On October 7, 1988 there was excitement in the air as the 1988 annual homecoming was about to take place. The stands were packed with students, alumni students, and parents. When the procession of the seven girls and their escorts took place, the crowd anxiously awaited. While each girl and her escort went to their designated spots, the band played "If I Loved You." The final moment came and Miss Deanna "Nan" Emch was crowned the 1988 Homecoming Football Queen. The court included: Nan Emch and Tom Wiggers, Tiffany Tepsic and Andy Pasko, Andrea Engle and Richard Cochran, Krista Mellinger and Bob Abrams, Tiffany Kelly and Bill Kress, Carrie Juliano and Bob Sprowl, and Kristen Kunar and Todd Kilgore.
During one of the final games of the varsity basketball team there was a "homecoming" held for the Senior guys at SHS called "The King of Hearts." The candidates were: L to R top row: Scott Wilson, escorted by Kelli Kish; King, Tom Wiggers, escorted by Tara Wareham; center row: Todd Kilgore, escorted by Kristen Kunar; Dave Exline, escorted by Shannon Sauerwein; bottom row: Darren Everhart, escorted by Nan Emch; and Bob Sprowl escorted by Carrie Juliano.
On January 27th the 1989 Sweetheart Crowning took place at halftime of the MVC match between Canfield and Salem. Everyone was cheering and rowdy by the time the seven nervous queen candidates proceeded on to the basketball court to their positions and anxiously awaited along with the crowd wondering who would be this year's queen. The ceremony was accompanied with music played by the high school "pep band". The court included (opposite page clockwise) Amy Callatone and escort Ryan Beiling, Julie Ehrhart and escort Matt Medford, Tara Wareham and escort Andy Pasko, Kelli Dish and escort Scott Wilson, this page bottom left to right: Lisa Miller and escort Brad Richert, Shannon Sauerwein and escort Darren Everhart, and to the right, 1989 Sweetheart Queen Heidi Sutter and escort Dave Exline. Lower Picture: Burt Capel takes his turn on congratulating Heidi.
Having had the "time of their lives," the 1989 graduates had to finally say goodbye to SHS. The ceremony, as usual, was a sad but anxiously awaited one. The graduates participated greatly in the service. Welcome was given by Kristen Kunar. Addresses were given by Bill Kress, Matt Medford, Graham Parks, Scott Ricker, and Kerri Thorne. Reading of the roll was done by Andrea Engle; changing of the tassels was performed by Lisa Miller. The ceremony ended with the singing of the Alma Mater with Christopher Ritchie leading.

Renato Madero was a Rotary exchange student. He came from the largest city in Brazil called Sao Paulo. He arrived in Salem in February of 1988 and returned to Brazil in mid January of 1989. Renato was very fond of sports and played for the school's soccer team. He also liked to go to school dances and friend's parties on the weekends. He liked to write letters to his friends and family in Brazil, and was very active with photography.

Neils Blom came from Vojens, Denmark through Rotary. He arrived in Salem on August 17, 1988 and is looking for a departure date on July 20, 1989. He is a senior and will graduate with the senior class. He played on the school's soccer team and tennis team. He enjoys biking and the "few" parties and dances in Salem. He likes the American schools because they are so much easier than in Denmark. He remarks, "You don't know how easy you've got it!" He is fond of the weather and classifies himself as a "couch potato." One of his favorite luxuries is eating doughnuts, because they don't have them back in Denmark. While traveling in USA, he's seen Philadelphia, New York City, Washington D.C., and Niagara Falls. He loved them all.

Ryoko Shiwojma is an AFS exchange student from Tokyo, Japan. She came to Salem in August of 1988 and will return in July of 1989. She enjoyed playing softball, going to basketball games, and going to school dances. She loves to paint and is member of the National Art Honor Society. She is fond of singing and was in the school choir. Her least favorite American food is peanutbutter and jelly sandwiches.

Cristina Alvem is a Rotary exchange student. She came to Salem from Piracicaba, Brazil in January 1989 and will go back in January of 1990. She is fond of running and swimming. In Brazil, she was active in ballet and misses it terribly. She likes to go to the school dances and to go to parties with her friends. In her spare time she likes to read and take pictures. Her favorite subject in school is computers. She says, "The computer is your friend."

