Corena Foor

The special needs students participated in many exciting activities. They enjoyed math class and science class the most. In their science class they engaged in fun experiments including building a rubber band car and a lava lamp. The class enjoyed the new program on the iPads called Osmo. The app allowed the students to participate in fun educational activities in math, spelling and language arts. They also enjoyed making snowmen in art class during the holiday season. One of the classes' most memorable art projects was their door decoration. They incorporated geometric figures into the piece and structured them to look like a Christmas tree. The class loved adventuring on many fun field trips. The students' most memorable field trip included visiting the animals at the Beaver Creek Educational Center. Another fun field trip the class took was to the Huffman Fruit Farm where they picked a bushel of apples, ate lunch under a bridge and finished the day off by going on a hike. They then got the opportunity to practice their baking skills with the apples they picked when they made apple dumplings, apple cake, applesauce and baked apples. The class also enjoyed practicing those baking skills at the church when they prepared delicious lunches including spaghetti and pudding pie. On Tuesdays they went out to job sites where the students were able to help out in a workplace environment. Some of their jobs included the laundry room at the Salem Regional Medical Center, the stock room at Marc's and the gym at the Salem Community Center. The class really loved the end of the year swim party at the Salem Community Center that celebrated all of their hard work.

FEATURED TEACHER

STEERING STUDENTS IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION

Mr. Gill has taught at Salem High School for 17 years. He has a passion for mathematics. He said, "I have always enjoyed solving problems. I find teaching high school mathematics interesting because of how much the math boils down to being applicable to a few arithmetic rules in many different contexts." He loves getting the opportunity to help students evolve. "In my experience, the students who are most successful after high school are the ones who make the most of what Salem has to offer academically. They perform well on national placement exams and thereby qualify for select programs and scholarships at the universities they attend. As a teacher, I feel it's my responsibility to make sure my students will be successful in any of their future courses in which my class is a prerequisite. I hope they make the most of their opportunities," he said.

He believes that every student has a future, and his job is to help contribute to his or her academic success in the future as much as possible. He believes in his students and their abilities and assists them in pursuing their future plans as much as he can.

Class of 1979

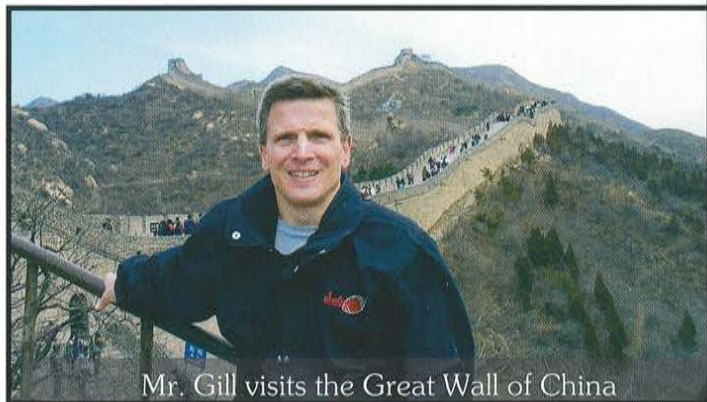

The yearbook staff congratulates Mr. Gill on being chosen as the "featured teacher."

