

Senior Spotlight

by Julie Sebo

Three of Salem's finest athletes are members of this year's senior class. They have led their area in sports since they were freshmen. This week's QUAKER is doing a profile on three outstanding seniors: Tammy Bailey, Kirk Lowdermilk, and Tom Scullion.

The 5'7" starting forward for Salem's girls' basketball is Tammy Bailey. Tammy has been a varsity starter since her freshman year. She has received various awards during her high school years. During her sophomore year she was named All-State Honorable Mention and was voted All-County. In her junior year she was named All-State Special Mention and Salem News Player of the Year. When asked about her opinion of support for girls' basketball she replies, "I was pleased with the support last year, and I hope it continues on through this season." Tammy feels the schedule this year is very competitive. She is looking forward to meeting up with Akron St. Vincent, two-time state champions. Tammy plans to go to college and play on the basketball team.

credits to his high school sports. He is involved in football, wrestling, and baseball. Kirk has played football all through high school. This year he was chosen as co-captain to the football team. Kirk was named Lineman of the Year, All-County Lineman, and Salem News Lineman of the Year. During his wrestling career he has wrestled three different weight classes. This year he is the heavyweight. When asked about his opinion of the support for wrestling this year he says, "The support has been pretty good." He also feels this year's schedule is really tough.

Tom Scullion, starting forward, is of the finest that has passed through Salem High. Tom is a veteran to the varsity court, he has been a varsity starter since his sophomore year. His freshman year was spent on reserve. During his high school sports career, he has received many awards. In his sophomore year he was named Outstanding All-County. Tom was asked what he felt about this year's basketball schedule he says, "The schedule is one of the toughest yet." He feels the support is really good this year, and he hopes it continues for the rest of the season. Tom is planning to go to college and play basketball.

A big part of the success of our school sports is owed to these three people. They have been outstanding in each of their own areas. We hope they have all the luck and success they all deserve.

Friendship

by Lisa Vaughn

Do you know you are somebody? I know you are because you are going to go far.

Your friendship to me is very dear and I really care.

I hope our friendship means the same to you as it does to me.

Our friendship has been long and lasting and I hope it lasts alot longer. for we are two that are as one.

Basketball Sweetheart Crowned

by Christy Pugh

The crowning of Ann Vaughn as basketball's sweetheart queen, escorted by Tim Kenreigh, was announced at Salem's victory over Marlinton, 66-55, on November 21.

Anne has been active throughout her four years of high school. She has been a cheerleader for four years and currently co-captain on the Varsity squad. Anne is treasurer of the senior class and secretary of student council. Her exciting experience was getting accepted to go to Girls' State.

Wendy Ellis, last year's basketball sweetheart queen, did the crowning on Nov. 21.

While interviewing Anne, here are some questions asked, and her comments about them.

Interviewer — What were your first thoughts when they announced your name? How did you react?

Anne — I was shocked and had trouble walking to get the flowers. My reaction was, "Who, me?!"

Interviewer — Was this a very special occasion for you and will you always remember it?

Anne — This occasion was very special and super for me. I will always remember that night because it was the highlight of my senior year.

Interviewer — If there was one comment you would have said to the student body, what would it have been?

Anne — My comment would have been, I am very proud to represent this senior class at the Salem High School and thank you all.

Interviewer — What are your comments about the dance and did you like the group "Glider Sleeve"?

Anne — I really didn't listen to the group, however I did enjoy myself. I was presented with a gold sweetheart bracelet from the pep club. I really appreciated it.

Interviewer — Do you have anything to say that you wish could be changed for next year's basketball sweetheart crowning?

Anne — My only suggestions are dimming the lights and a microphone for the queen to say some kind of appreciation and thanks.

Interviewer — What are your future plans?

Anne — I would possibly like to attend Bowling Green and go into pharmacy.

White Christmas Dance

by Joyce Long

DESPITE PERSISTING RUMORS, THE WHITE CHRISTMAS DANCE HAS NOT BEEN CANCELLED. "Everything is pretty much under control. We'll be ready for the 26th," was tri-chairman, Barb Wolfgang's comment.

The White Christmas Dance Committee had its first meeting last spring. Since then, the juniors and seniors have come up with many ideas and plans. Diane Roberts is their advisor.

THE DANCE WILL BE HELD DECEMBER 26th AT THE MASONIC TEMPLE FROM 9:00 TO 12:00. THE COST IS $7.00 PER

"Quaker Quotes"

by Heidi Knoedler

Many people say things over and over again. Probably because they like the way it sounds or because it gets their meaning across to other people. There are many reasons why they say these things over and over again. It could be that they are in the habit of saying a certain verse or word.

Many people in our school have a certain saying, like for instance Mr. Esposito is always saying, "Use the example of the man jogging on his hands," or Mr. Turner saying, "You're getting a little loud."

