Senior Officers

To the Class of 2014,

We did it! Congratulations on graduating! It has truly been an honor being able to serve as your class president over the past year and I would like to thank you for letting me have this opportunity. I feel very blessed to have gone through this crazy high school journey with the Class of 2014. Even though we are all parting ways, we will never forget the friendships and memories made at Salem High School. I wish you all the best of luck in whatever you may do in your future. Don't forget to follow your dreams and always be yourself! "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." Jeremiah 29:11

God Bless,
Megan Lehwald, President 2014

To the Class of 2014,

Congratulations on graduating! It has been an honor serving as your secretary for the past four years and I would like to thank you for the wonderful opportunity. The memories, friendships and education we have received here at Salem High School are what has helped shape us into the young adults we are today. Oprah Winfrey once said, "Education is the key to unlocking the world, a passport to freedom." So, let these experiences and the knowledge you have gained over the past four years be your key to unlocking the world and follow your dreams wherever they may take you!

Good luck and God Bless,
Emma Wilson, Secretary 2014

To the Class of 2014,

I would like to congratulate all of you on your graduation! Thank you so much for giving me the opportunity to serve on Student Council the past four years and to be vice president the last two. It has been a pleasure to have you as my classmates and I have had many great experiences here at Salem High School. It is hard to believe how quickly our time here has gone by. Gandalf, from "The Lord of the Rings" said, "All we have to decide is what to do with the time that is given to us." I urge all of you to go and be the best that you can be in your time and I hope you all find happiness in whatever you pursue in the future.

God Bless,
Nathan Eisel, Vice President 2014

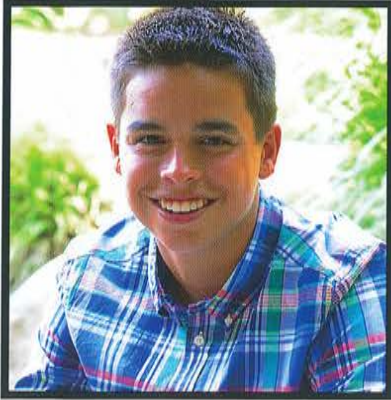

To the Class of 2014,

First and foremost, I would like to thank you for allowing me to serve as your class treasurer for the past three years. It's hard to believe this chapter of our lives is coming to a close. The past four years have been full of highs and lows, but I wouldn't trade them for the world. We will never get back the time spent at Salem High School, but the memories made will last for a lifetime. I would like to wish each and every one of you tremendous success in your futures. Thanks again for the amazing past few years! "Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be terrified; do not be discouraged, for the LORD your God will be with you wherever you go." Joshua 9:11

Congratulations and Good Luck!
Camrin Costal, Treasurer 2014

The Time is Here
From little freshmen, we have evolved into fearless seniors.
Where has the time gone?
Eager to get out, yet so desperate to cling onto precious memories.
Crowds roaring with excitement
On a skin-piercing night -
A ring of the bell, and a sudden realization
That the time is here.
In a flash before your eyes,
Our caps will be flying
And cheeks will be stained with tears.

Snap a photo, say one last goodbye.
Today is the first day
Of the rest of our lives.

Choosing the winners of Best Locker was no small task, given all of the amazing designs. The yearbook staff locked in Shane Alesi and Megan Daley as the winners.

Senior Lockers

The seniors showed off their creative side by personalizing their lockers.

Senior Lockers

Tradition was furthered as the seniors decorated their lockers, just as the classes before them did.

May 30th 1970 – It was 2:30 p.m. in the little mining town of Ticapampa, Peru when the Ancash earthquake shook Señora Hutson's world. In 42 seconds the whole city was gone. "Forty two seconds may not be long on the clock, but it seemed like an eternity," Señora said. My father thought the city was burning because of the orange dust coming from the houses that were reduced to rubble, Señora Hutson remarked. Her father had reinforced the doorways in the house when it was built and the family was found with a few scratches, but alive and well.

When assistance came from all around the world to help rebuild the town, Señora met her future husband, Tom Hutson, who was in the Peace Corps and volunteered to help the little town of Ticapampa. They have been married 40 years and have two children and three grandchildren.

Señora Hutson is very family orientated and that cultural practice is what she misses most about Peru: she was surprised that most families don't have meals together in the US. In Peruvian schools students are dismissed to go home for lunch from 12:00 – 2:00 p.m. to eat with their families. Some other differences are students are required to wear uniforms; in college there are no athletic scholarships, it's based solely on academics; and in Peru, athletes play for private clubs or sponsors, not school teams.