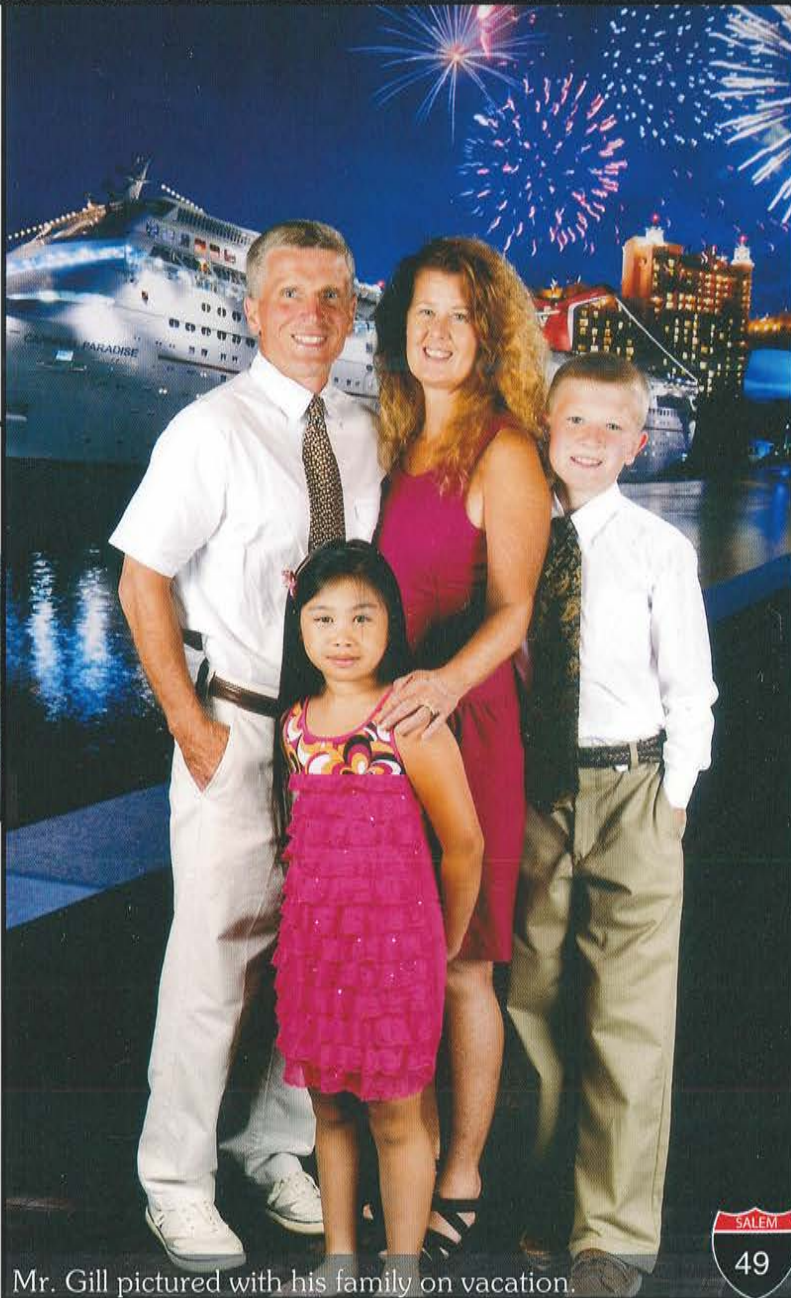

Born in East Liverpool, Mr. Gill attended Southern Local High School where he originally found his love for math. Following high school, Mr. Gill attended Youngstown State University where he earned his B.A. in History, his B.S. in Computer Science, and his M.S. in Mathematics. After graduating from YSU, he began to teach. Mr. Gill also married his wife, Kathy and together they have two children, Ethan and Chloe. In Mr. Gill's free time, he supports Chloe and Ethan in various academic and athletic extracurricular programs. Aside from watching and supporting his children, he is currently working on restoring a hand-hewn log home that was built over 200 years ago. He also enjoys reading books over a variety of subjects. Mr. Gill is also an Ohio State Buckeye fan and enjoys spending time watching the games on the weekends. Mr. Gill has a passion for what he does and he continues to teach students every year while supporting the family he loves.

Mr. Gill visits the Great Wall of China

Mr. Gill and his wife made the remarkable decision to adopt their daughter Chloe from China. Initially, Mr. Gill waited six months before he flew to China in order for all the paperwork to be finished and accepted. He spent sixteen days in China. He was required to spend seven days in the same province in which Chloe was living and then it took seven more days for all the paperwork to be finished by the U.S. Consulate. While waiting for paperwork, he visited Tiananmen Square and the Great Wall. The paperwork was soon approved and he brought 16 month old Chloe home safely to Salem.

The Salem Quaker cheerleading squad had high expectations heading into the 2015-16 season. With the departure of their head coach in the rear view mirror, the team banded together and relied on one another to push themselves through adversity. The arrival of new head coach, Jill Grove, brought promise and hope for future years back to the program. With hard-work and determination, the cheer squad had a successful season earning the privilege of performing their competition routine during the halftime of a YSU men's basketball game. The squad competed in four competitions this season including; YSU Pink Ribbon Cheer Classic, Sebring Holiday Cheer Extravaganza, Hiram Terrier Extravaganza and the Northeastern Buckeye Conference league competition.

OFF THE BEATEN PATH

The boys' cross country team made huge strides during the season under the leadership of Coach Motz and Coach Yuhanick. From the blazing heat, to the freezing rain, the team ran their way to first place at the county meet. Although six seniors have graduated, the future of the program looks promising due to the outstanding performance of the underclassmen. Though the season is over, the memories will still go on.

With a completely new coaching staff, many new faces were seen on the first day of conditioning in June. The long weekly runs and the dreaded timed 400s brought the cross country team together through their training. The season brought new PRs and some girls ran times they never thought they would be able to. The most memorable meet was when each team from Salem won at the county meet on that rainy Tuesday. All teams joined together to encourage all the runners to run their best times and to pass as many other runners as they could. It was a year full of sore legs, lots of ice and great memories.

HEADING TOWARD THE BELL

Football

The football team had an unbelievable season and overcame the odds and statistics set against them. The Quakers never ceased to surprise their fans with each game they played. Salem went into the season as the underdogs of the NBC. The boys pulled through, going 9-1 in their regular season, which qualified them for playoffs. They earned the opportunity to participate in two playoff games, winning the first game against Indian Valley. In the second playoff game, the boys had a tough yet courageous battle versus the undefeated Steubenville Big Red, but fell short of a win. The eventful season was led by sixteen seniors with big responsibilities on their backs to be the leaders of a new and improved team. It was an unforgettable season for both the players and the fans.

The team's motivational motto was "pull the oar" meaning that each teammate must pull his own weight and do his job in order to have overall success, just as everyone in a canoe must row in order to get where they need to go. Each team member signed the oar and it was traditionally carried out with the boys as they filed out of the locker room every game. The colored tape around the handle represented the two colors of each team the Quakers defeated.