There are three seniors who will be going abroad in the summer and will return the following year in 1990. Beth Breckenridge leaves for Holland (Netherlands) late in July with AFS. Also with AFS is Heather McNeal. She leaves in August for a mid-European country. Leaving with Rotary is Julie Soyars. She is headed for a South American country.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF ROB WIGGERS

How does God make a quality life? Here are the ingredients:

TAKE A BOY, endowed by God with the attributes of intelligence, humor, affection and physical strength—

REAR HIM IN A GOOD OHIO CITY, surrounded by rolling hills close to the Ohio River—

PUT HIM INTO A HOME WHERE HE IS ABLE TO LEARN LOVE through beautiful parents, brothers, sister, grandparents—

GIVE HIM SCHOOL TEACHERS who awaken his mind to truth and help him to become an honor student—

PUT HIM OUT ON THE BASKETBALL FLOOR with a coach like George Spack, who can teach him sportsmanship, discipline, and how to be a winner or a good loser—

GIVE HIM THE RESPECT OF HIS TEAMMATES, whether in basketball or baseball—let them make him a Co-Captain—

SURROUND HIM WITH BOYS AND GIRLS who also possess quality lives—Make them his friends—But to insure a very best friend—Make him a twin—

GIVE HIM A HEART that finds its joy in giving to others—His family and friends—

SEE HIM UNFOLD IN WISDOM AND STATURE and in favor with God and man—

THROUGH HIS CHURCH MAKE HIS BAPTISM A REMINDER to him that his life here is temporary and his life in Christ is eternal.

This is the magic formula for ROB WIGGERS, who has come so far in so few years, but is now departed from this world by sudden death, with the dew of life’s early morn and the crown of triumph and victory upon his brow.

Excerpt from funeral service conducted by Jack E. Austin, July 12, 1988.

On Friday, May 5, 1989, the juniors, seniors, and their dates traveled to the Maronite Center in Austintown for their 1989 Prom. The theme was “Moonlight Masquerade” and the male servers wore black and white while the female servers wore multi-color shirts and masks. The music was provided by Mark French, a disc jockey from Hot FM 101. The theme song was “Hands to Heaven” so that we’ll be back together someday in honor of our senior classmate, Rob Wiggers.

Everyone rocks to the beat from Mark French.

Jason and Ken discover that Kim and Dawn would rather sit all night.

Clarence and Derek show everyone how “Wipeout” is really done.

Shawn and Wayne think that they’ve got the beat when Tonya has a different opinion.

Tim is waiting for Tracey to just walk by without asking him to dance.

Rick Short and Joe McGrath like to show their women that they can handle posing for a picture for the 100th time.

May 6th at 12:30 a.m., juniors and seniors were aboard the six school buses waiting to pull out of the back circle. Their destination was the boat called "The Majestic." The bus ride took an hour and a half to reach Pittsburgh where the boat was at the dock waiting. The music was provided by the radio station 94. The boat traveled down the Ohio River and returned to Pittsburgh for our departure.

Band - 58
The Salem High School band is known as "the pride of Salem." Every four years for the past 12 years the band returns to Florida for national competition. This year the band left for Florida on November 10, 1988 and returned on November 15, 1988. With a lot of hard practicing and fundraising, the band returned proudly announcing that they received a Gold Medal. The selections played for the competition were "Proud Mary, Heard It Through The Grapevine, a percussion ensemble entitled 'Maryanne' and California Girls." Although the competition was the main reason for the trip, the band members also did quite a bit of sightseeing. They visited many places including Walt Disney World Village, Epcot Center, Medieval Times Dinner Theatre, Daytona Beach, Morrison's Cafeteria, and they also marched through and spent the day at Magic Kingdom.