Señora Hutson has always been close with her father. Her father said, "The greatest inheritance I can give you is knowledge."

Señora Hutson said she had always wanted to be a teacher since her mother was an educator. In Peru she taught for two years and later continued her studies at Kent State University. She has been teaching for 23 years, was an advisor for interact and Spanish clubs and started the Senior Citizen Prom that continues today. After pondering for a few moments, Señora said, "My favorite part about teaching is watching the students gain confidence in and out of the classroom." She also enjoys visiting with former students and likes to hear their accomplishments.

Her favorite parts of Salem, Ohio are the four seasons, especially the snow; she had never experienced snow before except seeing it on the mountain tops. Outside of teaching, Señora Hutson enjoys seafood fresh from the ocean, apple pie a la mode, gardening, reading and doing crafts.

"I want to thank the yearbook staff for honoring me as the Teacher of the Year. It is an honor and a beautiful memory that I will cherish for a long, long time. ¡Muchas gracias! Buena suerte to the seniors of 2014," Señora Hutson said sincerely.

There was such a turn out for the homecoming dance itself! Fall Homecoming's queen, Megan Lehwald, said that "It was a great time and definitely one to remember!" The game against Minerva that night was tough and even though we lost, the Quakers fought as best as they could. The dance itself was a smash hit! Everyone was dressed to the nines and the girls looked beautifully flawless. After dinner, the students came to the school and danced until they dropped. This dance in particular is one of the most popular, and it has high expectations! The night went magically and it will never be forgotten.

The fighting Quaker football team started off their season strong, winning their first two games. The boys then faced some tough competitors and suffered through a seven-game losing streak. Before they knew it, the final game of the season was upon them. The game was against their biggest rival-West Branch. They were under a lot of pressure because they didn't want to let their school down. Salem scored the first touchdown of the game, and from then on it was a battle to remember. In the final few minutes of the game, they managed to score a touchdown to secure the win. The boys gave their handshakes and ran to the Victory Bell. As the saying goes, "Hooah-Hahh! You wish you were a Quaker!"

The Lady Quakers had a fantastic season with a record of 18 and 7. The Quakers beat Marlington and West Branch to make it to the district finals' game for the third consecutive year. Sadly, Crestwood defeated the Quakers in three games 26-24, 25-23 and 25-23. Coach Winner was very excited with the way the season went. She was pleased with the teams work ethic and the way that they became less self oriented and focused more on bettering the team. The girls' hard work was recognized when five members of the varsity team got NBC awards. Camrin Costal received First Team, Carson Herron and Maria Shivers received Second Team and Megan Lehwald and Sarah Smith received Honorable Mention. Next season looks to be as promising with five returning letterman.

The boys soccer team went 1-13-2. The Quakers did not end up having the season they wanted but were still able to make it an enjoyable one. The underclassmen learned many valuable lessons that will help them out next year. The team was led by senior captains Troy Kuhns and John Cappuzzello. The varsity team also consisted of seven more seniors, seven juniors, six sophomores and one freshman. The boys ended up falling to the Cardinal Mooney Cardinals in the first round of the 2013 Playoffs. The final score of the game was 6-0. Senior Hobie Butcher sends a message to next years team: "Don't take one moment for granted because the season is over before you know it. I wish the underclassmen the best of luck next year!"

The girl's soccer team had a very successful season this year, finishing with a record of 14 wins and 5 losses. Senior Anna Wyss said, "It was an exciting season to leave on with having such a victorious record and breaking so many personal goals as well." The girls went on in tournaments to beat Labrae and Struthers in sectionals. They then went onto district semi-finals where they fell to Canfield. Senior captain, Anna Wyss broke the record for assists in a single game with eight assists. Junior captain, Marissa Swindell also went on to break records of her own, including goals in a single game with 9, goals in a season with 42, and goals in a career with 72. "I couldn't have broken my records without every person on the team, and next year definitely won't be the same without the seniors. It was a season to remember," Marissa Swindell said. The seniors played a huge role on the team. They put in dedication and hard work throughout their soccer careers and will be hard to replace next year. The Senior Academic Award went to Brittany Skiba. The Defensive Awards went to Raegan and Rylee Meals. The MVP and Offensive Award went to Marissa Swindell and the Coach's Award went to Julia Dundon. The girls' team was led by senior captain, Carli Hochadel, a four year letter winner who will be playing golf in college. Barb Wollitz was the girls coach again this year. "We had another great season of golf! We had so much fun and the girls improved with each match. I am so lucky to coach wonderful young ladies!" said Wollitz. The Lady Quakers had many accomplishments and are looking forward to next season!