HEADING TOWARD THE GOAL

From July to the end of their season in October, the boys' soccer team improved immensely. The boys started driving down a rocky road in the beginning of their season, so they decided to shift their play into third gear. The first half of the season the boys had four wins and four losses. The second half of the season, they had four more wins, three losses, and two ties. Although the boys wished they could have advanced past their final playoff game, their season came to an end. The Salem Boys' Soccer team was lead to a final record of 8-7-3 by Head Coach, John Schuster and Assistant Coach, Matt Woolford.

ON THE ROAD TO SUCCESS

Co-captain Kylie Quinn reflecting on the season said, "The start of our season was rocky because we only had about 20 girls playing. The continuous motivation from each other and our coaches really helped us to come together as a team."

Katelin Chilton

The girls' soccer team had an overall successful season ending with a record of 8 wins, 7 losses and 1 tie. Many people thought the team would not be as successful as the year before due to the loss of seven seniors.

However, the girls performed extremely well in the season opener against Poland. "Poland is always a tough opponent for us. In my opinion the final score did not reflect how hard we fought or how well we played," said

Katelyn Dustman. Despite many injuries, the team adjusted and continued to find success.

ROAD BLOCK AHEAD

It was a great year for the Salem Volleyball team. New Head Coach, Sarah Hamilton, joined the team in their success. Leading the program into a new direction, she had the girls working all summer to play at a whole new level of competition. The girls finished their season with a total of 18 wins and 6 losses. Their main goal was to win league, but they knew it would be an uphill battle. The only team that stood in their way of winning the Northeastern Buckeye Conference was Louisville. The start was rough when the girls fell to Louisville and two non-league opponents,

Southern Local and Canfield. The team realized they needed to step it in gear. They bounced back and went on an eight game winning streak. Finishing up regular season with only five losses, the team was determined to succeed in tournaments. In the first round, the girls aggressively defeated Girard. With a few hard days of practice, they went rowdy into the second round to play the Crestwood Red Devils. The ladies came up short that night but they definitely showed up to compete. With all the hardwork the girls put in individually, a few of them had the opportunity to earn NBC awards at the end of their season. Maria Shivers and Kacey Costal were awarded received Honorable Mention. They finished their season 2nd in the NBC. Overall,

1st Team NBC. Elizabeth Aukerman was awarded 2nd Team NBC. Dori Miller and Chloe Cheresne

Ms. Hamilton and her team moved Salem Volleyball in a positive direction.

The Boys' Varsity Basketball team was led by Head Coach Rich Hart along with three assistant coaches: Matt Mowery, George Spack and Trent Tice. They had a very successful season with a record of 17-8. After a long season of conference games, they made it to tournament play. During tournaments, they beat Struthers 77-63 with ease. The Mooney game was a fight to the finish but at the end they pulled past them with a win of 67-57. They had a tough loss against Poland with a score of 55-61. Jon Gerace had a successful season himself. He stated, "Our hard work and dedication payed off and we were able to bring success to our program. I'm going to miss the seniors, but I look forward to continuing our success next season." A few individuals proved their talent and success as they rose above and received individual accomplishments. Demetrius Pullie got First Team NBC, First Team All County and Honorable Mention All-Ohio. Trey Toothman received Second Team NBC. Nicholas Rusyn was awarded Honorable Mention in the NBC as well. The varsity team had a total of nine seniors, with two lucky juniors that got a chance on the floor.

Girls' Basketball

The Lady Quakers were coached by Head Coach Roger Zeigler and his assistant, Sarah Hamilton. The team ended the season with a 9-15 overall record. Although the record did not show the dedication and work that the ladies put in before and throughout the season, ten out of the fifteen losses came within ten points. The season started early for the girls in the summer. They attended many camps and shootouts as well as open gyms to prepare for the season. Coach Zeigler was excited and had high expectations for the girls. The Northeastern Buckeye Conference was a tough league to compete in. The junior varsity competed well, ending with a 10-11 overall record. In the beginning of their season, they were defeated by Marlington but as the season progressed, the girls went up against the Dukes again and lost by three in double overtime, showing how well they improved. A few varsity players received NBC awards for their hard work throughout the season. Chloe Cheresne received Columbiana County player of the year, 1st Team All County and 1st Team NBC. Allee Davidson received 2nd Team All County as well as Honorable Mention for NBC. Olivia Stiff was also awarded Honorable Mention for NBC. As a team, the Lady Quakers never stopped working hard. Although the record wasn't what they had hoped for, they were still a close team that never stopped working toward their goal.

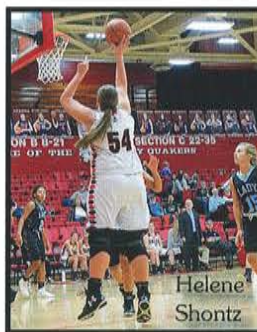

The seniors laugh as they finish their last home game together.