Here are many more expressions that students and teachers in our high school say:

Mr. Viencek — "That's trite."

Mr. Bennett — "Aanndd again."

Mrs. Jeckavitch — "This stinks!"

Mr. Jeckavitch — "Kapish" and "Am I speaking English?"

Junior guys — "Go Quakers."

Mrs. Miller — "Art, I'm going to call your father," and "You're nutso."

Mrs. Eckstein — "I can do that in my head," and "There's no such animal."

Sue Stoops — "Oh my God!"

Kim Roher — "Marci, can I use your hair spray?" and "Beth, can I use your vent brush?"

Junior girls 5th period lunch — "Does anyone have any gum?"

Mrs. May — "Don't forget to push your chairs in."

Mr. Parks — "Quite frankly people" and "Good Biology students will remember that!"

Chemistry students — "When's the retest?"

Mr. Powers — "This is not a beauty parlor."

Mrs. Miles — "This... room... is... entirely... too... noisy..."

Marcia Pool — "You... face mongrel."

Mrs. Loria — "No problem is there."

Cheri Galchick — "Pop you."

Dee Schaefer — "That's rank."

Marci Smith — "Nobiggie."

COUPLE. Girls who are on the committee and have paid their $10.00 fees will get in free with their date. A PHOTOGRAPHER FROM CRESTLINE WILL BE THERE TO TAKE PICTURES DOWNSTAIRS FOR A $6.00 CHARGE. This price includes two 5x7 photos and 8 wallet-size. The committee has a contract with the band, "THE EDGE" to play many slow songs.

The theme for the dance is "ICE CASTLES." The decorations will consist of 5 or 6 Christmas trees, one mural, several wreaths and a possible trellis. The table decorations will be of a blue and silver color scheme. The mural will be a castle with an ice pond and skaters. The background for pictures will look like a castle throne room.

There will be 10 female servers dressed in skating jumpers and white blouses. The 10 male servers will wear suits. Cookies and punch will be served.

A man and his wife, commonly dressed in red, will travel here from the North Pole to be special guests.

The senior committee officers are: Tri-Chairmen — Barb Wolfgang, Diane Morey and Darleen Beachler, Decorations — Gab and Joanna Totani, Tables — Marcie Keeler, Refreshments — Lauri Fisher, Background — Lynn Lofland, and Programs — Linda Martens.

The past money-raising projects include pop bottle drives, car washes, pie sales, a rollerskating party, and a raffle. The winners of the raffle will be notified today. First prize is dinner for two at Timberlanes, second is a gift certificate with Theiss-Lipe Flowers and third is a gift from Mary Kay Cosmetics.

Choir Concerts Held By SHS Students

by Lori Barker

The annual Salem High School Christmas concert was enjoyed by all in attendance. It was held last Sunday afternoon in the auditorium with both the concert choir and Chamber Choir performing. The Chamber Choir was featured in the middle of the 60-minute program. They performed such numbers as Bring A Torch Jeanette Isabella, Caroling, Caroling, O Harken Ye, and The Twelve Days of Christmas. The Concert Choir which took up most of the program sang some old favorites such as Joy to the World, Silent Night, Angels We Have Heard On High, and The Christmas Song. They also performed concert

Christmas Wishes

by Vicky Borkowski

Have you all been good boys and girls this year? If you haven't, Santa might not bring you what you want. Anyway, what do you want for Christmas? I received a number of different answers when I asked "what would you like to see under your tree on Christmas morning?"

Marci P. — A stretching machine so I can stretch my body to 6'2" so I can do some slam dunks in basketball.

Renee C. — A new car, a new set of tires, and a pair of heels to improve my height.

Kim G. — Two diamond rings, a Mercedes Benz, three minks, my own apartment, and of course, the man of my choice.

Doug R. — Two tickets to an AC/DC, Ted Nugent concert being held at the SHS auditorium and my baby Tiger.

Laurie S. — A Pinto with "POWER."

Joyce L. — An opal ring. (Get the hint Scott?)

Liz G. — A black Trans-Am with the hunkiest of all hunks sitting in the driver's seat.

Mr. E. — For the New York Jets to have a winning season again sometime in my lifetime.

New Year's Resolutions

by Nancy Strojek

With 1981 less than a month away we thought it would be appropriate to find out what some people are going to do or try not to do. I asked "what is your New Year's resolution?"

Janice Delp — "To forget the past."

Dave Higgins — "Not to drink and drive."

Rob Chaffin — "To be more consistant on my history tests."

Kim Gerber — "To improve my memory and become more responsible."

Joyce Long — "To do better on my school work and get all A's."

Vicky Borkowski — "Give up green M&M's."

Julie Sebo — "To be an all around pleasant person."