The boys' team was led by Head Coach Ken Robbins and four seniors: Ryan Hoover, Garrett Ring, Jordan McGuire and Andrew Robbins. Jordan won the First Team in the NBC Award and Garrett finished the season with the lowest score of 39. Another big accomplishment they had was beating the second best teams in their league, Carrolton and Marlington. "We did not always golf up to par, but we had some good times," said Garrett Ring.

With an unexpected turnout the boys' cross country team was full of promise as the season began. Junior Zach Morris, a sub 20 minute runner, led the team through fields and up hills, with freshman Jared McClish pushing him every step of the way. The underclassman eventually went on to break twenty minutes in the third meet of the season, the Marlinton Invitational. The new year brought in familiar faces and a fresh perspective in Salem Cross Country. Led by seasoned pros Frank and Yvonne Parks, the girls laced up their spikes and set their sights high. From intervals to invitationals, the relatively young group matured into a unified team throughout the course of the season. The most notable meet was the Spartan Invitational, where both the JV and Varsity teams ran season bests. All in all, this eventful season was the ideal catalyst for rebuilding the cross country program.

The varsity cheerleaders attended competition at Alliance High School on Saturday, January 11. They placed 7th, improving greatly from last season. The Junior Varsity came in 4th place, also showing a lot of improvement from last year when both teams placed last. In order to prepare for competition, they had practices five days a week every week, starting in September, after school and Saturday mornings. Many of the cheerleaders also went to tumbling at NEO in Columbiana on Wednesdays. This was the varsity coach Deborah Thomas' last year advising the varsity cheerleaders after 10 years, and also the Junior Varsity/Freshman coach Kari Newburn's last year advising. The captains were Amanda Reiter for football season and Emma Wilson for basketball season. One of the favorite memories the cheerleaders shared included singing with the boys basketball team on the bus home from a win.

The annual Sadie Hawkins Dance was once again a huge hit! We had an upbeat humorous dance performance from our very own Sadies' court: Brandon Boyle, Ryan Hoover, Hobie Butcher, John Cappuzzello, Elijah Bricker, Shane Metzgar and Andrew Dolphin. The students danced the night away and John had the honor of being crowned king. There were some very creative costumes worn ranging from Minions to Adam and Eve. Love was also in the air as many couples "got hitched" by Coach Brock!

The varsity boys had a successful season and ended their year after the district semi-final game. Despite not having a winning season, the boys improved immensely as the year progressed. Michael Popa, Max Wolfgang and Ryan Hoover led the team as captains. With eight seniors, the team had a vast amount of leadership. Also leading the team were Assistant Coaches Spack, Smyczynski, Zatchok and Head Coach Hart. Wolfgang suffered an injury toward the middle of the season and was unable to return until Senior Night. Despite the team's loss of a major player, they were still able to play their best while anxiously awaiting his return.

The Salem Lady Quaker basketball team finished the season with a record of 7 wins and 14 losses, but the record doesn't reflect the season. The two captains, Megan Lehwald and Tori Jones, portrayed great leadership qualities for the team and set great examples of work ethic. The girls put in a great deal of hard work and dedication at every practice, and by the end of the season looked like a whole new team. There was only one senior on the team this year, Captain Megan Lehwald. Megan was a three-year letterman and devoted so much time and work towards the program. Every girl on the team looked up to her and took her leadership to heart. The team improved tremendously with great appreciation to our two coaches Steve Stewart and Roger Zeigler. "I wouldn't trade our season for anything. I've made friendships that will last forever," said senior Megan Lehwald. The team went on to play Lakeview in the first round of tournaments. They put up a great fight but unfortunately didn't advance in the tournament. "Knowing how much improvement was achieved this year just makes us ready to work even harder in the off-season and next year," said junior Raegan Meals.