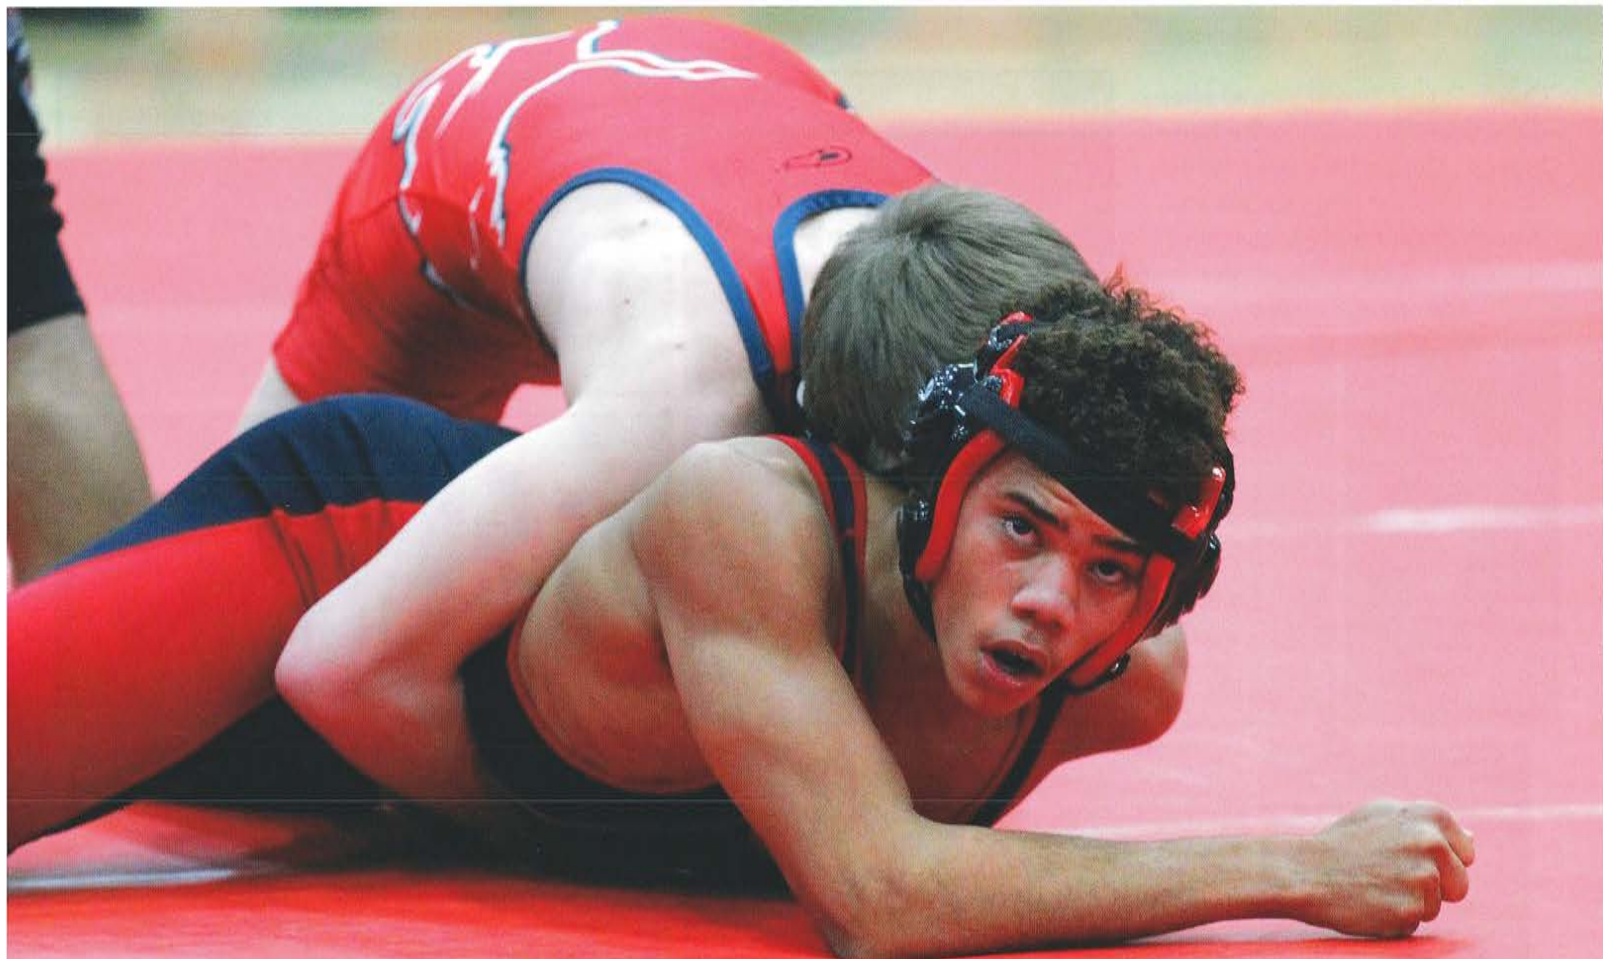

Coach Roger Zeigler retired after three years of coaching the Lady Quakers. During his career, he was able to turn the program around. Coach Zeigler and his coaching styles will be missed in the upcoming seasons.