T'was the day after Christmas, and all through Timberlanes everyone was in the mood to dance the night away at the annual White Christmas dance. The Theme: Christmas in the Alps. The Effect: Great times and memories to last through the holiday season.
Peace, Love, and Togetherness - It was back to the sixties for the MORP this year. On Friday, April 21, the girls and guys of Salem High took the theme seriously with many of them wearing bell-bottoms and tie-dyed shirts to name a few. Since MORP is backwards of PROM, the customs of MORP are backwards of the PROM. For instance, the girls ask the guys to go and sometimes the girls take them out for dinner and pay for the ticket into the dance. During the MORP, a king and queen from each class are selected. All in all it is an enjoyable experience for all.

Surprise, Jamie!

Here's tough and cool Charlie.

Two misfits from the sixties!

Heather is having a good time!

Key Club was started in 1962 by Dr. George Jones. The club is a service organization. It serves the school and community through fund raisers and other projects. Anyone willing to spend time helping in the school and community can be a member. The club meets every other week and has helped with the American Red Cross Blood Bank, worked with the American Cancer Society and assisted in organizing the Salem Jubilee parade. Salem is the largest Key Club in its division and has been the home club of several Ohio District Key Club officers. The club plans to raise its financial status while providing services for the school. Key Club has sponsored two dances and held two concession stands to raise money. Enough money was raised to send a few members to the annual Key Club convention. At the convention the members will learn about Key Club on a statewide level. The funds are also used for the annual John Callahan Banquet. This banquet honors students with good grades. We all benefit from the good service of Key Club.
Trying to promote an understanding of the fests and holidays and comradery among German students is what advisor Frau Reed and the officers of German Club did this year. By planning events periodically, any student in German had the opportunity to understand more about the German customs. Then once a month, the Club gathers to decide what to do as a social event, most often corresponding to a holiday. One holiday German Club celebrated this year, as well as years in the past, is Faschings. Faschings, extending from Ash Wednesday to Easter Sunday, is noted for masks and fancy costumes so when the Club celebrates faschings, all wear a mask. The German Club also had an Oktoberfest, collected a Thanksgiving basket for a needy family, went Christmas caroling to older German families in the area, and held a faschings party. A student from Germany will be an exchange student here in Salem for one month and will be a speaker for the German Club students. Nine German Club members will travel to Germany during Spring Break to experience things first hand. After their arrival home, these nine students will present a slide show to German Club members, sharing with them their memories.
The Spanish Club, which originated in the late 1940's, is open to all second, third, and fourth year students who are interested in learning about other Spanish speaking countries and their respective cultures. The 1988-1989 members celebrated Christmas dinner at Don Poncho’s restaurant in Alliance, Ohio and a traditional spring banquet at Chi-Chi’s. In February, members also worked the concession stand at the last home basketball game. The club is under the direction of Spanish teacher, Mr. Monteleone and holds monthly meetings.

Have you heard the cowbells ringing at Salem sporting events? or seen the exciting picturesque hoops at the basketball and football games before the players enthusiastically “ripped” through them? Did you attend the Sweetheart Dance? All these things are made possible by Pep Club. Pep Club is a group organized to promote spirit. The advisor is Mrs. Esposito and the group is composed of nine to twelve girls and guys. Pep Club also makes many of the banners and signs that are hanging around school. Pep Club makes cookies and goodie bags for the athletes. Purchasing a new crown for the Sweetheart Queen is another thing Pep Club did this year. On behalf of the student body, The Yearbook would like to thank Pep Club for all their spirit activities.

In 1986 Mr. and Mrs. Cozza started Teens Against Chemical Taking (TACT). Enrollment in 1986 was 35 members, in 1987 membership was up to 75, 115 in 1988, and 90 members in this year’s group. The purpose of the group is to have fun without using alcohol and have fun just being yourself. Seniors must be willing to sign a contract stating they will not use any chemicals before, during, or after a TACT activity. Meetings are monthly and parties are held every month. Fund raisers were held and TACT received a $200 grant from the State Department of Education for a “Chemical Free Graduation Party.” The grand finale will be a weekend graduation party open only to TACT members who have been active in the club. The graduation party includes a dinner, dance, campout, swimming, and a canoe trip. This is a great club to join if you want to have a good time.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL
The Varsity Football team finished 2-8 overall and 1-5 in the M.V.C. Even though their record wasn’t great the scores were close and the team gave all they had to give. The team was led by tri­captains Darren Everhart, Dave Exline and Chris Huffman. Salem beat Struthers for the first time in school history 14-9. Salem will miss the seniors that are leaving the team and they wish the football team next year “Good Luck.”