Salem Wrestling

32 minutes ago

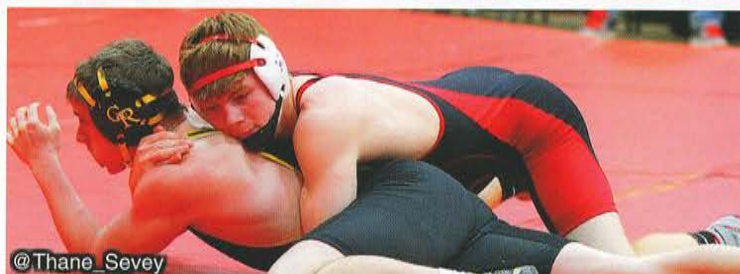

The Quakers had a tough season with an overall record of 4-12. The boys biggest struggle was the amount of injuries they had to face. Early in the season, senior captain Brandon Boyle separated and tore ligaments in his shoulder. Another very serious injury was Jesse Slocum's broken ankle. On top of both of those very serious injuries Thane Sevey suffered from a torn labrum and Shane Metzgar received a concussion. All of the wrestlers were able to come back from the injuries and finish the year off healthy. Overall, the team had a enjoyable season and a few members were able to wrestle their way through sectionals and into districts. These wrestlers included Shane Metzgar, Kade Byland, Trent Kellogg and Jesse Slocum. Jesse continued his fight through districts and received an alternate position for the state wrestling meet. "Goodluck to the team next year and in the future and thanks for all of the memories you have left me with," said senior Shane Metzgar.

Winter Homecoming was the most attended winter dance in years! The dance was so fabulous, Mia Conn deemed it as an "extremely thrilling experience;" Leah Menegos said, "It was so fun getting to dance with my basketball teammates all night;" and Max Wolfgang liked the dance due to the "cool setup, especially the basketball hoop." The basketball game was on January 17, the night before the dance. Despite the team's tough battle against Minerva, the game resulted in a loss. At halftime, Allie Swindell was crowned the Salem 2014 Winter Homecoming Queen by Taylor Neely, the 2013 Winter Homecoming Queen. The theme of the dance was Masquerade, and it was a mysterious yet exciting time attempting to figure out whose face was behind which beautiful mask. National Honor Society had a brilliant idea, suggesting that girls wear dresses from past dances, or borrow dresses from their friends to wear to the dance. This was an excellent idea because it gave girls the chance to either wear an expensive dress again, and many girls enjoyed seeing one of their own personal favorite dresses worn a second time. This made the dance less stressful for many girls to prepare for, adding to the fun of the weekend.

Boys & Girls Tennis

Even though the girls' tennis team did not have the season they had hoped for, they still bonded as a whole. They were not only just a team but a tennis family. The first match they won was against East Liverpool. It was a close match but the girls brought home a victory for the Quakers! Junior Sophie Ramsey said, "The girls were awesome! Yolo!"

The boys' tennis team had a great season with a total of 6 wins and 8 losses. Senior Michael Fitch said, "What defines us is how well we rise after falling." The team participated in tournaments and with Michael Fitch on singles and Max Wolfgang and Marty Roth playing doubles they made it to the third round. The number of boys this season was higher than in the previous years and they had a bond no one could ever break.

The Quaker baseball team, after losing nine seniors and only retaining two varsity letterman, had no clue what to expect from a young, inexperienced squad.

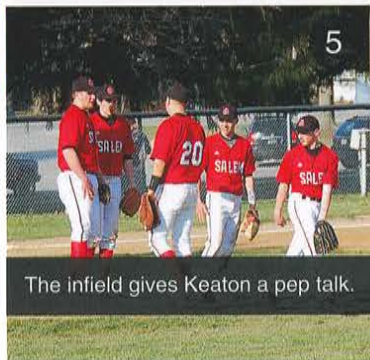

Unfortunately, the team had a rough start to the season. A lack of experience especially hurt the Quakers who committed mental mistakes over and over again. Even though the Quakers had a losing season, they were almost always able to make every game an interesting one. The Quakers ended their season with a 4-2 loss to the Struthers Wildcats in the first round of the playoffs. Senior Jordan Mcguire had this to say to the underclassmen: "If you ain't first, you're last, so work as hard as you can because these four years will be over before you know it and that opportunity is lost."