There was plenty of hard working wins, close matches that came down to the final straw and some very amazing individual accomplishments. In the season's tournament play, the boys' varsity got sixth at the Columbiana Tournament and 40th at Top Gun which is one of the biggest tournaments around. Kade Byland got second team Northeastern Buckeye Conference. Three wrestlers advanced onto sectional play: William Cunningham, Kade Byland and Kaleb Messersmith. The team had a record of 5-14. # LINE DRIVE TO 3RD

With a new coaching staff consisting of Head Coach Mike Debarr and Assistant Coach Cody Dillon, the expectations for the new and improved Quakers were on the rise. Unfortunately, mistakes proved insuperable. On the verge of a six game losing streak, the Quakers battled the Minerva Lions, keeping the game close but ending it in heartbreak fashion losing 7-6 in the seventh inning. The Quakers came together as a team to rally the following day to beat the Lions 2-1 at home, for their first win of the season. Despite all of the downside, the team racked up wins against Minerva, Alliance, Springfield and United closing out the season with an overall record of 4-20 and a record of 2-12 in the Northeastern Buckeye Conference.

Garrett Dickey said, "Overall I had a lot of fun with the guys this season. We made a bunch of memories I will never forget. Hopefully next year we can perform well and have a better record."

Boys' tennis started off well with new coaches, Head Coach Mr. Ziegler and Assistant Coach Mr. Barrett. Although the coaches and the players didn't have much tennis experience, team members worked their hardest in preseason to prepare for their future matches. Team co-captain Anthony Anzevino said, "I held a tennis racket for the first time about a month ago before the season started. To many people's surprise I have won three matches at first singles this year. We have one of the largest fan bases which really helps during the third set when I'm tired and need a little extra energy and motivation. I can't thank the fans enough for the good luck texts and post match messages. It's not racket science, it's tennis!" The boys began with multiple conditioning practices and eventually shifted to technical practices. After an immense amount of rigorous practicing the boys had their first match versus Alliance, which unfortunately they lost. "With a lot of hard work this season we were only able to beat one team twice. We weren't very good but I still had a blast playing with these joes," said co-captain Lucas Madison.

JOURNEY

Girls' tennis was faced with many struggles this season. To start off the season, the girls got a new coach, Joe Ronghi. Some girls were nervous about coach Ronghi because they did not know him or the way he coached. After winning their first match, the girls had high hopes for the rest of the season. Their final NBC record was 5-8, which disappointed few. Senior Becca Linam said, "We were surrounded by happiness and fun loving people that always had snacks. No one ever cared if you played badly or well as long as you were having fun! Also, having a new coach was an experience for our team. The sport was individual but we were a really close team. Tennis is a mental game which calls for many ups and downs, but at the end of the day all was well!"

Junior Ashtyn Morris said, "This season was the best season yet! We all improved as a team and flourished under our new coach. We had our first ever NBC win against Marlinton which was so exciting. One of my favorite memories was placing third at the Louisville doubles tournament with Becca. Tennis makes you an over all better person; you become mentally and physically stronger from it."

The Salem Quaker Boy's Track Team finished the season with a record of 6-1 in the league.

They also took 1st place at the F.E. Cope Invitational, 1st place at the Bulldog Invitational, 1st place at county, and they also clenched 1st place at the NBC league meet. Under returning Head Coach Robert Motz, whether it meant jumping higher, throwing farther, or running faster, the ultimate goal of the season was simple - dominate. Their journey was record breaking. The team had been chasing records all season long and they did not stop until they set new ones. As a team, they broke the record for most points scored in a county championship with 198.

The 4x4 relay team, ranked in the top 5 in the state of Ohio, broke the Bulldog Invitational record, the county record, and also the NBC league record. Quinlan Rumsey said, "Being with these guys and breaking the records we have broken has brought us all closer together. We are part of something everlasting now. We all depend on one another every time we are out there. Pushing one another past our potentials every week is what we do. I just hope it continues throughout the next couple of weeks as we make our run for state." Even as the season came to an end, they continued to pursue the ultimate goal of any Ohio track athlete: state. They did not stop tracking that goal all season.

LIFE IN THE FAST LANE

"The pain of the process is only temporary, but the feeling of victory lasts forever. Although we were a young group of girls we made some amazing accomplishments and I'll never forget the memories that were made. Can't wait to get one more year with this amazing group of girls. Mind over matter.. never sacrifice the gift."

- Junior, Elizabeth Aukerman

With the loss of many key scoring seniors last year, the new season began with only three senior leaders. This meant that underclassmen needed to step up and fill their shoes. Coach Cochran focused on helping the girls to realize the leadership potential they had within. The season began with a sixth place finish in the F.E. Cope Invitational. Although this was not as good as the year before, the girls were proud of their personal accomplishments. At the county meet, an important meet for the team every year, the team proved many wrong and finished as runner up. Nineteen scored in events and many PRs were met or broken. The young Quakers had one individual county champion:

Elizabeth Aukerman in the 300 hurdles for the second year in a row. This season the team had five key standouts at the NBC meet. Taking a 2nd place finish and receiving 2nd Team NBC was Helene Shontz in shot, Lydia McKee in high jump and Caitlyn Marx in discus. Taking 3rd place and receiving Honorable Mention in the NBC was Elizabeth Aukerman in the 300 hurdles and Mary Double in long jump. The season ended with a 1-6 record for the Lady Quakers and a 5th place finish at the NBC meet.

