Messages to retirees

Mr. Allen: Good luck in retirement. We will miss our interesting second floor chats. Bring back Spongebob. Love P and D.
 Mr. Allen: Enjoy retirement! Hey what are you going to do with all of your "work clothes" now that you don't need to dress up for work anymore. Jody McCracken
 Mr. Allen: You will be so missed during 5th period lunch on Fridays. No one to harass us, oh what will we do. Congrats on your retirement. The 5B Lunch Group

Mr. McDevitt: I can't believe you are retiring. You were here for me my first year teaching and I will never forget how much you helped me. Good luck and enjoy retirement.
 Mr. McDevitt: Good luck in retirement. We will miss our John Wayne around here. Round em up and ride em out cowboy.
 Mr. McDevitt: I'm sorry you are leaving. Hold on to the good memories you have of this place. Many of us certainly have good memories of you. Enjoy your retirement. I wish you the best. M. Dye ☺

Mrs. Dohar: You have been a true friend and our inspiration. We admire, respect, and love you. You have been like a second mom to us both. Don't forget the good times and remember the job "haz our backs." Love Tracy and Tara.
 Mrs. Dohar: What can I say? You were one of my favorite teachers and then one of my favorite colleagues. You have a contagious smile and laugh that I will miss. Thank you for all of your technical advice and "life" advice. Enjoy retirement and God bless. Love, Jody McCracken

Mrs. Dohar: There is not enough space on this page for me to even begin to send you a parting message. Thank you for your assistance, your patience, your kindness, and for letting me vent, vent, and vent some more! I know you'll never forget the times we laughed about and cried about, and, oh yes, that poster girl with the moustache! You are truly a wonderful, wonderful FRIEND! M.D. ☺

Mr. Turner: I wish you well. Thanks for being a great teacher to me and a great colleague. – Mrs. McCracken
 Mr. Turner: There are no words. Good luck in retirement and enjoy the sandy beaches!
 Mr. Turner: Where is Barbara Walters when you need her – she always said she could get those tough interviews. Thanks for all the years of "Moie Day" serenades. – M. Dye ☺

Mrs. Ward: Congratulations on retirement. Enjoy your time with your sweet grandson. Mrs. McCracken
 Mrs. Ward: We will miss you very much next year along with all the laughs. Mrs. Smith will never forget you and neither will we. Love Tracy and Tara.
 Mrs. Ward: Our lunches on Friday just won't be the same without you! We had some great conversations, especially about Jerry! Have a great retirement. The 5B Lunch Group.
 Mrs. Ward: Best wishes as you retire. Enjoy your free time and that beautiful grandson of yours! M. Dye ☺

Mr. Don Turner

Declined interview.