The Salem Lady Quakers had a season to remember. With a record of 6-20, the Quakers had the most winning season since 2006. They were only three wins shy of tying the school winning record. This was the first time in a long time the girls played as a team and had fun doing it. A new coaching staff assisted returning Head Coach Jodie Hippely: Coach Bonnie Wilkinson and Coach Carly Hart brought their own styles to the Salem Softball program. There were five seniors who led this years team and among them were co-captains Hannah Carner and Sarah Smith. The Lady Quakers were seeded 9th in the Division II tournament. They played the 8th seed, the Niles Lady Dragons, where the Quakers demolished the dragons 17-1. This was the first time the Salem Lady Quakers won the first round of tournaments since 2006. The Lady Quakers then moved on to round two of the tournaments where they faced the Poland Bulldogs. Unfortunately, the Lady Bulldogs mercied the Lady Quakers 10-0. The Lady Quakers finished their regular season play with an unforgettable win against the West Branch Lady Warriors 13-11. The Lady Quakers will return next season with the leadership of four year letter winners Raegan Meals, Rylee Meals and Courtney Waters along with three year letter winners Cassandra Burke, Haley Carner and Rylee Leider. With so many ladies returning, the future of Salem Softball seems as promising as ever.

Coached by Todd Huda, the boys' track team enjoyed much success throughout the season. With help from the assistant coaches, all event participants worked hard from the season's start to achieve PR's in preparation for the county meet. After taking first, the athletes moved on to the NBC League, placing fourth with some outstanding individual performances. After facing tough competition at the District II Tournament, five events moved on to regional preliminaries. From there, Elijah Bricker and the 4x4 relay of senior Dan Rumsey, senior Marcus Crittenden, freshman Ethan Bailey and junior Cameron Turney moved on to the state meet: the 4x4 earned a place on the podium with an 8th place finish, and Elijah Bricker achieved a 15th place.

Under the leadership of head coach Amy Cochran, assisted by Robert Motz(mid distance), Bill Angus(field events), and Bill and Jen Neapolitan(throws), with Wanda Yerkey assisting the high jumpers, the girls' track team set high expectations for themselves early on in the season. With strong numbers and promising talent, the team took on both their county and NBC opponents in a series of meets, as well as outside competition in invitionals. Junior Alyssa Wright claimed the discus record with an outstanding throw of 144-9 on her fourth and final attempt. "Breaking the record wouldn't have been possible without the Neapolitans; they have been the best and most supportive coaches throughout the season," said Wright. The athletes went into the county meet expecting a 3-5 point difference either way against their rival, United. The closeness created pressure, but intense focus and commitment led the girls to win by an overwhelming victory of 155 points to United's 130. This total is the third highest win in county history. The girls fought a tough battle at the NBC League Meet, placing fifth. At districts, Megan Lehwald broke her own record in the long jump with an impressive 17 feet 4 inches. Seven events advanced to Regionals.

Sophomore Social Tailgate was held in the cafeteria with many activities for the students to do such as: corn hole, dancing and water pong. There were hot dogs, chips, cookies and drinks for the students to munch on. Sophomores were encouraged to wear jerseys, face paint, hats and other sports gear. They partied from 7:00 - 10:00 on Saturday, May 10th. "The dance was pretty rad!" Megan Hoover said.

Prom was a night to remember! Everyone was dressed up and ready to rock. The theme was "A night in Paris" and it was truly an out of our country experience. After dinner, the students danced their hearts out. This dance in particular is one of the most popular, and it has high expectations to live up to! After Prom was held at the Sky Zone, an indoor trampoline park, in Westlake, OH. They had a foam pit, a basketball area, multiple dodgeball courts, a trampoline court, concessions and more! The night went magically and it will never be forgotten.

The students had a very fun and crafty year! Project Support continued their monthly activity and each one was nothing short of a success. Anthony Drohn says that his favorite activity they did was, "the Halloween pumpkins" because "coloring and cutting paper was fun!" They also exchanged Christmas presents during the holiday season. Throughout the year, students went out every Tuesday to different job sites to learn job skills. Also, once a month they visit places in the community. Many activities helped them gain experience. They had a blast at their yearly prom at St. Mary's Assumption Social Center in Youngstown, Ohio on May 9th.