This record did not display the personal achievement that was accomplished throughout the season. Five events advanced to regional preliminaries at the district meet. At the regional meet, freshman, Caitlyn Marx took sixth in the discus with a 117ft. 5in. throw. The season went by very quickly and was rewarding to all.

Concert Season>>

It's a whole new world when concert season comes around! For Christmas, the band played three joy-filled songs, including a medley from "The Nightmare Before Christmas." The jazz band did "Frosty the Snowman" with the newly formed Junior High Jazz Band. A medley from "Les Miserables" and "Big Band Classics," a collection of famous big band styled tunes were hits at the Spaghetti Dinner in March. Jazz band performed "Happy Together," a 1967 sunshine pop favorite by The Turtles. The May Concert contained very challenging pieces for the band, such as "The Liberty Bell," a John Phillip Sousa march.

THE CHRISTMAS CONCERT is a celebration of the holiday that brings the world together. The Freshman/Sophomore Choir performed four songs, including an a capella rendition of "Carol of the Bells" and choreographed a dance to the song, "Fruitcake." The Concert Choir did more traditional songs such as "Baby, It's Cold Outside" and "Holy Night, Silent Night." All of the students joined together at the end for the "Hallelujah Chorus." THE FEBRUARY CONCERT usually has a more somber tone. This patriotic concert featured Encore singing "Battle Hymn of the Republic," the Concert Choir singing along to our national march "Stars and Stripes Forever" and a special powerpoint dedicated to some of the most prominent people that helped shape our country during "The American Dream." The Freshman/Sophomore Choir sang more upbeat songs such as "Let the River Run" which featured a percussion ensemble, and "This Way America."

The Seniors

"I'd walk my life away, in the streets of downtown Washington D.C." -Scapegoat. Together, the choir traveled 306 miles to our nation's capital. They enjoyed a dinner/dance cruise on the Potomac River, a trip to the Washington Zoo and even saw Dorothy's slippers in the Smithsonian. In front of the Lincoln Monument, the concert choir sang "Stars and Stripes Forever." Encore sang "Flander's Field" and the National Anthem. "I think it was a good group experience; seeing all of the monuments was more beautiful in person than you'd ever expect." Senior Dort Miller.

"Encore"

"It's Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious!" -Mary Poppins

"Encore" is the name of Salem's spectacular show choir. They are a group of fun-loving individuals that come together to make amazing shows year after year. They present performances all around town throughout the school year, in places such as elementary schools and nursing homes.

Chorister of the Year

Here is a student who truly stands out. Jacob Nash was chosen as Chorister of the Year 2016 for being who he is: a performer, a singer, and an overall exceptional choir member. Jacob Nash has been a part of the County Honors Choir, the All-Ohio State Fair Youth Choir and has been in too many community theater productions to count. Jacob was also Mr. Warbucks in "Annie," Gomez in "Addams Family" and the Beast in "Beauty and the Beast."

Dana Tonkinson said, "It was an interesting experience and I enjoyed playing such an extravagant and eccentric character that challenged me."

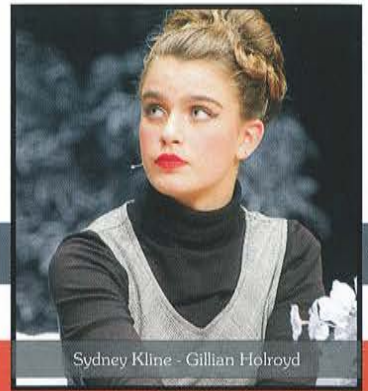

Tyler Roth said, "The show started off stressful knowing we only had a month to practice and even though we had a last minute role switch only four days before the show opened, we all worked hard and did our best and made a show that I will never forget."

The fall play "Bell Book & Candle" was produced by Mr. Martinelli and directed by Mr. Viencek. The production crew included Anthony Cappa, Ally Ripley, Haleigh Mroczkowski and Andrew Tonkinson. The student director was Lily Secrest and the stage manager was Haleigh Mroczkowski. Two of the lead roles were switched four days before opening night, but they still managed to perfect their show. Mr. Martinelli said, "All the cast members worked well together and supported each other throughout the performance." He continued, "I enjoyed working with Mr. Viencek, as well as the cast and crew." The director, Mr. Robert Viencek, commented in the program: "The story is a spin on the classic of boy meets girl, boy loses girl. This story took a different spin, however. What if you set a story about witchcraft in modern times? This year's cast has been wonderful. The set is evocative of Manhattan, and we are again approaching the magical holiday season. We hope you enjoy this enchanting play."

SALEM BROADWAY

The transformation from beast to man begins.