Cross Country
The 1988 Volleyball season had its up and downs. West Branch found out what true grit is when Salem came from a 2-13 deficit in game three to win 15-13. The girls won the MVC Championship again and cruised to another sectional championship before bowing out to Stow in the districts. Tiffany Tepsic and Justine Morain made it on many All Star Teams and nine Varsity Players will be back next year.

The reserves had their best year ever, finishing at 18-4.

The immediately identifiable sound of ball hitting racquet is heard as the competitors limber up for the matching. As Coach Carol Patterson looks on, seniors: Heidi Ickes and Tonya Cecil and junior: Molly Bricker led the tennis team to a well-earned victory over Struthers... The season began with practice August 15. It included matches against Liberty, McDonald, Alliance, and JFK, all formidable opponents. For girl's tennis, the year concluded on October 7 with an impressive showing at Regionals. The Yearbook would like to wish the tennis team and the departing Seniors luck in the coming year.

Coached by Mr. Wright and Mr. Wagner for the second consecutive year, the Quaker soccer team is still trying to be molded into a winner. With more hard work and dedication from the underclassmen, they could become a hard one to defeat in the future. The identifiable team will miss seniors Aaron O'Brien, Andy Herron, Niels Blom, Clarence Fields, and Renato Madeiro.

Although it was a tough season with a few wins, the team accomplished positive reinforcement.

The Salem Varsity Golf team had another outstanding season for the 1988-89 year. Their fine record consisted of 12-6. They defeated Beaver Local twice, Struthers twice, Poland twice, Canfield twice, Campbell once, West Branch twice, and Girard once; while their only losses were to JFK twice, East Palestine once, Girard once, Campbell once, and Lisbon once.
This year at basketball games, Quaker Sam was Craig Reinehr, and the Quaker Lady was Stephanie Kilmer.

In 1951, Perry Calvin, an artist at the Salem News developed the Quaker Sam symbol. It was decided that athletes needed a mascot they could relate to more easily than the Quaker Lady (the mascot at that time). The “living” Quaker Sam began appearing at athletic events in the early 60's.

The Lady Quakers, both varsity and junior varsity, had another winning season this year. Under Coach Roger Zeigler and captains Andrea Engle and Jenna Herron, the varsity team posted an impressive 13 - 7 record. The junior varsity, under Coach Susan Wolfgang, posted a 12 - 8 record.
Fields, Kilgore, and Brant shine as captains of the '88 - '89 wrestling team. Headed by Coach James Dailey, the seniors will leave this season with fine memories. Some of the memories will include Brant and Kilgore's trip to districts and Fields' victory at the Howland tournament with a cut over his eye that later required stitches. Also enjoying fine seasons were Shane Carr, Tim Blasiman, Mark Capps, and Chris Nichols.

Wrestling
The Salem Boys Baseball team posted another fine season under Coach Lantz. The team was lead by Captain Tom Wiggers and seniors Craig Reinehr, Jeff Smith, Brad Richert, and Larry Slanker. Also, assisting the team were assistant coaches Issacs and Galchick. The yearbook staff would like to congratulate the team and wish them good luck in the years to come.
It only seemed like yesterday
School, the games, and fun.
The different things you
accomplished,
And the goals that you have won.

Why was life this way?
Why couldn't it have been me?
The beautiful person you were inside.

Why couldn't God just see?
Why did it have to be this way?
The answer we'll never know,
The memories of the good and bad
will never let us go.

And maybe one day we'll realize
You were different from the rest
Because God has proved to us this time
He only takes the BEST.

Although it may be hard to say
Those words this final time,
For Rob, you are loved deep down
inside.

From the Class of '89.

I would very much like to thank everyone who helped in producing the 1988-89 yearbook... THANK YOU! It has always been difficult to produce a yearbook with only using our free time, but we did it. It was a privilege to be the yearbook editor and I wish next year's staff good luck, and have a great year.