During marching season heads were clashing and the band bond was tested, but that sibling connection was never shattered. There were 18 seniors for marching season and 11 seniors for concert season. These seniors handed down the torch to the juniors who will be outstanding role models for the upcoming freshman. The band had five officers who helped maintain the rambunctious students: Erica Kyser as president; Megan Daley as vice president; Rachael Shockley as secretary; and Shane Alesi as historian. Hobie Butcher also recruited seven students to join both marching and concert band. In addition he led the pep-band during both football and basketball seasons. Pep-band included 15 elite members from the band itself. "Pep-band is my favorite part of being in band. I get to play music and I get to hang out with my friends" said junior Katherine Anderson. An annual banquet acknowledged the entire band and the achievements they pursued throughout the span of 2013- 2014. Varsity letters were awarded to returning two year students who participated in either marching or concert period. An award for the most spirited member of the band was created after the tragic death of Brittany Marie Gulu who passed away last year. She was a very lively person who had a passion for everything she did. Her energy was the inspiration for the band, school and the entire community. Senior Megan Daley recieved the award at the band banquet Saturday, May 17. The memories slip between our cracked hands, while our memories are stuck on replay for the rest of our days.

The choirs had a wonderful year with the selection of the class officers at the beginning. They included President Chasity Kellogg, Vice President Emma Wilson, Secretary Rachael Shockey and the two librarians, Nicole Goontz and Shyanne Zitkovic. During the Christmas concert, they performed hit songs such as, "Sleigh Ride," "White Christmas" and "O Holy Night." Encore performed a medley featuring songs such as "Marshmallow World," "No Man but a Snowman" and "Rudolph the Red Nose Reindeer." The annual February concert included the song "My Heart Will Go On," which featured Katherine Anderson playing the flute. In April the choirs took a field trip to New York City and sang at several places. At the statue of Liberty they performed the national anthem. The final concert in May included energetic songs such as "Some Nights," "Cups" and "New York, New York." Before the last song, Mr. Samu was recognized for his outstanding 30 years of dedication and the hard work he put into the high school choirs. The senior song "Like An Eagle" included a slideshow bringing tears to the eyes of the audience. The concert concluded with the announcing of the Chorister of the year, Ms. Chasity Kellogg.

The fall play "Little Women" (originally a book by Louisa M. Alcott) was produced by Mr. Vinceik and Mr. Martinelli. The March sisters included Heather Harmony as Meg, Bethany Kholos (pictured right) as Jo, Brianna Parfaite as Beth and Samantha Wilson as Amy. The girls' suitors were played by Jacob Nash as Mr. Theodore Lawrence, or "Laurie;" and Josh Tungate as Mr. John Brooke. The cast also included Emma Janofa as Marmee, Joy Rouse as Father March, Tyler Roth as Old Man Lawrence, Shyanne Zitkovic as Aunt March, Sarai Bodine as the March family's maid, Hannah and Grace Shockey as another of the March family's maids. The crew included Hannah Nash, Rase Shelhart, Lillian Eldridge, Ethan Gill and Victoria Harmony as the student director. "It was stressful at times, but pretty rewarding in the end. I got to bond a lot with my stage sisters," said Bethany Kholos. The play was performed on November 14th and 16th. The cast of "Little Women" did a fantastic job performing on stage.

The spring musical "Annie" was originally a comic strip in the 1930s, then a Broadway musical in the 1970s. "Annie" is about an orphan girl who is searching for her birth parents in New York City, New York with the help of a wealthy man, Oliver Warbucks. The leads included Sarai Bodine as Annie, Sidney Dailey as Miss Hannigan, Jacob Nash as Oliver Warbucks, Chasity Kellogg as Grace, Hobie Butcher as Rooster, Becca Linam as Lily and Phoebe as Sandy the dog. There were 35 2nd graders as some of the orphans and 28 high schoolers in the cast. The show cost around $9,000 to put on. Practices were Sundays through Wednesdays starting in February and was performed April 11th at 7:30pm and 12th at 2 and 7:30pm. "I've been in the past three shows here and although it's sometimes stressful, I love it entirely. I've gained friendships that I hope to keep and memories I hope I never forget. You can bet your bottom dollar I'll be back next year to see the musical and all of my new friends acting on that wonderful stage and bringing joy and laughter to the audience just as I hope to do this year," said Chasity Kellogg. Mr. Samu was the Music Director, Carrie Mazzucco was the Choreographer and John Miller was the Director.

Yearbook

Shane Alesi

Yearbook has been a rewarding experience that has changed my life in many ways. I have come to appreciate the rewards it has to offer and it has even influenced my choice to major in marketing next year. One quality I want next year's staff to take from being a part of the yearbook is to gain teamwork skills that they can use in every other aspect of their lives. Communication and being able to cooperate with others is an extraordinary trait that sets us apart and makes us leaders. I have enjoyed my years in Yearbook. I would like to thank Mrs. Parks for being the best adviser we could have asked for. Being an Editor for this yearbook has been such a privilege. Thank you for all the memories!