This tale as old as time dates back to 1756 when the French novelist, Jeanne-Marie Leprince de Beaumont, wrote "Belle et la Bête." The title "Beauty and the Beast" came from the Disney musical adaptation of the Disney Studio's animated 1991 Best Picture Oscar nominee, "Beauty and the Beast." The Salem High School version of the play stuck very close to the Broadway performance. A disdainful young prince (played by Dakota Sommers) and his castle's servants fall under a cursed spell after he denies a rose from an enchantress (played by Tiera Moore). The enchantress turns him into a horrible beast (played by Jacob Nash) and the spell can not be broken until he learns to love and be loved in return. The beautiful, free spirit village girl, Belle (played by Bethany Kholos), enters the spell-stricken castle to save her imprisoned father (played by Joshua Tungate) from the Beast's dungeon. With the assistance of the servants, including the motherly Mrs. Potts (played by Sarai Bodine), the uptight Cogsworth (played by Max Skidmore), the lively Lumiere (played by John Scheets), the flirty Babette (played by Sidney Dailey), and the talented Madam de la Grande Bush (played by Grace Shockey), Belle begins to make the cold hearted Beast warm his soul. As the Beast falls in love with Belle, she too falls in love with him. The play comes to a close when Belle tells the Beast she loves him and we watch the wonderfully vibrant transformation of the Beast changing from Beast into man. The actors were captivating and the play was a wonderful time for everyone.

Salem High School was the place to be on the night of fall homecoming. The preceding day, Amanda Valiente was crowned queen (see photo right) during halftime of the football game in which the Quakers shut out Minerva for the win. Students in grades nine through twelve gathered, looking flawless head-to-toe, to dance all around the cafeteria from 8pm to 11pm. Several times during the night, a conga line was formed by girls and boys who shuffled, "dougied" and "quan'd" their way through groups of more close-knit dancers, adding members along the way. The night was one to remember!

A Journey down the Red Carpet

Winter Homecoming

Winter Homecoming was a dazzling success. After the boys home basketball game against Marlinton, everyone waltzed on over to the cafeteria to attend the dance. Everyone was dressed up and ready to dance the night away. The dance was put on with the help of NHS students and the theme was "A Night on the Red Carpet." Everyone had the opportunity to show off his and her stunning attire while strolling down the red carpet. As the night went on, more and more students gathered up the courage to show off their moves on the dance floor. The upbeat music put everyone in a great mood and made the night a smashing hit. Kylie Quinn said, "The best part of the night was when the song "Lean and Dab" came on. We all made a circle and watched each person show his and her best dab." Sadie Alesi also mentioned, "Being with my girls and watching my girl Linzy Haueter on court was awesome. Winter Homecoming was my last and favorite homecoming."

The Great Gatsby

Kenzie and Maggie participate in the dance off. Kenzie is dressed as Myrtle and Maggie is dressed as Nick.

After reading "The Great Gatsby," Miss Skiba's advanced junior classes recreated a Gatsby party. Activities included learning the Charleston, playing pin the car on Myrtle, listening to jazz music and eating 1920s inspired food. Students had the option of dressing like their favorite character from the book as well.

Amanda Woods dressed as Daisy.

Noah Ivan, Janna Berger, and Grace Shockey entertain the crowd during the fall pep rally.

Clara Janofa and Teaira Coleman

During an anatomy lesson, Anthony Anzevino plays with a human spine.

Ayla Mroczkowski, Maggie Cull and Bethany Kholos pose for a picture in their Encore dresses before the Patriotic performance.

Ben Heestand, Brandon Hippely, Olivia Dotson and Zach Cusick present their mechanical drawing project.

SHS is full of talented young artists. The school offered ten art classes including: Introduction to Art, Art I, Art II, Art III, Digital Photography, Advance Digital Photography, Multi Media I and II, AP 2D Portfolio, and AP Portfolio. Students had the opportunity to enter their work in various contests throughout the year.

Alanis Whitten focuses intently on her art work.

Ashley Foster

Yearbook was an entertaining class to be in, but it is very tedious work. Being in yearbook made me realize to never-ever be a journalist because I am a horrible speller. Mrs. Parks has really taught me a lot in the three years I have had her as a teacher. Emma, you have a McDonalds cup on your car and I did not put it there. I will miss this class, and I am glad all of us survived our fights over pages and design layouts. I wish the best to Mrs. Parks, my co-editors and staff in their futures. I hope it is brighter than the blinding camera flash of the new-new camera. xx

P.S. Big shout out to the parents of the Year Book students for purchasing us a brand new camera with lots of other gadgets.

Maddy Harter

Being in yearbook has taught me many valuable skills. I hope the staff takes advantage of all the knowledge they have learned and use it to produce an amazing book next year. I would like to personally thank the staff for working hard and cooperating... even when you could cut the tension in the room with a knife. You guys will be an awesome set of members next year and I wish you the best of luck during your senior year.

Lingzy Hauster

Yearbook was certainly not what I thought it was going to be! I'd call it a struggle, but that would be an understatement. Although there were many occasions over the past two years where I felt the need to leave the room, yearbook has given me great opportunities. Working toward a goal in a business-like environment is something you won't get out of any other class. I'd like to thank the editors for being more focused than me. I'd like to thank the staff for existing and congratulations for surviving! It has been such an honor to create this book while working as an editor. I'll definitely miss chillin' in the lab every fifth period. XOXO times 1111.