Jeff Soldo — "Learn a good guitar lead."

Christy Pugh — "To avoid trite expressions and get good grades in college writing."

Shari White — "To become good friends with Mr. Morris."

Bonnie Bowker — "To study harder and get straight A's."

Liz Gatchel — "To get to school on time and not to have to sprint in every day."

numbers such as Adoramus Te Christe; Baloo, Lammy; All On a Christmas Morning and Every Valley. Steve Pridon performed a piano solo at the end of the Chamber Choir performance.

Mrs. Jeckavitch said, "I was very pleased with your performance," Monday morning after the concert.

The Chamber Choir which consists of 19 select voices has performed in many organizations around town. Some of the places they have gone are the Sheltered Workshop at Robert Bycroft School, the Elks, the Golf Club, Timberlanes, and the Memorial Building.

Wrestling Results

by Dave Higgins

The Salem wrestlers are off to a fine 5-1 record coming off an 8-4 record last year. The Quakers, with eleven returning lettermen, started off the season with a win in the opening contest against the Dukes of Marlinton.

The Quakers then traveled to Massillon for a quadrangular match against Massillon Jackson, Akron Central Hoover and Canton Central Catholic. Salem was awarded a forfeit win over Akron. Then they beat Canton 39-27, and then lost their first and only match of the season to hosting Massillon Jackson, 42-18.

Girard invaded the Quakers' gym only to be turned back 57-15. Salem's victory was lead by seven pins from Kevin Linam (98), Mark Riffie (126), Dennis Twaddle (132), Brian Davidson (145), Rob Kaufman (167), Ken Walters (185), and Kirk Lowdermilk (HWT).

The Quakers then hosted the second annual Salem Invitational Tournament in which they placed second only to Louisville. The Quakers had seven wrestlers finish in the top four. Finishing first were Mark Riffie, Ken Walters, and Kirk Lowdermilk. Riffie and Lowdermilk are the only two Salem wrestlers who are undefeated. Also placing in the tourney for Salem were Mark Slocum, Brian Davidson, and John Hutton, all coming in second. Dave Barrett placed third and Dennis Twaddle placed fourth.

This weekend the Quakers will travel to Hubbard for the Eastern Ohio Tournament. The Quakers won't be home again until February 6, hosting Boardman.

Fourth year head coach Fred Kunar says he is happy with the season so far. Although Coach Kunar is happy with the fan support, he stated, "More student body is needed at the matches."

The Quaker reserves are also enjoying a fine season at 2-0. They have defeated Marlinton and Girard.

In the Salem Invitational the Quakers finished fourth out of seven schools. Brad Klosterman and Jeff Kantz placed first in their respective weight classes for the Quakers.

The freshmen are 0-2, losing their first two matches. They lost to Austintown Fitch 45-32 and to Hubbard 27-42.

Boys' Basketball Team Working Hard

by Rob Chaffin

The 1980-81 boys' basketball teams are playing well. As Mr. Ziegler's reserve team is flying high with a 3-0 record, the varsity continues to play very well, also, but only to lose their last two games against state powerhouses by 1 point. I asked Coach Hackett how they can play so well and yet fall so short. Here was his reply. "Well I think the reason for this is our inexperience. We have been playing so well but unfortunately we have not been coming out on top." The varsity now stands at 1-2 and have not yet played in the M.V.C. Coach

Hackett also said that his team has made mistakes in the latter part of their two 1 point losses. "These mistakes in the latter part of their game have been made because of inexperience." Against South in the fourth quarter we were up by 5 points and shot only 3 for 12 from the field.

Coach Hackett is pleased with his team's performance thus far in this young season. The Quakers have been showing a lot of hustle and determination even though they have lost 2 out of their last 3 games. As the Quakers wait for Ambridge, Pa. to come into town they are in for another tough ball game. Ambridge came in fourth place out of all the Pa. teams last year. They also made it to the regionals before being knocked off. They are off to a 5-0 mark this year. Their previous game they beat Midland, Pa, by 25 points. Another showdown for the Quakers.

The two freshmen teams are just starting their seasons. The red team hosted Beaver Local on Dec. 11 for their first win in as many outings. They are coached by student teacher Mr. Solterbeck. Mr. Solterbeck said this about his team. "We do not yet have a true shooter, but with our defensive play and our overall size we should have a very fine season. The red team shot 31% from the field but still handled Beaver Local 55-32. Mr. Tetlow's black team lost their first game by 4 points, but there was no further information given at the time the article was written.

We also have a correction on the Varsity basketball schedule. The game that was originally scheduled for December 27 at Ravenna has been changed, due to the Ravenna teacher strike. The Quakers will play at home on the 27th of December against Claymont High. This will be a regular season game. The reserve game will start at 6:00. Good luck to all basketball teams in your seasons.