Macy Goodman

Being a part of the yearbook staff has definitely been a time worth remembering. It has helped to teach me responsibility, leadership, compromise and how to be sensitive towards the rest of the staff's opinions. These qualities are important to help you to become successful for when you get out into the world. You're going to run into people you might not necessarily get along with or agree with, but you have to learn how to handle what is thrown at you, which is exactly what this class does. Good luck to next years staff! It may get stressful, but its worth the experience.

Erica Kryser

It was a privilege being an Editor this year to such an amazing staff. In the past two years I have taken away so much from being in yearbook. I was never good at English but Yearbook really helped me get better. Also, I want to thank our amazing staff for being a huge contribution to this yearbook. I am going to miss everyone I have become so close with this year. I want to wish next year's editors good luck. There will be those rough times throughout the year but I promise everything will be okay. Have a great senior year. Trust me: before you know it you will be beginning your freshman year of college. Thank you again for the fantastic year and an amazing yearbook!

Megan Lehwald

Yearbook has been such an amazing journey throughout the past couple of years. Being in yearbook has taught me so much about myself and the memories I have made will last a lifetime. I am so thankful to have developed such a close relationship with my "yearbook family." I would like to thank Mrs. Parks for all of her guidance and knowledge she bestowed upon us. I would also like to thank the staff for being so understanding and for all their creative ideas. Being an Editor has taught me so much including how to overcome adversity and to compromise with people. My advice to all of you would be to enjoy your senior year and cherish every moment. It has been a true honor being able to serve as an Editor this year!

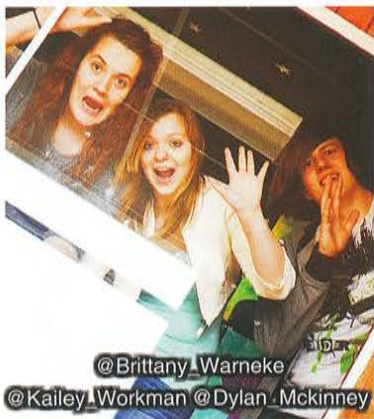

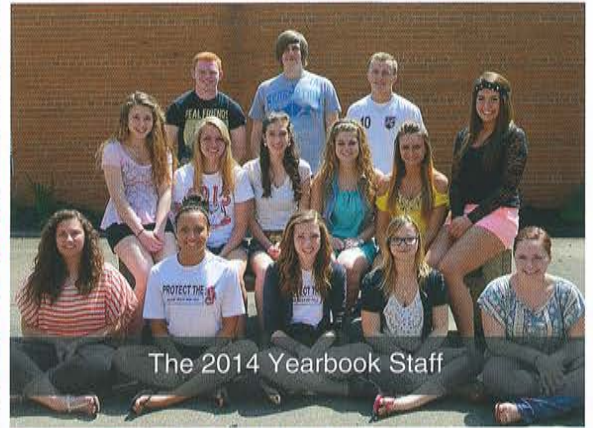

Rachel Menegos

It has been such an honor to serve as one of your editors. Being able to create the yearbook for the past two years has been such a rewarding experience. Yearbook has taught me so much about myself and my ability to lead others. I will always cherish the memories I've made in this class. I would like to thank the yearbook staff for all their hard work and dedication; without them, this book would definitely not be possible. I would also like to thank Mrs. Parks for all of her guidance she has given us the past two years. I want to wish the best of luck to the incoming editors- you'll do great! To the class of 2014, good luck in whatever you do in life. God bless.

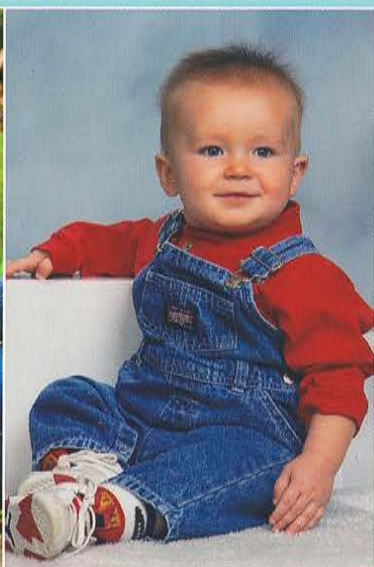

Sarah Smith

Being a yearbook Editor has been a very fulfilling experience. I'm glad that our staff was diverse with many different outlooks on how the class of 2014 should be represented. Mrs. Parks has taught me a lot about myself and how to work with the other editors. I'm glad we were a close knit group of editors and that we became friends. It is crazy to think that this time next year we will be away doing something to further our futures. "The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams." - Eleanor Roosevelt. Good luck to everyone and I hope that life points you in the right direction.