Paige Johnson

Congratulations guys, we did it! I'd like to thank the staff for trusting and putting up with us editors this year. I know how difficult we could be, and I appreciate your patience. Best of luck with next years book! To my fellow editors, I'd like to thank you from the bottom of my heart for helping make these past few years so incredible. I have loved every minute of working with you goons and will cherish the laughs and memories we made together always. God Bless.

Rylee Leider

I am so grateful that I had the opportunity to serve as an editor for the yearbook. Some very interesting and exciting things happened throughout the year to keep me going. Being a part of the yearbook staff for these past two years will be something I will always remember. I want to wish next years staff and editors the best of luck. Don't forget to SAVE SAVE SAVE!

Katie Madison

Being a part of yearbook has been such a rewarding experience and to be your editor was a great honor. First, I would like to thank Mrs. Parks. She has given so much of her time and effort to make sure that we were able to publish a successful book... and that we did. I would also like to thank my co-editors and recognize them for all of the hard work and dedication they have shown over the past two years that we have worked together. We did it guys! I am truly so proud of each and every one of you. I have learned so much and I will cherish all of the memories we have made together. I am so thankful to have been in yearbook and I wish the best for everyone's futures.

Jarrod Polen

Working on the yearbook was one of my favorite experiences throughout high school. It is hard to think of what yearbook would be without our adviser, Mrs. Parks. From chasing down kids for photos, to selling advertisements, she always kept us busy. It was an honor to work with her, the staff and my fellow editors and I will miss them all greatly.

Hannah Shaffer

Being in yearbook this year has taught me so much. I'm honored to have had the privilege to be an editor. Not only has it taught me how to work in a business environment and has helped to prepare me for future jobs, it has taught me many life lessons along the way. I would like to thank Mrs. Parks for dedicating so much time to the class to make sure we were able to complete and publish this book. Thank you to my fellow editors, I am truly grateful for all of the memories and laughs. To the staff, good luck in all of your endeavors next year (every single one of you will need it). I will sincerely miss all of you editors; yearbook really does force you to make new bonds.

Brittany Zamarelli

Yearbook has definitely been a privilege for me to be a part of the last two years of my high school career. I'd like to thank the staff for being so helpful and creative in the production of our book. I'd also like to sincerely thank Mrs. Parks for being so awesome... even when we made her go crazy at least once every class period. I appreciate the times and memories that I was able to make in this class and I will forever cherish the moments we all had. I will definitely miss my co-editors. We all made special bonds that will never be broken. I'd like to wish good luck to the upcoming editors and staff members for next year's book. Make the best of it because it sure does go by fast!

Then and Now

Jarrod,

It seems impossible that you are a senior preparing to begin your college career. The time between your first day of preschool and your senior year has passed by too quickly. Although we are very sad at the thought of you leaving for college, we are very excited to see you take this next step in your life. We cherished all of the activities and experiences we have shared with you as you grew. We are so proud of all that you have accomplished and of the wonderful young man that you have become. Your kind heart, outgoing personality and personal drive will take you far in life. Remember to dream big dreams, reach for challenging goals and enjoy the ride.

*We love you,
Mom, Dad and Cassidy*

Ashley,

From a very early age we knew you were loving and caring person. Do not ever change this. Always reach for the stars.

*Love,
Mom, Dad
and Lindsey*

Dear Ross,

We have enjoyed the past 18 years, and are so proud of the fine young man you've become. We hold close to our hearts so many memorable moments and accomplishments that you've attained in a short duration. Now it's time for you to move onward and pursue and fulfill your goals.

Remember to always:

Keep your determination...

Remember who you are.

Your future will be filled with so many exciting times ahead. Enjoy the Journey!

*Love,
Mom, Dad and Jimmy*

Matthew, our wonderful son!

From the moment you were born, you were a treasure, sharing much love, happiness and excitement. We are very proud of your accomplishments. Your kind deeds, dedication, determination and hard work have made you the special young man you have become.

Continue on to the next phase of your life, remembering precious, exciting experiences and all that you have learned over the years. With your faith, caring and talents you can touch the lives of many. Follow your dreams and fulfill your goals. We love and support you forever.

*Love you,
Mom, Dad, and Luke*

Senior Confessions

"I drove the getaway car on October 30th, 2015."

"There are some days where I would really like to bang my head against the wall."

"I made out with someone's brother for revenge sophomore year."

"I don't run my mileage on the weekends for track."

"I secretly hated 90% of you... Especially you."

"I used to skip lunch and hangout in the auditorium freshman year."

"That's really not water in my dunkin cup"

"I only played softball my junior year for a gym credit.."

"I fell asleep in class and drooled all over my purse."

"I've had nightmares where the football team is in my room watching me sleep."

"I regret judging people because I categorized them for their actions and not their character."

"One time, I drove over a curb and through a park after leaving a football game."

"We beat SPD at cornhole at the senior camp out."

"I catfished the entire school."

"I skipped spanish class at least once a week sophomore year."

"I was not able to pick who my father was, but at least I picked who my daddy is."

"I used to eat dog food when I was little."

"I fell down the stairs at home one day on purpose just so I wouldn't have to go to school."

"I spent the night at the school once and slept on the couch back stage."

"I broke the loading dock door once."