Tribute To Lennon

by Jeff Soldo

John Lennon was slain by Mark David Chapman Monday night, December 8, 1980. This was the first assassination of a rock star. Lennon will be remembered for being a member of The Beatles and by the numerous songs he wrote.

Before John Lennon joined The Beatles as a rhythm guitarist, he was a member of Johnny and the Moondogs. Together with Paul McCartney, Ringo Starr and George Harrison they formed the super band of the 60's called The Beatles. The album, "Rubber Soul" was their first successful album. After the Beatles performed for the first time on national television singing "I Want to Hold Your Hand," Beatlemania blasted off.

John Lennon became bored with the title of rock star and resented being owned by producer. About this time, 1966, he met Yoko Ono in a London gallery. Lennon soon fell in love with her and wanted to leave the public life and spend all his time with her. This news spread and Yoko Ono received tons of hate mail from Beatle fans because she was about to destroy "their" band. Lennon was ready to leave the band before he met her; she did not ruin The Beatles. John Lennon wrote about the hard times he and Yoko went through in the song, "The Ballad of John and Yoko."

John Lennon also wrote a philosophy book titled, "In His Own Right." His main philosophy was for people to try and accomplish their dreams and not to wait for anyone else to do it. He stated, "All the roads lead to Rome. And people can not provide it for you. I can't wake you up. I can't cure you. You can cure you."

John and Yoko came back into the public scene with their album "Double Fantasy." The album contains an equal number of songs by Yoko Ono and John Lennon. The best song on the album is "Watching the Wheel go Round." He tells of his pleasurable life out of the view of the public.

Their comeback was shattered by a disillusioned gunman. Chapman was ironically a "firm" Beatle fan. Lennon's body was cremated and a silent vigil was held at two o'clock Eastern Time Sunday, December 14, 1980. Lennon's constructive life will be remembered by many.

Basketball Team Sets Goal

by Wendl Browne

"Most people think that our team, this year, can't meet the same goals as last year, but I think with our hard work at practice and wanting to win, we can go further this year. Right now we'll take one game at a time and work our way up." This comment by Marcy Paster proved true after Salem's upset over Alliance, Friday night by a score of 70-28.

The Salem Girls' Varsity team now holds a 3-0 record. Their first win came over Louisville by a score of 70-55. Coach Readshaw feels that the team is utilizing the fast break and the press in combination with their talented shooting ability to dominate over their opponents.

When asked about the strong points and weak points of this year's team, Coach Readshaw stated, "Our strong points are the fast break and our good shooting ability. Also we work hard on physical conditioning and believe strongly in ourselves. Our biggest weak point is our passing."

The Salem reserves hold a 2-1 record. They lost their first to Louisville, 22-26. Friday they easily beat Alliance by a score of 33-11.

The question on everyone's mind is whether the team will be able to do as well as they did last year. Coach Readshaw commented, "I think we have the potential, it's just a matter of the younger players jelling together with the veteran players to work together."

Heavenly Hints

by Laura McCabe

In the last edition of "The Quaker" there was an opinion poll on our content. Your suggestions were accepted warmly by our staff, and since we now know what you readers want to see, we will be happy to comply with your wishes.

Two of the suggestions we received were an Ann Landers type column and Bible quotes. I thought that it would be interesting to combine the two, so here is the first in a series of articles to help you get through rough times and hard feelings.

Dear Heavenly Hints,

Last year a friend of mine, let's call her Meg, lied to me about a mutual friend. It hurt me a lot and it still makes me mad when I think about it. I miss Meg's friendship, but I'm not sure how to patch up our differences. Do you have any suggestions? Just sign me HURT.

Dear Hurt,

Be angry and yet do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and do not give the devil an opportunity. Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. (Eph. 4:26, 27, 31).

A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger. A hot-tempered man stirs up strife, but the slow to anger pacifies contention. (Prov. 15:1).

A man's discretion makes him slow to anger, and it is his glory to overlook a transgression. (Prov. 19:11).

Never pay back evil for evil to anyone. Respect what is right in the sight of all men. If possible, so far as

Mrs. Powers To Retire

by Mark Berger

The Salem Board of Education recently accepted the resignation of Mrs. Powers who teaches Junior Clerical Intensive Office Education (I.O.E.).

Mrs. Powers, along with her husband, is moving to Charlotte, North Carolina. The company for which her husband works, Nash International, which is a division of the Alcoa Company, has transferred him to a new job there.

Mrs. Powers has taught in Salem High School for 8 years and this year has 14 students, all girls, in her class. She stated that "getting organized" will occupy her time at first and that she will probably be teaching in her new location.

The Quaker staff would like to express our "best wishes" to Mrs. Powers and her husband in their new location.