Then and Now Ads

Max,

You are loved. We are so very proud of you. As life's journey continues remember to dream big, work hard, show kindness and celebrate all the special moments.

We love you,

Mom, Kasey and Ryan

Emmer,

We have been so blessed to have such a wonderful daughter! We are so proud of everything you have accomplished and the young lady you have become. Take all that you have learned over the years as you continue on to the next chapter of your life at the University of Mount Union. Good luck and God bless!

Love,

Mom, Dad and Jack

Rachel,

It is hard to believe just how fast this time has flown by. We have witnessed countless milestones in your life and here you are graduating from high school! We are so proud of you and all your accomplishments. Always give your best effort in all you do. Never give up on your dreams!

We Love You-

Dad, Mom & Leah

Congratulations Carson!

There are no words to describe how very proud we are of you! Good luck at OSU & Go Bucks!

Love You,

Mom, Dad, Rob, Mary & Liam

Emma,

Since the moment you were born you have been our star! We have enjoyed watching all your "acts" from our front-row seats. Encore!

Also, always remember- "All your dreams can come true if you have the courage to pursue them."- Walt Disney

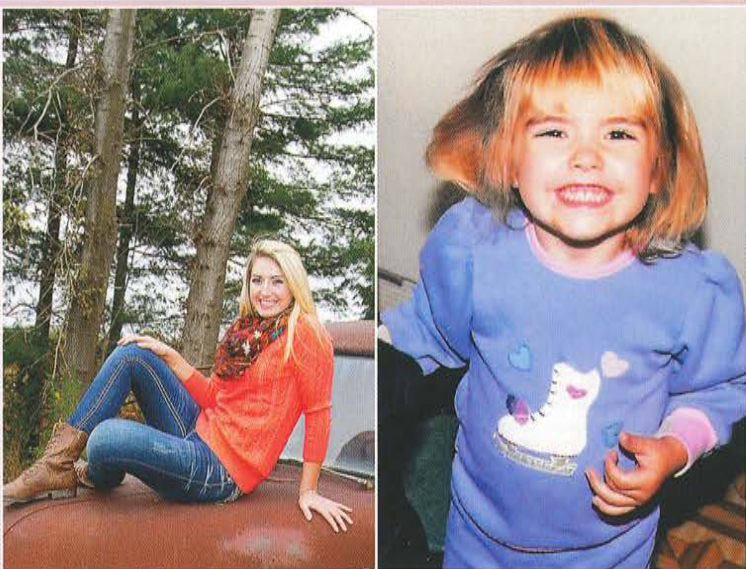

With All Our Love-
Mom and Dad

Tylor,

From the moment you were born we knew that you were our Perfect Little Man! The minute you could reach the keyboard from our laps you were at the computer learning and discovering all that you could. We are so proud of you and Love you very much. Continue to dream big and tinker with those computers. We can't wait to see what the future holds for you! We love you!

Mom, Dad, Alyssa & Charlotte

Mariah,

Just nine years ago you and I took a road trip to East Lansing to pick up some equipment. We spent the day and a bunch of miles trying to get 100 trucks to blow their air horns. I don't remember if we hit 100, but the moment lives with me each & every day. Don't ever be so serious that you forget to have fun and be joyful!

I Love You!
Dad

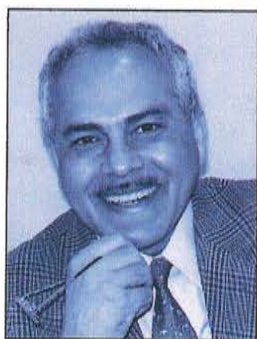

Megan,

We have enjoyed every moment of watching you grow into a passionate young women. Words can't describe how proud we are of all your academic and athletic accomplishments. Your dedication and determination have always inspired us. Stay true to who you are and all your dreams will come true.

Your smile has always brightened our lives and now may it light up the world!

We love you sooo much,
Dad, Mom and Josh
