Ethan Peppel: Listen to Lionel Richie and Waka Flocka every day.

Mallorie Davidson: Everyone says it's sad when it's over, and it truly is! Enjoy it!

Aaron Vorkapich: My name is Ace. Remember that. That's my advice to you.

Hannah Rohrabough: Enjoy high school while it lasts because it's sad when it's over.

Lindsey Foster: 1. Keep an open mind 2. Take as many classes with Motz, Dobosh & Spack Daddy as possible 3. Take some risks.

Ryan Bush: Make a time capsule freshman year so you can open it as a senior.

Austin Frank: Don't take High School for granted, take more AP courses, try something new like a group or sport.

Abrahm Zugelj: Money gets you everything here.

Lauren Stout: It's not worth it to want to fit in with a certain "Clique" or group of people. Be yourself and the right people will come to you.

Brandon Dustman: Don't set a rat trap and tape it under Kibler's desk... Because even though it's hilarious you get in a lot of trouble.

C.J. Bloor: Nothing is impossible and when the chips are down keep on chippin'

Danielle Ryan: Take the time to meet and be with many other people and make memories for others to remember as well and always go all out, you just might mean everything to someone else.

Brenden Webb: Bring a pencil to class so you don't get stuck writing with Carson's pink pen every day on Sami's paper, and... have a fight club

Heather McClasky: Participate, believe, and ultimately be you. High school is not forever.

Liz Greathouse: Don't listen to what people have to say about you. They won't be important after high school, so don't make it important now. You make your own decisions.

Mike Madison: There's an underground tunnel.

Michael Gagnon: It's high school, nothing is permanent. Don't make a big deal over the little things.

Missy Muniz: Everyone is going to judge you so don't be afraid to be you. Give them something great to hate you for.

Christopher Finley: Start taking classes seriously early on. If you wait it gets harder to take then as serious as you should. Get decent grades but not at the expense of being happy.

Faith McGuire: You will make friends, lots actually, but at the end of the day you truly can NOT trust anyone but yourself. So stay true.

Sarah Bobby: Don't wish it away. Time does go by so fast so enjoy it every second. Don't procrastinate! Don't regret anything because it helped you become the person you are today. Don't be afraid to try!

Jansen Meals: Take Kent classes. You get college credit and you can come into school late.

Niki Slaven: Cherish your senior year and make good use of your time. It goes fast.

Ellen Walp: Don't let anyone else's opinion of you affect how you view yourself. Odds are, you won't even remember their names five years from now.

Anthony Shivers: Enjoy the ride.

Allison Moore: To always try new things and give everything a chance.

Lindsay Barth: Life is too short to worry about stupid little things.

Keaton O'Brien: I've learned that when it comes to sports, leave it all on the field. You may never play sports after high school and if you're lucky enough to it will not be anything like playing with the kids you've grown up with.
