point deficit. This year's team continued Salem's domination of the County Track Meet. The nearest competitor was East Palestine which wasn't even within reach of the Mighty Quakers' Track team. Keep up the good work and good luck in future meets.

Baseball will turn in a very fine record and a most promising season. This year's team, now at 8-2 is rolling over all the MVC teams. The team is undefeated in the Mahoning Valley Conference play. The baseball team traveled to Youngstown on May 7, to compete in sectional tournament play and was defeated by a tough, Cardinal Mooney team. Again, Sportsworld would like to congratulate this fine team on an outstanding season.

We now would like to take a glance at the professional basketball tournaments. The Washington Bullets are turning in fine performances everywhere they play. This team knocked off the Atlanta Hawks in the final seventh game. The Philadelphia 76'ers are making a drive at the final game in the Basketball World Championship Game. We at Sportsworld pick the Washington Bullets to walk away with the title.

This reporter asked Mr. Hartzell about his future plans as a marathon runner and he had this to say, "The marathon runner reaches his peak between age 26 and 30, so I have alot of years before I reach my peak and in the meantime I'll keep training and running in races.

After the Boston race, Joe and his
